New Castle, Jan. 10, 1841.—"Elder Swett—Sir, your Cough Drops have fully cured the distressing cough, which has so long afflicted me, and judging from its effect on others of my acquaintance, as well as on myself, I feel confident that it is the best, medicine now known for coughs and other lung complaints." WESLEY BURNHAM.
Exeter, Feb. 12, 1858.—"I have been recently cured of a very hard and dangerous cough, in the space of four days, by taking Dr. Swett's Cough Drops."
J. BATCHELDER.
Newton, N.H., May 7, 1841.—"I am confident that no family would be willing to be without an assortment of Dr. Swett's medicines, if they knew their value as well as I do. Within the last year I have sold $200 worth of his medicines; and I have known them to remove many diseases that have resisted the power of all other medicines. I have been cured of a bad cough in four days by his Drops, and I am confident that they have saved the lives of several children in this vicinity. I have known many, who were sick, to recover by using some of his physical medicines, and then using his Pannacea."
DAVID CAMPBELL.
Exeter, May 19, 1841.—"I hereby certify that this Spring my daughter had a severe fit of sickness, and was attended by an eminent physician, who pronounced it lung fever. She grew worse under her bowels swelled, and she was so pressed at the lungs that she groaned at every breath; and those who saw her thought that without some speedy remedy, she could live but a few days. At this stage of the disease, we obtained some of Dr. Swett's Cough Drops, and commenced giving a teaspoonful every half hour, and dispensed with giving her any other medicine. It relieved the cough and distress of the lungs, and by using two phials she has been entirely cured."
DAVID LANG.
Lawrence, July 27, 1854.—"I hereby testify that the Cough Drops prepared by Dr. Simeon Swett have given me very great relief from the whooping cough of late, and I would advise all who have a visit from that distressing complaint, to use them freely."
MARY N. RICKER.
I know of the above testimony of my wife with regard to the salutary effects of Dr. Swett's Cough Drops, to be correct.
CHARLES C. RICKER.
Canaan, Dec. 11, 1841.—"I have been troubled with Phthisic for a number of years, and have found more relief by using Dr. Swett's Cough Drops, than from all other medicines put together, though I have tried many."
FANNY MIXER.
"I have been cured of a severe cough by using Dr. Swett's Cough Drops. I therefore would sincerely recommend them to all who are afflicted with lung complaints, as I believe them the best medicine in my knowledge."
ELIZABETH CURRIER.
Canaan, Aug. 29, 1857.—"This certifies that we have found greater relief from Dr. S. Swett's Pills and Cough Drops, in very bad cases of phthisic in our family, than all other medicines put together."
THEOPHILUS CURRIER,
SALLY CURRIER.
Exeter, July 30 1841.—"I have found Dr. Swett's Cough Drops to be the most effectual remedy for Coughs, and for any other complaints of the lungs, with which I am acquainted."
NANCY F. JONES.
Exeter, Jan. 10, 1851.—"As a debt due to the suffering, I would say that last winter I was confined by a severe cough and spitting of blood, which much alarmed my friends, and that I found a full and speedy cure by the use of only two or three bottles of Cough Drops and one bottle of Col. Moses Jewett's Cough and Consumption Liniment, prepared by Dr. Simeon Swett, of this town.
I have also experienced a remarkably quick cure of a severe attack of the rheumatism of lately by the application of one bottle of Jewett's Stimulating Liniment, prepared by Dr. Swett."

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 28, 1861.

THE PRESIDENTIAL FLIGHTS.—The Portland Argus says:—

Upon what hypothesis, military or otherwise, Mr. Lincoln could consent to avoid danger by flight, and yet allow his wife and children to incur the risks that filled him with terror, we know not. It is usual among the brave, we believe, in cases of danger, to send the women and children off out of harm's way by special train, and for the men to remain and receive the threatened attack. Mr. Lincoln and suite reversed this rule, it would seem. They fled and left the women and children to the enemy.

He followed in the footsteps of his illustrious predecessors, says Uncle Toby,—Messrs. Madison, Monroe and others, very wisely saved their official persons by flight; while Mrs. Madison said in the city of Washington, and saved some pictures from the president's house, while the British soldiers were on hand to burn it down, as they did.

OBTAINING GOODS BY FALSE PRETENCES IN NEW YORK UNDER A NEW DODGE.—Last week a New York firm made inquiry by telegraph at the Manufacturers and Traders Bank, Portland, as to the responsibility of Mr. Bryce M. Edwards, of Saccarappa; stating that he wished to obtain credit for about $800, and referred to that Bank. The Cashier answered that Mr. Edwards was perfectly reliable. Having some suspicion, however, as to his wish to obtain credit in that manner, he cautioned the parties to beware of imposition, and gave a brief description of Mr. Edwards, his age, &c. It turns out the pretended Bryce is a 'genteel chap of about 25 years,' who would have succeeded in his swindle but for the telegraphic caution.

An inquiry came on last Monday, from another firm as to the standing of Samuel Hanson, of Buxton, for $2,000. A similar answer was returned. It was soon ascertained that Mr. Hanson had been in Portland all day, and had made no proposals to purchase in New York. This information was immediately forwarded, and the arrest of the impostor recommended.—Advertiser.

☞ Governor Brown of Georgia is determined to ruin the commerce of the principal seaports of his State. Instead of seeking the legal remedy which exists, for what may possibly be considered an unauthorized detention of arms in New York, he has again made outrageous reprisals, and seized several vessels in the harbor of Savannah which are owned in New York.—This blind, blundering retaliation does not incommode those whose acts he resents; it falls heavily upon inoffensive parties, but its chief feature is that it will quite ruin the trade of Savannah.

THE EIGHT MILLION LOAN.—The award for the new loan is from 90.15 to 96, averaging a little over 90 3 8, and not including quite all the offers at 90.15, so that bidders who bid 90 will not obtain any of the loan. There is reported to be a great demand for this loan in Wall street. Sales have been made at 93 and 93 1 2 per cent, and the principal holders are now asking 94 a 95 per cent. Whatever partisan politicians and presses may say, this fact shows that capitalists do not believe the Republicans will ruin the country. Indeed, it shows that there has been a great increase of confidence as the time for the new Administration to assume the reins of government has approached.—Boston Journal.

☞ No less an authority than Gen. Morris, of the N. Y. Home Journal, says "The Star Spangled Banner" is adapted to an old English melody—"Anacreon in Heaven"—and is not a national air, as many suppose, except by adoption. The words commemorate an event in the war of 1812, and are not applicable to the present condition of our country.

☞ The House bill, authorizing the Postmaster General to suspend the postal service in the seceding States, passed the Senate, Tuesday, by a vote of thirty-four yeas to twelve nays. The bill now goes to the President for his signature. It is rumored that a veto may be expected.

☞ A little son of Mr. Charles Kendall of Franconia, N. H., fell into a well head foremost on the 19th inst., and was found soon afterwards, drowned. The well was iced over, with an aperture barely sufficient to admit a pail.

☞ The Hon. David Hubbard of Lawrence, Ala., said in a speech in the Alabama Legislature, advocating the enactment of a stay law: "The means of my people are exhausted."

☞ The dry house and peg factory of Ladd, Gordon & Co., at Holderness, N. H., caught fire on Wednesday of last week, but the citizens buried the building in snow, and saved it.

☞ The Austin (Texas) State Gazette warns every opponent of slavery, whether "secret or avowed," against being "so rash as to continue his residence in Texas."

☞ A State census of Missouri, taken two months after that of the general government, made the population about 53,000 less.

☞ The amount of Northern manufactures sold to the South in 1859 is estimated at $240,000,000.

WASHINGTON NEWS.

In the House, Tuesday, Feb. 26, on motion of Mr. Corwin, the Volunteer Bill, so called, was postponed to Thursday, by a vote of 100 to 74. This is considered a defeat of the bill, and shows that one kind of coercion will not be resorted to. The bill, however, has passed the Senate, which authorizes the Postmaster General to stop postal services in States where the mails are obstructed. This measure will have the effect of checking up the secessionists suddenly, and of notifying them that unless the laws are complied with, their communication would be cut off. It is more efficient than any other remedy.

The Senate portion of the committee of conference on the tea and coffee amendment to the tariff bill have agreed to recede, and will recommend concurrent action with the House, which will probably result in passing the whole bill.

Messrs. Trumbull on the part of the Senate, and Washburn of Illinois and Burlingame on the part of the House, waited on Mr. Lincoln and Mr. Hamlin, Wednesday evening, and furnished them with certificates from Vice President Breckinridge and Speaker Pennington, of their election. They were formally accepted.

The first proposition voted on in the House on Wednesday, was that of Messrs. Burch of California and Stout of Oregon recommending a National Convention.

The Peace Conference in voting down Mr. Franklin's substitute, is in the same position it was a week ago. Some of the southern commissioners are much discouraged, but are comforted by the assurance of those from other sections, that they will endeavor to reconcile conflicting views on the slavery question to-morrow.

To guard against the possibility of the intrusion of improper persons at the inauguration, the Capitol police will admit no strangers, except ladies, to the building on Monday, and no gentlemen except those having cards of admission from Senator Foot, Chairman of the Committee on Preparations.

The lawless and insulting demonstration made on the arrival of the train at Baltimore, by which Mr. Lincoln was expected, is regarded here as a sufficient justification of the course taken by his friends in bringing him to Washington unknown to the rowdies and rioters of that city.

Dispatches reached the War Department this (Tuesday) morning, announcing that Gen. Twiggs had dismissed and disbanded his whole force in Texas, consisting of nearly 2500 men, and left them unprovided with means of transportation. Several officers had started for home with nothing but their side arms.

It is not probable that any new U. S. Army will be sent out there, at present.—Texas has always been a bill of cost.

FINE HORSES.—Among other good things, Mr. Rarey has exhibited Mr. Seward's Arabian Stallions, Flora Temple, and some Shetland Ponies of his own, in New York.

Flora, the Queen of the turf, the American favorite, never looked more beautiful, and was most enthusiastically received. If she had been the private property of each man present, he could not have been more proud of her. Mr. Rarey did not degrade Flora by attempting to experiment upon her, but much to the delight of the audience, allowed her to stand quietly by him, while he remarked that in trotting, America holds the belt; and next to America comes Russia. He has seen some very good trotting upon the frozen Neva, during his visit to Russia; but the Russians were satisfied with a mile in three minutes; Flora had recorded 2:19 3-4. (Applause.) The French Emperor drives only American trotters, and rides only English thoroughbreds. In England, they know comparatively nothing of trotters. No animal he had ever seen had such an eye as Flora. (Applause.) The eye was a great indicator of speed and endurance, and he need not say how much of both, this great favorite had.

The Shetland ponies were then led and carried into the ring. Mr. Rarey said that three of the Shetland families (so poor were they all) had owned shares in one of his ponies. This seemed hardly credible, if he referred to the smallest pony, which the negro attendant took in his arms and carried off the stage! He only weighs 77 pounds!

GEN. JACKSON URGED THE YOUNG TO STAND BY THE EAGLE.—When President Jackson visited Concord, N. H., in 1833, he saw the legislature then in session, and was introduced to the multitude. Two fine boys were presented to him, each about seven years old, named Isaac Andrew Hill, (son of Gov. Hill,) and Andrew Jackson Symonds. The old hero took each of them kindly by the hand, and drew from his purse two half-dollars, saying: "My sons, I am glad to see you, and I make you the same legacy that I make to all my children. Here (presenting each with a coin,) is the Eagle of your country, which during my life I have endeavored to honor and defend. Keep it in remembrance of me; and if it should ever be assailed by a foreign or domestic foe, rally under its pinions, and defend it to the last."

John Mitchell, in Paris, has heard that the Southern States will take some youngster of a royal line to make a king of him, and writes—"Don't you do it; if you do you will often wish you were back again under the regime of what Mr. Stephens calls the 'corner groceries.'"

A NEW HAMPSHIRE MAN HUNG.

Correspondence of N. Y. Tribune.

ABBEVILLE, Ala., Feb. 13.

The following slip appeared in the Eufaula (Ala.) Express:

"A SUSPICIOUS INDIVIDUAL.—The worthy captain of the Home Guards arrested a man last Tuesday, upon complaint made by one or two of our citizens. The charge was the use of improper language in regard to the acts and position of the Southern people at this time. Some of the expressions used by this travelling Yankee were, that Bob Toombs is a traitor, that the secessionists are thieves and robbers, and that he fully endorsed everything contained in the Knoxville Whig in regard to coercion, &c. After the examination, which brought out the foregoing facts, the committee of five members of the Home Guards, appointed to investigate this matter, announced that as the individual under arrest was only guilty of using improper language, they would set him at liberty, with a request to settle his business and leave as soon as possible. The man's name is M. A. Smith. He is travelling agent for Scovil & Mead, druggists, of New Orleans. He will bear watching. Pass him round."

Mr. Smith is the travelling agent of Scovil & Mead of New Orleans, but a New Hampshire man by birth. Mr. Smith arrived in Abbeville on Saturday last. He was identified, and did not deny his opinions. He was then taken about half a mile from town, and there and then deliberately hung. Now, I am a secessionist myself;—but I utterly object to any such proceedings; but I am afraid to say so in this place. Mr. Smith's horse and boggy are still here. He also had $356 in money, which is now in the hands of the Vigilance Committee.—What they will do with it, remains to be seen. Some of them have suggested that it should be spent for arms.

☞ A contribution was taken up a short time since at Plymouth Church, Brooklyn, for the benefit of the soldiers' wives and children from Fort Sumter, now at Governor's Island. On Sunday morning Rev. Henry Ward Beecher read to his congregation a letter from Major Anderson, giving thanks for the donation, but suggesting that the people could not be in want, as government had provided for them; and advising a return of the money.

Mr. Beecher remarked that Major Anderson was misinformed; for, although rations had been supplied for the women, there were more than twenty children for whom no preparation had been made, and that all were in want of clothing adapted to our severer climate. These facts were derived from Capt. Stringham, who is perfectly informed, and has charge of the money received for their benefit. About $700 has been collected and placed in Capt. Stringham's hands.

PARTISAN.—It is refreshing to hear those rabid fanatics, whose viperous tongues have lashed our country into commotion, charge Democrats with being in sympathy with secessionists because they oppose war and favor an adjustment of troubles acceptable to the true Union men of the slave States! The impudence of these fellows is refreshing, we say; for what is their record? They oppose all compromise; so do the secessionists. They say no compromise will satisfy the cotton States; so do the secessionists, and the day of reconciliation is past. They invoke war; so do the secessionists, and try to provoke it by the most lawless outrages. They fear an adjustment will be made, satisfactory to the border States, and try to prevent it; so do the secessionists. As Mr. Douglas says, they both labor for the same end—the disruption of the Union—and often act together, whether by concert or not.

Just let the adjustment be made which all Democrats and true Union men pray for and labor to effect, and the days of both Northern and Southern disunionists will speedily be numbered. Heaven hasten a patriotic consummation so devoutly to be wished.—Portland Argus.

VIRGINIA.—Richmond, Va., Feb. 26.—In the convention to-day Mr. Goode finished his speech, affirming that it is the duty of Virginia to go with the South.

Mr. Goggin offered a resolution that it is the duty of Virginia to invoke the co-operation of the border States, and to provide measures for the concurrent action hereafter; that Virginia is attached to the Union as it was, but as it is it does not protect her rights, and in the event of a failure to obtain relief it will be her duty to provide for the future relation she is to occupy as one of the southern States. Mr. Goggin made a long speech denying the constitutional right of secession, but said it was a revolutionary remedy for wrongs. He wanted consultation with the border States in order to form a confederacy and invite others to join them. He believed Virginia would be insecure in a southern confederacy. Adjourned.

☞ The Albany Evening Journal gives returns of the New York town meetings, showing that, in fourteen counties, 171 Republican and 68 Democratic Supervisors have been elected—a gain of four to the Republicans over last year.

☞ The Kennebec, Maine, Journal says the $30,000 loan advertised for by the State Treasurer, has been taken at an average of 6 3-5 per cent. The offers of forty-seven bidders amounted to $442,000.

The Crittenden compromise Republicans appear to be in the same predicament an Irish politician was in the old Irish House of Commons, who, in addressing the House, said: "Mr. Speaker, it is our duty to sacrifice all our liberties, in order to preserve the remainder."—Greenfield Gazette.

☞ Near St. Paul, Minn., on the 5th inst., six horses were frozen to death in one stable.

POLITICAL MATTERS IN NEW HAMPSHIRE.—The Traveller makes the following extracts from the letter of a correspondent at Concord, N. H.:—

The Republicans have opened the annual State political campaign in a handsome manner. The regular club holds meetings weekly. One was held Monday night and was addressed for an hour by Dr. Frank Fuller of Portsmouth, with his usual eloquence and clearness of argument. Some of his best points were greeted with loud applause, and some of his witty comparisons brought down the house with shouts of laughter. The meeting adjourned with three cheers for the speaker, till Tuesday evening next. This club is an efficient one; N. G. Ordway is President, and in Wide Awake times secured a discipline which will be retained while the Republicans of Concord have any battle to fight.

Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers!

This extraordinary preparation has been for many years the most certain and speedy remedy for Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, Influenza, and Diseases of the Chest and Lungs. To those suffering from obstinate and confirmed Coughs, they give the most immediate and perfect relief; and when great liability to take cold exists, and a troublesome Cough succeeds the slightest exposure, these Wafers produce the most marked results. They at once relieve the Cough and other symptoms, and entirely remove that morbid irritability and weakness of the Lungs which give rise to the complaint. The medical properties are combined in an agreeable form and are pleasant to the taste, so that any child will readily take them; and they are warranted to give relief in ten minutes after use in all cases.

Price 25 cents per box. Sold by W. R. PRESTON and all druggists. feb25 dawSm

WISTAR'S BALSAM WILD CHERRY.

In the whole history of medical discoveries, no REMEDY has performed so many or such remarkable cures of the Throat, Lungs and Chest,—of Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, or of Consumption itself, as this far-famed, long-tried and justly celebrated Balsam. So generally acknowledged is the supe for excellence of this remedy, that but few of the many who have tested its virtues by experience fail to keep it at hand, as a speedy and certain cure for sudden attacks of Cold—fully believing that its remedial powers are comprehensive enough to embrace every form of disease, from the slightest cold to the most dangerous symptom of pulmonary complaint.

George W. Millet, Esq.

Editor of the Norway Advertiser, gives his opinion of this great remedy substantially as follows:

NORWAY VILLAGE, Me., Aug 4, 1860.

MESSRS. S. W. FOWLE & CO.—Gentlemen:—For a remedy of such undoubted merit as Dr. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, I cheerfully give you my testimony, and trust that others may be induced thereby to give it a trial and be relieved. Several years since I first became acquainted with this Balsam at a time of distressing cough and cold, which took such firm hold of my lungs as to render me unfit for business, and its operation produced a speedy and permanent cure, after trying various other remedies in vain.

In our town this remedy is a great favorite with many, and it all who suffer will but give it a fair trial, I think they will find it to be of more service in pulmonary affections than any other remedy of this class before the public.

Yours respectfully, GEO. W. MILLET.

THE POEMS OF A YEAR.—One of the most dainty little volumes that we have seen for many a day, is "Pampinea and other Poems, by Thomas Bailey Aldrich," just published by Rudd & Carleton, New York. The introductory poem, which gives the title to the volume, and also "Pythagoras," which follows it, have previously been published in the Atlantic Monthly, and the statement of this fact alone is equivalent to a favorable criticism. There are others also, which have become familiar, found, as they often have been, in the corners of newspapers, sometimes with, and sometimes without, the owner's name; but that which has pleased us most, in a somewhat hurried survey of the volume, has been one, long since a favorite with us. This is "Kathie Morris, an Idyl," which, one might think, suggested to the poet the idea of writing an article which he contributed to the February number of the Knickerbocker. It is true it contains here and there what the critical might object to, as a "hard, rough line," yet the poem, as a whole, combines a fascinating simplicity with exquisite sweetness, and the most tender sentiment. "The Crescent and the Cross" differs essentially in character from many of Mr. Aldrich's previous productions; and it will be noticed that this volume is almost entirely free from that peculiar sentiment which has rendered some of his former poems objectionable to many persons who, while they had a high appreciation of his genius, feared it was tending in a wrong direction. Whatever blemishes there may be in this volume, they are certainly few, and are occasioned rather by what appears to be a want of care, than by a lack of good taste.

The volume may be obtained in this city, at Mr. Shores' bookstore, and, perhaps, we shall be pardoned if we whisper in the ear of each of our readers, that as one of our own poets, he deserves at least some slight acknowledgement at the hands of those among whom he passed his early years, and whose fame is in part ours.

FIRE IN EXETER.—About 2 o'clock on Wednesday morning, fire was discovered in the parlor of the house occupied by Robert Mann, Esq., on Spring st., Exeter. The fire department were promptly on hand, and the damage was confined to the interior of the house, which was badly burned throughout. Most of the furniture was saved. There was about $800 in-urance, we are informed, on the house and furniture.

NEW YORK, Feb. 26.—Washington special dispatches state that the resolution offered by Mr. Somes, of Maine, in the Peace Conference, to protect free speech and freedom of press in the Territories was rejected by a small majority.

It is understood that the administration intends to institute proceedings immediately in the Twiggs treason case.

Secretary Holt addressed a letter to the Governor of Louisiana, demanding the restoration of the government property in New Orleans, denouncing it as a flagrant and atrocious spoliation. Gov. Moore has returned the letter, endorsed—when addressed in the usual language of official intercourse he will consider the matter.

Major Anderson writes that no unusual preparations have recently been made against him, and some works are apparently abandoned.

Secretary Floyd recently boasted that so distributed was the army, no considerable force could be collected against the secessionists in less than two months.

☞ A schooner sailed from Boston, on Tuesday, for Hayti, with about fifty colored emigrants, who are to be settled under the direction of Mr. James Redpath. The government of that island offers great inducements to emigrants in the way of grants of land. Most of these fifty propose to go into the cotton cultivation. They have had experience, and the country is adapted to cotton; and is rising in importance. Hayti, as it is now, is the best, as it is the nearest, home for the colored emigrant from the United States; and many will go thither.

THE BEST WAY TO AID THE POOR.—The French mode of helping the poor, is to grant them facilities for helping themselves. Is the season a bad one, and are crops short, the government immediately takes measures to supply the deficiency. Exportation of corn is forbidden. Duties on wheat, rice, flour and other food are reduced. If worst comes to worst, the government orders bread sold at a given price, —less than cost—and the government pays the difference. If there comes a stagnation in business, and men are thrown out of employ, the government bestirs itself, seeks out some great public improvement that is needed—a canal—a public dock, or something that must be done at some time, and takes hold and does it then. Public works are there delayed purposely, in good times, so that they may be the means of employment in bad times. The hand of government is seen in a thousand ways, providing facilities for the poor and industrious, and particularly in the way of loans on personal and real estate to help along the poor artisan and mechanic. There are ten holders of real estate in France to one in England.

How different the English system.—There nothing whatever is done to facilitate the business of the poor man. He is left to help himself, if help himself he can.—Not one facility or support does the Government vouchsafe to him. It takes no notice of him whatever until he falls completely prostrate at its feet and begs for bread! And then it will do nothing to lift him up and set him to work. It simply feeds him while he continues down, and then only with water gruel. In France, under her system, there are but few paupers. In England, nearly one-fourth part of the population are, one time and another, quartered on Government charity.

It would be well for America if she would study these two systems, and the practical working of them, and be wise in time.—Boston Transcript.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—It is the general belief that the Southern Commissioners to the Peace Conference, whose votes defeated the Franklin proposition, did so as a stratagem, either to procure more Northern votes for it, or to obtain something nearer the Crittenden proposition.

If they succeed, what is passed in the Peace Congress will be taken to the House, where it may be passed as a substitute for Corwin's committee propositions. The Senate is doubtful.

Although the Peace Congress has failed to accomplish its specific purpose, it has had the effect of preserving peace, and thus promoting the chances for a harmonious settlement of our national difficulties.

Mr. Lincoln and the border States will doubtless adjust the difficulties—Bos. Jour.

☞ Rev. Mr. Swan's Society, Kennebunk, (Unitarian) contributed on Sunday last, $116 for the benefit of the Kansas sufferers.

More than one-half the diseases of the human system are caused by the use of impure Breadstuffs; and as Saleratus and Soda are the essential qualities for using, it becomes doubly necessary to be watchful. Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus is the only perfectly healthy article to be relied upon. Try one paper, and you will be convinced that what we say is true. THE FAMINE IN KANSAS.

Appeal for the Destitute, from the New York City Committee.

WM. C. BRYANT, Chairman. J. E. WILLIAMS, Treasurer.

Chas. H. Marshall, Seth B. Hunt, R. H. McCurdy, Morris Ketchum, G. C. Bronson, Chas. W. Elliott, Daniel Lord, Daniel Drew, J. S. Wadsworth.

It has become our imperative duty to urge upon the public attention the fact that over 40,000 of our fellow citizens in Kansas are now in imminent danger of starving. We have evidence from all sources—from Gen. Pomeroy, Chairman of the Territorial Relief Committee,—from the columns of nearly every newspaper, of all shades of politics—from our own reliable agent, who has just returned. There was no doubt of the misery, terrible, wide-spread, destructive.

We have evidence that whole families have already died of starvation; and that thousands more must lie down discouraged, and die of want or disease consequent upon it, unless prompt and thorough relief is at once applied. Congress is now attempting to sustain the starving Indians, but our 40,000 fellow countrymen—men, women and children—can neither get away from their desolation, nor borrow, nor beg. Their only dependence is upon us, who have never known hunger.

THEY MUST BE SUSTAINED. Will you help us to help them?

To assure you that whatever you do will reach them, we state that in every destitute township is a Relief Committee—these are all represented by the Territorial Committee, as follows:

TERRITORIAL COMMITTEE.

S. C. Pomeroy, Atchison; W. W Guthrie, Brown County; J. L. McDowell, Leavenworth; Rev. C. Reynolds, Lawrence; Rev. L. Bodwell, Topeka; Dr. S. Ayers, Linn County; F U Blake, Junction City; C. B. EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

S. C. Pomeroy, Chairman; J. L. McDowell, Rev. C. Reynolds, Rev. L. Bodwell, F. P. Baker.
S C. POMEROY, Corresponding Secretary.
G. H. FAIRCHILD, Treasurer.

Gen. Pomeroy is Chairman, and at ATCHISON devotes his whole time and energy, with assistants, to the receipt of food and clothing, all of which are delivered upon requisitions of Town Committees, and are distributed through them.—This organization is prompt, thorough and effective, and we advise the sending of supplies through it. Money and clothing are needed from us;—food can be got in the West.

The names of our committee appear at the head of this appeal, and we hope will be sufficient to induce co-operation. Our Treasurer is JOHN E. WILLIAMS, President of the Metropolitan Bank, New York City. All money sent to him will be applied to the payment of Gen. Pomeroy's drafts on account of freights and sacks. We appeal to you all, by every dictate of humanity, of honor, and of public good, to unite with us in alleviating this great calamity. There is no time to be lost.

FIRST—We ask individuals everywhere to contribute at once, and to urge it upon their friends and neighbors.

SECOND—We appeal to all churches and organized bodies to act promptly, generously and efficiently.

THIRD—We urge upon EVERY GOVERNOR OF EVERY STATE immediately to bring this matter to the attention of their Legislatures and people. Our last statistics show that nearly $200,000 is needed within the coming fortnight, to supply this people with seed for Spring planting. It can only be furnished by State action. Every consideration of interest also demands that this new State should be enabled to become self-sustaining, productive, and eventually rich—thus to fulfil her destiny, and to help others, as we are now helping her.

We ask, therefore, every Legislature to do as they would have others do to them in like distress, and at once to grant ample supplies.

All money sent to our Treasurer, JOHN E. WILLIAMS, Metropolitan Bank, New York City, will be gratefully acknowledged and effectively used.

All Clothing should be sent to "GEN. POMEROY, Atchison, Kansas," and freight should be prepaid. DaWlm

RHEUMATISM AND NEURALGIA.

GARDINER'S

RHEUMATIC AND NEURALGIA

COMPOUND,

Is a certain, safe and permanent cure for Rheumatism, Neuralgia and Salt Rheum. It is an internal remedy, driving out and entirely eradicating the disease, requiring no change in diet or business, and may be taken by children and persons of the most delicate constitutions with perfect safety.

TESTIMONIALS.

Having been a constant sufferer from Neuralgia for eighteen months, and been driven by excruciating pain to the trial of numberless remedies without obtaining relief, I was induced to try "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound." I have taken but one bottle, and am entirely well." D. D. BAXTER, Dry Goods Dealer, No. 5 Appleton Block, Lowell, Mass.

I have been afflicted with Salt Rheum in its worst form for a long time, and suffered more than can be imagined, except by those similarly afflicted. I tried one bottle of your Compound, and can honestly say that I believe myself entirely cured.—JOHN A. MORDO, Pearl St. House, Boston, Mass.

Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has entirely relieved me from suffering of several years' standing.—W. E. HODGKINS, No. 1 Old State House, Boston.

My son, ten years of age, has been for three years a great sufferer from Salt Rheum, his hands covered with sores, and in constant pain. One bottle of your Compound cured him.—J. W. HAMMOND, 99 Milk street, Boston.

I certify that my friend, Wm. T. Glidden, Esq., presented me with a bottle of "Gardiner's Rheumatic Compound," in 1858, when I was suffering, with a painful attack of Neuralgia and Rheumatism, and that it proved to be of decided benefit.—ALBERT SMITH, Ex-Member of Congress from Maine.

TESTIMONY OF JUDGE KITTREDGE OF VERMONT.—Charles F. Gardiner, Esq.,—Dear Sir,—I beg leave to add my testimony in favor of "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound."—After suffering twenty years with Rheumatism, more or less, and last year with a very severe attack, I took one bottle of your Compound, which afforded decided relief. I think it the best and most efficacious medicine for that disease I ever used.—WM. C. KITTREDGE, Fair Haven, Vt., Dec. 1st, 1860.

The Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has been taken by hundreds of persons for Scrofulous Humors with great benefit.

MOTHERS

CONSUMPTIVES.

An equal and normal circulation of the blood is health. An abnormal, that is to say, an excessive or deficient circulation of the blood, is disease. To illustrate—torpidity of the Liver is caused by stagnation of the blood in that organ; diseases of the Kidneys, Inflammation of the Lungs, Disease of the Heart, &c., by the same cause, viz., Improper Circulation; and from the same cause spring all the minor forms of disease. To discover a certain cure, then, for those diseases, the first great inquiry is, What causes the blood to circulate?

For centuries it has been a matter of much study among scientific and medical men; and while many experiments have been made and much labor expended upon the inquiry, it has been left to this century, among its other wonderful increase in knowledge, to make this grand discovery also.

Acknowledging that life is the gift of the Creator and that "in Him we live and move and have our being," we still observe the remarkable fact, as the planets move in their spheres, and all vegetable life is governed by certain absolute laws, so animal life is governed by fixed laws, which cause, move or destroy, and death, the certain effect, follows.

Atoms of the red corpuscles of the blood shows them to be compounds of iron, sulphur and phosphorous.

The air we breathe we know to contain a very large proportion of oxygen.

Oxygen, brought in contact with metal, evolves or emits electricity.

Electricity, brought in contact with a muscular fibre, causes it to contract.

These facts, undeniable and indisputable, we have now the solution as to the motor or motive power of the heart. The oxygen in the air we breathe, coming in contact with the iron in the red corpuscles of blood, emits electricity, which, when brought in contact with the heart, causes it to contract; and hence the power with which expels the blood, and sends it tingling through the extremities of the body. When then, are the causes of CONSUMPTION, DROPSY, PALSIES, PARALYSIS, ST. VITUS'S DANCE, DYSPEPSIA, EPILEPSY, FEVER & AGUE, &c.—a deficiency of the red corpuscles containing the iron, sulphur and phosphorous, which causes a deficiency of electricity, and consequently an abnormal circulation. The blood becomes watery, colds and bronchial complaints and prostration follows; the sufferer becomes nervous, subject to rheumatic pains and neuralgia—commencing with a cough, and ending in a fever, almost every type of disease but virulent fevers may be traced to this deficiency in the blood, or the causes the absence of red globules.

Old age causes a deficiency of corpuscles, and while we do not pretend to say that we have discovered the "elixir vitæ," we do say that life can be materially prolonged by the use of the which restores the red globules and the normal circulation. Consumptive, Dropsical and Palsied Sufferers from any organic disease. Unfortunates, who have by excess of the body or mind, reduced the standard of the blood and diminished the red globules! Ladies suffering any of the distresses known as female complaints, be persuaded that "Blood Food" will cure you. It has cured thousands of desperate cases where all hope had been given up. Do not reject it on spot because it comes in a yellow wrapper. "Blood Food" is an unfailing remedy; give it a trial.

An elaborate treatise, carrying out and fully proving the theory of disease and its cure, will be mailed to any interested party, on the receipt of two 3 cent postage stamps. Blood Food is sold by all druggists, at $1 per bottle, or six bottles, for $5, and will send 6 bottles, free of expense, for $4. Price, single bottle, $1. It is put up in 8 oz. vials, in yellow wrappers, with the old label, in small bottles, in red wrappers, having been done away with; and bears the fac-simile signature of Church & Dupont upon the face of the wrapper. Beware of counterfeits and imitations.

PROFESSOR WOOD'S

HAIR RESTORATIVE!

SEE WHAT OTHERS SAY OF IT.

A Distinguished St. Louis Physician Writes:

ST. LOUIS July 10, 1860

O. J. WOOD, Esq.—Dear Sir—Allow me the pleasure and satisfaction of transmitting to you the beneficial effects of your Hair Restorative, after a trial of 8 years. I commenced using your Restorative in January, 1855, since which time I have not been without a bottle on hand. When I commenced using it, my hair was thin, and at least one third gray. A few applications stopped its falling, and in three weeks there was not a hair to be found, neither has there been up to this time.

After my hair was completely restored, I continued to use it, applying once or three times a month. My hair has ever continued healthy, soft and glossy, and my scalp perfectly free from dandruff. I do not imagine the facts above mentioned will be of any particular advantage to you, or even flatter your vanity, at this late day, but I am well aware they are all well known already, and even more wonderful ones throughout the Union. I have occupied my time in travelling the greater part of the time the past three years, and have taken pleasure in recommending your Restorative, and exhibiting its effects in my own person. In several instances I have met with people who pronounced it a humbug; saying they had used it and without effect. In every instance, however, it proved, by probing the matter, that they had not used your article at all, but had used some new article, said to be as good, and selling at about half the price. I have noticed two or three articles myself advertised as above, which I have no doubt are humbugs. It is generally the case, that people will patronize an article of no reputation, when there is one at hand that has been proved beyond a doubt.

Apparently, some of these charlatans have not brains enough to write an advertisement, as I notice they have copied yours, word for word, in several instances, merely inserting some name in place of yours.

I have, within the past five years, seen and talked with more than two thousand persons that were using your Restorative for the purpose of some for baldness, gray hair, scald head, dandruff, and every disease the scalp and head are subject to.

I called to see you, personally, at your original place of business here, but learned you were now moving to New York.

You are at liberty to publish this, or to refer parties to me. Any communication addressed to me, at my place, No. 1226, will be promptly answered. Yours truly, JAMES WHITE, M. D.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—Unlike most specifics, this is proved, by unimpeachable evidence, to possess great efficacy as a restorer of the hair to its pristine vigor. Where the head has become almost bald because of sickness, the use of this article has produced a beautiful growth of thick, glossy hair. It is therefore a valuable preparation for all classes. Its ingredients are such as effectually cleanse the scalp and remove impurities which operate so injuriously to the hair. It also has curative powers of another description. In many cases pimples and other disfigurements of the skin disappear whenever it is used. There is no hazard attaching to the trial of this remedy, and if it does not only be beneficial, as the compound, if it does not cause a manifest improvement, is incapable of doing harm, as it contains no ingredients of a strictly innocuous.—Boston Transcript, April 22, 1859.

WARREN SPRINGS, Perry Co., Pa., June, 7, 50.

J. WOOD—Dear Sir—I was indeed more than a year ago to try your valuable Hair Restorative to clean my head of dandruff. I had suffered from it for many years, and had never seen it to get anything to do me any good until I saw your advertisement in a Harrisburgh paper. I bought a bottle, and as my hair now seems to recommend it to universal use, for it has completely removed all dandruff from my head, and an application of your Restorative, has been restored to its original color. I am now 50 years of age, and although I have used two bottles of the Restorative, to my knowledge of it, will allow a few gray hairs to remain, in order to have my appearance comport with my age. My head is now free from the use of the Restorative, and is more than at any time since I have been a child. I consider your preparation of great value, and, altho' I do not like to expose myself, I consider it my duty to say so. You can use this, or any part of it, in any shape you think proper, if it is worth anything to you. Yours, &c., H. H. ETTER.

ALL HAIR DYES ABANDONED—WOOD'S GREAT ARTICLE IN THE FIELD.—Prof. Wood stands on an eminence as chemist, whose attention has been turned to inventing a hair dye, such as never before reached. His fame is world-wide, and thousands who have worn wigs or been bald for years, are now, through the use of his preparation, wearing their own natural and luxuriant head covering. So much for chemistry. Prof. Wood called out the human hair, its properties, its diseases, and how to restore its decayed vitality; he saw, as in his own case, that gray hair is unnatural, unless the age of the individual had reached fourscore, and he believed that the hair could be re-vitalized. He tried his own case—almost bald, and wholly gray, at 37—he restored his own hair—and the article he did it with he gave to the world. Get WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE, and take nothing else.—N. Y. Day Book.

BININGER'S OLD KENTUCKY BOURBON "1849 RESERVE"

The established popularity of this CHOICE OLD BOURBON as a medicinal agent, renders it superfluous to mention in detail the characteristics which distinguish it from the ordinary grade of Kentucky Whiskeys.

Being distilled in 1849, and manufactured expressly for an invalid trade, it can be relied upon as a strictly pure stimulant, and peculiarly effective for the treatment of Lung Complaints, Dyspepsia, Derangement of the Stomach, Nervousness, &c.

As a curative agent it has a tendency to recreate and strengthen; while age having contributed its genial charm, and enriched it with a delicious flavor and an oily body, it affords a pleasant incentive to the preservation or recovery of health, through the agreeable medium of a well pleased palate.

Put up in a variety of attractive forms, in iron-bound cases of one and two dozen bottles each, and sold by all prominent druggists, grocers and town agents. A. M. BININGER & CO.,

DR. SWETT'S
COUGH DROPS
—FOR—
Phthisic, Colds, Asthma, Croup, Whooping and Chin Cough, and all diseases of the lungs.
☞ The proprietor and inventor of this valuable Medicine, being confident that his life has not only been protracted many years, but made comfortable, by a timely use of the innocent but effectual vegetable from which this mixture is extracted, therefore earnestly recommends it to all who are afflicted with any of the above named complaints.
Appended are some of the certificates and recommendations of these Drops. The first is from our respected brother, Elder Dennett, of Vt.:
Canaan, Sept. 4, 1848.—"Dear Br. Swett, I consider it a duty I owe to the public, as well as to yourself, briefly to state my opinion in regard to your excellent medicine. About six years ago I was taken sick with an affection of the lungs, or what my friends and I thought would terminate in consumption. Indeed I thought myself fast sinking under the pressure of this fatal disease, when I obtained some of your valuable Cough Drops, and after using two or three bottles, in the course of six or seven weeks, I found myself restored to usual health; and I have no reason to doubt but that your invaluable Cough Drops were the means of saving my life."
SAMUEL R. DENNETT.
New Castle, Jan. 10, 1841.—"Elder Swett:—Sir, your Cough Drops have fully cured the distressing cough, which has long afflicted me; and judging from its effect on others of my acquaintance, as well as on myself, I feel confident that it is the best medicine now known for coughs and other lung complaints." WESLEY BURNHAM.
Exeter, Feb. 12, 1858.—"I have been recently cured of a very hard and dangerous cough, in the space of four days, by taking Dr Swett's Cough Drops." J. BATCHELDER.
Newton, N.H., May 7, 1841.—"I am confident that no family would be willing to be without an assortment of Dr. Swett's medicines, if they knew their value as well as I do. Within the last year I have sold $200 worth of his medicines; and I have known them to remove many diseases that have resisted the power of all other medicines. I have been cured of a bad cough in four days by his Drops, and I am confident that they have saved the lives of several children in this vicinity. I have known many, who were sick, to recover by using some of his physical medicines, and then using his Panacea." DAVID CAMPBELL.
Exeter, May 19, 1844.—"I hereby certify that this Spring my daughter had a severe fit of sickness, and was attended by an eminent physician, who pronounced it lung fever. She grew worse until her bowels swelled, and she was so pressed at the lungs that she groaned at every breath; and those who saw her thought that without some speedy remedy she could live but a few days. At this stage of the disease, we obtained some of Dr Swett's Cough Drops, and commenced giving a teaspoonful every half hour, and discreased with giving her any other medicine. It relieved the cough and distress of the lungs, and by using two phials she has been entirely cured."
DAVID LANG.
Lawrence, July 27, 1854.—"I hereby testify that the Cough Drops prepared by Dr. Simeon Swett have given me very great relief from the whooping cough of late, and I would advise all who have a child from that distressing complaint, to use them freely." MARY N. RICKER.
I know the above testimony of my wife with regard to the salutary effects of Dr. Swett's Cough Drops, to be correct.
CHARLES C. RICKER.
Canaan, Dec. 11, 1841.—"I have been troubled with Phthisic for a number of years, and have found more relief by using Dr. Swett's Cough Drops, than from all other medicines put together, though I have tried many." FANNY MINER.
"I have been cured of a severe cough by using Dr. Swett's Cough Drops. I therefore would sincerely recommend them to all who are afflicted with lung complaints, as I believe them the best medicine in my knowledge."
ELIZABETH CURRIER.
Canaan, Aug. 29, 1859.—"This certifies that we have found greater relief from Dr. S. Swett's Pills and Cough Drops, in very bad cases of phthisic in our family, than all other medicines put together." THEOPHILUS CURRIER,
SALLY CURRIER.
Exeter, July 30, 1841.—"I have found Dr. Swett's Cough Drops to be the most effectual remedy for coughs, and for any other complaints of the lungs, with which I am acquainted."
NANCY F. JONES.
Exeter, Jan. 10, 1851.—"As a debt due to the suffering, I would say that last winter I was confined by a severe cough and spitting of blood, which much alarmed my friends, and that I found a full and speedy cure by the use of only two or three bottles of Cough Drops, and two of Col. Moses Swett's Cough and Consumption Liniment, prepared by Dr. Simeon Swett, of this town.
I have also experienced a remarkably quick cure of a severe attack of the Dysentery of late, by the application of one bottle of Jewett's Stimulating Liniment, prepared by Dr. Swett.

FRIDAY, MARCH 1, 1861.

QUITE A WALK.—During the Presidential Campaign, Mr. Edward Payson Weston made a wager to the effect that if Abraham Lincoln was elected by the people as President of the United States, he would agree to walk from Boston to Washington, 454 miles, inside of ten consecutive days, and be present at the Inauguration. He is now fulfilling his agreement, accompanied by two friends who ride in a carriage a short distance behind him. Most men might as well undertake to fly, as to walk 45 miles a day for a week or two; but it is thought Mr. Weston will not fall far short of it. He has been a book agent, and has travelled much on foot. He was to have arrived in New Haven at 8 o'clock Monday morning, but did not until about 2 o'clk., having been detained by snow storms. He was well and in good spirits, and determined to get through to Washington, if possible. The very fact of his being thus late shows that he is honestly walking, and does not ride a part of the way, as has been suggested. We understand that his expenses are paid by the Grover & Baker Sewing Machine Co., whose cards he distributes on his way.

The Hartford Times tells of a previous walk of his, from New Haven to Hartford, starting about half past five, on Friday, encumbered with a huge bundle of pamphlets, one of which he left at each house on the road. The walking was very bad on account of the snow and slush, but he arrived at Hartford (36 miles) at a quarter past 4 on Saturday morning. He stopped an hour and a quarter here, and starting again, reached New Haven at 5 o'clock, P. M., having travelled the whole distance, about 74 miles, in less than twenty-four hours! This is the most extraordinary walking we know of, considering the weather, state of roads, &c.

Mr. Weston arrived in New York on Wednesday afternoon, and expects to reach Washington on Sunday—which would be ahead of time. He had had but twenty hours sleep since leaving Boston.

TWIGGS.—A Washington item says:—

The Twiggs movement has greatly damaged secession among the border State men. The Cabinet give full credence to the accounts of the treachery of Twiggs, and his base surrender of the public property in Texas. His treason excites public indignation to an extent never before equalled in Washington.

And even the Boston Post says:—

We can discover no palliation for General Twiggs' conduct in surrendering the property of the United States to Texas. It appears to us a dishonorable betrayal of trust—a disregard of solemn duty—a desire not only to desert his post, but to rob those he had sworn to serve. He has been a brave and faithful officer—his fame was a portion of the glory of his country—but his last act has obscured the honor once so dazzlingly brilliant, and placed him among the fallen sons of a grieved nation.

THE TERRITORIES. — A Washington dispatch to the N. Y. World, of Feb. 26, says:—

The Senate to-day passed bills for organization of the Territories of Nevada and Dacotah, and also concurred in the House amendments to the Colorado territorial bill, thus putting these Territories in a fair way to get organized.

There is one proviso in all these territorial bills to this effect: That the Legislature of the Territories shall enact no law calculated to impair the vested rights of property of all kinds. This effectually kills the doctrine of popular sovereignty.

The London American states that an outrage has been committed upon two American travellers, Rev. Dr. Leyburn and Mr. Low, while on their way across the Desert of Engedi, in Palestine, by a party of Arabs, who robbed them of their watches, jewelry and clothes.

Worse outrages than these have been committed on two-and-twenty American travellers, while on their way across the deserting States to the south of us, by parties of loafers, robbers and thieves,—not to mention the traitors and thieves, Floyd, Twiggs & Co. who robbed and swindled by wholesale.

DEATH OF SISTERS.—A little over two weeks since, a young lady, member of the Bowdoin Square Baptist choir, Boston, died of diphtheria. Her sister, also a member of the choir, started with the body for the home of the parents in a rural town in Maine.—She had hardly reached home, when she also was attacked by the same disease and carried off, and the sisters were buried side by side in the same cemetery. Truly, in the midst of life we are in death.

A NEW REASON.—A young friend of ours, who has recently been Chronicled as again a "happy parent," tells us that one objection he has to the publishment of Births, is, that each one costs him from $3 to $5 for best XXX Ale for all his friends.

☞ It is stated that there are now about one thousand car loads of freight at Suspension Bridge waiting shipment east; and among the freight is a considerable amount of cotton.

CONGRESS, WEDNESDAY, Feb. 27.

The proceedings of Wednesday were quite important, embracing tariff, navy, and compromises.

In the Senate, several private bills were passed.

Mr. Powell moved to postpone the army bill, and consider the Crittenden resolutions. Lost—16 against 27.

The committee of conference on the patent bill made a report which was agreed to, and the bill passed.

The committee of conference on the tariff bill reported, recommending concurrence in the House amendment, striking out the duty on tea and coffee. Agreed to, and the bill passed.

The army bill was then taken up

Mr. Hale moved to amend that no officer in the army, except General Scott, shall receive over $5000 a year.

Mr. Powell moved to include Gen. Scott. Lost—9 against 31.

Mr. Hale's amendment was lost—16 against 28.

After further debate the bill passed.

The Vice President announced the reception of a communication from Ex-President Tyler, President of the convention that the President approves of what was enclosed, and asking Congress to submit the same to the Legislatures of the States.

The Clerk read the proposition agreed upon.

On motion of Mr. Crittenden it was ordered to be printed and referred to a select committee with instructions to report to-morrow.

YEAS—Anthony, Bayard, Bigler, Baker, Bragg, Bright, Clingman, Crittenden, Dixon, Douglas, Fitch, Foster, Gwin, Hunter, Johnson of Tennessee, Kennedy, Latham, Lane, Mason, Nicholson, Pearce, Pelk, Powell, Rice, Sebastian, Thompson.—26.

NAYS—Bingham, Chandler, Clark, Collamer, Doolittle, Durkee, Fessenden, Foot, Grover, Grimes, Hale, Harlan, King, Merrill, Seward, Simmons, Sumner, Ten Eyck, Trumbull, Wade, Wilson—21.

In the House, the consideration of the report of the Committee of Thirty-three was resumed.

The first joint resolution reported upon was the substitute of Messrs. Burch and Stout, recommending the States, through their Legislatures, to ask Congress to call a national convention for amending the constitution, which was rejected—74 against 109.

The first proposition of the committee was announced, with pending amendments.

Mr. Kilgore of Indiana moved to table it, together with the Crittenden and Kellogg amendments. Negatived—14 against 175.

Mr. Kellogg's substitute was rejected—33 against 158.

The Crittenden proposition as submitted by Mr. Clemens of Virginia was rejected—80 against 113.

The question recurred on the first resolution of the series reported from the committee.

Mr. Sherman of Ohio moved to table it. Disagreed to—66 against 124.

Mr. Branch of North Carolina ineffectually sought to strike out of the resolution the words "that it is the duty of the federal government to enforce the federal laws, protect property and preserve the Union of these States."

The resolution was adopted—136 against 53. The joint resolution was then taken up.

Mr. Corwin moved to amend it so as to read "no amendment shall be made to the constitution, authorizing or giving Congress power to abolish or interfere within any State with the domestic institutions including that of persons held to labor or servitude by the laws of said State."

The resolution as amended was rejected, 120 against 71, not two-thirds.

Mr. Kilgore of Indiana moved a reconsideration.

Mr. Bingham of Ohio moved to table that motion.

Mr. Hickman of Pennsylvania moved to adjourn to Friday. Lost.

Great confusion.

Mr. Sherman of Ohio appealed to the House to consider the appropriation bills, but unsuccessfully.

At 5 o'clock, adjourned.

DIPTHERIA.—We gather the following facts from the Massachusetts Registration Report just issued of the births, deaths and marriages in Massachusetts during the year 1859:—

Diptheria is the reported cause of 32 deaths in 1859, against 18 in 1858. None were reported in 1857, or if any they were so few as not to be separately stated in the table. Its existence has been known and recognized by medical writers for centuries—one writer thinks it was known in the days of Homer. Macrobius alludes to its epidemic existence in Rome in the year A. D. 380. Heker writes of severe epidemics in Holland in 1517 and 1551. It is said to have prevailed also in the same country in 1583. Since then it has prevailed more or less extensively in epidemic form, in Spain, Italy and France. It appeared in Switzerland in 1828. In 1854 or '55 its appearance in England, and in 1856 in the State of California, excited attention in those places. The English Reports chronicle 186 cases of death from diptheria in 1855, and 229 deaths in 1856. The number rose from 310 deaths in 1857, to 5,836 deaths in 1858.

☞ There is a petition before the city government of Boston to close the tippling shops on Sunday. The petitioners say:

Many men who can be restrained from drinking when at work can be induced to drink when idle, and therefore if saloons are open on the Sabbath they become subjected to temptation which they might otherwise resist. An estimate of the cost to the city of selling liquor was given, showing that there are in the city 2000 liquor shops, and estimating their rent at $100 each, the sum is $200,000. The cost for attendance is not less than $365,000. The value of liquor drank is not less than $438,000.—Allowing each person who drinks to lose five cents per day thereby, the sum would amount to $1,254,000 annually. The cost to the city, through courts, &c., is not less than $450,000. The aggregate exceeds the annual city taxes by more than $100,000.

PEACE CONVENTION ADJOURNED.—Washington, Feb. 27.—The Peace Convention adjourned to-day sine die. Many of the commissioners have already left for home.

The proposition before the Peace Conference was voted on by sections; the first, with reference to dividing the territory, was barely adopted. Indiana did not vote at all, Kansas and New York were divided, and North Carolina, Virginia and Missouri voted in the negative. The result was 8 States in favor to 7 against it, and but for the temporary absence of one of the New York commissioners, it would have been a tie vote.

Ex-President Tyler communicates to Congress the proposition.

Franklin's proposition was rejected in the Peace Convention, by a majority of three. It is reported that several northern members disconsolately wept when this vote was announced, and expressed a determination of withdrawing.

Although the Peace Congress has failed to accomplish its specific purpose, it has had the effect of preserving peace, and thus promoting the chances for a harmonious settlement of our national difficulties.

Mr. Brent, a member of the Virginia convention, writes to this city, that even if both Congress and the Peace Conference fail to pass resolutions in regard to the present troubles, that State will not adopt an ordinance of secession.

COTTON ROUTES.—The Boston Post says:—

There were shipped from Memphis, Tenn., for the East, by the upper routes, from the 1st to the 9th of February, 10,869 bales of cotton. About the same amount of cotton passed over the New York Central Railroad in the first twenty days of February. This diversion of cotton from the ports of the seceded States to safer routes in the interior is one of the important consequences of secession.

A wealthy widow lady, from North Alabama, is reported by the Memphis Enquirer to have arrived in that city on the 14th, for the purpose of ordering a lot of cotton, previously consigned to Memphis, to be reshipped to New Orleans on account of the section of Tennessee in the late election.

A South Carolina paper says that the Yankees are a trading, swapping, huckstering, people, who know nothing about fighting. The Yankees do certainly swap and huckster considerably, but we are afraid they can fight a little when occasion requires. A blind man led by a dog, while wandering in the streets of Paris, had his dog seized and his pocket picked by some one passing by, whereupon, opening his eyes instantly, he gave chase, and overtaking the thief, cudgelled him half to death; after which he quietly closed his eyes and fell to begging again.—Louisville Journal.

PRESIDENT BUCHANAN.—The Washington correspondent of the N. Y. Express says:—

It is popular to abuse Mr. Buchanan, for he has now no power, and but few friends. The Republicans delight in calling him tyrant, knave and rogue, and democrats denounce him as an idiot, and an imbecile.—But in sober truth he is none of these, but one, who, after over forty years of public service has made and lost more friends than perhaps any man who ever before held public office in the country.

We have not the slightest belief in any plot to assassinate Mr. Lincoln, nor do we believe that any thing of this kind entered into the calculation in summoning him so hastily to Washington. There was, perhaps, a possibility of some disturbance at Baltimore, but measures had been taken there to guard against such an occurrence, and it was in reality no more to be feared than one at New York. The real truth is undoubtedly that Mr. Lincoln was wanted by his friends and others at Washington, and a messenger was sent to apprise him of this and hasten his arrival.—Traveller.

AGRICULTURAL LABORERS IN ENGLAND.—Mr. Bright says there are a million able-bodied laborers who cultivate the soil of England and Wales, and their average wages (and it is much higher than in Ireland,) is ten shillings sterling, equal to $2 40 per week, or 40 cents a day upon which to support themselves and their families. White slavery to toil and poverty.

THE MISSING SLOOP-OF-WAR LEVANT. The Ariel, from Aspinwall, probably brings the most definite account of the missing sloop of war Levant which will ever be received. It is almost certain that she was lost in a terrible gale which occurred a few days after she left the Sandwich Islands.

OLD AND NEW CENTS.—During three months there have been received and exchanged at the Mint, five million four hundred thousand cents (fifty-four thousand dollars). One million one hundred thousand cents (eleven thousand dollars) were sent from Boston and the East.

☞ A German at Frankfort-on-the-Rhine, a short time since ate twenty-nine large bologna sausages. By this feat he won a large wager, and placed himself in the hands of the undertaker.

☞ At Manchester, N. H., a large Republican meeting was held on Monday evening, to consider the propriety of taking public sentiment in regard to the appointment of Postmaster. After debate, the subject was postponed to March 17th.

☞ Three girls in Jacksonville, Vt., braided thirty-six full sized men's palmleaf hats in fifteen hours, one day last week.—The quickest time in which they completed three, was forty-five minutes.

When you employ your time in arguing with a fool, you may be sure that he is similarly engaged.

NARROW ESCAPE OF AN AUDIENCE.—The Buffalo Advertiser says, on the evening of the 22d, a large audience assembled at a concert in the new hall in the village of Titusville, N. Y. About 7 1-2 o'clock, after the performers had passed on to the stage, and the concert was about to commence, the floor of the hall, in the second story, suddenly gave way, precipitating two or three hundred persons, men, women and children, to the floor below, which in turn succumbed to the sudden pressure, and sank to the cellar bottom. A large coal stove upon the first floor, was precipitated among a quantity of shavings and other combustibles, and, bursting asunder, scattered fire in every direction. Instantly a blaze rose through the opening, grasping at everything within its reach, and a frightful scene ensued. The mass of human beings entangled among the boards, flooring, benches and seats which followed them in their fall, struggled desperately to escape, the flames rapidly spreading through the interior of the building, and those who remained above, having sprung to another section of the flooring, when the cracking of the timbers beneath them was heard, were obliged to escape from the windows. Several persons were injured, but all escaped without loss of life, a result most astonishing. The building was entirely consumed within fifteen minutes.

NEW YORK Feb. 28.—A member of Twiggs' staff says the latter has declined to enter the service of the Southern Confederacy under Davis, who was only a second lieutenant when Twiggs was a colonel.

It is reported that Jefferson Davis had an interview with Major Anderson.

General Scott ordered a hundred guns to be fired to-day in honor of the Peace Conference.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28, 2 P. M.—The first act of the new administration will be the reinforcement of Fort Sumter.

Gen. Twiggs was shot by an aid of Gov. Houston, who had called on him, during a controversy in relation to the surrender of the federal property by Gen. Twiggs, the aid characterizing it as dishonorable and cowardly.

NEW APPLICATION OF STEAM.—On Thursday an eager crowd gathered upon Pier wharf to witness the working of a small little six horse power steam engine, in discharging the cargo of schooner Hard Chance of Rockport, which consisted of rough stone, some weighing three tons each. The ease and quickness with which those little, strong iron arms raised such ponderous weights, was quite astonishing. We were told that with the usual toiling at the windlass, it would require two days to discharge the cargo of the Hard Chance, but this iron dwarf would do it easily in four hours.

OBSTRUCTION OF CHARLESTON HARBOR.—A late letter from Charleston says: One sad accident has been the result of the foolishness of this State in putting out all the lights at the entrance of the harbor. The brig James Madison, from Attakapas, with a cargo of sugar and molasses, bound for Baltimore, in attempting to make this harbor on the night of the 11th inst., in distress, but not seeing any lights, got among the breakers, struck, and soon went to pieces. The captain and four men were lost, only one man being saved. The harbor is so difficult to enter, that most of the goods that come here are shipped by the way of Savannah, as insurance cannot be effected on goods shipped directly here.

At Charleston, South Carolina, last week, the weather was unusually mild. Peach trees were in full bloom, green peas had been in blossom for a week, and strawberries were beginning to form. The Mercury anticipates that about the middle of next month strawberries and green peas will be among the table luxuries supplied to Major Anderson at Fort Sumter.

☞ Rev. H. Q. Butterfield, late of Hallowell, Me., has accepted a unanimous call from the 1st Congregational church in Great Falls.

Judge Bell has not yet publicly signified his acceptance of the democratic nomination for Congress in the second district.—No matter: the democracy might as well "go it blind." He will accept if elected.—Ballot.

☞ A small barn in the vicinity of Exeter jail, belonging to Mr. James J. Wiggin, containing two tons of hay, was burnt about 11 o'clock last Thursday evening. The owners of the property were uninsured. The fire was probably the work of an incendiary.

SCHOOL LECTURE.—W. S. Abbott, Esq., School Commissioner for Rockingham county, lectured at the Exeter Town Hall, last Thursday evening, to a goodly audience.

☞ The Missouri Legislature recently adopted a resolution that the public printing be done by convicts, but the resolution fell still-born from the table, because it was ascertained that of all the criminals in the Penitentiary, not one was a printer.

☞ A pickpocket is said to be doing a good business on the lines of railroad out West, by going into a car, refusing to pay his fare, and picking the conductor's pocket as he is putting him off.

☞ The Baltimore Clipper says that five negro slaves, four females and one small child, absconded from the estate of the late Thomas Boulden, near Elkton, Md., on Wednesday night of last week.

☞ We are indebted to Conductor A. H. Rowe, of Portland, for a late English paper received per the steamer arrived there on Thursday morning.

Also to Conductor Philbrick, of the Eastern Railroad, and to Jackson & Co.'s Express, for repeated favors of a similar character.

A MODEL EXCUSE.—A teacher in one of our city schools lately received the following note:—"Please excuse —— for being late and charg the same to my account."

☞ Burleigh, writing from New York, says:—

I learn that half a million of bonds on the State of South Carolina are for sale in Wall street, of which moneyed men are quite shy.

Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers!

This extraordinary preparation has been for many years the most certain and speedy remedy for Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, Influenza, and Diseases of the Chest and Lungs. To those suffering from obstinate and confirmed Coughs, they give the most immediate and perfect relief; and when great liability to take cold exists, and a troublesome Cough succeeds the slightest exposure, these Wafers produce the most marked results. They at once relieve the Cough and other symptoms, and entirely remove that morbid irritability and weakness of the Lungs which give rise to the complaint. The medical properties are combined in an agreeable form and are pleasant to the taste, so that any child will readily take them; and they are warranted to give relief in ten minutes after use in all cases.

Price 25 cents per box. Sold by W. R. PRESTON and all druggists. feb28 daw3m

WISTAR'S BALSAM WILD CHERRY.

In the whole history of medical discoveries, NO REMEDY has performed so many or such remarkable cures of the Throat, Lungs and Chest,—of Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, or of Consumption itself, as this far-famed, long-tried and justly celebrated Balsam. So generally acknowledged is the superior excellence of this remedy, that but few of the many who have tested its virtues by experience fail to keep it at hand, as a speedy and certain cure for sudden attacks of Cold—fully believing that its remedial powers are comprehensive enough to embrace every form of disease, from the slightest cold to the most dangerous symptom of pulmonary complaint.

George W. Millet, Esq.

Editor of the Norway Advertiser, gives his opinion of this great remedy substantially as follows:

NORWAY VILLAGE, Me., Aug 4, 1860.

Messrs. S. W. Fowle & Co.—Gentlemen:—For a remedy of such undoubted merit as DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, I cheerfully give you my testimony, and trust that others may be induced thereby to give it a trial and be relieved. Several years since I first became acquainted with this Balsam at a time of distressing cough and cold, which took such firm hold of my lungs as to render me unfit for business, and its operation produced a speedy and permanent cure, after trying various other remedies in vain.

In our town this remedy is a great favorite with many, and if all who suffer will but give it a fair trial, I think they will find it to be of more service in pulmonary affections than any other remedy of this class before the public.

Yours respectfully, GEO. W. MILLET.

In order to make the sale more attractive, one of the partners will remain in New York a portion of the time, to take advantage of the present depressed state of that market; and any goods that can be bought for ready cash, and at bar gains, he will send home, that customers may have the benefit of the low prices.

As the stock is too large to be enumerated, purchasers are invited to call and see for themselves.

THE FAMINE IN KANSAS.

Appeal for the Destitute, from the New York City Committee.

WM. C. BRYANT, J. E. WILLIAMS,
Chairman. Treasurer.

Chas. H. Marshall, Seth B. Hunt, R. H. McCurdy, Morris Ketchum, G. C. Bronson, Chas W. Elliott, Daniel Lord, Daniel Drew, J. S. Wadsworth.

It has become our imperative duty to urge upon the public attention the fact that over 40,000 of our fellow citizens in Kansas are now in imminent danger of starving. We have evidence from all sources—from Gen. Pomeroy, Chairman of the Territorial Relief Committee,—from the columns of nearly every newspaper, of all shades of politics—from our own reliable agent, who has just returned. There was no doubt of the misery, terrible, wide-spread, destructive.

We have evidence that whole families have already died of starvation; and that thousands more must lie down discouraged, and die of want or disease consequent upon it, unless prompt and thorough relief is at once applied. Congress is now attempting to sustain the starving Indians, but our 40,000 fellow countrymen—men, women and children—can neither get away from their desolation, nor borrow, nor beg. Their only dependence is upon us, who have never known hunger.

THEY MUST BE SUSTAINED. Will you help us to help them?

To assure you that whatever you do will reach them, we state that in every destitute township is a Relief Committee—these are all represented by the Territorial Committee, as follows:

TERRITORIAL COMMITTEE.

S. C. Pomeroy, Atchison; W. W Guthrie, Brown County; J. L. McDowell, Leavenworth; Rev. C. Reynolds, Lawrence; Rev. L. Bodwell, Topeka; Dr. S. Ayers, Linn County; F. P. Blake, Junction City; C. B. Lines, Wabaunsee; F. B. Baker, Centralia; Rev. Wm. Bishop, Salina;—Judge A. Spaulding, Jefferson County; J. C. Burnett, Bourbon County; J. C. Lamsdin, Butler County; Geo. M. Russell, Wyandotte.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

S. C. Pomeroy, Chairman; J. L. McDowell, Rev. C. Reynolds, Rev. L. Bodwell, F. P. Baker.

S C. POMEROY, Corresponding Secretary.

G. H. FAIRCHILD, Treasurer.

Gen. Pomeroy is Chairman, and at ATCHISON devotes his whole time and energy, with assistants, to the receipt of food and clothing, all of which are delivered upon requisitions of Town Committees, and are distributed through them.—This organization is prompt, thorough and effective, and we advise the sending of supplies through it. Money and clothing are needed from us;—food can be got in the West.

The names of our committee appear at the head of this appeal, and we hope will be sufficient to induce co-operation. Our Treasurer is JOHN K. WILLIAMS, President of the Metropolitan Bank, New York City. All money sent to him will be applied to the payment of Gen. Pomeroy's drafts on account of freights and sacks. We appeal to you all, by every dictate of humanity, of honor, and of public good, to unite with us in alleviating this great calamity. There is no time to be lost.

FIRST—We ask individuals everywhere to contribute at once, and to urge it upon their friends and neighbors.

SECOND—We appeal to all churches and organized bodies to act promptly, generously and efficiently.

THIRD—We urge upon EVERY GOVERNOR OF EVERY STATE immediately to bring this matter to the attention of their Legislatures and people. Our last statistics show that nearly $200,000 is needed within the coming fortnight, to supply this people with seed for Spring planting. It can only be furnished by State action. Every consideration of interest also demands that this new State should be enabled to become self-sustaining, productive, and eventually rich—thus to fulfill her destiny, and to help others, as we are now helping her.

We ask, therefore, every Legislature to do as they would have others do to them in like distress, and at once grant ample supplies.

All money sent to our Treasurer, JOHN E. WILLIAMS, Metropolitan Bank, New York City, will be gratefully acknowledged and effectively used.

All Clothing should be sent to "GEN. POMEROY, Atchison, Kansas," and freight should be prepaid. DaWlm

Celebrated Stimulating Onguent!

For the Whiskers and Hair.

The subscribers take pleasure in announcing to the citizens of the United States, that they have obtained the Agency for, and are now enabled to offer to the American people, the above justly celebrated and world-renowned article.

THE STIMULATING ONGUENT

is prepared by DR. C. P. BELLINGHAM, an eminent physician of London, and is warranted to bring out a thick set of

in from three to six weeks. This article is the only one of the kind used by the French, and in London and Paris it is in universal use.

It is a beautiful, economical, soothing, yet stimulating compound, acting as if by magic upon the roots, causing a beautiful growth of luxuriant hair. If applied to the scalp, it will cure BALDNESS, and cause to spring up in place of the bald spots a fine growth of new hair. Applied according to directions, it will turn RED or TOWY hair DARK, and restore GRAY hair to its original color, leaving it soft, smooth and flexible. The "ONGUENT" is an indispensable article in every gentleman's toilet, and after one week's use they would not for any consideration be without it.

The subscribers are the only Agents for the article in the United States, to whom all orders must be addressed.

TESTIMONIALS.

Having been a constant sufferer from Neuralgia for eighteen months, and been driven by excruciating pain to the trial of numberless remedies without obtaining relief, I was induced to try "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound." I have taken but one bottle, and am entirely well." D. D. BAXTER, Dry Goods Dealer, No. 5 Appleton Block, Lowell, Mass.

I have been afflicted with Salt Rheum in its worst form for a long time, and suffered more than can be imagined, except by those similarly afflicted. I tried one bottle of your Compound, and can honestly say that I believe myself entirely cured.—JOHN A. MORDO, Pearl St. House, Boston, Mass.

Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has entirely relieved me from sufferings of several years' standing.—W. E. HODGKINS, No. 1 Old State House, Boston.

My son, ten years of age, has been for three years a great sufferer from Salt Rheum, his hands covered with sores, and in constant pain. One bottle of your Compound cured him.—J. W. HAMMOND, 99 Milk street, Boston.

I certify that my friend, Wm. T. Glidden, Esq., presented me with a bottle of "Gardiner's Rheumatic Compound," in 1856, when I was suffering, with a painful attack of Neuralgia and Rheumatism, and that it proved to be of decided benefit.—ALBERT SMITH, Ex-Member of Congress from Maine.

TESTIMONY OF JUDGE KITTREDGE OF VERMONT.—Charles F. Gardiner, Esq.—Dear Sir,—I beg leave to add my testimony in favor of "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound."—After suffering twenty years with Rheumatism, more or less, and last year with a very severe attack, I took one bottle of your Compound, which afforded decided relief. I think it the best and most efficacious medicine for that disease I ever used.—WM C. KITTREDGE, Fair Haven, Vt., Dec. 1st, 1860.

MOTHERS

CONSUMPTIVES.

An equal and normal circulation of the blood is health, and its opposite, whatever it be called, or excessive or deficient circulation or stagnation of the blood, is disease. To illustrate—torpidity of the liver is caused by stagnation of the blood in that organ; diseases of the Kidneys, Inflammation of the Lungs, Disease of the Heart, &c., by the same cause, viz., Improper Circulation; and from the same cause spring all the minor forms of disease. To discover a certain cure, then, for these diseases, the first great inquiry is, What causes the blood to circulate?

For centuries it has been a matter of much study among scientific and medical men, and many experiments have been made and much labor expended upon the inquiry, it has been left to this century, and to this country, to solve the long-sought-for knowledge, to make this grand discovery also

Acknowledging that life is the gift of the Creator and that "in Him we live and move and have our being," we still venture the remark that, as the planets move in their orbits, and the tides of life are governed by certain absolute laws, so animal life is traceable to a fixed cause, which removes or destroys, and death, the certain effect, follows.

Analysis of the red corpuscles of the blood shows them to be compounds of iron, sulphur and phosphorous.

The air we breathe we know to contain a very large proportion of oxygen.

Oxygen, brought in contact with metal, evolves or emits electricity.

Electricity, brought in contact with a muscular fiber, causes contraction.

These facts being indisputable, we have now the solution as to the motor or motive power of the heart. The oxygen in the air we breathe, coming in contact with the iron in the red corpuscles of blood, emits electricity, which, coming in contact with the heart, causes it to contract, and hence the power which expels the blood, and which it tingling through the remotest arteries. What, then, are the causes of CONSUMPTION, DROPSY, FALSY, PARALYSIS, ST VITUS DANCE, DYSPEPSIA, EPILEPSY, FEVER & AGUE, &c.?—a deficiency of the red corpuscles containing the iron, sulphur and phosphorous, which causes a deficiency of electricity, and consequently an abnormal circulation. The blood becomes watery, cobby and feverish, or congestion and prostration ensue—the sufferer becomes nervous, and subject to rheumatic pains and neuralgia—complaints of the liver and kidneys set in, and in short, almost every type of disease but virulent fevers may be traced to this deficiency in the blood, of the corpuscles containing iron.

Old age causes a deficiency of corpuscles, and while we do not pretend to say that we have discovered the "fountain of youth," we do say that life can be materially prolonged by the use of the

which restores the blood, and the normal circulation. Consumptives! friends of consumptives! Sufferers from any organic disease! Unfortunates, who have by excess of the body or mind, reduce the standard of the blood and diminished the red globules! Ladies suffering any of the diseases peculiar to your sex, complaints, betrended the "Blood Food" can cure you. It has cured thousands of desperate cases where all hope had been given up by others, and we reject it do not throw away your only hope. The "Blood Food" is an unfailing remedy; give it a trial.

An elaborate treatise on the "Blood" and fully proving the theory advanced here to be correct, will be mailed to any interested party, on the receipt of two 3 cent postage stamps. Blood Food is sold by all druggists; or where it cannot be had, I will send 6 bottles, free of expense, for $4. Price, single bottle, $1. Put up in 6 oz. vials, in yellow wrappers—the old kind, in small bottles, in red wrappers, having been done away with, and we have the fac-simile signature of Church & Dupont upon the face of the wrapper. Beware of counterfeits and imitations.

SOMETHING MORE VALUABLE

THAN SILVER OR GOLD,

BECAUSE

IT WILL RESTORE THE WEAK,
AND REINSTATE THE BLOOD IN ALL ITS ORIGINAL PURITY & VIGOR.

It is

PROF. O. J. WOOD'S

RESTORATIVE CORDIAL

—AND—

BLOOD RENOVATOR.

It is precisely what its name indicates, for, while pleasant to the taste, it is revivifying, exhilarating, and strengthening to the vital powers. It while many experiments have been made and much labor expended upon the inquiry, it has been left to this century, and to this country, to solve the long-sought-for knowledge, to make this grand discovery also

Acknowledging that life is the gift of the Creator and that "in Him we live and move and have our being," we still venture the remark that, as the planets move in their orbits, and the tides of life is governed by certain absolute laws, so animal life is traceable to a fixed cause, which removes or destroys, and death, the certain effect, follows.

Analysis of the red corpuscles of the blood shows them to be compounds of iron, sulphur and phosphorous.

The air we breathe we know to contain a very large proportion of oxygen.

Oxygen, brought in contact with metal, evolves or emits electricity.

Electricity, brought in contact with a muscular fiber, causes contraction.

These facts being indisputable, we have now the solution as to the motor or motive power of the heart. The oxygen in the air we breathe, coming in contact with the iron in the red corpuscles of blood, emits electricity, which, coming in contact with the heart, causes it to contract, and hence the power which expels the blood, and which it tingling through the remotest arteries. What, then, are the causes of CONSUMPTION, DROPSY, FALSY, PARALYSIS, ST VITUS DANCE, DYSPEPSIA, EPILEPSY, FEVER & AGUE, &c.?—a deficiency of the red corpuscles containing the iron, sulphur and phosphorous, which causes a deficiency of electricity, and consequently an abnormal circulation. The blood becomes watery, cobby and feverish, or congestion and prostration ensue—the sufferer becomes nervous, and subject to rheumatic pains and neuralgia—complaints of the liver and kidneys set in, and in short, almost every type of disease but virulent fevers may be traced to this deficiency in the blood, of the corpuscles containing iron.

Old age causes a deficiency of corpuscles, and while we do not pretend to say that we have discovered the "fountain of youth," we do say that life can be materially prolonged by the use of the

which restores the blood, and the normal circulation. Consumptives! friends of consumptives! Sufferers from any organic disease! Unfortunates, who have by excess of the body or mind, reduce the standard of the blood and diminished the red globules! Ladies suffering any of the diseases peculiar to your sex, complaints, betrended the "Blood Food" can cure you. It has cured thousands of desperate cases where all hope had been given up by others, and we reject it do not throw away your only hope. The "Blood Food" is an unfailing remedy; give it a trial.

An elaborate treatise on the "Blood" and fully proving the theory advanced here to be correct, will be mailed to any interested party, on the receipt of two 3 cent postage stamps. Blood Food is sold by all druggists; or where it cannot be had, I will send 6 bottles, free of expense, for $4. Price, single bottle, $1. Put up in 6 oz. vials, in yellow wrappers—the old kind, in small bottles, in red wrappers, having been done away with, and we have the fac-simile signature of Church & Dupont upon the face of the wrapper. Beware of counterfeits and imitations.

PROF. WOOD'S Restorative Cordial and Blood Renovator is a genuine medicine of real merit, pleasant to the taste, and invigorating to the system. While it purifies the blood and soothes the nervous irritation, it aids the organs of digestion to perform their functions, and resists the assaults of disease. It is a chemical compound so skillfully combined, that while it exhilarates it does not provoke the lassitude which usually follows excitement. A tonic composed exclusively of vegetable matter, it is absolutely beneficial, and no ill effects can possibly accompany its use. It is an infallible and speedy remedy for Loss of Appetite, Fainting, Nervous Debility, Nervous Ills, Failing of the Womb, and other delicate diseases to which women are subject. For Sickness of the Stomach, Bilious Attacks, Liver Complaints, Costiveness, Dyspepsia, Consumption, and a host of evils flesh is heir to, it is a certain cure.—St. Louis Morning Herald.

PROF. WOOD'S RESTORATIVE CORDIAL.—It is recorded in the classics that Psyche was once sent to a climate warmer than Italy, to procure a cure a sample of the beauty of Proserpine in a box. After some delay the messenger returned, and without a word of explanation, opened, out flew all the ills that flesh is heir to. Fortunately hope was found in the bottom of the box. Prof. Wood's Restorative Cordial revives the recollection of the story, for it invigorates the blood, aids the organs of digestion, imparts strength to the nervous system, and fortifies the citadel of health so as to bid defiance to the assaults of disease. It is a healthy tonic, composed entirely of vegetable productions, and while it exhilarating as pure wine, no injurious results can possibly follow its use. It is a desideratum in the medical world, and those who are afflicted with loss of appetite, Dyspepsia, Consumption, Faintness, Neuralgia, Palpitation of the Heart, &c., will here find an infallible panacea.—St. Louis Daily Express

PROF. WOOD'S RESTORATIVE CORDIAL AND BLOOD RENOVATOR is, without doubt, the best tonic Cordial in the world To those who are suffering from general debility, we would recommend Prof. Wood's Restorative Cordial as being strengthening to the system, and will at once tend to remove all impurities of the blood, and eradicate all traces of disease. It can be taken by the weakest stomach, while those in good health will at once feel its exhilarating power. We are confident that after using one bottle of this Cordial, none will be for a day without it.—N. Y. Leader.

A PURE, HEALTHY TONIC, and one free from the deleterious and injurious effects seen to follow those in ordinary use, has long been felt to be a desideratum in the medical world. Such a tonic, and one so skillfully combined from the vegetable kingdom as to act in perfect accordance with the laws of Nature, and thus soothe the weakest stomach, and at the same time allay nervous and other irritations, and tone up all the organs of which the human body is composed, is offered in Prof. Wood's Restorative Cordial and Blood Renovator. Hence it is perfectly adapted to old and Young. Reader, try it. Thousands have already done so, the testimony is universal in its favor.—New York Atlas.

☞ Before noticing a patent medicine, we have to be certain that it will prove itself to be all that it is recommended. And we would say that the Restorative Cordial and Blood Renovator of Prof. Wood will stand the test fully, and in fact it is without doubt the first article in the market for purifying the blood and strengthening the system. We have no hesitation in recommending its use to all.—New Yorker.

BININGER'S GENUINE Cognac Brandy

The infamous practice of adulterating Brandies having become so common that a genuine article is the exception; it is of vital importance to those requiring it for Family use and Invalids, that it should be of undoubted purity and efficacy.

"Bininger's Genuine Cognac Brandy."

It is mild, delicate and fruity, and is designed to be always uniform in quality and character.—Put up in pint and quart bottles, in cases containing two dozen pints and one dozen quarts, and is sold by all prominent druggists, grocers and town agents.

COUGH DROPS
FOR
Phthisic, Colds, Asthma, Croup, Whooping and Chin Cough, and all diseases of the lungs.
☞ The proprietor and inventor of this valuable Medicine, being confident that his life has not only been protracted many years, but made comfortable, by a timely use of the innocent but effectual vegetable from which this mixture is extracted, therefore earnestly recommends it to all who are afflicted with any of the above named complaints.
Appended are some of the certificates and recommendations of these Drops. The first is from our respected brother, Elder Dennett, of Vt.:
Canaan, Sept. 4, 1848.—"Dear Dr. Swett, I consider it a duty I owe to the public as well as to yourself, briefly to state my opinion in regard to your excellent medicine. About six years ago I was taken sick with an affection of the lungs, or what my friends and I thought would terminate in consumption. Indeed I thought myself fast sinking under the pressure of this fatal disease, when I obtained some of your valuable Cough Drops, and after using two or three bottles, in the space of six or seven weeks, I found myself restored to usual health; and I have no reason to doubt but that your invaluable Cough Drops were the means of saving my life."
SAMUEL R. DENNETT.
New Castle, Jan. 10, 1841.—"Elder Swett:—Sir, your Cough Drops have fully cured the distressing cough, which has so long afflicted me; and judging from its effect on others of my acquaintance, as well as on myself, I feel confident that it is the best medicine now known for coughs and other lung complaints." WESLEY BURNHAM.
Exeter, Feb. 12, 1858.—"I have been recently cured of a very hard and dangerous cough, in the space of four days, by taking Dr. Swett's Cough Drops." J. BATCHELDER.
Newton, N. H., May 7, 1841.—"I am confident that no family would be willing to be without an assortment of Dr. Swett's medicines, if they knew their value as well as I do. Within the last year I have sold $250 worth of his medicine; and I have known them to remove many diseases that have resisted the power of all other medicines. I have been cured of a bad cough in four days by his Drops, and I am confident that they have saved the lives of several children in this vicinity. I have known many, who were sick, to recover by using some of his physical medicine, and then using his Panacea." DAVID CAMPBELL.
Exeter, May 19, 1844.—"I hereby certify that this Spring my daughter had a severe fit of sickness, and was attended by an eminent physician, who pronounced it lung fever. She grew worse until her bowels swelled, and she was so pressed at the lungs that she groaned at every breath; and those who saw her thought that without some speedy remedy she could live but a few days. At this stage of the disease, we obtained some of Dr. Swett's Cough Drops, and commenced giving a teaspoonful every half hour, and dispensed with giving her any other medicine. It relieved the cough and distress of the lungs, and by using two phials she has been entirely cured."
DAVID LANG.
Lawrence, July 27, 1854.—"I hereby testify that the Cough Drops prepared by Dr. Simeon Swett have given me very great relief from the whooping cough of late, and I would advise all who have a visit from that distressing complaint, to use them freely." MARY N. RICKER.
I know the above testimony of my wife with regard to the salutary effects of Dr. Swett's Cough Drops, to be correct.
CHARLES C. RICKER.
Canaan, Dec. 11, 1841.—"I have been troubled with Phthisic for a number of years, and have found more relief by using Dr. Swett's Cough Drops, than from all other medicines put together, though I have tried many." FANNY MINER.
"I have been cured of a severe cough by using Dr. Swett's Cough Drops. I therefore would sincerely recommend them to all who are afflicted with lung complaints, as I believe them the best medicine in my knowledge."
ELIZABETH CURRIER.
Canaan, Aug. 29, 1850.—"This certifies that we have found greater relief from Dr. S. Swett's Pills and Cough Drops, in very bad cases of phthisic in our family, than all other medicines put together." THEOPHILUS CURRIER.
SALLY CURRIER.
Exeter, July 30, 1841.—"I have found Dr. Swett's Cough Drops to be the most effectual remedy for Coughs, and for any other complaints of the lungs, with which I am acquainted."
NANCY F. JONES.
Exeter, Jan. 10, 1851.—"As a debt due to the suffering, I would say that last winter I was confined by a severe cough and spitting of blood, which much alarmed my friends, and that I found a full and speedy cure by the use of only two or three bottles of Cough Drops, and two of Col. Moses Jewett's Cough and Consumption Liniment, prepared by Dr. Simeon Swett, of this town.
I have also experienced a remarkably quick cure of a severe attack of the rheumatism of late, by the application of one bottle of Jewett's Stimulating Liniment, prepared by Dr Swett."
J. C. BURNHAM.

SATURDAY, MARCH 2, 1861.

COMPROMISES IN CONGRESS.

The action of the House of Representatives on Wednesday, which was very obscurely reported to Boston, by telegraph, is thus summed up by the N. Y. Tribune:

1. The proposition to call a national convention was rejected—74 yeas to 109 nays. 2. The Kellogg compromise was rejected —93 yeas to 158 nays.

3. The Crittenden compromise was rejected—80 yeas to 113 nays.

4. The resolutions reported by the Committee of Thirty-three were then adopted —113 yeas to 80 nays. These resolutions declare: 1. That the southern discontents are deplorable, and that more specific and effectual guarantiss of the peculiar rights and interests of the South should be promptly and cheerfully granted. 2. The personal liberty laws are unconstitutional and dangerous. 3. State Legislatures are requested to repeal all anti-negro-catching enactments. 4. Slavery exists in fifteen States, and no outside power has any right to interfere with it. 5. The constitutional provision for negro catching, and the laws made in pursuance thereof, ought to be executed, and there ought not to be any mobs. 6. There is no cause for a dissolution of the Union. 7. All the States ought to observe their constitutional obligations. 8. The southern States ought not to allow northern men to be mobbed or lynched and they are asked to make laws which shall protect them. 9. Each State ought to provide against lawless invasions of any other State or Territory. 10. As nobody designs to interfere with slavery in the District of Columbia, or in forts or arsenals within the slave States, it isn't necessary to do anything concerning that matter.

5. The proposal to submit to the Legislatures of the several States an amendment to the constitution declaring that no amendment of that instrument shall ever be made giving Congress the power to abolish or interfere with slavery in the States where it exists, received 120 affirmative and 71 negative votes, and thus was lost, two-thirds of the votes being necessary to its adoption.—A motion was made to reconsider this vote, and then another to lay the consideration on the table, pending which the House adjourned.

Amendment to the Constitution. — The joint resolution for an amendment to the constitution, which was lost in the House of Representatives on Wednesday, was reconsidered and carried. It provides for an amendment in the usual way through the Legislatures of the several States, and says:

"That no amendment shall be made to the constitution, which will authorize or give Congress power to abolish or interfere within any State with the domestic institutions thereof, including that of persons held to labor or servitude by the laws of said State."

This, which passed by exactly two-thirds, is regarded as a great peace measure.

CONGRESS.—Thursday, the House concurred in Senate amendment to the bill for discontinuing the mails in certain contingencies. The bill provides "that whenever, in the opinion of the Postmaster-General, the postal service cannot be safely conducted or the post office revenues collected, or the postal laws maintained, on any post route, by reason of any cause whatsoever, the Postmaster General is hereby authorized to discontinue the postal service on such route, or any part thereof, and any post offices thereon, till the same may be safely restored, and shall report his action to Congress." This is an excellent move.

☞ On Thursday morning at Manchester, about 10 o'clock, as the Locomotive "Rockingham" with a tender and two freight cars attached came out of the Manchester yard and run down toward the intersection with the Concord Road, near the Bag Mill, a loose rail threw the engine from the track, and caused it to strike with great force against the Bridge over the canal.

The bridge was forced from its piers, one end falling into the water, letting the locomotive down with it. There were on the engine four persons, three of whom were badly burned and scalded.

☞ An extraordinary elopement was carried out at Cincinnati one day last week; a stern father having forbidden his handsome daughter to entertain her lover's addresses, she left the house in the morning, and was married. Soon afterwards a gentlemen took passage to Memphis, for himself and negro servant, and arrived just as the steamer was about sailing; the negro at once set to work to darn a coarse woollen stocking, in which she was engaged, when, accompanied by a policeman, the suspecting father passed her. After the steamer had started, from the ladies' stateroom a beautiful wife emerged, beaming with joyous hope, and elegantly dressed.—Burnt cork and darning needles are great institutions.

ONE OF THE FAILURES.—The Traveller is informed that a few days since a firm in Boston succumbed to the pressure of the times, with, as it subsequently appeared, liabilities to the extent of thirty thousand, and assets to the extraordinary amount of eight dollars.

☞ The Boston Traveller says "of a truth, history teaches, that although there are some marked exceptions, generally merchants and clergymen make bad politicians."

The Committee on Business reported a series of Resolutions, which, after discussion were passed as follows:—

Resolved, That with renewed interest in the progress of temperance, implicit trust in the divine aid and blessing, and in earnest hope of usefulness, we will do what in us lies, to promote this good cause in the year we are now commencing.

Resolved, That we hereby express our thanks to God for all the success that has attended past efforts for temperance, and take courage for the future.

Resolved, That we request the ministers of the County to preach frequently on the subject of Temperance, and that we request all the Religious Bodies in the County, in their annual reports, conventions, etc., to note the progress of temperance, or intemperance, in the several towns,—and to keep the subject before the people and the churches, as an important branch of christian morals.

Resolved, That in our view, it is desirable to hold an adjourned meeting of this society at the same time and place with the Rockingham Conference of Congregational Churches.

In the discussion of the first resolution, facts were called for, and reports were made of the progress of temperance and intemperance in many towns in the county, —going to show a decided improvement in some places, and the contrary in others;—and the general state of things was found to be such as to call for new efforts on the part of the christian friends of temperance, —with the fair prospect that such efforts will be useful.

The society adjourned at 5 P. M. In the evening, Rev. Mr. Patterson gave a seasonable and earnest temperance address, to a good congregation. The exercises were opened with prayer by Rev. Mr. Hayes of the Methodist church: and closed with the choice of a committee from each religious society, to organize a new temperance association in Hampton.

ROUND FEES. — Some four years ago there was a failure in Newburyport, and quite an estate went into the hands of two assignees. One day this week the last meeting of the creditors was held, when the assignees were allowed a claim of ten thousand dollars for their services. The fees and the interest of the funds in their hands, from the failure to the settlement, the Herald thinks, would perhaps be equal to $15,000.

☞ Louisiana seized the contents of the U. S. Mint and seceded from the Union; and Floyd and Thompson the contents of the U. S. Treasury and seceded from the Cabinet.

☞ The members of Rev. Mr. Parson's society, held a levee at Caswell's Hotel Hall, Derry, Feb. 26th, for the aid of the sufferers in Kansas. Between $60 and $70 were taken.

FOOD OF THE JAPANESE.—The Japanese, says a correspondent of the San Francisco Alta California, are abundantly supplied with the means of subsistence. By planting new crops before the old is harvested, they get three and four courses a year from the same field, while the soil is constantly fed with manure to meet this heavy tax upon its fertility. Their waters abound in fish. Among the different animals killed for game are the wild boar, deer, monkey, jackall, rabbit, squirrel, bear, porcupine, &c. The birds for food are geese, ducks, pheasants, partridges, and many others. Beef and rat flesh are eaten not as food, but as medicine for the cure of diseases.

☞ The Philadelphia Press, in alluding to the movement of Mr. Lincoln in passing through Baltimore, says:

When Mr. Buchanan left Lancaster, four years ago, he was threatened by the rowdies of Baltimore with personal violence, in any number of anonymous letters, and it made such an impression on him that, in company with a few friends, he took a private carriage, leaving his escort and a dinner that had been prepared for him behind. There were no newspaper charges of cowardice against him, although animadversions without number were uttered in private circles.

RICHMOND, Va., Feb. 28.—Messrs. Tyler and Seddon, commissioners to the Washington convention were serenaded to-night. Mr. Tyler denounced the result of the convention as a worthless affair, and said the South had nothing to hope from the Republicans. Mr. Seddon said it was a delusion and a sham and an offence to the South. Lieut. Governor Montague made a secession speech. The secession feeling is increasing.

☞ The two branches of the city government of Newburyport, in convention, made choice of George W. Jackman, Esq., for Mayor, in place of Hon. Moses Davenport, deceased. Mr. Jackman is at present Postmaster of Newburyport. He is well known as an enterprising ship builder, and an excellent practical business man.

☞ The State troops in and near Charleston number 2242, consisting of one regiment of artillery, one regiment and one battalion of riflemen, one regiment of infantry, and six mounted companies. Whole number of companies 31; average strength 71 men. Four of the companies are Irish, three German and one Scotch.

MISSING SHIP.—The ship Masconomo, of Newburyport, which sailed from New York for London 26th of November, has not since been heard from. As a severe gale raged about two weeks after her sailing, in which many ships sailing at the same time with her, suffered severely, the worst fears are entertained. The Masconomo was 824 tons, built in 1848.

THE ARMY BILL.— For the manufacture of arms at armories, $360,000 are appropriated; for Springfield (Mass.) armory, $60,000; and for the Harper's Ferry armory, $64,000 are appropriated. Appropriations are also made for all of the northern inland forts, and for forts Calhoun, Taylor and Jefferson on the southern coast.

☞ A South Carolina clergyman brags some on the fact that there has never been a case of divorce in that State. When we remember that about half the colored people in Charleston are mulattoes, it will be seen that what has not been, ought to have been a thousand times.

☞ The national debt of the United States amounts to about a dollar and a half for each inhabitant, while the sum of one hundred and thirty-five dollars each would be required from the British population if they should pay theirs.

☞ The St. Louis Democrat, the organ of the Blairs, favors the "enabling act" to take in New Mexico as a State. Its reasoning is, that no slavery can go there, and that the Mexicans there are really opposed to slavery.

☞ Bishop Bayley, of the Roman Catholic diocese of Newark, N. J., instructs his people that Christian burial will be denied to all who sell intoxicating drinks to improper persons and at improper times.

☞ A man asleep on a railroad track in Alabama, was taken by the cow-catcher and thrown five feet up an embankment without harming him. He took a drink from a bottle immediately, and then looked at his watch to see what time it was.

☞ The railroads in Canada were much obstructed by snow which fell on Saturday last. In that region the amount of snow the present winter is estimated at eight ft.

The Washington Star says that the cause of the secession must soon have aid or it will perish. The Louisville Journal is "half disposed to throw it a rope."

☞ Stephen Brown, a printer, inventor of a polychromatic press and a patent gallery, died in Syracuse, N. Y., on Monday.

☞ A six-year old Durham cow was killed at Seneca Falls, N. Y., a few days since, whose live weight was 1720 lbs.

☞ An English physician recommends an abundant use of horse radish as a cure for early dyspepsia.

☞ The Worcester Daily Times (Douglas Democrat) is discontinued for want of adequate support.

WASHINGTON, March 1.—Mr. Crittenden will advocate to-day a resolution endorsing the action of the Peace Congress.

Mr. Seward will offer as a substitute a recommendation to the State Legislatures to consider the necessity for a National Convention, and to express their will on that subject to Congress.

Adams' New Mexico propositions will doubtless pass the House to-day.

Mr. Lincoln's message meets the approval of Republican Senators who have seen it. No advance copy will be sent out.

Messrs. Lincoln, Hamlin and Corwin were serenaded last evening.

Dispatches from Maj. Anderson say that the work continues on the bomb proof battery at Cumming's Point, but that he could with the guns of Fort Sumter sweep all away in a few moments.

Capt. Pope of the army, one of Lincoln's travelling suite, has been court-martialed for speaking disrespectfully of Mr. Buchanan in a lecture at Cincinnati.

Advices from Charleston state that the floating battery was launched on Monday. Dahlgreen guns were hourly expected. All the troops were ordered to return by Wednesday.

It is reported that Gov. Houston was instrumental in inducing Twiggs to surrender the government property in Texas.

From Boston Traveller Extra.

Returns from North Carolina indicate that the election in that State has resulted in a great victory for the Union. It is thought that the defeat of the secessionists will be overwhelming.

The Senate are this afternoon discussing the plan of settlement passed by the Peace Conference, and will probably reject it.

Mortimer Thompson ("Doesticks") it is said has wooed and won the beautiful daughter of "Fanny Fern," (Mrs. Parton.) Mort is now a widower.

WISTAR'S BALSAM WILD CHERRY.

In the whole history of medical discoveries, NO REMEDY has performed so many or such remarkable cures of the Throat, Lungs and Chest,—of Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, or Consumption as this far-famed, long-tried and justly celebrated Balsam. So generally acknowledged is the supe ior excellence of this remedy, that but few of the many who have tested its virtues by experience fail to keep it at hand, as a speedy and certain cure for sudden attacks of Cold—fully believing that its remedial powers are comprehensive enough to embrace every form of disease, from the slightest cold to the most dangerous symptom of pulmonary complaint.

George W. Millet, Esq.

Editor of the Norway Advertiser, gives his opinion of this great remedy substantially as follows

NORWAY VILLAGE, Me., Aug 4, 1860.

Messrs. S. W. Fowle & Co.—Gentlemen:—For a remedy of such undoubted merit as Dr. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, I cheerfully give you my testimony, and trust that others may be induced thereby to give it a trial and be relieved. Several years since I first became acquainted with this Balsam at a time of distressing cough and cold, which took such firm hold of my lungs as to render me unfit for business, and its operation produced a speedy and permanent cure, after trying various other remedies in vain

In our town this remedy is a great favorite with many, and it all who suffer will but give it a fair trial, I think they will find it to be of more service in pulmonary affections than any other remedy of this class before the public.

Yours respectfully, GEO. W. MILLET.

HAIL, BALMY SPRING!—Winter bowed himself out most pleasantly, Thursday; and Spring put on a smiling face, Friday morning. Old Winter has done his best, this time, we think—and given us as little of severe storm, and as much of good sleighing, as we could ask. For just about three months have the sleigh-bells jingled in our streets; and nobody will be sorry to have the wheels running again. But though the "heart of winter is broken," we shall of course have heavy frosts yet.

☞ An intelligent physician of this city, recommends the following remedy for that dreadful and often fatal disease, diphtheria, which is now prevailing to a greater or less extent in different parts of New England.

Cayenne, two table spoonfuls—salt, 1 table do.—1 pint best vinegar—1 pt. hot water. Mix together, and let it stand till cool; strain it, and bathe the throat freely with it, occasionally taking a little, internally.

This is very simple, and is said to have proved an effectual remedy, in many severe cases.

☞ We are glad to see that the new Superintendent of the City Farm has thus early sent men to collect the dirt from our business streets. This is a good movement on the part of Mr. Norton, for the dirt thus collected can be used to advantage on the City Farm, but is much worse than useless in the streets.

ANSWER TO MR. LEO MILLER.—As I previously announced to the public, I will answer Mr. Miller's lecture on ("Comparative View of Ancient and Modern") Spiritualism, in the Temple, on Sunday evening, March 3d, at 7 1-2 o'clock; also Mr. Miller's reasons for refusing to hold the proposed discussion. W. PRATT.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—A select committee of five on the President's special message, in their report on the general subject argue against the doctrine of secession, and assert that it is the duty of the government to enforce the laws over every part of the country, with the military, if the civil authority is insufficient.

Messrs. Cochrane and Branch dissent.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—The public business is in a greater state of forwardness than has heretofore been the case towards the close of Congress. Several of the general appropriation bills are pending only on disagreeing amendments.

The President has approved of the bill establishing a Territorial government in Colorado, including Pike's Peak. It is silent on slavery.

Mr. Crittenden had an interview with Mr. Lincoln to-day; also, several Republican Senators, and others.

JOHN TYLER INDIGNANT.—The telegraph reports that Mr. Tyler is not satisfied with the results of his labor. He undoubtedly expected, as was reported of his remarks to the President, that any plans adopted must be acceptable to the cotton States.

RICHMOND, VA., Feb. 28th.—In the convention to-day Mr. Morton made a speech in favor of immediate secession, and denounced the result of the Peace Conference.

Mr. Baylor commenced a Union speech. Adjourned.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 28.—The City Council has unanimously tendered the hospitalities of the city to Senator Crittenden, and invited him to address the citizens. A like invitation has also been extended to Senator Johnson of Tennessee.

For the Whiskers and Hair.

The subscribers take pleasure in announcing to the citizens of the United States, that they have obtained the Agency for, and are now enabled to offer to the American people, the above justly celebrated and world-renowned article.

THE STIMULATING ONGUENT

is prepared by DR. C. P. BELLINGHAM, an eminent physician of London, and is warranted to bring out a thick set of

in from three to six weeks. This article is the only one of the kind used by the French, and in London and Paris it is in universal use.

It is a beautiful, economical, soothing, yet stimulating compound, acting as if by magic upon the roots, producing a beautiful growth of luxuriant hair. If applied to the scalp, it will cure BALDNESS, and cause to spring up in place of the bald spots a fine growth of new hair. Applied according to directions, it will turn RED or TOWY hair DARK, and restore GRAY hair to its original color, leaving it soft, smooth and flexible. The "ONGUENT" is an indispensable article in every gentleman's toilet, and after one week's use they would not for any consideration be without it.

The subscribers are the only Agents for the article in the United States, to whom all orders must be addressed.

Price One Dollar a box—for sale by all druggists and Dealers; or on receipt of the "Onguent," (warranted to have the desired effect,) will be sent to any one who desires it, by mail (direct,) securely packed, on receipt of price and postage, $1.18. Apply to or address

THE FAMINE IN KANSAS.

Appeal for the Destitute, from the New York City Committee.

WM. C. BRYANT, Chairman. J. E. WILLIAMS, Treasurer.

Chas. H. Marshall, Seth B. Hunt, R. H. McCurdy, Morris Ketchum, G. C. Bronson, Chas. W. Elliott, Daniel Lord, Daniel Drew, J. S. Wadsworth.

It has become our imperative duty to urge upon the public attention the fact that over 40,000 of our fellow citizens in Kansas are now in imminent danger of starving. We have evidence from all sources, from Gen. Pomeroy, Chairman of the Territorial Relief Committee,—from the columns of nearly every newspaper, of all shades of politics—from our own reliable agent, who has just returned. There was no doubt of the misery, terrible, wide-spread, destructive.

We have evidence that whole families have already died of starvation; and that thousands more must lie down discouraged, and die of want or disease consequent upon it, unless prompt and thorough relief is at once applied. Congress is now attempting to sustain the starving Indians, but our 40,000 fellow countrymen—men, women and children—can neither get away from their desolation, nor borrow, nor beg. Their only dependence is upon us, who have never known hunger.

THEY MUST BE SUSTAINED. Will you help us to help them?

To assure you that whatever you do will reach them, we state that in every destitute township is a Relief Committee—these are all represented by the Territorial Committee, as follows:

TERRITORIAL COMMITTEE.

S. C. Pomeroy, Atchison; W. W. Guthrie, Brown County; J. L. McDowell, Leavenworth; Rev. C. Reynolds, Lawrence; Rev. L. Bodwell, Topeka; Dr. S. Ayers, Linn County; F. U. Blake, Junction City; C. B. Lines, Wabaunsee; F. B. Baker, Centralia; Rev. Wm. Bishop, Salina.—Under A. Spaulding, Jefferson County; J. C. Burnett, Bourbon County; J. C. Lambdin, Butler County; Geo. M. Russell, Wyandotte.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

S. C. Pomeroy, Chairman; J. L. McDowell, Rev. C. Reynolds, Rev. L. Bodwell, F. P. Baker.

S. C. POMEROY, Corresponding Secretary.

G. H. FAIRCHILD, Treasurer.

Gen. Pomeroy is Chairman, and at ATCHISON devotes his whole time and energy, with assistants, to the receipt of food and clothing, all of which are delivered upon requisitions of Town Committees, and are distributed through them.—This organization is prompt, thorough and effective, and we advise the sending of supplies through it. Money and clothing are needed from us; food can be got in the West.

The names of our committee appear at the head of this appeal, and we hope will be sufficient to induce co-operation. Our Treasurer is JOHN E. WILLIAMS, President of the Metropolitan Bank, New York City. All money sent to him will be applied to the payment of Gen. Pomeroy's drafts on account of freights and sacks. We appeal to you all, by every dictate of humanity, of honor, and of public good, to unite with us in alleviating this great calamity. There is no time to be lost.

FIRST—We ask individuals everywhere to contribute at once, and to urge it upon their friends and neighbors.

SECOND—We appeal to all churches and organized bodies to act promptly, generously and efficiently.

THIRD—We urge upon EVERY GOVERNOR OF EVERY STATE immediately to bring this matter to the attention of their Legislatures and people. Our last statistics show that nearly $200,000 is needed within the coming fortnight, to supply this people with seed for Spring planting. It can only be furnished by State action. Every consideration of interest also demands that this new State should be enabled to become self-sustaining, productive, and eventually rich—thus to fulfill her destiny, and to help others, as we are now helping her.

We ask, therefore, every Legislature to do as they would have others do to them in like distress, and at once to grant ample supplies.

All money sent to our Treasurer, JOHN E. WILLIAMS, Metropolitan Bank, New York City, will be gratefully acknowledged and effectively used.

All Clothing should be sent to "GEN. POMEROY, Atchison, Kansas," and freight should be prepaid. DaWlm

From the N. H. Gazette.

Who Shall Represent Cong. District No. 1.

Two years since there was something of a close contest in this District, between Hon. Daniel Marcy a Democratic merchant and ship master of Portsmouth, and Gilman Marston, Esq., a federal, alias Black Republican and Abolition lawyer of Exeter, in which Capt. Marcy, I think, came within about six or seven hundred votes of being elected, and now in the present canvass, which takes place on the 12th proximo, the political field seems to be left to the same opposing candidates. Hon. Robert Morrison of Portsmouth, an ex-Mayor of this city, who was put in nomination at the Breckinridge Convention in October last, (without being consulted, I presume, as he was then absent from the city and I think out of the State) very soon after the nomination of Capt. Marcy, expressed a desire that Marcy's name should be substituted on the Breckinridge ticket in place of his. This I had reason to know, Mr. Editor, at the time, and you probably were equally well advised.

Furthermore it may be stated, that this desire was expressed by Mr. Morrison, not from any disaffection towards the Breckinridge wing of the party, of which portion he remains one of the firmest members, but from a strong desire to unite the entire Democracy in the great questions now agitating the whole country. I may add also that there has been a mutual and perfect understanding between Mr. Morrison and Mr. Marcy on this matter, that there has been no strife, political asperity or ill feeling at any time between them, and I think I may say with truth, that Capt. Marcy would as freely, and with the same cordiality withdraw his name in favor of Mr. Morrison, as the latter has done for him, were the circumstances such as to render Mr. Morrison's election as probable. But I now perceive by Mr. Morrison's letter in the Gazette, that his name is publically withdrawn.—Hence, I feel free as a Breckinridge man to vote for Capt. Marcy as I did most cordially two years ago. I think no principle involved in the Presidential election will be compromised by so doing, and hope every man of the Breckinride wing of the party will do the same. This I do also the more readily, as I believe there is very little if any difference of political opinion between these two gentlemen. It is true that Mr. Marcy as a delegate to the Charleston Convention voted many times for Mr. Douglas; but it is also true that he was not a Douglas man, but probably did so in the outset under the impression (though not so specially instructed) that a large majority of the Democratic party of his State were for Douglas, and no doubt they were so. Others under the same circumstances would perhaps have taken a different course, under the presumption that the election of Mr. Douglas would have been too great an evil to inflict on the party; but I cannot doubt that Mr. Marcy was actuated by the best intentions; that he had hopes that the Southern delegates in the first instance would not withdraw, or that they would finally return, and that some other candidate less exceptionable might be selected and agreed upon.

There can be no reason to doubt the soundness and reliability of Capt. Marcy's political sentiments: his judgment, sound sense, business habits and mercantile experience in all our commercial transactions, both as a merchant and shipmaster, are second to no one in New Hampshire; and no man in this State has a greater interest in promoting a lasting, a perpetual union of sentiment and action between the Northern and Southern sections of the country, than Daniel Marcy. Is there a Democrat in this District who would not vote for such a man, in preference to an Abolition lawyer who boasted only two years since, (or his friends did for him) that his sentiments remained the same as in 1846, when he voted for the personal liberty bill, intended to defeat the fugitive slave law of Washington, and aided in the passage of John P. Hale's Abolition resolutions? Will any well minded Republican vote for a man avowing sentiments such as are held by Mr. Marston in perilous times like the present, while all moderate Republicans are going for a total repeal of such measures? I trow not.

A. G.

HONORABLE CONCESSION.—The Cincinnati Gazette, one of the ablest and most influential of the Black Republican papers in Ohio, avows its willingness to accept the Border State plan of compromise, which varies but slightly from that of Mr. Crittenden. It says:

We need not deceive ourselves as to the character of the conflict that is before us. We must not stand upon unimportant formalities, or higgle about barren abstractions. We can afford to surrender something of mere partisan feeling or personal pride. Let us candidly inquire how much more than sacrifices of this sort, for our country's good, is involved in accepting the Border States platform. More we cannot offer. More we are sure the Border States will not expect. Can we meet on this common ground?

This is the spirit in which all patriotic citizens should and will meet this crisis. By concession alone on the part of the North can the present alarming troubles be settled, and those who resist concessions, and declare they will "yield not an inch," thereby show that they do not desire a settlement of these troubles, and thereby prove themselves to be at heart and in fact disunionists, and hostile to the peace and welfare of the country.

SINGING SCHOOL.—Mr. E. A. Tilton, formerly of Concord, commenced a singing school last evening, at the hall over Dr. Kimball's store. The attendance was large. Mr. Tilton brings good testimonials of ability and character, and we hope will receive such encouragement as will induce him to abide with us. The science of vocal music has never received that attention from our citizens which its importance merits. It is not yet too late to join the class which commenced on Thursday evening.

MOTHERS

CONSUMPTIVES.

An equal and normal circulation of the blood is health. An abnormal, that is to say, an excessive or deficient circulation or stagnation of the blood, is disease. To illustrate—inactivity of the Liver is caused by stagnation of the blood in that organ; diseases of the Kidneys, Inflammation of the Lungs, Disease of the Heart, &c., by the same cause, viz., Improper Circulation; and from the same cause spring all the minor forms of disease, to discover a certain cure, then, for these diseases, the first great inquiry is, What causes the blood to circulate?

For centuries it has been a matter of much study among scientific and medical men, and while many experiments have been made and much labor expended, the result, if it has been left to this century, among its other wonderful increase in knowledge, to make this grand discovery, also.

Acknowledging that life is the gift of the Creator and that "in Him we live and move and have our being," we find that the rotation of the earth, the planets move in their spheres, and all vegetable life is governed by certain absolute laws, so, and mad life is governed by a fixed law, which we cannot or destroy, and death, the certain effect, follows.

Analysis of the red corpuscles of the blood shows them to be compounds of iron, sulphur and phosphorous.

The air we breathe we know to contain a very large proportion of oxygen.

Oxygen, brought in contact with metal, evolves or emits electricity.

Electricity, brought in contact with a muscular fiber, causes it to contract.

These facts being indisputable, we have now the solution to the source or motive power of the heart. The oxygen in the air we breathe, coming in contact with the iron in the red corpuscles of the blood, emits electricity, which, when brought in contact with the heart, causes it to contract; and hence the power which expels the blood, and sends it tingling through the remotest extremities. What then, are the causes of CONSUMPTION, DROPSY, PALSY, PARALYSIS, ST. VITUS' DANCE, DYSPEPSIA, EPILEPSY, FEVER & AGUE, &c.? A deficiency of the red corpuscles containing the iron, sulphur and phosphorous, which results in a deficiency of electricity, and consequently an abnormal circulation. The blood becomes watery, colds and bronchial complaints and procuring causes—the sufferer becomes nervous, and subject to rheumatic pains and neuralgia—complaints of the liver and kidneys set in; in short, almost every type of disease has virulent fevers may be traced to this deficiency in the blood, of the corpuscles or red globules.

Our system contains a million of corpuscles, and while we do not pretend to say that we have discovered the "elixir vitæ," we do say that life can be materially prolonged by the use of the which restores the red globules and the normal circulation. Unsolicited testimonials from over three Sufferers from any organic disease. Unfortunates, who have by excess of the body or mind, reduced the standard of pur

COUGH DROPS
—FOR—
Phthisic, Colds, Asthma, Croup, Whooping and Chin Cough, and all diseases of the lungs.
☞ The proprietor and inventor of this valuable Medicine, being confident that his life has not only been protracted many years, but made comfortable, by a timely use of the innocent but effectual vegetable from which this mixture is extracted, therefore earnestly recommends it to all who are afflicted with any of the above named complaints.
Appended are some of the certificates and recommendations of these Drops. The first is from our respected brother, Elder Dennett, of Vt.:
Canaan, Sept. 4, 1848.—"Dear Br. Swett, I consider it a duty I owe to the public, as well as to yourself, briefly to state my opinion in regard to your excellent medicine. About six years ago I was taken sick with an affection of the lungs, or what my friends and I thought would terminate in consumption. Indeed I thought myself fast sinking under the pressure of this fatal disease, when I obtained some of your valuable Cough Drops, and after using two or three bottles, in the course of six or seven weeks, I found myself restored to usual health; and I have no reason to doubt but that your invaluable Cough Drops were the means of saving my life."
SAMUEL R. DENNETT.
New Castle, Jan. 10, 1841.—"Elder Swett:—Sir, your Cough Drops have fully cured the distressing cough, which has so long afflicted me; and judging from its effect on others of my acquaintance, as well as on myself, I feel confident that it is the best medicine now known for coughs and other lung complaints." WESLEY BURNHAM.
Exeter, Feb. 12, 1858.—"I have been recently cured of a very hard and dangerous cough, in the space of four days, by taking Dr. Swett's Cough Drops." J. BATCHELDER.
Newton, N. H., May 7, 1841.—"I am confident that no family would be willing to be without an assortment of Dr. Swett's medicines, if they knew their value as well as I do. Within the last year I have sold $200 worth of his medicines; and I have known them to remove many diseases that have resisted the power of all other medicines. I have been cured of a bad cough in four days by his Drops, and I am confident that they have saved the lives of several children in this vicinity. I have known many, who were sick, to recover by using some of his physical medicines, and then using his Panacea." DAVID CAMPBELL.
Exeter, May 19, 1841.—"I hereby certify that this Spring my daughter had a severe fit of sickness, and was attended by an eminent physician, who pronounced it lung fever. She grew worse until her bowels swelled, and she was so pressed at the lungs that she groaned at every breath; and those who saw her thought that without some speedy remedy she could live but a few days. At this stage of the disease, we obtained some of Dr. Swett's Cough Drops, and commenced giving a teaspoonful every half hour, and dispensed with giving her any other medicine. It relieved the cough and distress of the lungs, and by using two phials she has been entirely cured."
DAVID LANG.
Lawrence, July 27, 1854.—"I hereby testify that the Cough Drops prepared by Dr. Simeon Swett have given me very great relief from the whooping cough of late, and I would advise all who have a vest from that distressing complaint, to use them freely." MARY N. RICKER.
I know the above testimony of my wife with regard to the salutary effects of Dr. Swett's Cough Drops, to be correct.
CHARLES C. RICKER.
Canaan, Dec. 11, 1841.—"I have been troubled with Phthisic for a number of years, and have found more relief by using Dr. Swett's Cough Drops, than from all other medicines put together, though I have tried many." FANNY MINER.
"I have been cured of a severe cough by using Dr. Swett's Cough Drops. I therefore would sincerely recommend them to all who are afflicted with lung complaints, as I believe them the best medicine in my knowledge."
ELIZABETH CURRIER.
Canaan, Aug. 29, 1850.—"This certifies that we have found greater relief from Dr. S. Swett's Pills and Cough Drops, in very bad cases of phthisic in our family, than all other medicines put together." THEOPHILUS CURRIER,
SALLY CURRIER.
Exeter, July 30, 1841.—"I have found Dr. Swett's Cough Drops to be the most effectual remedy for Coughs, and for any other complaints of the lungs, with which I am acquainted."
NANCY F JONES.
Exeter, Jan. 10, 1851.—"As a debt due to the suffering, I would say that last winter I was confined by a severe cough and spitting of blood, which much alarmed my friends, and that I found a full and speedy cure by the use of only two or three bottles of Cough Drops, and two of Col. Moses Jewett's Cough and Consumption Liniment, prepared by Dr. Simeon Swett, of this town.
I have also experienced a remarkably quick cure of a severe attack of the rheumatism of late, by the application of one bottle of Jewett's Stimulating Liniment, prepared by Dr. Swett."
J. C. BURNHAM.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

MONDAY, MARCH 4, 1861.

☞ Mr. Lincoln is to be inaugurated as President, to-day. He assumes a solemn responsibility indeed. No President ever "came into power" under more trying circumstances, it seems to us. And a backward look at the few last Administrations, would seem to stamp the American people, or their self-chosen rulers, as fickle in the extreme. Did not Presidents Pierce and Buchanan take their seats under as favorable auspices, to say the least, as will Mr. Lincoln? And where were their friends and admirers at the close of their respective terms? Who shall say that Mr. Lincoln will do or fare any better? Either the people are remarkably ignorant when they "choose whom they will serve;" or else the very fact of being honored with a nation's suffrages, changes a man from a wise statesman into the veriest knave—in the estimation of the sovereign people.

JR.

REMARKABLE FACT.—The San Francisco Herald chronicles the following incident:

The day after Christmas last, a lady in this city became mother to a fine and healthy girl child. There is nothing startling in this fact, nor calculated to excite comment. As usual, mother and child did well, and progressed in health and strength. But two weeks afterwards, the same lady was again the mother of a child, a fine boy, who is also flourishing as well as the doubly taxed mother. This circumstance, although of extreme rarity, being probably the second well ascertained case of the kind in the United States, is one which is known to medical men as having occurred before, and is accounted for upon clearly ascertained physical grounds. A similar case was reported in the New York papers as having occurred in that city a few years since.

☞ A few days since three persons in the family of Mr. George Manning, Newburyport, sleeping in a room where coal was burning in a stove, with the gas thrown into the room by dampers in the funnel, came near dying. Not answering to a call in the morning, their room was opened and all three were found to be insensible, and probably in one half half hour would have been dead. It was some time before they could walk or speak.

☞ At New Haven, March 1, a boiler in the gun factory of the Whitney Arms Company exploded at noon, demolishing the machinery in the east end of the building, and injuring twenty persons. Two men were blown across the street; several were badly scalded. Nine were injured by being buried in the ruins; but will probably recover. Physicians and engine companies went to the scene, but the latter were not needed. The cause of the explosion is unknown.

☞ In Walpole, N. H., Dea. Robert Barrett, under an attack of a temporary insanity, committed suicide by hanging himself in his barn. He had been unwell for some time previous. He was one of the most respectable men in the town, and was the last any one would suspect of committing such an act. The event caused a profound sensation in the place.

RICHMOND, VA., March 1.—In the convention a resolution to submit the question to a vote of the people, whether they will remain with the North or secede, was referred.

The speeches made to-day indicate that the peace propositions are acceptable to the Unionists, but not to the secessionists.

The peace commissioners were invited to take seats in the convention as a substitute for the resolution inviting them to address that body.

There are ten hundred million men on the globe to-day, and I declare that the greater part of them are no better than caterpillars, so far as anything that they have done, or are doing in this world, is concerned. Caterpillars creep up on trees, and grow fat, and curl up, and die, and that is the history of the greatest number of the human race.—H. W. Beecher.

CONGRESS, FRIDAY, March 1.

In the Senate, a bill for reimbursing Com. Paulding's expenses for defending the suit against him by one of Walker's men, was passed.

The report from the select committee on the peace conference and Mr. Crittenden's proposition, was taken up.

Mr. Douglas asked that the resolutions from the House should also be taken up. Agreed to.

Mr. Mason said that it ought to be sent to a committee to be made intelligible.

Mr. Seward offered his joint resolution as a substitute.

Mr. Hunter moved to strike out the first article of the peace proposition, and insert the first Crittenden resolution.

Mr. Clingman raised the point of order against any amendment.

Mr. Seward claimed that the amendment of Mr. Hunter would change the character of the proposition, which would then not be the recommendation of the peace conference, but simply of Congress. Considerable debate followed, Mr. Clark suggesting to Mr. Hunter to offer Mr. Crittenden's resolutions as a whole and not as a series.

Mr. Hunter opposed the proposition, arguing that if it was adopted the South would lose the advantages of the Dred Scott decision.

Mr. Crittenden said he was willing to sacrifice his own views for the good of his country, and would vote against his own and in favor of this proposition in hopes of a pacific settlement.

Mr. Mason said he did not favor amending the constitution, nor sanction the plan proposed by the peace convention, and denounced it as subversive of what rights the South already had.

A long discussion ensued.

Mr. Baker argued in favor of submitting the question to the people, saying events are changed so much that he was willing to violate the Chicago platform and give up a great deal to the border States, but nothing to secession.

Mr. Green said the propositions of the conference were the merest twaddle. The right of property in slaves, must be settled beyond a doubt, everywhere.

[These declarations of Mason and Green show that the slave power will not suffer the Peace Congress resolutions to pass the Senate.]

In the House, an amendment to the fugitive slave law was passed; 92 to 87. By this amendment the examination or trial of the fugitive is to be public;—and if he claims to be free, he is to have a jury trial in the slave state where he is claimed. The Marshal who takes him must pass him to the Marshal of the state where he is claimed, and the latter must secure his jury trial. The law imposes a fine of $1000 on the Marshal if he does not fulfil the duties assigned by the act. It enacts that no citizen shall be compelled to aid the Marshal or owner in the capture of a fugitive, unless force is employed for the capture of the fugitive from the Marshal. It also fixes the fee of the commissioners at $10.

The act to admit New Mexico to the Union, was rejected, by being laid on the table, 114 to 117.

The bill to amend the act for the rendition of fugitives from justice was taken up, and Mr. Co. win explained its provisions—It was to avoid contradictory decisions made by Governors of States, who were not judges of constitutional law.

The bill was rejected, 47 against 126.

During a call of the House to vote on some peace congress question, Mr. Hughes of Maryland asked that the Sergeant-at-Arms might bring South Carolina members before the House, as they had been absent since December 20th.

Mr. Stanton of Ohio hoped not, as the public business had not suffered the least detriment.

Mr. Sherman of Ohio moved to suspend the rules requiring that no bill be sent from one House to the other within the last three days of the session for concurrence, and that no bill be presented to the President on the last day of the session.

They were suspended accordingly.

On a motion to suspend the rules, for the reception of the peace proposition, the House decided not to suspend—92 against 68.

A resolution was passed paying Mr. Williamson of New York, $1000 for his expenses while contesting Mr. Sickles' seat.

The Nevada Territorial bill was passed, as also the Dacotah bill.

The Senate amendment to the Post Office bill was made the special order for Saturday at 12 o'clock.

After much squabbling the volunteer bill was taken up.

John Cochrane of N. Y., opposed it.

Adjourned at half past ten, P. M.

A SOUTHERN ARGUMENT.—Hon. Jeremiah Clemens, not a fire-eater, writing to Ex-Gov. Foote, to console him for his defeat, says,:—"If Tennessee had gone with the seceding States, the North might have been frightened into a compromise." That is precisely the kind of argument by which the South has hitherto succeeded, and hopes still to do so.—Atlas.

CAPTAIN POPE'S CRIME.

The Washington correspondent of the New York Herald gives the following account of the gag which is proposed to be applied to Capt. Pope, of the Engineers.

While traitors are turning up daily all over the country, and are either treated with the highest diplomatic consideration by the heads of the several departments, or are not so much as "invited" to appear before a general court-martial, it seems extraordinary that such a proceeding as I am at liberty to announce, should have ever emanated, all the surrounding circumstances considered. It is well known that Capt. John Pope, of the Corps of Topographical Engineers of the United States army, was invited with others to accompany Mr. Lincoln from Springfield to Washington.

This morning Captain Pope received a communication from Adjutant General Cooper, commanding him, by order of the Secretary of War, to proceed at once to Newport Barracks, Kentucky, to appear before a general Court Martial, which has been ordered to convene there on the 4th of March. The charges against the Captain are for "using contemptuous and disrespectful words against the President of the United States." The first specification is that Captain Pope did at Cincinnati, Ohio, on the 9th day of February, 1861, in an address to a literary club in that city, use the following language:—

"It is impossible to control the astonishment and indignation which every American must feel when he considers in what a position a few months of the administration of a bad or a weak man have placed this great and prosperous country. If we overcome this danger it will at least serve as a warning, and a most impressive one, to the American people, to be careful for the future in the selection of a Chief Magistrate."

If Captain Pope said what is charged against him, he only expressed an opinion as an American citizen, which right a man is not, or ought not to be deprived of in this country by the fact that he is an officer of the American army.

We have been shown a document signed by the Mayors in office of the cities of the United States and Canada, certifying to the superior excellence of Dr. Ayer's Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla, and to the value of all his remedies as articles of great public utility. Such evidence from such high sources bears us out triumphantly in the position we have long maintained with regard to Doct. Ayer's preparations, or more particularly our advertisements of them. No publishers need be more opposed than we are to the promulgation of quackery in any shape, but we knew when we began, that his remedies were above any suspicion of deception—that they were about the best it is possible to produce for the cure of disease, and that they have the confidence of all communities where they are known. Not alone because the Mayors of the whole country believe them useful to their people, but because we know from experience that they are so to ours, do we believe we are rendering a substantial service to our readers in making their virtues known to them.—Courier, Princeton, Ky.

PARTIES A CURSE.—Bishop Clarke, of Providence, made an eloquent argument for the Union, concession and peace, a day or two since. He was severe upon all existing parties. The following may serve as a sample:—

It is not a question of principle on either side, which hinders the settlement of our troubles; it is a question of party; it is the pride of party, the selfishness of party, the madness of party. I pray God that before a twelvemonth has passed, every existing party in the land may be swept into oblivion! They have cursed us long enough, the whole of them. They rest upon no real principle. Not one of them is under the control of its best men. For scores of years no man has been elected to the Presidency by the spontaneous verdict of the people, because he was the wisest, ablest and best in the nation. Caucus has been king, and the very word caucus has come to be an offence and a nuisance. Am I not telling you the truth? Do you not know that it is truth?

VIRGINIA.—The Alexandria Gazette says that the "deliberate" movements and "slow proceedings" in the Virginia convention are giving much annoyance and dissatisfaction to those who voted against the members elected to that convention, whilst those who by a large majority elected them seem to have confidence that they will act prudently, wisely and patriotically.

The Richmond Whig states that an attempt was made on Monday to overawe one of the members of the convention for a speech which he made. To do this a public meeting was called by handbill, at which secession speeches were made and groans given for the offending member.—A design to burn him in effigy was prevented. The Whig styles it the first movement towards a condition of anarchy.

ST. LOUIS, March 1.—The convention met at Jefferson City this morning, Judge Gamble in the chair.

A resolution was adopted requiring the delegates to the convention and the officers thereof to take an oath to support the constitutions of the United States and Missouri.

A motion for secret sessions was almost unanimously defeated. A long discussion ensued on a motion to reconsider the vote requiring an oath.

Adjourned to meet at St. Louis on Monday.

TO VOTE FOR MARCY, BELL AND BURNS is to vote in favor of conciliation and concession for the sake of the Union—is to vote to preserve the Union and the Constitution; but to vote for Marston, Rollins and Edwards is to say that you will "yield not an inch" to save the Union.—Patriot.

Some dozen applications for patents have been made by the citizens of States which have seceded, and in every instance they take oath that they are citizens of the United States.—Boston Traveller.

POLICIES on lives, payable to the wife, or to the legal representative of the person insured.

POLICIES payable to the person insured, on his attaining the age of 50, 60 or 70; or to his representative in case of decease before attaining this age.

PREMIUMS may be paid, quarterly, semi-annually, or annually, at the option of the insured.

The long experience of this excellent institution, like the one hundred years' experience of the great Equitable Life Insurance Co. of London, and other kindred institutions, proves their stability and perpetuity when established upon the right principle. Investments made with them have proved more remunerative than with Savings Banks.

The time is near, when to protect one's family from the loss and want often attendant upon the death of its provider, will be as universal as it is now to protect ourselves from loss by fire.

On reflecting man can sit at his fireside with his young family about him, and feel at ease—when he knows that if death should take him from them, they would be cast upon a selfish world, without the means for education or support, which he can easily provide for them thro' a life policy.

WISTAR'S BALSAM WILD CHERRY.

In the whole history of medical discoveries, NO REMEDY has performed so many or such remarkable cures of the Throat, Lungs and Chest,—of Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, or of Consumption itself, as this far-famed, long-tried and justly celebrated Balsam. So generally acknowledged is the supe for excellence of this remedy, that but few of the many who have tested its virtues by experience fail to keep it at hand, as a speedy and certain cure for sudden attacks of Cold—fully believing that its remedial powers are comprehensive enough to embrace every form of disease, from the slightest cold to the most dangerous symptom of pulmonary complaint.

George W. Millet, Esq.

Editor of the Norway Advertiser, gives his opinion of this great remedy substantially as follows:

NORWAY VILLAGE, Me., Aug 4, 1860.

Messrs. S. W. Fowle & Co.—Gentlemen:—For a remedy of such undoubted merit as DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, I cheerfully give you my testimony, and trust that others may be induced thereby to give it a trial and be relieved. Several years since I first became acquainted with this Balsam at a time of distressing cough and cold, which took such firm hold of my lungs as to render me unfit for business, and its operation proved to be speedy and permanent cure, after trying various other remedies in vain

In our town this remedy is a great favorite with many; and if all who have tried it will but give it a fair trial, I think they will find it to be of more service in pulmonary affections than any other remedy of its class before the public.

Yours respectfully. GEO. W MILLET.

GREENLAND, March 1, 1861.

Dear Messrs. Editors:—The first day of Spring has arrived, and although the weather is mild, it is not appropriate to that word Spring, which is ever suggestive of tender grass, fresh flowers and softer airs: but the Winter, which has been unusually severe, has "broken." The sun's earlier rising and later lingering, the smoking roofs under his warmer rays; the more contented ruminations of our cattle, standing quietly under his eye; the unusually brisk cackling of our hens, the extra strut and frequent clarion note of chanticleer: all give promise of brighter, warmer days to come. The cackling of our one-year olds is all the louder because they have laid their first spring eggs in some sly nook; they rejoice with the heart of a young mother, anticipating the fond cluck to be hereafter given to the young chicks gathered under the maternal wing.

We have quite a large flock of poultry, and we allow them the free run of the farm at this season. As we keep no boy to do our birds'-nesting, your correspondent takes the place of one, and it is quite exciting to scramble round the hay-mow, peeking into every hole and corner to find that nest of which Biddy is so proud and secretive.—There is a wise Providence in withholding from her that arithmetical accuracy which would lead her to detect the kidnapping of her embryo young; for surely it would be a great grief, if she knew that every new-laid egg was abstracted daily, to be sent down South to market.

At the model farm of our neighbor, the Colonel, there is a small building of Gothic architecture expressly for the feathered tribe, with an enclosed plat of ground at the back of it, for their out-door rambles and scratching propensities. Within this neat, commodious house, Biddy becomes quite a sober, regular matron: a very different affair from our roving gipsies, who hide their eggs in the most un-get-at-able corners. Within this aristocratic mansion there are no nooks but those regularly made for them by design, and into which the bright eye of their lady mistress peeps daily to see if all is right. But after all there is a kind of slavery in being looked after too tenderly. A bird shut up (no matter how many dainty crumbs and easy roosting-poles it may have) is far from the happy state which freedom bestows, to find its own treasures in the yard, the road or the field, wherever its own sweet will shall lead, where its reward shall be according to its diligence in seeking and its perseverance in scratching. I commend to you the moral.

I commenced this letter with fair weather, and you see I have continued and ended it with fowl. GREENLAND.

☞ The new room for the City Marshal is quite a cosy, comfortable place for our vigilant police. One would'nt think such a pleasant apartment could have been fitted up in such a dreary old building. The room has been painted and papered, carpeted with oil cloth, and is to be furnished with gas, a table and six office chairs. We learn that no smoking is to be allowed in this room, which injunction will doubtless keep away many loafers. G. E. D.

PEOPLE'S LYCEUM.—The last lecture of the course for the benefit of the Free-will Baptist Society of this city, will be delivered in the Pearl street Church, on Wednesday evening, March 6th, by Rev. C. O. Libby, of North Berwick, Me. Subject:—"The value of Common Sense."—Tickets for sale at the door—15 cents.—Commence at half past 7.

WASHINGTON, March 2.—President Lincoln submitted the draft of his inaugural last night to those who have accepted positions in his Cabinet. It makes less than two columns of the National Intelligencer. It positively asserts the determination of the new administration to execute the laws, in such language as shows that the forts will not be surrendered, and the duties will be collected.

The only remaining chance for compromise is the passage of the House bill, embodying the Corwin propositions, by the Senate, where they will come up at noon to day. The prospect is, that Mason, Hunter, Lane, Green and Wigfall will vote against them to defeat them.

NEW YORK, Mar. 2.—[Times Correspondence.]—Dispatches from the Richmond Convention announce that the secession ordinance is drafted, and will probably pass and go to the people with the inaugural.

Mr. Tyler is doing all in his power to throw Virginia out of the Union, and it is believed he will succeed if the inaugural suggests coercion.

[World's Correspondence.] —Senators Wigfall and Hemphill withdrew to-day, being convinced that the secession of Texas will be ratified by the people.

WASHINGTON, March 1.—Lieutenants Hayes and Holmes of the marine corps have resigned, and are going South. Lieutenants Bailey and Montgomery of the artillery corps have resigned, and are also going South.

☞ Abraham Lincoln is the sixteenth President, (counting Tyler and Fillmore) of the United States.

TRENTON, N. J., March 1.—Mr. Weston, the pedestrian, arrived here last night, and left at 10 o'clock this forenoon.

NEW ORLEANS, Mar. 1.—Galveston advices state that Capt. Hill has refused to evacuate Fort Brown, or to surrender the government property. He had ordered reinforcements from the Ringold Barracks to retake the property on Brazos Island.—A collision between the government and State troops was imminent.

☞ A Washington dispatch to the N. Y. Times says:—

The War Department, this morning, is in receipt of dispatches from Maj. Anderson who denies that he has been ill, as reported. He was never in better health, or better prepared to meet any emergency.

☞ In Massachusetts in 1859, three deaths occurred of hydrophobia, all of whom were males.

I have taken but one bottle, and am entirely well." D. D. BAXTER, Dry Goods Dealer, No. 5 Appleton Block, Lowell, Mass.

I have been afflicted with Salt Rheum in its worst form for a long time, and suffered more than can be imagined, except by those similarly afflicted. I tried one bottle of your Compound, and can honestly say that I believe myself entire ly cured.—JOHN A. MORDO, Pearl St. House, Boston, Mass.

I certify that my friend, Wm. T. Glidden, Esq., presented me with a bottle of "Gardiner's Rheumatic Compound," in 1856, when I was suffering, with a painful attack of Neuralgia and Rheumatism, and that it proved to be of decided benefit.—ALBERT SMITH, Ex-Member of Congress from Maine.

THE FAMINE IN KANSAS.

Appeal for the Destitute, from the New York City Committee.

WM. C. BRYANT, Chairman. J. E. WILLIAMS, Treasurer.

Chas. H. Marshall, Seth B. Hunt, R. H. McCurdy, Morris Ketchum, G. C. Bronson, Chas. W. Elliott, Daniel Lord, Daniel Drew, J. S. Wadsworth.

It has become our imperative duty to urge upon the public attention the fact that over 40,000 of our fellow citizens in Kansas are now in imminent danger of starving. We have evidence from all sources—from Gen. Pomeroy, Chairman of the Territorial Relief Committee,—from the columns of nearly every newspaper, of all shades of politics—from our own reliable agent, who has just returned. There was no doubt of the misery, terrible, wide-spread, destructive.

We have evidence that whole families have already died of starvation; and that thousands more must lie down discouraged, and die of want or disease consequent upon it, unless prompt and thorough relief is at once applied. Congress is now attempting to sustain the starving Indians, but our 40,000 fellow countrymen—men, women and children—can neither get away from their desolation, nor borrow, nor beg. Their only dependence is upon us, who have never known hunger.

THEY MUST BE SUSTAINED. Will you help us to help them?

To assure you that whatever you do will reach them, we state that in every destitute township is a Relief Committee—these are all represented by the Territorial Committee, as follows:

TERRITORIAL COMMITTEE.

S. C. Pomeroy, Atchison; W. W. Guthrie, Brown County; J. L. McDowell, Leavenworth; Rev. C. Reynolds, Lawrence; Rev. L. Bodwell, Topeka; Dr. S. Ayers, Linn County; E. D. Blake, Junction City; C. B. Lines, Wabaunsee; F. B. Baker, Centralia; Rev. Wm. Bishop, Salina;—Andrew A. Spencer, Jefferson County; J. C. Burnett, Bourbon County; J. C. Lambdin, Butler County; Geo. M. Russell, Wyandotte.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

S. C. Pomeroy, Chairman; J. L. McDowell, Rev. C. Reynolds, Rev. L. Bodwell, F. P. Baker.

S. C. POMEROY, Corresponding Secretary.

G. H. FAIRCHILD, Treasurer.

Gen. Pomeroy is Chairman, and at ATCHISON devotes his whole time and energy, with assistants, to the receipt of food and clothing, all of which are delivered upon requisitions of Town Committees, and are distributed through them.—This organization is prompt, thorough and effective, and we advise the sending of supplies through it. Money and clothing are needed from us;—food can be got in the West.

The names of our committee appear at the head of this appeal, and we hope will be sufficient to induce co-operation. Our Treasurer is JOHN E. WILLIAMS, President of the Metropolitan Bank, New York City. All money sent to him will be applied to the payment of Gen. Pomeroy's drafts on account of freights and sacks. We appeal to you all, as to every dictate of humanity, of love or, and of public good, to unite with us in alleviating this great calamity. There is no time to be lost.

FIRST—We ask individuals everywhere to contribute at once, and to urge it upon their friends and neighbors.

SECOND—We appeal to all churches and organized bodies to act promptly, generously and efficiently.

THIRD—We urge upon EVERY GOVERNOR OF EVERY STATE immediately to bring this matter to the attention of their Legislatures and people. Our last statistics show that nearly $250,000 is needed within the coming fortnight, to supply this people with seed for Spring planting. It can only be furnished by State action. Every consideration of interest also demands that this new State should be enabled to become self-sustaining, productive, and eventually tax-bearing. Our fate is in our hands, and to help others, as we are now helping her.

We ask, therefore, every Legislature to do as they would have others do to them in like distress, and at once to grant ample supplies.

All money sent to our Treasurer, JOHN E. WILLIAMS, Metropolitan Bank, New York City, will be gratefully acknowledged and effectively used.

All Clothing should be sent to "GEN. POMEROY, Atchison, Kansas," and freight should be prepaid. DaWlm

GROVER & BAKER

FAMILY AND MANUFACTURING

Sewing Machines,

would invite especial attention to the same.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE makes the only seam formed by a Sewing Machine, in which each stitch is independently locked, and without dependence on other stitches for strength, and the only seam that will admit of the thread being cut at every fourth stitch without injury to the seam in wear.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE is adapted to all varieties of fabrics, sewing equally well the finest Swiss Muslin or the heaviest cloth or leather, and requiring no adjustment for any kind of sewing other than the adaptation of needles and thread.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE sews from ordinary spools without rewinding, and fastens its own seams, thereby saving time and thread. It will sew common spool cotton, silk and linen thread with equal facility.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE is so simple that an intelligent child of ten years can readily learn to operate it. It is more easily kept in order than any other machine, and need not be taken apart to be oiled.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE makes the only stitch that cannot be injured by washing and ironing, and the only stitch that forms an elastic and durable seam. Fabrics put together with this stitch may wear out and drop to pieces from original weakness, or hard usage, but come apart or give way at the seams, they o nnot; they will hold together when the cloth or calico around them hangs in rags and tatters.

MR. BUCHANAN'S INAUGURAL.

As Mr. Buchanan is about to retire from office, it is well to point the contrast between the promises of his inaugural and the fruits of his administration. Mr. Buchanan declaimed strongly upon the duty of the President to maintain the Constitution and the Union. He closes his administration with the Union practically dissolved through his own weakness or connivance, and the Constitution scouted by half a dozen states.

Mr. Buchanan proceeded as follows:

"Next in importance to the maintenance of the Constitution and the Union is the duty of preserving the Government free from the taint or even the suspicion of corruption. Public virtue is the vital spirit of republics, the love of money has usurped its place, although the forms of free government may remain for a season, the substance has departed for ever."

Yet Mr. Buchanan surrounded himself with plunderers and traitors who have made his administration execrable.

Again he said:

"Having determined not to become a candidate for re-election, I shall have no motive to influence my conduct in administering the Government, except the desire ably and faithfully to serve my country, and to live in the grateful memory of my countrymen."

Alas, poor functionary! says the Independent. James Buchanan live in the grateful memory of his countrymen! Shades of Benedict Arnold and Judas Iscariot may as well expect the homage of grateful hearts.

TRAITORS.—Perhaps there is no place in the country where the treason of a few officers in the Army and Navy has created more surprise than in Portsmouth. This being a naval station, and many of the distinguished officers, both of the army and navy, having from time to time been stationed here, our citizens have had opportunities to become acquainted with them. Such has been the character of the gentlemen in both branches of the service, known in the society of Portsmouth, that we have come to regard an officer in the army or navy as another name for untarnished honor. For this reason we are the more surprised when a few men who have heretofore been classed with men of honor turn out to be traitors. But these circumstances, upon reflection, ought not to impair our confidence in the greatness of these honorable men. The traitors in the army and navy will not exceed the percentage of criminals in many other classes. Besides, they have winnowed out the chaff and let the country know who are true and who false. It is mortifying to discover what men have been enjoying the honors and emoluments of the country which they have betrayed. But it is worth all it will cost to know whom to trust. The indignation which the proposition of Lieut. Hamilton has excited in the navy, shows how little he knows of the character of the gentlemen with whom he has been permitted to associate. The enthusiasm which the name of Wool creates whenever mentioned, indicates the withering contempt with which the country will hereafter hear the name of Twiggs.

REMARKABLE ENDURANCE OF A FOWL.—In the great snow storm of Jan. 16th, 1861, on the farm of Mr. Samuel Shaw, in this city, near the railroad crossing on Greenland road, a large white Shanghai hen wandered from the barn into the yard; and unable to get in again, was covered up by the snow, and buried more than a foot beneath its surface. She was missed the same afternoon, but as nothing could be found of her, poor Shanghai was given up, as perished in the storm. Nothing was seen of her until on the 13th of February, just four weeks after her disappearance, the warm weather had thawed the snow to her resting place, and unaided she stept out of her place of captivity, and walked back to the barn! She weighed about five pounds when buried, but less than two when thawed out. She has a good appetite and is fast regaining her flesh. While on the cold Friday, which occurred in the time, some fowls in the barn had their combs frozen, Shanghai beneath the snow wholly escaped being frost-bitten.

The new nation already propose to lay an export duty upon cotton. For a time a revenue would be derived; but within a very few years, there would be comparatively little demand." This outbreak will hasten, materially, the growing in other regions: a subject deeply agitating foreign nations at this moment. When cotton is done, slaves are done, and slaveholders, too. So they may put a heavy tax on boots and shoes, and go barefoot or pay the tax themselves. They may also compel northern school masters to pay a heavy sum for a license to teach, and sink deeper in ignorance and barbarism. They may promote Commander Ingraham to admiral of their navy, but it would be safe neither in the Mississippi or Lake Ponchartrain. There are various ways to exist, for a time. But speculations apart, the people are yet to be consulted: who at this moment may be glad to return to the protection and advantages of the stars and the stripes.

THE MILITARY BALL.—Great preparations are being made by the military men of the city to attend the 4th of March Ball, which is expected to eclipse anything of the kind since the last Inauguration. The Goodwin Guards appear on that night in their new uniform, which is very showy and imposing. The coat is scarlet-faced with gilt and buff, blue pants with buff stripe, and bear skin hats. They undoubtedly will make a fine appearance, and if pleasant will probably show themselves on parade on Monday. The Horse Guards in their rich uniforms, will be in attendance, also members of companies from Boston, Roxbury, Charlestown, Concord, Exeter, Hampton, Kittery, the Navy Yard, with many of the past officers and privates of disbanded companies, who will once more donn the helmet and plume. The citizen's dress, however, will be worn by many. The music will be by the Portsmouth Cornet and Turner's Quadrille Bands.

SINGING SCHOOLS.—We are glad to learn that Evening and Afternoon Singing Schools are being commenced in this city by Mr. E. A. Tilton. They are much needed.

From the Gazette.

Is Berry an Abolitionist?

The Black Republicans absurdly deny that their candidate for Governor is an abolitionist. Yet he is this and nothing else, and no amount of denial and special pleading can make him anything else. He was an abolitionist when he was nominated in 1846 by the "Liberty party" as their candidate for Governor, he was an abolitionist when in 1852 he was supported by the same party for Presidential elector upon a platform which declared that "slavery is a sin against God and a crime against man which no human enactment nor usage can make right; and that christianity, humanity and patriotism alike demand its abolition," and he is an abolitionist to-day, as the candidate of the Black Republican party for Governor. No word or line has ever appeared from him showing that he has recanted his sentiments or changed them in the slightest particular. He was forced upon the Blacks against the wishes and better judgment of the conservative portion of the party, by Fogg, who is as much an abolitionist as Garrison himself, under the threat that they must take him or be defeated, and his election will to all intents and purposes be a rank abolition triumph.—It is folly to deny this or pretend the contrary. Are there really any national, Union-loving men in the ranks of the Black Republican party? If so, will they, can they vote for Nathaniel S. Berry?—Will they thus give their aid to help forward the irrepressible conflict doctrine at such a time as this? We tell all such that by such a vote they will declare themselves abolitionists and enemies of the peace and welfare of the country, and that they cannot escape or evade this position. Nathaniel S. Berry is an abolitionist on the record, his nomination was forced by abolitionists, and his election will be an abolition triumph and nothing less.—We devoutly hope there may be patriotism enough in the State to insure his defeat.

The Election.

The election will take place in one week from next Tuesday. We have from time to time endeavored to indicate the important results which may flow from it. Democrats are you prepared? Union men have you done all you ought to do to preserve the peace and to restore the integrity of the country? Remember that elections are carried by the majority of votes. You must not only think and act particularly in the present crisis, but you must induce others to do so. Converse with your neighbors, and make them understand, as you do, the necessity of laying aside all sectional and party feelings to oppose and defeat the Party which has already broken the country in pieces, and is threatening violent measures which will plunge it into a civil war. You have now a cause to exert yourselves, worth the labors of a lifetime. We offer you for governor, for Congress, for all the principal offices, men of ability, of the highest standing, honorable, upright men, selected for their attachment to the Union of the States, and their opposition to the schemes of fanatical disorganizers. Give them a support worthy of them and of yourselves.

The disunionists are active, being thoroughly organized, and animated by the hope of sharing the offices of the country among themselves. To defeat them we must be organized, active and vigilant. If we succeed we turn the tide of fanaticism and disunion, we secure the country against the the probabilities of civil war. Are not such results worth our earnest, constant, and untiring exertions? Let every man be at his post.

Re-Union of the Democracy of N. H.

We understand that the two Democratic Committees of this State met at Concord on Wednesday for the purpose of reconciling differences and effecting a re union of the Democratic party, and that the movement was entirely successful so far as the Committees are concerned. Of course the people will ratify this peace arrangement, and the Democracy of New Hampshire will once more present a united front to the foe. We have not been fully informed of the terms of settlement agreed upon, but learn that they extend to an arrangement between the two papers at Concord, the Patriot and the Standard, and were equally satisfactory to Mr. Burke and his friends and to the gentlemen on the other side.

We hail this reconciliation with unaffected gratification. We rejoice at the prospect that the Democracy of New Hampshire are once more to present a united front to the foe. This is the one thing that has for a long time been needed to give us the ascendancy in this State, and with such an attitude and vigorous effort victory is sure to come again to our banner. We hope every Democrat in the State will come cordially into the arrangement that has been made, and improve the brief time which intervenes to the election in the best manner for success. We possibly may not be successful in the approaching contest—although there is now every encouragement to labor zealously for this end—for want of time for the settlement which has been made to work its full effect. But with a united and thoroughly aroused Democracy, the reign of Black Republicanism in New Hampshire will be brought to an early close. Let all take hold of the work in earnest and it will not be cause for great surprise if the sun goes down upon a glorious Democratic victory in New Hampshire on the 12th of March.

☞ Our readers will see, that both the Senators in Congress from this State have already voted against the proposition reported by the Peace Congress to settle the difficulties which now distract the country. We suppose our Representatives will follow in the same course. Thus it is apparent, that these men and the party they represent are determined to make no concessions and to consent to no action, which may tend to restore the Union.—Their measures lead to disunion and civil war. As Phillips and Garrison have preached disunion, so these men are actively pushing their doctrines into practice.

THE CONFLICT RAGES.—The irrepressible conflict in the Black Republican party waxes hot decidedly. The Greeley faction are assailing the Seward wing with beautiful ferocity, and the Seward side are meeting the assaults with death dealing blows on their adversaries. The end will be the triumph of conservatism, and all the patriots the land will shout amen!

MOTHERS

CONSUMPTIVES.

An equal and normal circulation of the blood is health. An abnormal, slow, or fast, may, as excessive or deficient circulation or stagnation of the blood, is disease. To illustrate—torpidity of the Liver is caused by stagnation of the bloodin that organ; diseases of the Kidneys, Inflammation of the Lungs, Disease of the Heart, &c., by the same cause, viz., Improper Circulation; and from the same cause arises all the minor forms of disease. To discover a certain cure, then, for these diseases, the first great inquiry is, Which cause the blood to circulate?

For centuries it has been a matter of much study among scientific and medical men, and while many experiments have been made and much labor expended upon the inquiry, it has been left to this century, among its other wonderful increase in knowledge, to make this grand discovery also

Acknowledging that life is the gift of the Creator and that "in Him we live and move and have our being," we still venture the remark that, as the planets move in their spheres, and all vegetable life is governed by certain fixed laws, so animal life is traceable to a fixed cause, which removes or destroy, and death, the certain effect follows.

Analysis of the red corpuscles of the blood shows them to be compounds of iron, sulphur and phosphorous.

The air we breathe we know to contain a very large proportion of oxygen.

Oxygen, brought in contact with metal, evolves or emits electricity.

Electricity, brought in contact with a muscular fiber, causes contraction.

These facts being indisputable, we have now the solution as to the motor or motive power of the heart. The oxygen in the air we breathe, coming in contact with the iron in the red corpuscles of the blood, emits electricity, which, coming in contact with the heart, causes it to contract; and hence the power which expels the blood from it, and sends it tingling through the remotest arteries. What, then, are the causes of CONSUMPTION, DROPSY, FALS'S PALSIES, STROKES, HEART DANGER, DYSPEPSIA, EPILEPSY, FEVER & AGUE, &c.?—a deficiency of the red corpuscles containing the iron, sulphur and phosphorus, which causes a deficiency of electricity, and consequently an abnormal circulation. The blood becomes watery, colds and bronchial complaints, and consumption ensue—the sufferer becomes nervous, and subject to rheumatic pains and neuralgia—complaints of the liver and kidneys set in; in short, almost every type of disease but virulent fevers may be traced to this deficiency in the blood, or its corpuscles or red globules.

Old age causes a deficiency of corpuscles, and while we do not pretend to say that we have discovered the "elixir vitæ," we do say that life can be materially prolonged by the use of the

which restores the red globules and the normal circulation. Consumptives! friends of consumptives! Sufferers from any organic disease! Unfortunates who have by excess in the body or mind, reduced the standard of the blood and diminished the red globules! Ladies suffering any of the distresses known as female complaints, be persuaded the "Blood Food" can cure you. It has cured thousands of desperate cases where all hope has been given up. Try one bottle of it, do not throw away your only hope. The "Blood Food" is an unfailing remedy; give it a trial.

An enlightened medical treatise, carrying out and fully proving the theory advanced here, and the truth of which we stand to any interested party, on the receipt of two 3 cent postage stamps. Blood Food is sold by all druggists; or where it cannot be had, I will send 6 bottles, free of expense, for $6. Price, single bottle, $1. It is put up in 8 oz. vials, in yellow wrappers—the old kind, in small bottles, in red wrappers, having been done away with; and bears the fac-simile signature of Church & Dupont upon the face of the wrapper. Beware of counterfeits and imitations.

It also revivifies, reinstates and renews the blood in all its original purity, and thus restores and renovates the system invulnerable to attacks of disease. It is the only preparation ever offered to the world in a popular form so as to be within the reach of all. So chemically and skillfully combined as to be the most powerful tonic, and yet so perfectly adapted as to act in perfect accordance with the laws of nature, and hence tender the weakest stomach, and tone up the digestive organs, and allay all nervous and other irritation. It is also invaluable for those living in its effects and never followed by lassitude or depression of spirits. It is composed entirely of vegetables, and those thoroughly combining powerful tonic and soothing properties, and consequently can never injure. As a cure preventive and cure of

THE CORDIAL IS ALL WE CLAIM FOR IT!

And to you we appeal, to detect the illness which is stealing not only of your daughters before it is too late, but also your sons and husbands, for while the fascination, from false delicacy, often go down to a premature grave, rather than let their condition be known in time, the latter are often so mixed up with the excitement of business that if it were not for your timely monitor travel in the same downward path, until too late to arrest their fatal fall. But the mother is always vigilant, to you we confidently appeal, for we are sure your never-failing affection will unerringly point you to PROF. WOOD'S RESTORATIVE CORDIAL AND BLOOD RENOVATOR as the remedy which should be always on hand in time of need.

O. J. WOOD, Proprietor, 444 Broadway, New York, and 114 Market street, St. Louis, Mo., and sold by all good Druggists. Price $1 per bottle.

Read what the Press say, after thoroughly testing the matter, and no one can have doubt.

PROF. WOOD'S Restorative Cordial and Blood Renovator is a genuine medicine of real merit, pleasant to the taste, and invigorating to the system. While it purifies the blood and soothes the nervous irritation, it aids the organs of digestion to perform their functions, and resists the assaults of disease. It is a chemical compound so skillfully combined, that while it exhilarates it does not provoke the lassitude which usually follows excitement. A tonic composed exclusively of vegetable matter, it is absolutely beneficial, and no ill effects can possibly accompany its use. It is an infallible and speedy remedy for Loss of Appetite, Faintness, Nervous Debility, Neuralgia, Falling of the Womb, and other delicate diseases to which women are subject. For Sickness of the Stomach, Bilious Attacks, Liver Complaints, Costiveness, Dyspepsia, Consumption, and a host of evils flesh is heir to, it is a certain cure.—St. Louis Morning Herald.

PROF. WOOD'S RESTORATIVE CORDIAL.—It is recorded in the classics that Psyche was once sent on a climate warmer than the West Indies, to procure a sample of the beauty of Proserpine's box. After some delay the messenger returned, and as soon as the top of the box was removed, out flew all the ills that flesh is heir to. Fortunately hope was found in the bottom of the box. Prof. Wood's Restorative Cordial revives the recollection of the ancient fable. It purifies the blood, aids the organs of digestion, imparts strength to the nervous system, and fortifies the citadel of health so as to bid defiance to the assaults of disease. It is a healthy tonic, composed entirely of vegetable productions, and while it is exhilarating as pure wine, no injurious results can possibly follow its use. It is a desideratum in the medical world, and those who are afflicted with loss of appetite, Dyspepsia, Costiveness, Faintness, Neuralgia, Palpitation of the Heart, &c., will here find an infallible panacea.—St. Louis Daily Express

PROF. WOOD'S RESTORATIVE CORDIAL AND BLOOD RENOVATOR is, without doubt, the best tonic Cordial in the world. To those who are suffering from general debility, we would recommend it, for it is pleasant to the taste, is strengthening to the system, and will effectually remove all impurities of the blood, and eradicate the germs of disease. It can be taken by the weakest stomach, while those in good health will at once feel its exhilarating power. We are confident that after using one bottle of this Cordial, none will be for a day without it.—N. Y. Leader.

A PURE, HEALTHY TONIC, and one free from the deleterious and injurious effects sure to follow those in ordinary use, has long been felt to be a desideratum in the medical world. Such a tonic, and one so skillfully combined from the vegetable kingdom as to act in perfect accordance with the laws of Nature, and thus soothe the weakest stomach, and at the same time allay nervous and other irritations, and tone up all the organs of which the human body is composed, is offered in Prof. Wood's Restorative Cordial and Blood Renovator. Hence it is perfectly adapted to old and Young. Reader, try it. Thousands have already done so; the testimony is universal in its favor.—New York Atlas.

☞ Before noticing a patent medicine, we have to be certain that it will prove itself to be all that it is recommended. And we would say that the Restorative Cordial and Blood Renovator of Prof. Wood will stand the test of time, and that it is without doubt the first article in the market for purifying the blood and strengthening the system. We have no hesitation in recommending its use to all.—New Yorker.

BININGER'S
GENUINE
Cognac Brandy

The infamous practice of adulterating Brandies having become so common that a genuine article is the exception; it is of vital importance to those requiring it for Family use and Invalids, that it should be of undoubted purity and efficacy.

"Bininger's Genuine Cognac Brandy."

It is mild, delicate and fruity, and is designed to be always uniform in quality and character.—Put up in pint and quart bottles, in cases containing two dozen pints and one dozen quarts, and is sold by all prominent druggists, grocers and town agents.

FEARFUL CONFLICT WITH A TIGRESS.—Whilst Maccomo was going through his performance with the Bengal tigers at Mander's Menagerie, Liverpool, a tigress caught his hand in her mouth. Planting his knee in the small of the tigress' back, and pressing against the bars of the cage, then seizing the lower jaw with the right hand, he held her powerless to do more than retain the left hand in her mouth.—So cool was Maccomo in this trying position, that lookers-on thought it a part of the performance. But when Maccomo called to one of the keepers, "She has got my hand fast in her mouth, get a bar of iron," the truth of his dangerous position flashed through the minds of those present, and created the greatest excitement—one lady fainting away and others running from the painful sight. Four or five minutes elapsed before the iron rod was ready, during which time Maccomo stood like a piece of statuary, not a quiver of lip to show the pain he was enduring.

When ready, the hot iron was applied quickly and surely by one of the keepers, to one of the large teeth in the upper jaw, and as though she had been electrified, her mouth sprang open. Maccomo, quick as lightning, drew his hand away, caught hold of a thick stick, struck the animal a terrific blow on the skull, which brought her down, and forced her to finish her performance before he left the cage. When Maccomo came out of the cage, his bleeding hand testified to the fearful struggle which had been going on between man and beast.

A WICKED OLD MAN RELIEVED OF $500.—Elisha Griffith, a rich old sinner, residing at Minneapolis, Minnesota, offered a married woman of that place, five hundred dollars to elope with him. The woman consented, and informed her husband, who approved of the plan. Very soon after starting, she got possession of the money, and with it returned home, leaving the old Lothario disconsolate enough. He had her arrested for stealing, but she was acquitted and allowed to retain the five hundred.

—FOR—
Phthisic, Colds, Asthma, Croup, Whooping and Chin Cough, and all diseases of the lungs.
☞ The proprietor and inventor of this valuable Medicine, being confident that his life has not only been protracted many years, but made comfortable, by a timely use of the innocent but effectual vegetable from which this mixture is extracted, therefore earnestly recommends it to all who are afflicted with any of the above named complaints.
Appended are some of the certificates and recommendations of these Drops. The first is from our respected brother, Elder Dennett, of Vt.:
Canaan, Sept. 4, 1848.—"Dear Br. Swett, I consider it a duty I owe to the public, as well as to yourself, briefly to state my opinion in regard to your excellent medicine. About six years ago I was taken sick with an affection of the lungs, or what my friends and I thought would terminate in consumption. Indeed I thought myself fast sinking under the pressure of this fatal disease, when I obtained some of your valuable Cough Drops, and after using two or three bottles, in the course of six or seven weeks, I found myself restored to usual health; and I have no reason to doubt but that your invaluable Cough Drops were the means of saving my life."
SAMUEL R. DENNETT.
New Castle, Jan. 10, 1841.—"Elder Swett:—Sir, your Cough Drops have fully cured the distressing cough, which has so long afflicted me; and judging from its effect on others of my acquaintance, as well as on myself, I feel confident that it is the best medicine now known for coughs and other lung complaints." WESLEY BURNHAM.
Exeter, Feb. 12, 1858.—"I have been recently cured of a very hard and dangerous cough, in the space of four days, by taking Dr. Swett's Cough Drops." J. BATCHELDER.
Newton, N.H., May 7, 1841.—"I am confident that no family would be willing to be without an assortment of Dr. Swett's medicines, if they knew their value as well as I do. Within the last year I have sold $200 worth of his medicines; and I have known them to remove many diseases that have resisted the power of all other medicines. I have been cured of a bad cough in four days by his Drops, and I am confident that they have saved the lives of several children in this vicinity. I have known many, who were sick, to recover by using some of his physical medicines, and then using his Panacea." DAVID CAMPBELL.
Exeter, May 19, 1844.—"I hereby certify that this Spring my daughter had a severe fit of sickness, and was attended by an eminent physician, who pronounced it lung fever. She grew worse until her bowels swelled, and she was so pressed at the things that she groaned at every breath; and those who saw her thought that without some speedy remedy she could live but a few days. At this stage of the disease, we obtained one of Dr. Swett's Cough Drops, and commenced giving a teaspoonful every half hour, and dispensed with giving her any other medicine. It relieved the cough and distress of the lungs, and by using two phials she has been entirely cured."
DAVID LANG.
Lawrence, July 27, 1854.—"I hereby testify that the Cough Drops prepared by Dr. Simeon Swett have given me very great relief from the whooping cough of late, and I would advise all who have a visit from that distressing complaint, to use them freely." MARY N. RICKER.
I know the above testimony of my wife with regard to the salutary effects of Dr. Swett's Cough Drops, to be correct.
CHARLES C. RICKER.
Canaan, Dec. 11, 1841.—"I have been troubled with Phthisic for a number of years, and have found more relief by using Dr. Swett's Cough Drops, than from all other medicines put together, though I have tried many." FANNY MINER.
"I have been cured of a severe cough by using Dr. Swett's Cough Drops. I therefore would sincerely recommend them to all who are afflicted with lung complaints, as I believe them the best medicine in my knowledge."
ELIZABETH CURRIER.
Canaan, Aug. 29, 1850.—"This certifies that we have found greater relief from Dr. S. Swett's Pills and Cough Drops, in very bad cases of phthisic in our family, than all other medicines put together." THEOPHILUS CURRIER,
SALLY CURRIER.
Exeter, July 30 1841.—"I have found Dr. Swett's Cough Drops to be the most effectual remedy for Coughs, and for any other complaints of the lungs, with which I am acquainted."
NANCY F JONES.
Exeter, Jan. 10, 1851.—"As a debt due to the suffering, I would say that last winter I was confined by a severe cough and spitting of blood, which much alarmed my friends, and that I found a full and speedy cure by the use of only two or three bottles of Cough Drops, and two of Col. Moses Jewett's Cough and Consumption Liniment, prepared by Dr. Simeon Swett, of this town.
I have also experienced a remarkably quick cure of a severe attack of the rheumatism of late, by the application of one bottle of Jewett's Stimulating Liniment, prepared by Dr. Swett."
J. C. BURNHAM.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

TUESDAY, MARCH 5, 1861.

PRESIDENT BUCHANAN, on Saturday, March 2, sent a very satisfactory Message to the House, in compliance with a resolution heretofore adopted, as to the reasons which induced him to assemble so large a number of troops in Washington.

The president shows that he did right, in guarding against the execution of many threats, made before November election, as well as afterwards, that the inauguration of a "black republican" President and Vice President would not be suffered; notwithstanding the sneers we see now in some papers, at the very idea of danger.

He submits that the force is not so large as the resolution presupposes; its total amount being six hundred and fifty-three, exclusive of the marines, who are of course at the navy yard, as their appropriate station.

These troops were ordered here to act as a posse comitatus, in strict subordination to the civil authority, for the purpose of preserving peace and order in Washington, should this become necessary before or at the period of the inauguration of the President elect.

What was the duty of the President at the time the troops were ordered to the city? Ought he to have waited before this precautionary measure was adopted, until he could obtain proof that a secret conspiracy existed to seize the capital?

In the language of the select committee this was "in a time of high excitement consequent upon revolutionary events transpiring all around us. The very air was filled with rumors, and individuals indulged in the most extravagant expressions of fears and threats."

Under these circumstances, which the President says he need not detail, as they appear in the testimony of the select committee, he was convinced that he ought to act.

The safety of the immense amount of public property in this city, and that of the government, in which all the States, and especially the new States, in which the public lands are situated, have a deep interest, the peace and order of the city itself, and the security of the inauguration of the President elect, were objects of such vast importance to the whole country, that I could not hesitate to adopt precautionary and defensive measures.

At the present moment, when all is quiet, it is difficult to realize the state of alarm which prevailed when the troops were first ordered to this city.

This almost instantly subsided after the arrival of the first company, and a feeling of comparative peace and security has since existed, both in Washington and throughout the country.

Had I refused to adopt this precautionary measure, and the evil consequences which many good men at the time apprehended, had followed, I should never have forgiven myself. JAMES BUCHANAN.

CONGRESS.—The U. S. Senate was principally engaged on Saturday in discussing the measures of conciliation and peace presented by the Conference and committee of Thirty-three. A session was held on Sunday evening, at which Mr. Crittenden made an earnest and eloquent appeal to Congress to adopt some measure to save the country. Mr. Trumbull of Illinois assured the Senate that "we have now got a Government," which he considered the first step towards saving the Union. Great confusion prevailed at times, and the spectators in the galleries cheered and shouted.

The House was also in a great state of confusion, caused by the struggle of members to bring forward favorite measures.—The post office appropriation bill was passed, with an important amendment in relation to the California mails. The House refused to take up the bill providing for the collection of duties on shipboard in certain cases. Mr. Dowes' report, censuring the Secretary of the Navy, was adopted by a vote of 95 to 62. A resolution of thanks to the Speaker was passed, with some dissenting voices. The House adjourned to Monday morning at 10 o'clock.

Mr. Buchanan has signed the Morrill tariff bill.

On Monday morning, in the Senate, Mr. Hamlin was sworn in as Presiding Officer, and the Senate adjourned. An extra session was at once called.

In the House, much miscellaneous business of no particular importance was transacted, with the usual noisy accompaniment. Adjourned, and the members separated with much good humor.

NEW YORK, March 4.—Washington dispatches say that all the appropriation bills were passed.

Mr. Covode starts on Wednesday to stump New Hampshire.

The Southern tariff is to be amended so as to impose an export duty of one per cent. on cotton, tobacco and rice.

At a protracted consultation over the Cabinet appointments, considerable wrangling was indulged in, when Lincoln said he would take the responsibility, and that he had completed his Cabinet. He then sent for Mr. Seward, and submitted his inaugural to him.

WENDELL PHILLIPS APPRECIATED.—In Blount county, Tennessee, the secession ists voted for Wendell Phillips of Massachusetts as a delegate to their State Convention. The Union candidates, however, were elected by an overwhelming majority. —Boston Courier.

THE INAUGURATION &c.

WASHINGTON, Mar. 4.—The night session of the Senate was harmonious, with the exception of a slight breeze between Mason and Douglas.

The Senate, this morning, by a vote of 24 to 12, adopted Corwin's amendment to the Constitution, which denies the power of Congress to interfere with slavery in the States.

Crittenden's proposition was previously voted down.

The inaugural procession moved at 11 o'clock, reaching the capitol soon after 1.—It was escorted by a company of regular volunteers, the Washington and Georgetown regiments of volunteers, and a company of engineers.

There was no disorder, and Mr. Lincoln was loudly cheered.

The procession was detained for Mr. Buchanan, who remained at the capitol until 12 o'clock.

The inaugural Procession was of an imposing character. It was led by regular and volunteer troops, the President's carriage having mounted marshals upon each side as a guard of honor. Considerable enthusiasm was manifested. No one of the vast crowds, so far as is known, exhibited any desire to interfere with the proceedings—and Mr. Lincoln reached the capitol in safety.

Here, upon the platform, in front of the central portico, a splendid scene presented itself, of all the dignitaries of the land, Ministers from foreign countries, &c., &c. Below a vast crowd had assembled.

Every possible precaution to guard Mr. Lincoln against plots, known to shoot him during inaugural ceremonies, was made.

The Inaugural Address was delivered at the portico of the capitol, at 2 o'clock, P. M., and telegraphed from Washington for the Boston papers.

It is mild in its tone, and is characteristic of Mr. Lincoln, showing that it is his own work.

It sustains the Chicago platform entirely, enunciates fugitive slave law views differing from those of Massachusetts; declares that the government property must be protected, and that the laws must be enforced.

An attack on Forts Sumter and Pickens is expected to follow the Inaugural.

Mr. Burlingame of Massachusetts will surely receive the appointment of Minister to Sardinia.

☞ The Washington correspondent of the Charleston Mercury speaks of Secretary Holt as follows:—

He does not deserve the honor of an assassination. But he is a marked man. If ever he ventures within the confines of the Confederated States, he will never return to practice coercion again. The breed of such traitors cannot be perpetuated among us.

☞ Major Anderson, who is in daily communication with the War Department, writes that the batteries and other works of the South Carolinians are nearly completed, and that unless the Southern Congress interpose, he expects Fort Sumter will be attacked immediately after the 4th inst.—It appears that there is a large party in South Carolina who ignore the Southern Congress, particularly as regards military operations in Charleston harbor, while the Governor and the conservatives generally are disposed to abide by the directions of the authorities of the Confederate States.

THE CAPTURE OF FORT KEARNEY.—The Rock Island, (Ill.,) Argus says the telegraph operators have produced another sensation dispatch, that the secessionists have taken Old Fort Kearney. It is almost as important as the taking of Fort Armstrong. Old Fort Kearney is an old weather beaten log hut, about sixteen to eighteen feet square, standing out on the plains of Nebraska, and has not held a soldier since the time "whereof the memory of man runneth not to the contrary." It has for years been used as a butcher's stall.

FATAL ACCIDENT AT FORT MCHENRY. On Tuesday last, during a regular drill at Fort McHenry, the harness attached to a gun carriage broke, the carriage was overturned, the gun, and the horses and men, engaged in working the gun, were tumbled into the river. Private Sanishlaus Felgner was drowned, Corporal Nicholas was wounded in his forehead, and otherwise bruised and injured.

THE VIRGINIA, CONVENTION.—Richmond, Mar. 2.—In the Convention a resolution was offered and referred, that as the Crittenden propositions had been deliberately rejected by Northern confederates, every consideration of duty, interest, honor and patriotism requires that an ordinance be adopted by the Convention, and submitted to the people, by which Virginia shall resume all powers delegated to the Federal Government, and declare all connection with the Government dissolved.

A resolution was referred, suggesting that Forts Sumter and Pickens be transferred to the Southern Confederacy, and for the equitable division of public property.

There is no prospect of the Committee on Federal Relations agreeing on anything.

AN ARMY OF OCCUPATION.—A letter from Washington says:—

The office-seekers are here in great crowds, and I do not believe rumors of war or war itself would drive them from this capital. They are numerous enough themselves to defend Washington against assault."

☞ The Concord Democratic Standard keeps the Jenness and Morrison ticket at the head of its columns—and promises some interesting developments this week, to be published on Wednesday.

☞ We present to our readers this morning, President Lincoln's Inaugural Address—complete, we presume. Part of it we copied from a Traveller Extra, received at half-past 7, through the attention of Wm. H. Brewster, Esq. and Conductor Philbrick; and for the remainder, received in a yet later edition of the Traveller, we are under obligations to Conductor Dame of the midnight freight-train, and Mr. B. F. Canney.

THE NEW SOUTHERN TARIFF.—The financial master spirits of the Southern Confederacy, who devised the scheme for taking money out of the pockets of their constituents by placing a tariff on Northern goods, hesitate about putting their hantling into operation. Collecting taxes on articles heretofore received duty free, thereby increasing the cost to the consumers, is a measure not at all likely to become popular at the South, and therefore we are not at all surprised to learn that the time for levying the duties has been extended. Mr. H. P. Plant of Augusta, Ga., Southern Superintendent of the Adams Express Company, writes that goods for the Southern States purchased prior to the first of March and shipped before the fifteenth instant will be admitted at Southern ports free of duty—the time having been extended. The Boston Journal says:—

We apprehend that when the 15th inst. arrives another extension will be deemed advisable, and that the people of the 'Southern Confederacy,' will continue to get their supplies from the North, unburdened by taxation. They will not submit to the exaction of duties thereon. Meantime what will the Southern Confederacy do for a revenue? If the merchants get their six months' supply without paying duties, the exchequer of the Confederacy will exhibit an "aching void" for some time to come.—The prospect of their obtaining a loan certainly is not very encouraging.

☞ The Savannah Republican admits that the postal service in the Southern States is unprofitable, but contends that something must be done to relieve the wants of the people in the event of Mr. Colfax's bill becoming a law. It proposes that the rate of letter postage be raised to five cents and that the franking privilege be restricted. The cost of the postal service in Georgia has been $190,000 in excess of the receipts annually, and the Republican is convinced that the Georgians must, for the present at least, forego many advantages they have heretofore enjoyed, or retain them at a cost which they are wholly unable to bear.

☞ Charles W. Alexander, one of the persons injured at Manchester, Thursday, by an engine running off the track, died Friday night. Alexander was 16 years old, and was riding on the engine for amusement, and it is supposed inhaled the steam and was scalded internally. This is the second death from this accident.

THE NORTH CAROLINA ELECTION is another decided rebuff for the secessionists. The Old North State takes her place with Maryland, Tennessee and Missouri. It is probable that States further South would have decided the same way, but the leaders were very careful not to trust the people.—If now the governments takes position that will satisfy the Union men of the border States, we shall soon see a Union party in Georgia, Alabama, Louisiana and Texas, that will end secession forever.

☞ The Phrenological Journal for March contains portraits of Lola Montez, Dr. Francis, and John S. Rarey, the horse-tamer. The Water Cure Journal for the same month, contains some instructive engravings of the human larynx. Both contain a variety of new matter. Life Illustrated, a valuable weekly, is published by the same house as the above, Fowler & Wells, New York.

☞ In Medford, Mass., one day last week, a horse owned by Mr. Nicholas Smith took it into his head to be seized with a fit of madness, and became so furious that he would bite himself, and no person could manage him. After raving terribly at periods, for several days, the horse died, apparently in great suffering.

GOING THIRDS ON THE MILEAGE.—The mileage from Oregon is $15,000. The Presidential electors of that State would not agree to send one of their number to bring the electoral vote, but all three came and divided the $15,000 between them.—One draws the whole from the treasury and then shares it with his associates.

☞ A little boy three years old, son of Mr. James Ordway of Hookett, was scalded to death in that place, on Wednesday afternoon last, by getting into a pail of hot water. The mother was out of the house and hearing the screams of the little sufferer, returned and found him sitting down in the pail.

LIVERPOOL, once the most sickly city in the world, has now become the most healthy, in consequence of the adoption of scientific sanitary measures. There has been a reduction of thirty per cent. in the rates of mortality within the past ten years.

It is better to keep children to their duty by a sense of honor and by kindness, than by the fear of punishment.

Local.

☞ The Presidential Inauguration Day was noticed on Monday in Portsmouth, by the display of the United States flag on the Custom House, on Jefferson Hall, and across the end of Market street, near Market Square. The latter flag bore the inscription Liberty, Union and Reform; Lincoln and Hamlin. The church bells were rung one hour, and a national salute was fired at Kittery.

It is said a secession flag was hoisted on one of our engine houses; in honor of South Carolina, Twiggs, Cobb and Floyd, we suppose.

The Ball given by the Goodwin Guards, in the evening, was a complete success. The new Union Hall is spacious and inviting, and was beautifully decorated; and the company was large and brilliant. Turner's Quadrille Band furnished good music, and Mr. Elliott was prompter.

There was also a brilliant bon-fire on Market Square, for which the tar-barrels and dry-goods boxes suffered; but the exquisite effect of light and shade produced on the North Church and other buildings, in the clear starlight night, was worth more than it cost. The Journal and Chronicle Offices were also illuminated (internally) until a late (or, rather, early) hour this morning.

OUR NEW POSTMASTER.—Messrs. Editors:—As many inquiries have been made in regard to who shall be the next Postmaster of Portsmouth, allow me to make a suggestion through the columns of your paper. It is evident that a large portion of our citizens are in favor of some man not rich in worldly goods, for the office where the legitimate business will be to wait on the patrons of the same, and to be a Postmaster in the full sense of the term.

He should be a man that has done something for the party, should be pleasing in his manners, courteous and obliging at all times, attending to distribution of mail matter with alacrity and ease, ever bearing in mind that he is dependent upon the office and public, rather than independent of them. Such a man we hope will receive the appointment. X.

☞ The Amoskeag Company have sent a small-sized steam fire engine to Philadelphia, which is making quite a sensation. At a trial on horizontal playing it threw two streams 197 and 198 feet, and a single stream 244 feet. The machine is a "single plunger." The next fire engine bought for Portsmouth, ought to be a Steam Engine, —and we presume it will be so. A good machine of this kind would be a great saving of money, as well as a safeguard from some possible great fire.

It is well to be thinking about the matter;—and should we happen to have a great fire presently, destroying $20,000 or $30,000 worth of property,—then we would certainly buy a new engine. Is it best to wait for that?

☞ A few days since, in obedience to a vote of the Board of Aldermen, two horses were purchased for the use of the city.—They weigh eleven hundred pounds each, and make a handsome span. The pair cost the sum of three hundred dollars, which, together with the two carts and harnesses, will make the outfit cost six hundred dollars. The horses are to be used on the City Farm and on the streets.

☞ On Sunday evening, according to advertisement, Rev. Mr. Pratt delivered a lecture on Spiritualism, in answer to Mr. Leo Miller, who lectured in this city the week previous. We learn that Mr. Miller intends to answer Mr. Pratt at some future day.

PEOPLE'S LYCEUM.—The last lecure of the course for the benefit of the Freewill Baptist Society of this city, will be delivered in the Pearl street Church, on Wednesday evening, March 6th, by Rev. C. O. Libby, of North Berwick, Me. Subject:—"The value of Common Sense."—Tickets for sale at the door—15 cents.—Commence at half past 7.

LIFE INSURANCE.

"IN THE MIDST OF LIFE WE ARE IN DEATH."

Invested at seven per cent. on bond and mortgage loans in the City and State of New York, upon Real Estate worth double the amount loaned thereon, issues

POLICIES on lives, payable to the wife, or to the legal representative of the person insured.

POLICIES payable to the person insured, on his attaining the age of 50, 60 or 70; or to his representative in case of decease before attaining this age.

PREMIUMS may be paid, quarterly, semi-annually, or annually, at the option of the insured.

The long experience of this excellent institution, like the one hundred years' experience of the great Equitable Life Insurance Co. of London, and other kindred institutions, proves their stability and perpetuity when established upon the right principle. Investments made with them have proved more remunerative than with Savings Banks.

The time is near, when to protect one's family from the loss and want often attendant upon the death of its provider, will be as universal as it is now to protect ourselves from loss by fire.

No reflecting man can sit at his fireside with his young family about him, and feel at ease—when he knows that if death should take him from them, they would be cast upon a selfish world, without the means for education or support, which he can easily provide for them thro' a life policy.

WISTAR'S BALSAM WILD CHERRY.

In the whole history of medical discoveries, no REMEDY has performed so many or such remarkable cures of the Throat, Lungs and Chest,—of Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, or of Consumption itself, as this far-famed, long-tried and justly celebrated Balsam. So generally acknowledged is the superiorcelence of this remedy, that but few of the many who have tested its virtues by experience fail to keep it at hand, as a speedy and certain cure for sudden attacks of Cold—fully believing that its remedial powers are comprehensive enough to embrace every form of disease, from the slightest cold to the most dangerous symptom of pulmonary complaint.

George W. Millet, Esq.

Editor of the Norway Advertiser, gives his opinion of this great remedy substantially as follows

NORWAY VILLAGE, Me., Aug 4, 1860.

Messrs. S. W. Fowle & Co.—Gentlemen:—For a remedy of such undoubted merit as DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, I cheerfully give you my testimony, and trust that others may be induced thereby to give it a trial and be relieved. Several years since I first became acquainted with this Balsam at a time of distressing cough and cold, which took such firm hold of my lungs as to render me unfit for business, and its operation produced a speedy and permanent cure, after trying various other remedies in vain

In our town this remedy is a great favorite with many, and if all who suffer will but give it a fair trial, I think they will find it to be of more service in pulmonary affections than any other remedy of this class before the public.

Yours respectfully. GEO. W MILLET.

PRESIDENT LINCOLN'S ADDRESS

Fellow Citizens of the United States :—

In compliance with a custom as old as the government itself, I appear before you to address you briefly, and to take in your presence the oath prescribed by the Constitution of the United States to be taken by the President before he enters on the execution of his office. I do not consider it necessary at present for me to discuss those matters of administration about which there is no special anxiety or excitement.

Apprehension seems to exist among the people of the Southern States that by the accession of a Republican Administration their property and their permanent peace and security are to be endangered. There has never been any reasonable cause for such apprehensions.

Indeed the most ample evidence to the contrary has all the while existed and been open to their inspection. It is found in nearly all the public speeches of him who now addresses you.

I do but quote from one of those speeches, when I declare that I have no purpose directly or indirectly to interfere with the institution of slavery in the States where it exists.

I believe I have no lawful right to do so, and I have no inclination to do so. Those who nominated and elected me did so with full knowledge that I had made this and many similar declarations, and had never recanted them; and more than this, they placed in the platform for my acceptance and as a law to themselves and to me, the clear and emphatic resolution which I now read:

"Resolved, That the maintenance inviolate of the rights of the States, and especially the right of each State to order and control its own domestic institutions, according to its own judgment exclusively, is essential to that balance of power on which the perfection and endurance of our political fabric depends, and we denounce the lawless invasion by an armed force of any State or Territory, no matter under what pretext, as the greatest of crimes."

I now reiterate these sentiments, and in doing so I only press upon the public attention the most conclusive evidence of which the case is susceptible, that the prosperity, peace and security of no section are to be in any wise endangered by the now incoming administration. I add to that, that all the protection which, consistently with the Constitution and the laws, can be given, will be cheerfully given to all States when lawfully demanded, for whatever cause; as cheerfully to one section as to another.

There is much controversy about the delivering up of fugitives from service or labor. The clause I now read is as plainly written in the Constitution as any other of its provisions: "No person held to service or labor in one State, under the laws thereof, escaping into another, shall in consequence of any law or regulation therein, be discharged from such service or labor, but shall be delivered up on claim of the party to whom such service or labor may be due."

It is scarcely questioned that this provision was intended by those who made it for reclaiming fugitive slaves, and the intention of the law gives us the law. All members of Congress swear their support to the whole Constitution—to this provision as much as any other. To the proposition there that slaves whose cases come within the terms of the clause shall be delivered up, their oaths are unanimous. Now if they would make the effort in good temper, could they not with nearly equal unanimity frame and pass a law, by means of which to keep good that unanimous oath.

There is some difference of opinion whether this clause should be enforced by National or by State authority, but surely that difference is not a very material one. If the slave is to be surrendered, it can be of but little consequence to him or to others, by which authority it is done,—and should any one, in any case, be content that his oath should go unkept in a mere unsubstantial controversy as to how it shall be kept!

Again, in any law on this subject, ought not all the safeguards of liberty known in civilized and humane jurisprudence to be introduced, so that a free man may not in any case be surrendered as a slave? And might it not be well at the same time to provide by law for the enforcement of that clause of the Constitution which guaranties that the citizens of each State shall be entitled to all the privileges and immunities of citizens in the several States.

I take the official oath to-day with no mental reservation, and with no purpose to construe the Constitution or laws by any hypercritical rules; and while I do not choose now to specify particular acts of Congress as proper to be enforced, I do suggest that it will be much safer for all, both in official and private stations, to conform to and abide by all those acts which stand unrepealed, than to violate any of them, trusting to find impunity in having them held to be unconstitutional.

It is seventy-two years since the first inauguration of a President under our National Constitution. During that period fifteen different and greatly distinguished citizens have in succession administered the executive branch of the government. They have conducted it through many perils, and generally with great success. Yet with all this scope for precedent, I now enter upon the same task for the brief constitutional term of four years, under great and peculiar difficulty.

A disruption of the Federal Union, heretofore only menaced, is now formidably attempted.

I hold that in contemplation of universal law, and of the Constitution, the Union of these States is perpetual. Perpetuity is implied, if not expressed, in the fundamental law of all national governments. It is safe to assert that no government proper ever had a provision in its organic law for its own termination. Continue to execute all the express provisions of our National Constitution, and the Union will endure forever, it being impossible to destroy it except by some action not provided for in the instrument itself.

Again, if the United States be not a Government proper, but an association of States in the nature of a contract merely, can it, as a contract be peaceably unmade by less than all the parties who made it? One party to a contract may violate it; break it, so to speak, but does it not require all to lawfully rescind it? Descending from these general principles, we find the proposition that, in legal contemplation, the Union is perpetual, confirmed by the history of the Union itself. The Union is much older than the Constitution. It was formed, in fact, by the Articles of Association in 1774.

It was matured and continued by the declaration of independence in 1776. It was further matured and the faith of all the then thirteen States expressly plighted and engaged that it should be perpetual by the articles of confederation in 1778, and finally in 1787.

One of the declared objects for ordaining and establishing the Constitution was to form a more perfect Union; but if destruction of the Union by one or by a part only of the States be lawfully possible, the Union is less than before, the Constitution having lost the vital element of perpetuity.

It follows from these views that no State upon its own mere motion can lawfully get out of the Union—that resolves and ordinances to that effect are legally void; and that acts of violence within any State or States, against the authority of the United States, are insurrectionary, or revolutionary, according to circumstances.

I therefore consider that in view of the Constitution and the laws the Union is unbroken, and to the extent of my ability I shall take care, as the Constitution itself expressly enjoins upon me, that the laws of the Union be faithfully executed in all the States. Doing this, I deem to be only a simple duty on my part, and I shall perform it so far as practicable, unless my rightful masters, the American people, shall withhold the requisition, or in some authoritative manner direct the contrary.

I trust this will not be regarded as a menance, but only as the declared purpose of the Union, that it will constitutionally defend and maintain itself. In doing this there needs to be no bloodshed or violence, and there shall be none unless it be forced upon the national authority.

The power confided to me will be used to hold, occupy and possess the property and places belonging to the Government, and collect the duties and imports; but beyond what may be necessary for these objects, there will be no invasion, no using of force against or among the people anywhere.

Where hostility to the United States in any interior territory shall be so great and so universal as to prevent the competent resident citizens from holding the Federal offices, there will be no attempt to force obnoxious strangers among people that object. While the strict legal right may exist for the government to enforce the exercise of these offices, the attempt to do so would be so irritating and so nearly impracticable withal that I deem it better to forego for the time the use of such offices. The mail, unless repelled, will continue to be furnished in all parts of the Union so far as possible.

The people everywhere shall have that sense of perfect security which is most favorable to calm thought and reflection. The course here indicated will be followed, unless current events and experience shall show a modification or change to be proper; and in every case and exigency my best discretion will be exercised according to circumstances actually existing, and with a view and a hope to a peaceful solution of the national trouble and the restoration of fraternal sympathies and affections.

That there are persons in one section or another who seek to destroy the Union at all events, and are glad of any pretext to do it, I will neither affirm nor deny; but if there should be such I need address no word to them.

To those however who really love the Union, may I not speak? Before entering upon so grave a matter as the destruction of our National fabric, with all its benefits, its memories and its hopes, would it not be well to ascertain why we do it?

Will you hazard so desperate a step while there is any possibility that any portion of the ills you fly from, have no real existence? Will you, while the certain ills you fly to are greater than all the real ones you fly from?

Will you ask the commission of so fearful a mistake? All profess to be content in the Union if all Constitutional rights can be maintained. Is it true, then, that any right plainly written in the Constitution has been denied? I think not.

Happily the human mind is so constituted that no party can reach the audacity of doing this. Think, if you can, of a single instance in which a plainly written provision of the Constitution has ever been denied. If by the mere force of numbers a majority should deprive a minority of any clearly written Constitutional right, it might, in a moral point of view, justify revolution; certainly would, if such right were a vital one; but such is not our case; all the vital rights of minorities and of individuals are so plainly assured to them by affirmations and negatives, guarantees and prohibitions in the Constitution, that controversies never arise concerning them; but no organic law can ever be framed with a provision specifically applicable to every question which may occur in practical administration; no foresight can anticipate, nor any document of reasonable length contain express provisions for all possible questions.

Shall fugitives from labor be surrendered by National or State authority? the Constitution does not expressly say. Must Congress protect slavery in the territories? the Constitution does not expressly say.—From questions of this class spring all our Constitutional controversies, and we divide upon them into majorities and minorities.

If the minority will not acquiesce, the majority must, or the government must cease. There is no other alternative for continuing the government; acquiescence on one side or the other.

If a minority in such a case will secede, rather than acquiesce, they make a precedent which in turn will divide and ruin them, for a minority of their own will recede from them whenever a majority refuses to be controlled by such minority.

For instance, why may not any portion of a new Confederacy a year or two hence arbitrarily secede again, precisely as a portion of the present Union now claims to secede from it?

All who cherish disunion sentiments are now being educated to the exact temper of doing this. Is there such perfect identity of interests among the States to compose a new Union, as to produce harmony only, and prevent renewed secession? Plainly the central idea of secession is the essence of anarchy.

A majority, held in restraint by Constitutional checks and limitations, and always changing easily with the deliberate change of popular opinion and sentiment, is the only true sovereign of a free people. Whoever rejects it, does of necessity fly to anarchy or to despotism.

Unanimity is impossible; the rule of a minority, as a permanent arrangement, is wholly inadmissable; so that rejecting the majority principle, anarchy or despotism in some form, is all that is left.

I do not forget the position assumed by some, that constitutional questions are to be decided by the Supreme Court, nor do I deny that such decisions must be binding in any case upon the parties to suit, as to the object of that suit. While they are also entitled to very high respect and consideration in all parallel cases by all other departments of the government, and while it is obviously possible that such decision may be erroneous in any given case, still the evil effect following it being limited to that particular case, with the chance that it may become a precedent for other cases, can better be borne than could the evils of a different practice; at the same time the candid citizen must confess that if the policy of the government upon vital questions, affecting the whole people, is to be irrevocably fixed by decisions of the Supreme Court, the instant they are made in ordinary litigation between parties in personal actions, then the people will have ceased to be their own masters, having to that extent practically resigned their government into the hand of that eminent tribunal; nor is there in this view any assault upon the court or the judges. It is a duty from which they may not shrink, to decide cases properly brought before them, and it is no fault of theirs if others seek to turn their decisions to political purposes.

One section of our country believes slavery is right, and ought to be extended, while the other believes it is wrong, and ought not to be extended. This is the only substantial dispute. The fugitive slave clause of the constitution, and the law for the suppression of the foreign slave trade, are each as well enforced, perhaps, as any law can ever be in a community where the moral sense of the people imperfectly supports the law itself.

The great body of the people abide by the dry, legal obligation in both cases, and a few break over, in each. This, I think, cannot be perfectly cured, and it would be worse in both cases, after the separation of the sections than before.

The foreign slave trade, now imperfectly suppressed, would be ultimately revived without restriction in one section, while fugitive slaves, now only partially surrendered, would not be surrendered at all by the other.

Physically speaking, we cannot separate; we cannot remove our respective sections from each other, nor build an impassable wall between them. A husband and wife may be divorced and go out of the presence of each other; but the different parts of our country cannot do this—they cannot but remain face to face; and intercourse, either amicable or hostile relations, must continue between them. Is it possible, then, to make that intercourse more advantageous or more satisfactory, after separation than before? Can aliens make treaties, easier than friends can make laws? Can treaties be more faithfully enforced between aliens, than laws can among friends? Suppose you go to war, you cannot fight always; and when, after great loss on both sides, and no gain on either, you cease fighting, the identical questions as to terms of intercourse, are again upon you.

This country, with its institutions, belongs to the people who inhabit it. Whenever they shall grow weary of the existing government they can exercise their Constitutional right of amending or their revolutionary right to dismember or overthrow it. I cannot be ignorant of the fact that many worthy and patriotic citizens are desirous of amending the National Constitution. While I make no recommendation of amendment, I fully recognize the authority of the people over the whole subject, to be exercised in either of the modes prescribed in the instrument itself; and I should under existing circumstances favor, rather than oppose, a fair opportunity being afforded the people to act upon it. I will venture to add the Convention mode seems preferable, and that it allows amendments to originate with the people themselves, instead of only permitting them to take a proposition originated by others not especially chosen for the purpose, and which might not be precisely such as they would wish to either accept or refuse.

I understand a proposed amendment to the Constitution, which amendment I have not seen, has passed Congress, to the effect that the Federal Government shall never interfere with the domestic institutions of the States, including that of persons held to service.

To avoid misconstruction of what I have said, I depart from my purpose, not to speak of particular amendments, so far as to say that holding such a provision to now be implied constitutional law, I have no objection to its being made express and irrevocable.

The Chief Magistrate derives all his authority from the people, and they have conferred none upon him to fix terms for the separation of the States. The people themselves can do this alone if they choose, but the Executive, as such, has nothing to do with it. His duty is to administer the present government as it came to his hands, and to transmit it unimpaired by him to his successor.

Why should there not be a patient confidence in the ultimate justice of the people? Is there any better or equal hope in the world in our present differences? Is either party without faith of being in the right, if the Almighty Ruler of nations will, with His eternal truth and justice, be on your side of the whole North, or on yours of the South? That truth and that justice will surely prevail by the judgment of this great tribunal—the American people.

By the frame of the government under which we live, the same people have wisely given their public servants but little power for mischief, and have with equal wisdom provided for the return of that little to their own hands at very short intervals.—While the people retain virtue and vigilance, no Administration of any extreme of wickedness or folly, can very seriously impair the government in the short space of four years.

My countrymen, one and all, think calmly and well upon this whole. Nothing valuable can be lost by taking time. If there be an object to hurry any of you in hot haste to a step which you would never take deliberately, that object will be frustrated by taking time, but no good object can be frustrated by it. Such of you as are now dissatisfied still have the old Constitution unimpaired, and on the sensitive point (Something here appears to have been omitted.)

Intelligence, patriotism, Christianity, and a firm reliance on Him who has never yet forsaken this favored land, are still competent to adjust in the best way all our present difficulties.

In your hands, my dissatisfied fellow-countrymen, and not in mine, is the momentous issue of civil war.

The government will not assail you. You can have no conflict without being yourselves the aggressors.

The laws are of your own framing under it, while the new administration has no immediate power, if it would, to change either. If it were admitted that you who are dissatisfied, hold the right side in the dispute, there is no single good reason for precipitate action.

You have no oath registered in heaven to destroy the government, while I shall have the most solemn one to preserve, protect and defend it.

I am loth to close. We are not enemies but friends. We must not be enemies, though passion may have strained it, it must not break our bonds of affection. The mystic call of memory stretching from every battle field and patriot grave to every living heart and hearthstone all over this broad land, will yet swell the cords of the Union when again touched, as surely they will be by the better angels of our nature.

Having been appointed
SOLE AGENT IN PORTSMOUTH
for the sale of the celebrated and unrivalled Noiseless

GROVER & BAKER
FAMILY AND MANUFACTURING
Sewing Machines,
would invite especial attention to the same.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE makes the only seam formed by a Sewing Machine, in which each stitch is independently locked, and without dependence on other stitches for strength, and the only seam that will admit of the thread being cut at every fourth stitch without injury to the seam in wear.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE is adapted to all varieties of fabrics, sewing equally well the finest Swiss Muslin or the heaviest cloth or leather, and requiring no adjustment for any kind of sewing other than the adaptation of needles and thread.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE sews from ordinary spools without rewinding, and fastens its own seams, thereby saving time and thread. It will sew common spool cotton, silk and linen thread with equal facility.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE is so simple that an intelligent child of ten years can readily learn to operate it. It is more easily kept in order than any other machine, and need not be taken apart to be oiled.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE makes the only stitch that cannot be injured by washing and ironing, and the only stitch that forms an elastic and durable seam. Fabrics put together with this stitch may wear out and drop to pieces from original weakness, or hard usage, but come apart or give way at the seams, they cannot; they will hold together when the cloth or calico around them hangs in rags and tatters.

Every Machine Warranted for Years.
PRICE FROM $40 TO $125.

I have also been appointed agent for
THE UNIVERSAL HEMMER,
Which can be attached to any machine, and will turn a hem from 1-16 inch to 2½ inches, without previous basting.

THE FAMINE IN KANSAS.

Appeal for the Destitute, from the New York City Committee.

WM. C. BRYANT, Chairman, J. E. WILLIAMS, Treasurer.

Chas. H. Marshall, Seth B. Hunt, R H. McCurdy, Morris Ketchum, G.C.Bronson, Chas. W. Elliott, Daniel Lord, Daniel Drew, J S. Wadsworth.

It has become our imperative duty to urge upon the public attention the fact that over 40,000 of our fellow citizens in Kansas are now in imminent danger of starving. We have evidence from all sources—from Gen. Pomeroy, Chairman of the Territorial Relief Committee,—from the columns of nearly every newspaper, of all shades of politics—from our own reliable agent, who has just returned. There was no doubt of the misery, terrible, wide-spread, and destructive.

We have evidence that whole families have already died of starvation; and that thousands more must lie down discouraged, and die of want or disease consequent upon it, unless prompt and thorough relief is at once applied. Congress is now attempting to sustain the starving Indians, but our 40,000 fellow countrymen—men, women and children—can neither get away from their desolation, nor borrow, nor beg. Their only dependence is upon us, who have never known hunger.

THEY MUST BE SUSTAINED. Will you help us to help them?

To assure you that whatever you do will reach them, we state that in every destitute township is a Relief Committee—the same as represented by the Territorial Committee, as follows:

TERRITORIAL COMMITTEE.

S. C. Pomeroy, Atchison; W. W. Guthrie, Brown County; J. L. McDowell, Lec.... County; Rev. C. Reynolds, Lawrence; Rev. L. Bodwell, Topeka; Dr. S. Ayers, Linn County; F U Blake, Junction City; C. B. Lines, Wabaunsee; F. B. Baker, Centralia; Rev. Wm. Bishop, Osawatomie; Judge A. Spaulding, Jefferson County; J. C. Burnett, Bourbon County; J. C. Lambdin, Butler County; Geo. M. Russell, Wyandotte.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

S. C. Pomeroy, Chairman; J. L. McDowell, Rev. C. Reynolds, Rev. L. Bodwell, F. P. Baker.
S. G. POMEROY, Corresponding Secretary.
G. M. FAIRCHILD, Treasurer.

Gen. Pomeroy is Chairman, and at ATCHISON devotes his whole time and energy, with assistants, to the receipt of food and clothing, all of which are delivered upon requisitions of Town Committees, and are distributed through them.—This organization is prompt, thorough and effective, and we advise the sending of supplies through it. Money and clothing are needed from us;—food can be got in the West.

The names of our committee appear at the head of this appeal, and we hope will be sufficient to induce co-operation. Our Treasurer is JOHN E. WILLIAMS, President of the Metropolitan Bank, New York City. All money sent to him will be applied to the payment of Gen. Pomeroy's drafts on account of freights and sacks. We appeal to you all by every dictate of humanity, of honor, and of public good, to unite with us in alleviating this great calamity. There is no time to be lost.

FIRST—We ask individuals everywhere to contribute at once, and to urge it upon their friends and neighbors.

SECOND—We appeal to all churches and organized bodies to act promptly, generously and efficiently.

THIRD—We urge upon EVERY GOVERNOR OF EVERY STATE immediately to bring this matter to the attention of their Legislatures and people. Our last statistics show that nearly $200,000 is needed WITHIN THE COMING FORTNIGHT, to supply this people with seed for Spring planting. It can only be furnished by State action. Every consideration of interest also demands that this new State should be enabled to become self-sustaining, productive, and eventually rich—thus to fulfill her destiny, and to help others, as we are now helping her.

We ask, therefore, every Legislature to do as they would have others do to them in like distress, and at once to grant ample supplies.

All money sent to our Treasurer, JOHN E. WILLIAMS, President Metropolitan Bank, New York City, will be gratefully acknowledged and effectively used.

All Clothing should be sent to "GEN. POMEROY, Atchison, Kansas," and freight should be prepaid. DaW1m

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS.

Are you sick, feeble, and complaining? Are you out of order, with your system deranged, and your feelings uncomfortable? These symptoms are often the prelude to serious illness. Some fit of sickness is coupling upon you, and should be averted by a timely use of the right remedy. Take Ayer's Pills and cleanse out the disordered humors—purify the blood, and let the healthy current run unobstructed in health again. They stimulate the functions of the body into vigorous activity, purify the system from the obstructions which make disease. A cold settles somewhere in the body, and a fever sets in. Nature throws off the disease by exciting the natural functions. These, if not relieved, react upon themselves and the surrounding organs, producing general aggravation, and, if not promptly checked, serious illness. Now, if you expect to escape this condition, this exposure to the derangements, take Ayer's Pills, and see how directly they restore the natural action of the system, and with it the buoyant feeling of health again. What is true and so apparent in this trivial and common complaint, is also true in many of the deep-seated and dangerous disorders. The same purgative effect expels them. Caused by similar obstructions and derangements of the natural functions of the body, they are rapidly, and, if the disease is not too far gone, surely cured by them. Those who know the virtues of these Pills, will neglect to employ them when suffering from the disorders they cure.

Statements from leading physicians in some of the principal cities, and from other well known public persons.

From a Forwarding Merchant of St. Louis, Feb. 4, 1856.

Dr. Ayer: Your Pills are the paragon of all that is great in medicine. They have cured my little daughter of ulcerous sores upon her hands and feet that had proved incurable for years. Her mother has been long grievously afflicted with blotches and pimples on her skin and in her hair. After our child was cured, she also tried your Pills, and they have cured her.

ASA MORGRIDGE.

As a Family Physic.

From Dr. E. W. Cartwright, New Orleans.

Your Pills are the prince of purges. Their excellent qualities surpass any cathartic we possess. They are mild, but very certain and effectual in their action on the bowels, which makes them invaluable to us in the daily treatment of disease.

Headache, Sick Headache, Foul Stomach.

From Dr. Edward Boyd, Baltimore.

Dear Sir, Ayer: I cannot answer you what complaint I have cured with your Pills better than to say all that is near from with a purgative medicine. The sense of repletion denote on an effectual cathartic in my daily contest with disease, and believing as I do that your Pills afford us the best we have, I of course value them highly.

PITTSBURG, Pa., May 1, 1855.

Dr. J. C. Ayer, Sir: I have been repeatedly cured of the worst headache any body can have by a dose or two of your Pills. It seems to arise from a bad stomach, which they cleanse at once.

Yours with great respect, ED. W. PREBLE, Clerk of Steamer Clarion

Bilious Disorders—Liver Complaints.

From Dr. Theodore Bell, of New York City.

Not only are your Pills admirably adapted to their purpose as an aperient, but I find their beneficial effects upon the Liver very marked indeed. I have in many cases proved more effectual for the cure of bilious complaints than any one remedy I can mention. I sincerely rejoice that we have at length in your pills a remedy in which we may repose the confidence of the profession and the people.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR, Washington, D. C., 7th Feb., 1856.

Sir: I have used your Pills in my practice and family practice ever since you made them, and cannot hesitate to say they are the best cathartic we employ. Their regulating action on the liver is quick and decided, consequently they are an admirable remedy for derangements of that organ. Indeed, I have seldom found a case of bilious disease so obstinate that it did not readily yield to them. Fraternally yours, ALONZO HALL, M. D., Physician of the Marine Hospital.

Dysentery, Diarrhœa, Relax, Worms.

From Dr. J. C. Ayer, Lowell, Mass.

Your Pills have had a long trial in my practice, and I hold them in esteem as one of the best aperients I have ever found. Their alterative effect upon the liver makes them an excellent remedy in the bowel complaints that prevail so much in our climate. Their sugar-coating makes them very acceptable and convenient for the use of women and children.

Dyspepsia, Impurity of the Blood.

From Rev. J. V. Himes, Pastor of Advent Church, Boston.

Dr. Ayer: I have used your Pills with extraordinary success in my family and among those I am called to visit in distress. To regulate the organs of digestion and purify the blood, they are the very best remedy I have ever known, and I can confidently recommend them to my friends. Yours truly, J. V. HIMES.

WARSAW, Wyoming Co., N. Y., Oct. 24, 1855.

Dear Sir: I am using your Cathartic Pills in my practice, and find them an excellent purgative to cleanse the system and purify the fountain of the blood.

JOHN G. MEACHAM, M. D.

Constipation, Costiveness, Suppression, Rheumatism, Gout, Neuralgia, Dropsy, Paralysis, Fits, etc.

From Dr. J. P. Vaughn, Montreal, Canada.

Too much cannot be said of your Pills for the cure of costiveness. Of others of our fraternity have found them an efficacious one I have, when prescribing them, considering it for the benefit of the multitudes who suffer from that complaint, which, although bad enough in itself, is the propriator of others that are worse. I believe costiveness to originate in the liver, but your Pills affect that organ and cure the disease.

From Mrs. E. Stuart, Physician and Midwife, Boston.

I find one or two large doses of your Pills, taken at the proper time, are excellent promoters of the natural cures; free when wholly or partially suppressed, and also very effectual to cleanse the stomach and expel worms. They are so much the best physic we have that I recommend no other to my patients.

From the Rev. Dr. Hawkes, of the Methodist Episc. Church.

PULASKI HOUSE, Savannah, Ga., Jan. 6, 1856.

Honored Sir: I should be ungrateful for the relief your skill has brought me if I did not report my case to you. A cold settled in my limbs and brought on excruciating neuralgic pains, which ended in chronic rheumatism. Notwithstanding I had the best of physicians, the disease grew worse and worse, until by the advice of your excellent agent in Baltimore, Dr. Mackenzie, I tried your Pills. Their effects were slow, but sure. By persevering in the use of them, I am now entirely well.

SERGT. CHANLER, Baton Rouge, La., 5 Dec. 1855.

Dr. Ayer: I have been entirely cured by your Pills of Rheumatic Gout—a painful disease that has afflicted me for years. VINCENT SLIDELL.

☞ Most of the Pills in market contain Mercury, which, although a valuable remedy in skilful hands, is dangerous in a public pill, from the dreadful consequences that frequently follow its incautious use. These contain no mercury or mineral substance whatever.

Price, 25 cents per Box, or 5 Boxes for $1.

BLOOD FOOD

CONSUMPTIVES.

An equal and normal circulation of the blood is health. An abnormal, that is to say, an excessive or deficient circulation or stagnation of the blood, is disease. To illustrate—Torpidity of the Liver is caused by stagnation of the blood in that organ; diseases of the Kidneys, inflammation of the Lungs, Disease of the Heart, &c., by the same cause, viz., Improper Circulation; and from the same cause spring all the minor forms of disease. To discover a deficient cure, then, for these diseases, the first great inquiry is, What causes the blood to circulate?

For centuries it has been a matter of much study among scientific and medical men; and while many experiments have been made and much labor expended upon the inquiry, it has been left to this century, among its other wonderful increase in knowledge, to make this grand discovery also

Acknowledging that life is the gift of the Creator and that "in Him we live and move and have our being," we still venture the opinion that the vital powers move in their spheres, and all vegetable life is governed by certain absolute laws, so animal life is traceable to a fixed cause, which when once destroy, and death, the certain effect, follows.

Analysis of the red corpuscles of the blood shows them to be compounds of iron, sulphur and phosphorous.

The air we breathe we know to contain a very large proportion of oxygen.

Oxygen, brought in contact with metal, evolves a powerful electricity.

Electricity, brought in contact with a muscular fibre, causes it to contract.

These facts being indisputable, we have now the solution to the motor or moving power of the heart. The oxygen in the air we breathe, coming in contact with the iron in the red corpuscles of blood, emits electricity, which, coming in contact with the heart, causes it to contract; and hence the power which expels the blood, and sends it tingling through every part of the system. What, then, are the causes of CONSUMPTION, DROPSY, PALSY, PARALYSIS, ST VITUS' DANCE, DYSPEPSIA, EPILEPSY, FEVER & AGUE, &c.?—a deficiency of the red corpuscles containing the iron, sulphur and phosphorous, which causes a deficiency of electricity, and consequently an abnormal circulation. The blood becomes watery, colds and bronchial complaints and procumbence of the sufferer becomes serious. What, then, are the causes of CONSUMPTION, DROPSY, PALSY, PARALYSIS, ST VITUS' DANCE, DYSPEPSIA, EPILEPSY, FEVER & AGUE, &c.?—a deficiency of the red corpuscles containing the iron, sulphur and phosphorous, which causes a deficiency of electricity, and consequently an abnormal circulation. The blood becomes watery, colds and bronchial complaints and procumbence of the sufferer becomes serious. And subject to rheumatic pains and neuralgia—complaints of the liver and kidneys set in; in short, almost every type of disease but virulent fever may be traced to this deficiency in the blood, or the corpuscles or red globules.

Old age causes a deficiency of corpuscles, and while we do not pretend to say that we have discovered the "elixir vitæ," we do say that life can be materially extended by the use of the which restores the red globules and the normal circulation. Consumptive friends of consumptive lives! Sufferers from any organic disease! Unfortunates, who have by excess of the body or mind, exhausted the vital fluid of the blood, and diminished the red globules! Ladies suffering any of the distresses known as female complaints, be persuaded that life or health is your gain. It has cured thousands of desperate cases where all hope had been given up. Do not reject it, do not throw it away on the first trial. The "Blood Food" is an unfailing remedy; give it a trial.

An elaborate treatise, carrying out and fully proving the theory advanced in this brief preview, will be mailed to any interested party, on the receipt of two 3 cent postage stamps. Blood Food is sold by all druggists; or when it cannot be had, I will send 6 bottles, free of expense, for $6, Price, single bottle, $1. It is put up in 6 oz. vials, in yellow wrappers—the old kind, in small bottles, in red wrappers, having been done away with; and bears the fac-simile signature of Church & Dupont upon the face of the wrapper. Beware of counterfeits and imitations.

THAN SILVER OR GOLD,

BECAUSE

IT WILL RESTORE THE WEAK,

AND REINSTATE THE BLOOD IN ALL ITS ORIGINAL PURITY & VIGOR.

It is

PROF. O. J. WOOD'S

RESTORATIVE CORDIAL

—AND—

BLOOD RENOVATOR.

It is precisely what its name indicates, for, while pleasant to the taste, it is revivifying, exhilarating, and strengthening to the vital powers. It also purifies, invigorates and renews the blood in all its original purity, and thus restores and renders the system invulnerable to attacks of disease. It is the only preparation ever offered to the world in a popular form so as to be within the reach of all. So chemically and skillfully combined as to be the most powerful tonic, and yet so perfectly adapted as to act in perfect accordance with the laws of nature, and hence soothe the weakest and most irritable nervous system. It will actually allay all nervous and other irritation. It is also perfectly exhilarating in its effects, and yet is never followed by any depressing reaction. In short, it is composed entirely of vegetables, and those thoroughly combining powerful tonic and soothing properties, and consequently can never injure. As a sure preventive and cure of

CONSUMPTION, BRONCHITIS, DYSPEPSIA INDIGESTION, LOSS OF APPETITE, FAINTNESS, NERVOUS IRRITABILITY, NEURALGIA, PALPITATION OF THE HEART, MELANCHOLY, HYPOCHONDRIA, NIGHT SWEATS, LANGUOR, GIDDINESS, AND ALL THAT CLASS OF CASES SO FEARFULLY FATAL, CALLED FEMALE WEAKNESSES AND IRREGULARITIES,

THERE IS NOTHING ITS EQUAL!

Also Liver Derangements and Torpidity, and Liver Complaints, Diseases of the Kidneys, or any general derangement of the Urinary Organs.

It will not only cure the debility following CHILLS and FEVER, but prevent all attacks arising from unusually injurious and cure the disease at once, if already attacked.

TRAVELLERS should have a bottle with them, as it will infallibly prevent any deleterious consequences following upon the change of climate and water.

As it prevents costiveness, and strengthens the digestive organs, it should be in the hands of all sedentary habits.

LADIES not accustomed to much out-door exercise, should always use it.

MOTHERS should use it, for it is a perfect relief, taken a month or two before the final trial—she will pass the dreadful period with perfect ease and safety.

There is no mistake about it!

THE CORDIAL IS ALL WE CLAIM FOR IT!

MOTHERS, TRY IT!

And to you we appeal, to detect the illness or decline not only of your daughters, before it is too late, but also your sons and husbands, for while the former, from false delicacy, often go down to a premature grave rather than let their condition be known; in time, the latter are often so mixed up with the excitement of business that if it were not for you they too would travel in the same downward path, until too late to arrest their fatal fall. But the mother is always vigilant, to her we can confidently appeal; for we are sure your never failing affection will unerringly point you to PROF. WOOD'S RESTORATIVE CORDIAL AND BLOOD RENOVATOR as the remedy which should be always on hand in time of need.

O. J. WOOD, Proprietor, 444 Broadway, New York, and 114 Market St., St. Louis, Mo., and sold by all good druggists. Price $1 per bottle.

Read what the Press say, after thoroughly testing the matter, and no one can have doubt.

PROF. WOOD'S Restorative Cordial and Blood Renovator is a powerful medicine of real merit, pleasant to the taste, and invigorating to the system. While it purifies the blood and soothes the nervous irritation, it aids the organs of digestion to perform their functions, and resists the assaults of disease. It is a chemical compound so skillfully combined, that while it exhilarates it does not provoke the lassitude which usually follows excitement. A tonic composed exclusively of vegetable matter, it is absolutely beneficial, and the ill effects can possibly accompany its use. It is an infallible and speedy remedy for LOSS OF Appetite, Faintness, Nervous Debility, Neuralgia, Palting of the Womb, and other delicate diseases to which women are subject. For Sickness of the Stomach, Bilious Attacks, Liver Complaints, Costiveness, Dyspepsia, Consumption, and a host of evils flesh is heir to, it is a certain cure.—St. Louis Morning Herald.

PROF. WOOD'S RESTORATIVE CORDIAL.—It is recorded in the classics that Pyrrhe was occasent to a climate warmer than the West Indies, to do cure a sample of the beauty of Proserpine in a box. After some delay the messenger returned, and as soon as the Pyrrhe opened the box was enveloped in a cloud of all the ills that flesh is heir to. Fortunately hope was found in the bottom of the box. Prof. Wood's Restorative Cordial revives the recollection of the story, for it invigorates the blood, aids the organs of digestion, imparts vigor to the nervous system, and renews the blooming citadel of health so as to bid defiance to the assaults of disease. It is a healthy tonic, composed entirely of vegetable productions, and while it is exhilarating as pure wine, no injurious results can possibly follow its use. It is a desideratum in the medical world, and those who are afflicted with loss of appetite, Dyspepsia, Consumption, Faintness, Neuralgia, Palpitation of the Heart, &c., will here find an infallible panacea.—St. Louis Daily Express

PROF. WOOD'S RESTORATIVE CORDIAL AND BLOOD RENOVATOR is, without doubt, the best tonic Cordial in the world. To those who are suffering from general debility, we would recommend its use, for it is pleasant to the taste, is strengthening to the system, and will at once tend to invigorate the impurities of the blood, and eradicate all traces of disease. It can be taken by the weakest stomach, while those in good health will find its exhilarating power. We are confident that after using one bottle of this Cordial, none will be for a day without it.—N. Y. Leader.

A PURE, HEALTHY TONIC, and one free from the deleterious and injurious effects sure to follow those in ordinary use, has long been felt to be a desideratum in the medical world. Such a tonic, and one so skillfully combined from the vegetable kingdom as to act in perfect accordance with the laws of Nature, and thus soothe the weakest stomach, and at the same time allay nervous and other irritations, and tone up all the organs of which the human body is composed, is offered in Prof. Wood's Restorative Cordial and Blood Renovator. Hence it is perfectly adapted to old and Young. Reader, try it. Thousands have already done so; the testimony is universal in its favor.—New York Atlas.

☞ Before noticing a patent medicine, we have to be certain that it will prove itself to be all that is recommended. And we would say that the Restorative Cordial and Blood Renovator of Prof. Wood will stand the test fully, and in fact it is without a parallel in the world as a remedy for purifying the blood and strengthening the system. We have no hesitation in recommending its use to all.—New Yorker.

COTTON OVERLAND.—The Portsmouth, Virginia, Transcript of Feb. 28, says:

The shipments of cotton from Memphis by the Memphis and Charleston, East Tennessee, and Tennessee and Virginia Railroads, continue to arrive here in great quantities, where it is immediately transferred to the fine New York steamers—Knowing ones inform us that these shipments will continue and in much larger quantities than formerly.

☞ The committee in the Massachusetts Legislature have reported against any material alterations in the present liquor law. They say that the people are unwilling to have the liquor law revoked; that the license in certain cities, and the prohibitory law elsewhere, is impracticable; and that single acts of drunkenness should be prosecuted.

During the reception of Mr. Lincoln at Columbus, Ohio, thousands approached him, to exchange salutations, and among them an interesting lady, leading two beautiful children. One after the other, "Honest Old Abe" raised the children, and pressed upon their cheeks a parental kiss, which was proper, and very republican.—But when the lady, with bewitching grace, presented her own sweet lips in attitude to be saluted, Abraham gallantly waved his hand, and cautiously remarked: "No madame, non-intervention!"

HEAVY ORDER.—Messrs. W. & L. E. Gurley of Troy, N. Y., are filling an order from the United State for 2000 brass fuses, for bomb-shells. They are conical in shape, about four inches long, and weigh nearly a pound each.

THE INSATIABLENESS OF MAN.—Give a man the necessaries of life, and he wants the conveniences. Give him the conveniencies, and he craves for the luxuries.—Grant him the luxuries, and he sighs for the elegance. Let him have the elegancies, and he yearns for the follies. Give him all together, and he complains that he has been cheated both in price and quality of the articles.

☞ The Republicans of Milford have held a public meeting according to Mr. Colfax's plan, to decide who shall have the Post Office under the incoming administration. Mr. Edward Lovejoy was the fortunate man. He was instructed where to locate the Post Office.

A MARTIAL HERO COMES TO A VERY UNHEROIC DEATH.—The famous Marshal Bosque of France, died after all, not from a fall from a horse, but from fracture of the spine, occasioned by being pitched down a flight of stairs by the husband of a lady whom he had admired, "not wisely, but too well," in the Chaussee d'Antin, and followed to the door of her apartment.

☞ The sub-treasurer at Charleston has sent to the sub-treasury at New York the balance remaining in his hands to the credit of the Collector at Key West.

A western paper says:—"Wanted, at this office, an editor who can please everybody. Also, a foreman who can so arrange the paper as to allow every man's advertisement to head the column."

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 6, 1861.

MR. LINCOLN'S ADDRESS meets with the approval of the Republican citizens generally, so far as we have opportunity to hear their expressions of opinion. And from the fact that the Boston Herald warmly approves it also, we infer that the Douglas Democrats generally will do the same. The partizans of secession, if such there be in New Hampshire, who consider every exercise of legal power to be coercion,—may find fault; but the indications of to-day are, that New Hampshire will respond to this message of President Lincoln, next Tuesday, by sending three Republican Representatives to Congress, with large majorities, to support Mr. Lincoln's administration, and by electing Mr. Berry for Governor, with a majority of 5 or 6000. U. T.

OPINIONS OF THE INAUGURAL.

The Boston Herald, which was the organ of the Douglas party in New England, says:

On the whole, the Inaugural is all that could be expected from Mr. Lincoln and the party he represents. It will not meet the approbation of the extremists of either party, and the President must expect to be denounced by those who are enlisted in a war upon the integrity of the Union. But he will be sustained by the great mass of the people whose sentiments he has so truly reflected. He has shown that he is equal to the emergency. While he will exert his influence to preserve the peace and harmony of the country, he will not countenance those who make war upon the government. We have not the time now to analyze the propositions he has put forth, but shall do so on some future occasion. In the meantime we commend this patriotic address to the attentive perusal of our readers.

The Newburyport Herald says:—

It will be read by all; it will be admired by every patriot in the land. It is a glorious message—words of wisdom, of conciliation, of peace; yes, and as brave and firm as pacific. It has about it nothing noisy, declamatory and boisterous; it bears upon its every line the calmness of self reliant truth, and it carries with it a consciousness of strength that can afford to bear and forbear, and yet possess the power, when necessary, to assert and maintain the right.

If anything can calm the troubled waters—if anything can check the rapid and downward course to anarchy and ruin, it will be this address—so clear, so cool, so patriotic, so statesmanly. If to this day we had been the opponent of Abraham Lincoln—if to this day we had distrusted Abraham Lincoln, we would now act in friendship and faith to his administration, as we deem it to be the duty of every man who loves his country, and would sustain the government, perpetuate the Union, and preserve our liberties, passing them unimpaired to our children and our children's children after us.

The closing paragraphs of the Inaugural are eloquent, lofty and solemn. They will find sympathy all over the land, wherever a true, honest heart can be found. They will be read and re-read, till they are taught to our children, repeated about all our hearthstones, and recited in all our public schools. From Washington to Lincoln there are no words with a truer ring; and God bless the man who uttered them and will stand by them, acting for the good of his country.

The Boston Courier, devoting a column to reviewing the document, then says:—

We conclude, therefore, that the purpose of the Administration is not coercion, but rather a prudent and patient waiting for the soothing influences of time and returning reason.

The Boston Post says:—

We cannot determine from the Address whether the new Administration will pursue the policy of coercion or of conciliation; and must wait its development in its measures.

The Portland Argus, Douglas paper in Maine says:—

From its tone and the policy foreshadowed, we fear the worst.

FINISHING THE PUBLIC BUSINESS.—Great credit (says the Boston Advertiser) is due to Hon. John Sherman, leader of the House of Representatives, for the rapidity with which public business was advanced at the late session. It is reported that Mr. Buchanan sent to Mr. Sherman to inquire whether it would be necessary for him to attend at the Capitol in the evening to sign bills, as had been customary. When assured that his presence was not needed, he expressed much astonishment at this unprecedented result. Mr. Fessenden did nearly the same thing in the Senate, as Mr. Sherman did in the House.

☞ One marked improvement, at least, in President Lincoln's Inaugural Address, over most which have preceded it, is the fact that it is addressed to his "Fellow Citizens of the United States," and not to "Gentlemen of the Senate and House of Representatives."

LENDING CREDIT TO A RAILROAD.—The bill authorizing the city of Bath to grant a further loan of the city's credit in aid of the Androscoggin railroad has been accepted by a popular vote of 373 to 10.

☞ The steamship Great Eastern will be again ready for sea in March. It was reported that her destination is New York.

To keep husbands and boys from straying away from home, make home pleasanter than other places.

CONCESSION AND SALVATION.—Looking along from the commencement of the Union to this day,—says the Newburyport Herald,—we shall find an endeavor to keep a balance between the different sections of the country and the different interests, and our history of seventy years is a history of concessions, compromises and adjustments. These compromises have related to trade as much as to slavery; and it is to-day more owing to the policy of the South in the matter of the tariff, than to anything else, that the balance is lost. If they had yielded protection, our manufactures, which consume a million bales of cotton, might have demanded two or three millions. In that case our Eastern population would to-day have been condensed in a few States this side of the Mississippi, and to have supplied our wants, slavery would have extended faster to new fields and the creation of new States.

With their free trade policy we have been scattered over the Northwest and to the shores of the Pacific, while they have cramped themselves in their old worn out fields, and thus the balance in the Senate has been turned largely in our favor, and under the appointment of 1861 we shall have more than sixty majority in the House, while in the electoral college of 1864 slavery will be "no where."

Now the slave States, seeing their inability to contend any longer, and fearing that constitutional guarantees and old privileges will be denied, ask new assurances against the majority of the North. We would surrender to them no rights that belong to the North, if they should ask them; but we would satisfy their just claims, that peace may be restored and confidence renewed. We can yield what will satisfy the border States, and what will bring back the cotton States, without conceding anything that does not in right and in fact belong to the South to begin with.

In 1859 there were sent from Boston to Baltimore 62,461 cases of boots and shoes; to Charleston 17,177 cases; and to all the cities of the South 251,358 cases. To New York, Philadelphia, and all other Northern cities and 466,633 cases. Cut off from Boston, in this one article of the industry and commerce of the North, the Southern demand, and a fearful prostration of trade must come.—Boston Post.

Exactly so;—and, cut off from Charleston and Savannah, the Northern demand for the one article of cotton, what a fearful prostration of trade must ensue. But this is not likely to happen. No, indeed;—nor yet the other. We must all have shoes and clothes both North and South;—and he who supposes either section will or can freeze or starve the other, talks nonsense. It cannot be done. Secession deranges trade, no doubt,—but cannot destroy it. Industry and capital, shut off from one route, will soon cut another.

New England's manufactories were forced into existence by the war with England and the high tariff that followed, both of which measures were against her will.

☞ In the Boston Board of Aldermen, March 4th, the Committee on Police, to whom was referred the petition of various parties praying that liquor shops may be closed on Sunday, reported an order requesting the Mayor to take such steps as may be needed to close said shops on the Lord's day. The order passed. This is a good step; and if it can be taken in Boston, surely it might be in all smaller cities.

NO EXTRA SESSION OF CONGRESS.—It is said that, as all the appropriation bills have been passed, and the territorial bills acted upon, Mr. Lincoln, under the advice of leading statesmen of all parties, will find the authorities sufficient in the Constitution and existing laws, without a force bill, to defend the public property and to maintain the acts of Congress, passed in pursuance of the Constitution, inviolate.

NEW YORK, March 5.—The evidence yesterday before the Court Martial in the case of Capt. Walker, of U. S. storeship Supply, went to show that his action was dictated by humanity, without being aware of dereliction, and a course which Commodore Armstrong thought ought to be commended instead of censured.

Ponce (P. R.) dates of Feb. 21 state that the British brig Onward had arrived there with a clearance from the Republic of South Carolina, which was entered under a protest.

☞ The five hundred conspirators who were to assassinate Mr. Lincoln in Washington on Monday, did not get their air gun off; but Mr. Lincoln did get off his gun, and we shall hear the report coming back at once from the cotton and border States.

THE FAT BOY GONE.—Vantile Mack, the fat boy recently exhibiting at Barnum's Museum, died on Wednesday. The boy was seven years old, weighed 240 pounds, and died of excessive fatness.

PARDONED BY THE PRESIDENT.—Philadelphia, March 4.—The President has pardoned Judge Boudersmith, sentenced nineteen months ago to twenty years in the penitentiary and to pay a fine of $20,000 for forging applications for land warrants. The fine was also remitted.

In the eyes of women, said Gibbon, everything is valueless except what contributes in some way to their comfort or self-love.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Mar. 3.—[Dispatch to the N. Y. Tribune.]—The Post Office Department received a letter yesterday from A. I. Guirot, late Treasurer of the Mint and Assistant Treasurer of the United States at New Orleans, acknowledging drafts for $300,000 for postal service in Louisiana. He says:—I find myself constrained to return them to you herewith, inasmuch as by an ordinance adopted February 2, the people of the State of Louisiana, in convention assembled, declared that no transfer on the bullion fund shall be paid or recognized." The department has taken no action, and the case will be turned over to the new administration. If the State will not pay their own contractors out of the money of the United States, the mails should be stopped. In all the other seceding States there has been no trouble of this sort.

Dispatch to the N. Y. Times—Senator Crittenden is very much disappointed and grieved at the failure to obtain a vote upon compromise. He has little hope, he says, for the future of the country.

Letters received here to-day from Richmond assert that no secession ordinance can pass the Virginia Convention under any circumstances. The Union men, if they can do no better, will substitute for the secession ordinance a provision for calling a convention of the border slave States, thus gaining two or three months more of time for reflection.

It is understood at Montgomery that if the recognition of the southern confederacy is refused, immediately on its being ascertained, Forts Sumter and Pickens will be attacked, and an armed issue will be immediately precipitated on the new administration.

Dispatch to the New York Herald.]—Mr. Lincoln will give his first reception at the White House on Friday evening next. This evening, a delegation of six South Carolinians called upon Mr. Lincoln, to pay their respects. They are opposed to secession, but are obliged to submit to it, being citizens of that State and owners of a large number of slaves. Mr. Lincoln received them very kindly, saying they were just the kind of people he wanted to talk with. Upon retiring, the gentlemen expressed their gratification at the interview.

A number of conservative members of the Virginia convention have arrived here, their object being to gain information touching the positive state of affairs, and to report the same to that body. They are not encouraged to the extent that they anticipated. They return to Richmond to-morrow.

There is considerable excitement in the city to night consequent upon the report, the truth of which I have no doubt, that Colonel Lee, aid to General Scott, has this evening resigned his commission in the army. He is a Virginian, and it is said has acted upon assurances from his State that she will secede, rumors to which effect have reached here from Richmond.

The most alarming fact about this action of Col. Lee's, is that he has been the confidential friend and adviser of General Scott, and is consequently in possession of all his secret military movements.

A Cabinet meeting was held this evening, it is said with special reference to the resignation of Col. Lee, and a reported discovery of a plot on the part of a gang of desperate men now here from Baltimore and different parts of Virginia, to surprise and take the battery on Judiciary square and spike the guns. That there is a large number of evil disposed persons in the city, there is no doubt, but troops are on the alert and cannot be surprised nor taken by forty times the number of desperadoes now in the city. The feeling tonight, in high official circles is, that war will soon follow the inauguration of Lincoln, so sure is every one that Mr. Lincoln will not compromise with traitors. Besides, there is a strong belief that Virginia has been determined to secede, and has been playing a big game of bluff.

SOUTHERN NEWS.—Gen. Twiggs has been expelled unanimously from Charity Lodge, I. O. S. M., in New Orleans. His name is now inscribed with "O. S. A.," and brethren of the circle are requested to shun him.

Lieut. Slemmer, in command and at Fort Pickens, says, in a letter addressed to his brother:—

These Southern papers are publishing all sorts of false reports about me. One is that I was heard to say that if they had attacked the fort any time during the first fifteen days I would have surrendered it without firing a gun. Of course this is not true. My men stood at the guns every one of those days, and if they had come they would have learned the definition of one kind of grape.

The New Orleans True Delta says:

Our merchants are loud and bitter, in their complaints against the ordinance passed by the Montgomery Congress.—Even our journals are strongly opposed to the new tarriff, which is soon to be inaugurated in the seceding States.

WASHINGTON, March 5.—The Cabinet appointments will be sent to the Senate to-day.

The tone of Mr. Lincoln's inaugural is approved by Mr. Douglas, Winter Davis of Maryland, Mr. Leach of North Carolina, and conservatives of all sections; but the secessionists denounce it as a declaration of war.

The inauguration ball last night was successful. The Northern States were well represented. Mr. Lincoln arrived at 11 o'clock, escorted by Senator Anthony of R. I. and Mr. Berrett, Mayor of Washington. Mrs. Lincoln entered, leaning on the arm of Judge Douglas. She wore a rich blue silk dress, trimmed with lace and diamonds. Mrs. Hamlin was dressed in white silk, with floral trimmings.

It is rumored that Col. Lay, Gen. Scott's aid, will be appointed Adjutant General of Virginia. Gen. Scott only learned of his purpose to resign on Sunday, and has communicated all his plans to him.

WASHINGTON, March 5.—Soldiers were stationed on the house tops along the line of the procession yesterday, to act as sharpshooters in case of riotous proceedings.

WISTAR'S BALSAM WILD CHERRY.

In the whole history of medical discoveries, NO REMEDY has performed so many or such remarkable cures of the Throat, Lungs and Chest,—of Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, or of Consumption itself, as this far-famed, long-tried and justly celebrated Balsam. So generally acknowledged is the superiority of this remedy, that but few of the many who have tested its virtues by experience fail to keep it at hand, as a speedy and certain cure for sudden attacks of Cold—fully believing that its remedial powers are comprehensive enough to embrace every form of disease, from the slightest cold to the most dangerous symptom of pulmonary complaint.

George W. Millet, Esq.

Editor of the Norway Advertiser, gives his opinion of this great remedy substantially as follows:

NORWAY VILLAGE, Me., Aug. 4, 1860.

Messrs. S. W. Fowle & Co.—Gentlemen:—For a remedy of such undoubted merit as DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, I cheerfully give you my testimony, and trust that others may be induced thereby to give it a trial and be relieved. Several years since I first became acquainted with this Balsam at a time of distressing cough and cold, which took such firm hold of my lungs as to render me unfit for business, and its operation produced a speedy and permanent cure, after trying various other remedies in vain

In our town this remedy is a great favorite with many, and it all who suffer will but give it a fair trial, I think they will find it to be of more service in pulmonary affections than any other remedy of this class before the public.

Yours respectfully, GEO. W. MILLET.

☞ An item in the Chronicle of Tuesday, stated that we were informed, a secession flag was hoisted upon one of the Engine Houses, on Inauguration Day. We are glad to learn that our informant made a mistake in reading the flag, though perhaps there were reasonable grounds for the statement—as the Atlantics raised a banner containing "red, white and blue" stripes, and 32 stars—which of course is no secession number, however. And we are told the flag was merely a fancy color, given to the Company long ago, when there were but that number of stars in the Union—who can say how many there are now?

FIRE DEPARTMENT. — At the annual meeting of Atlantic Engine Co. No. 6, Monday evening, March 4, the following officers were elected for the coming year: Joseph F. Plummer, Foreman; Charles S. Tucker, 1st As't do.; Albert Rowe, 2d As't; Ammi Rand, Clerk; Seth W. Huntress, Steward.

Gov. Langdon Co. No. 3, elected the following officers:—James A. Waterhouse, Foreman; Theodore P. Dennett, 2d do.; John F. Hanscom, Treasurer's Clerk; Jas. Williams, Steward; Thomas Huntress, Rufus Bean, James Williams, Finance Committee.

☞ Is it any more than fair, that those croakers who are so fond of saying that the Chronicle never has anything "new," (is there anything new under the sun?) should give us credit for laying President Lincoln's excellent Address before them, five or six hours earlier than any other paper?

☞ Remember the lecture at the Pearl street Church this evening. It is the last of the course.

THE NEW TARIFF.—A despatch from Washington says that the President was in great doubt for some time as to whether he would sign the new tariff bill. He said he had examined some of its more important features, and he regarded it as a very imperfect and loosely drawn bill. He yielded, however, to the persuasion of some of his Pennsylvania friends, and signed it.

There is considerable comment in mercantile circles upon the loose character of the bill in various respects. Upon some articles prohibitory duties are fixed. Window glass is a case in point.

WASHINGTON, March 4.—Mr. Buchanan signed every bill presented to him—none making public appropriations were lost. The bill amendatory to the act for the protection of the discovery of deposites of guano, failed to become a law. That for the correction of errors in the tariff act was passed.

Several Democratic members of the late Congress, to day, were engaged in drawing up a manifesto to the leaders of all parties, for their signatures, as a basis for a Union party organization.

ST. LOUIS, March 4.— Commissioner Glenn, from Georgia, spoke in the Convention to-day. He strongly urged Missouri to join the Southern Confederacy. His remarks were received with hissings and bootings from the lobby, which the chairman failed to suppress.

The Canterbury Society of Shakers have lately answered an order from Java for a large lot of their preserved apple—five hundred cans. They are a thriving people. When southern orders for washing machines fall off, instead of folding their hands and waiting for better times, they hunt up other sources for employment and profit, if they have to look to Asia for them.—Statesman.

☞ It is stated that the Germans in the interior of Texas are preparing to leave the State on account of secession. The most of them will go to Central America, particularly to the plateaus of Nicaragua.

HOW TO DO IT.—The mileage from Oregon is $15,000. The Presidential electors of that State would not agree to send one of their number to bring the electoral vote, but all three came and divided the $15,000 between them. One drews the whole from the treasury and then shares it with his associates.

☞ Mr. John S. Eaton, one of the persons scalded at Manchester by the Locomotive Rockingham on Thursday, died in the evening of that day, aged 37 years.

☞ Opium eating is on the increase in the United States Out of the 300,000 pounds imported into the country last year, only one tenth was used medicinally.

☞ The Department at Washington has recently granted "Letters Patent," to Rev. Mr. Stubbs, the Methodist clergyman at Claremont, for his ingenious contrivance to hoist and to lower, and to attach and detach ships boats.

The world, though rough, is after all the best schoolmaster; better than study, for it makes man his own teacher.

The practice of allowing boys to spend their evenings in the streets, is one of the most ruinous, dangerous and mischievous things possible.

You had better learn to conquer your own will than strive to obtain, the mastery over that of others.

If you are looking at a picture you try to give it a good light. Be as courteous to your fellow creatures as you are to a picture.

THE PEMBERTON MILL SUFFERERS.—From the final report of the Relief Committee of the Pemberton Mill sufferers, it appears that the amount received by the committee was $65,579,29, of which $42,004 72 had been disbursed on the first of last May, leaving $23,574 57 in the treasurer's hands. The sum of $255,38 has accrued from interest, increasing the balance in the possession of the treasurer at that time to $23,829 95. The whole fund has now been disbursed. One more death is recorded, that of Ellen Roach, who has never been heard from since that fatal night, making the total deaths 88. The committee have had under their care during their ministrations 117 families and persons. For two persons incurably injured, life annuities have been purchased of $350 and $400 each.

PEOPLE'S LYCEUM.—The last lecture of the course for the benefit of the Free-will Baptist Society of this city, will be delivered in the Pearl street Church, on Wednesday evening, March 6th, by Rev. C. O. Libby, of North Berwick, Me. Subject:—"The value of Common Sense."—Tickets for sale at the door—15 cents.—Commence at half past 7.

Would you save yourself from suffering after eating, or from acids of the stomach, or burning sensation or indigestion?—Use Horrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus.—Never use soda if you can procure this article. It will strengthen weak stomachs and relieve dyspepsia; is a saving in the quantity of flour, &c. Try it. Grocers and Druggists most all sell it.

Sold at wholesale, by Israel Nash & Co., Boston; and Sumner, Swasey & Currier, Newburyport.

A Distressing Cough, causes the friends of the sufferer as much pain as the sufferer himself. Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry will certainly cure coughs, colds, arrest consumption, and that speedily. When did it ever fail?

RHEUMATISM AND NEURALGIA.

GARDINER'S

Is a certain, safe and permanent cure for Rheumatism, Neuralgia and Salt Rheum. It is an internal remedy, driving out and entirely eradicating the disease, requiring no change in diet or business, and may be taken by children and persons of the most delicate constitutions with perfect safety.

TESTIMONIALS.

Having been a constant sufferer from Neuralgia for eighteen months, and been driven by excruciating pain to the trial of numberless remedies without obtaining relief, I was induced to try "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound." I have taken but one bottle, and am entirely well." D. D. BAXTER, Dry Goods Dealer, No. 5 Appleton Block, Lowell, Mass.

I have been afflicted with Salt Rheum in its worst form for a long time, and suffered more than can be imagined, except by those similarly afflicted. I tried one bottle of your Compound, and can honestly say that I believe myself entirely cured.—JOHN A. MORDO, Pearl St. House, Boston, Mass.

Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has entirely relieved me from sufferings of several years' standing.—W. E. HODGKINS, No. 1 Old State House, Boston.

My son, ten years of age, has been for three years a great sufferer from Salt Rheum, his hands covered with sores, and in constant pain. One bottle of your Compound cured him.—J. W. HAMMOND, 99 Milk street, Boston.

I certify that my friend, Wm. T. Glidden, Esq., presented me with a bottle of "Gardiner's Rheumatic Compound," in 1856, when I was suffering with a painful attack of Neuralgia and Rheumatism, and that it proved to be of decided benefit.—ALBERT SMITH, Ex Member of Congress from Maine.

TESTIMONY OF JUDGE KITTREDGE OF VERMONT.—Charles F. Gardiner, Esq.,—Dear Sir,—I beg leave to add my testimony in favor of "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound."—After suffering twenty years with Rheumatism, more or less, and last year with a very severe attack, I took one bottle of your Compound, which afforded decided relief. I think it the best and most efficacious medicine for that disease I ever used.—WM. C. KITTREDGE, Fair Haven, Vt., Dec. 1st, 1860.

The Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has been taken by hundreds of persons for Scrofulous Humors with great benefit.

No. 10 Market Sq., Portsmouth,

Having been appointed
SOLE AGENT IN PORTSMOUTH
for the sale of the celebrated and unrivalled Noiseless

GROVER & BAKER

FAMILY AND MANUFACTURING

Sewing Machines,

would invite especial attention to the same.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE makes the only seam formed by a Sewing Machine, in which each stitch is independently locked, and without dependence on other stitches for strength, and the only seam that will admit of the thread being cut at every fourth stitch without injury to the seam in wear.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE is adapted to all varieties of fabrics, sewing equally well the finest Swiss Muslin or the heaviest cloth or leather, and requiring no adjustment for any kind of sewing other than the adaptation of needles and thread.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE sews from ordinary spools without rewinding, and fastens its own seams, thereby saving time and thread. It will sew common spool cotton, silk and linen thread with equal facility.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE is so simple that an intelligent child of ten years can readily learn to operate it. It is more easily kept in order than any other machine, and need not be taken apart to be oiled.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE makes the only stitch that cannot be injured by washing and ironing, and the only stitch that forms an elastic and durable seam. Fabrics put together with this stitch may wear out and drop to pieces from original weakness, or hard usage, but none will give way at the seams, they cannot; they will hold together when the cloth or calico around them hangs in rags and tatters.

Every Machine Warranted for Years.

PRICE FROM $40 TO $125.

I have also been appointed agent for

THE UNIVERSAL HEMMER,

Which can be attached to any machine, and will turn a hem from 1-16 inch to 2½ inches, without previous basting.

PRICE $5.

—AND—

SILVER WARE,

Which I invite my customers and the public to call and examine, feeling assured that I can offer

AS LARGE AN ASSORTMENT,

THE FAMINE IN KANSAS.

Appeal for the Destitute, from the New York City Committee.

WM. C. BRYANT, Chairman. J. E. WILLIAMS, Treasurer.

Chas. H. Marshall, Seth B. Hunt, R. H. McCurdy, Morris Ketchum, G. C. Bronson, Chas. W. Elliott, Daniel Lord, Daniel Drew, J. S. Wadsworth.

It has become our imperative duty to urge upon the public attention the fact that over 40,000 of our fellow citizens in KANSAS are now in imminent danger of starving. We have evidence from all sources—from Gen. Pomeroy, Chairman of the Territorial Relief Committee—from the columns of nearly every newspaper, of all shades of politics—from our own reliable agent, who has just returned. There was no doubt of the misery, terrible, wide-spread, destructive.

We have evidence that whole families have already died of starvation; and that thousands more must lie down discouraged, and die of want or disease consequent upon it, unless prompt and thorough relief is at once supplied. Congress is now attempting to sustain the starving Indians, but our 40,000 fellow countrymen—men, women and children—can neither get away from their desolation, nor borrow, nor beg. Their only dependence is upon us, who have never known hunger.

THEY MUST BE SUSTAINED. Will you help us to help them?

To assure you that whatever you do will reach them, we state that in every destitute township is a Relief Committee—these are all represented by the Territorial Committee, as follows:

TERRITORIAL COMMITTEE.

S. C. Pomeroy, Atchison; W. W Guthrie, Brown County; J. L. McDowell, Leavenworth; Rev. C. Reynolds, Lawrence; Rev. L. Bodwell, Topeka; Rev. S. Lykins, Linn County; F. U Blake, Junction City; C. B. Lines, Wabaunsee; F. B. Baker, Centralia; Rev. Wm. Bishop, Salina;—Judge A. Spaulding, Jefferson County; J. C. Burnett, Bourbon County; J. C. Lambdin, Butler County; Geo. M. Russell, Wyandotte.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

S. C. Pomeroy, Chairman; J. L. McDowell, Rev. C. Reynolds, Rev. L. Bodwell, F. F. Baker.

S. C. POMEROY, Corresponding Secretary.
G. H. FAIRCHILD, Treasurer.

Gen. Pomeroy is Chairman, and at ATCHISON devotes his whole time and energy, with assistants, to the receipt of food and clothing, all of which are delivered upon requisitions of Town Committees, and are distributed through them.—This organization is prompt, thorough and effective, and we advise the sending of supplies through it. Money and clothing are needed from us;—food can be got in the West.

The names of our committee appear at the head of this appeal, and we hope will be sufficient to induce co-operation. Our Treasurer is JOHN E. WILLIAMS, President of the Metropolitan Bank, New York City. All money sent to him will be applied to the payment of Gen. Pomeroy's drafts on account of freights and sacks. We appeal to you all, by every dictate of humanity, of honor, and of public good, to unite with us in alleviating this great calamity. There is no time to be lost.

FIRST—We ask individuals everywhere to contribute at once, and to urge it upon their friends and neighbors.

SECOND—We appeal to all churches and organized bodies to act promptly, generously and efficiently.

THIRD—We urge upon EVERY GOVERNOR OF EVERY STATE immediately to bring this matter to the attention of their Legislature and people. Our last statistics show that nearly $200,000 is needed within the coming fortnight, to supply this people with seed for Spring planting. It can only be furnished by State action. Every consideration of interest also demands that this new State should be enabled to become self-sustaining, productive, and eventually rich—thus to fulfill her destiny, and to help others, as we are now helping her.

We ask, therefore, every Legislature to do as they would have others do to them in like distress, and at once to grant ample supplies.

All money sent to our Treasurer, JOHN E. WILLIAMS, Metropolitan Bank, New York City, will be gratefully acknowledged and effectively used.

All Clothing should be sent to "GEN. POMEROY, Atchison, KANSAS," and freight should be prepaid. DaWlm

AYER'S Sarsaparilla

FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

And for the speedy cure of the following complaints:

Scrofula and Scrofulous Affections, such as Tumors, Ulcers, Sores, Eruptions, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Blains, and all Skin Diseases.

OAKLAND, Ind., 8th June, 1858.

J. C. AYER & CO. Gents: I feel it my duty to acknowledge what your medicine has done for me. Having inherited a Scrofulous infection, I have suffered from it in various ways for years. Sometimes it breaks out in ulcers on my legs and arms, sometimes it turned inward and distressed me at the stomach. Two years ago it broke out on my head and covered my neck and ears with the sore, which was pronounced incurable beyond description. I tried many medicines and several physicians, but without much relief from any thing. In fact, the disease grew worse. At length I was induced to read in the Gospel Messenger that you had prepared an alterative (Sarsaparilla), for I knew from your reputation that anything you made would be good. I went to Cincinnati and got it, and used it till it cured me. I took it, as you advise, in small doses at first, and washed the mouth and used almost three bottles. New and healthy skin soon began to form under the scab, which after a while fell off. My skin is now clear, and I know by my feelings that the disease has gone from my system. You can well believe that I feel what I am saying when I tell you, that I hold you to be one of the apostles of the age, and remain ever gratefully, Your friend,

ALFRED R. TALLEY.

St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Eyes, Dropsy.

Dr. Robert M. Preble writes from Salem, N. Y., 13th Sept., 1858, that he has cured an inveterate case of Dropsy, which threatened his life, by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and also a dangerous Malignant Erysipelas by large doses of the same; says he cures the common Erysipelas by it constantly.

Bronchocele, Goitre or Swelled Neck.

Zebulon Sloan of Prospect, Texas, writes: "Three bottles of your Sarsaparilla cured me from a Goitre—a disease growing on the neck, which I had suffered from over two years."

Leucorrhea or Whites, Ovarian Tumor, Uterine Ulceration, Female Diseases.

Dr. J. R. Chandler, of New York City, writes: "I most cheerfully comply with the request of your agent in saying I have found your Sarsaparilla a most excellent alterative in the numerous complaints for which we employ such a remedy, but especially in Female Diseases of the Scrofulous diathesis. I have cured many inveterate cases of Leucorrhea by it, and some where the complaint was caused by ulceration of the uterus. The ulceration itself was soon cured. Nothing within my knowledge equals it for these female derangements."

Edward S. Marrow, of Newbury, Ala., writes, "A dangerous ovarian tumor on one of the females in my family, which defied all other treatment, was cured by your medicine, and at length been completely cured by your Extract of Sarsaparilla. Our physician thought nothing but extirpation could afford relief, but he advised the trial of your Sarsaparilla as the last resort before cutting, and it proved effectual. After taking your remedy eight weeks no symptom of the disease remained."

Syphilis and Mercurial Disease.

NEW ORLEANS, 25th August, 1859.

DR. J. C. AYER: Sir, I cheerfully comply with the request of your agent, and bear testimony to some of the effects I have realized with your Sarsaparilla.

I have cured with it, in my practice, most of the complaints for which it is recommended, and have heard of effects truly wonderful in the cure of Venereal and Mercurial Diseases. One of my patients had Syphilitic ulcers in his throat, which were so destructive that they eroded the top of his mouth. Your Sarsaparilla, steadily taken, cured him in five weeks. Another was attacked by secondary symptoms in his throat, nose and forehead, and eaten away a considerable part of it, so that I believe the disorder would soon reach his brain and kill him. But it yielded to my administration of your Sarsaparilla the ulcers healed, and he is well again, not of course without some disfiguration in his face. A woman who had been treated for the same disease by mercury was suffering from this poison in her bones. They had become so sensitive to the weather that on a damp day she suffered excruciating pain in her limbs. She took your medicine, and was cured entirely by your Sarsaparilla in a few weeks. I know from its formula, which your agent gave me, that this Preparation from your laboratory must be a great remedy; consequently, these truly remarkable results with it have not surprised me. Very respectfully yours,

C. V. LARIMER, M. D.

Rheumatism, Gout, Liver Complaint.

INDEPENDENCE, Fredon Co., Va., 6th July, 1858.

DR. J. C. AYER: Sir, I have been afflicted with a painful disease called Rheumatism for many years, which defied the skill of physicians, and stuck to me in spite of all the remedies I could find, until I tried your Sarsaparilla. One bottle cured me in two weeks, and restored my general health so much that I am far better than before I was attacked. I think it a wonderful medicine. J. FREAM.

John T. Getchell, of St. Louis, writes: "I have been afflicted for years with an enlarged Liver or Spleen, which destroyed my health. I tried every thing, and every thing failed to relieve me; and I have been a broken-down man for some time. Your Sarsaparilla has cured me of my Liver. My beloved pastor, the Rev. Mr. Espy, advised me to try your Sarsaparilla, because he said he knew you, and saw doing you made good medicine. I did so, and feeling of God it has cured me, and has so purified my blood as to make a new man of me. I feel young again. The best that can be said of you is, that you deserve success."

Schirrus, Cancer Tumors, Enlargement, Ulceration, Caries and Exfoliation of the Bones.

A great variety of cases have been reported to us where cures of these formidable complaints have resulted from the use of this remedy, but our space here will not admit them. Some of these may be found in our American Almanac, which the agents below named are pleased to furnish gratis to all who call for them.

Dyspepsia, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Melancholy, Neuralgia.

Many remarkable cures of these affections have been made by the alterative power of this medicine. It stimulates the vital functions into vigorous action, and thus overcomes disorders which would be supposed beyond its reach. Such a remedy has long been required by the physicians of the people, and we are confident that this will do for them all that medicine can do.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the Relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced Stages of the Disease.

This is a remedy so universally known to surpass any other for the cure of throat and lung complaints, that it is useless here to publish the evidence of its virtues. Its unrivalled excellence in allaying the severe coughs and wonderful cures of pulmonary disease, have made it known throughout the civilized nations of the earth. For sale the community over, and in every village, among those who have not some personal experience of its effects—some living trophy in their midst of its victory over the subtle and dangerous disorders of the throat and lungs. As all know the dreadful fatality of these disorders, and as they know, too, the effects of this remedy, we need not do more than to assure them that it has now all the virtues that it did have when making the cures which have won so strongly upon the confidence of mankind.

BLOOD FOOD

CONSUMPTIVES.

An equal and normal circulation of the blood is health. An abnormal, that is to say an excessive or deficient circulation or stagnation of the blood, is disease. To illustrate—torpidity of the Liver is caused by stagnation of the blood in that organ; diseases of the Kidneys, Inflammation of the Lungs, Disease of the Heart, &c., by the same cause, viz., Improper Circulation; and from the same source spring all the minor forms of disease. To discover a certain cure, then, for these diseases, the first great inquiry is, What causes the blood to circulate?

For centuries it has been a matter of much study among scientific and medical men; and while many experiments have been made and much labor expended upon the inquiry, it has been left to this century, among the chemists, to find an increase in knowledge, to make this grand discovery also

Acknowledging that life is the gift of the Creator and that we live, we move and have our being," we still venture the remark that, as the planets move in their spheres, and all vegetable life is governed by some absolute laws, so animal life is traceable to a fixed cause, which removes or destroys, and death, the certain effect, follows.

Analysis of the red corpuscles of the blood shows them to be compounds of iron, sulphur and phosphorous.

The air we breathe we know to contain a very large proportion of oxygen.

Oxygen, brought in contact with metal, evolves or emits electricity.

Electricity, brought in contact with a muscular fibre, causes it to contract.

These facts being indisputable, we have now the solution as to the motor or motive power of the heart. The oxygen in the air we breathe, coming in contact with the iron in the red corpuscles of blood, emits electricity, which, coming in contact with the heart, causes it to contract; and blood thus propelled, is driven to the lungs, and sends it tingling through the remotest sinews. What, then, are the causes of CONSUMPTION, DROPSY, PALSY, PARALYSIS, ST. VITUS' DANCE, DYSPEPSIA, EPILEPSY, FEVER & AGUE, &c.?—a deficiency of the red corpuscles containing the iron, sulphur and phosphorous, which causes a deficiency of electricity, and consequently an abnormal circulation. The blood becomes watery, globule and bronchial complaints and pneumonia ensue—the sufferer becomes nervous, and subject to rheumatic pains—DYSPEPSIA sets in, plains of the bowels and kidneys set in; in short, almost every type of disease but virulent fevers may be traced to this deficiency in the blood, of the component part—IRON.

Old age causes a deficiency of corpuscles, and while we do not pretend to say that we have discovered the elixir of life, we do say that life can be materially prolonged by the use of the

which restores the blood globules and the normal circulation. Consumptives! friends of consumptives! Sufferers from any organic disease! Unfortunate, who have lost strength of the body or mind, reduce the standard of the blood and diminished the red globules! Ladies suffering any of the diseases peculiar to your sex! Invalids! be persuaded the "Blood Food" can cure you. It has cured thousands of desperate cases where all hope had given up. Try it, and be happy. Do not throw away your only hope. The "Blood Food" is an unfailing remedy; give it a trial.

As elaborate treatise, containing testimony fully proving the theory advanced here to be correct, will be mailed to any interested party, on the receipt of a letter addressed to the undersigned. It is sold by all druggists; or where it cannot be had, I will send 6 bottles, free of expense, for $6. Price, single bottle, $1. Ask for the signature of Church & Dupont upon the face of the wrapper. Beware of counterfeits and imitations.

PROFESSOR WOOD'S

HAIR RESTORATIVE!

SEE WHAT OTHERS SAY OF IT.

A Distinguished St. Louis Physician Writes:

ST. LOUIS July 10, 1860.

O. J. WOOD, Esq.—Dear Sir:—Allow me the pleasure and satisfaction of transmitting to you the beneficial effects of your Hair Restorative, after a trial of 5 years. I commenced using your Restorative in January, 1855, since which time I have not been without a bottle on hand. When I commenced the use, my hair was quite thin, and at least one third gray. A few applications stopped its falling, and in three weeks there was not a gray hair to be found, neither has there been up to this time.

After my hair was completely restored, I continued its use by applying two or three times a month. My hair has ever continued healthy, soft and glossy, and my scalp perfectly free from dandruff. I do not imagine the facts above mentioned will be of any particular advantage to you, or even flatter your vanity, at this late day, as I am well aware they are all well known already, and even more wonderful ones throughout the Union. I have occupied some time in filling the roster, and at the time the past three years, and have taken pleasure in recommending your Restorative, and always with effects in my favor, in several instances I have met with people who pronounced it a humbug; saying they had used it and without avail. In every case, however, it proved, by probing the matter, that they had not used your article at all, but had used some new article, said to be as good in every respect, and at about half the price. I have noticed two or three articles myself advertised as above, which I have no doubt are humbugs. It is astonishing how people will patronize an article of no reputation, when there is one at hand that has been proved beyond a doubt.

Occasionally, some of these charlatans have not brains enough to write an advertisement, as I notice they have copied yours, word for word, in several instances, merely changing some name in place of yours.

I have, within the past five years, seen and talked with hundreds of the thousands persons that have used your preparation with perfect success—some for baldness, gray hair, scald head, dandruff, and every disease the scalp and head are subject to.

I called to see you, personally, at your original place of business, but, but learned you were now living in New York.

You are at liberty to publish this, or to refer parties to me, by a communication addressed to me, care Box No. 1920, will be promptly answered. Yours truly, JAMES WHITE, M. D.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE has acquired a reputation from actual test and experiment which cannot be enhanced by any commendation. It grows lustrous it has been extensively used, and we believe in every case with every desired result, and receives the universal commendation of all who have tried it. We therefore recommend it as one of those few genuine nostrums which accomplish all they profess, and all the bald and gray could desire.—Columbia Spy.

PROF. WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—In another column will be found an advertisement of this well known and excellent preparation for restoring gray hair to its original color. The Hair Restorative also cures cutaneous eruptions, and prevents the hair from falling off. We have seen many authentic testimonials in proof of these sentions, some of which are from gentlemen whom we have known for many years as persons of the most reliable character. Don't dye till you have tried the Restorative.—Boston Olive Branch.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—We are not in the habit of puffing every new discovery, for in nine cases out of ten they are quack nostrums;—but we take great pleasure in recommending Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative, for it is falling off or turning gray. Our well known contributor, Shirley Johnson, Esq., has experienced the benefit of its application, and joins with us in speaking of its virtue. Let all try it, and bald heads will be as rare as snow in summer.—Baltimore Patriot.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—Unlike most specifics, this is proved, by unimpeachable evidence, to possess great efficacy as a restorer of the hair to its pristine vigor. Where the head had become almost bald because of sickness, the use of this article has produced a beautiful growth of thick, glossy hair. It is therefore a valuable preparation for all classes. Its ingredients are such as to effectually eradicate dandruff and other impurities which operate so injuriously to the hair. It also has curative powers of another description. In many cases pimples and other disfigurements of the skin disappear wherever it is used. There is no hazard attending to the trial of this remedy, and its effects can only be beneficial, as the compound, if it does not cause a man to grow hair where none grew before, and all its component elements are perfectly innocuous.—Boston Transcript, April 22, 1859.

WARREN SPRINGS, Perry Co., Pa., June, 7, 50.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir:—I was induced more than a year ago to try your valuable Hair Restorative to clean my head of dandruff. I had suffer ed from it for years, and had never been able to get anything to do me any good until I saw your advertisement in a Harrisburg paper. I bought a bottle, and am now prepared to recommend it to universal use, for it has completely removed all dandruff from my head, and my hair is now as good as new in two weeks keeps it free from itching and other unpleasantness. I must also state that my hair had become quite white in places, and by use of your preparation, has been restored to its original color. I am now 50 years of age, and although I have used two bottles of the Restorative, no one has any knowledge of it, as I allow a few gray hairs to remain, in order to have my appearance compare with my age. My head is now of less trouble to me in keeping it clean, &c., than at any time since I have been a child. I consider your preparation of great value, and, although I do not like to expose myself, I consider it my duty to say so. You can use this, or any part of it, in any shape you think proper, if it be worth anything to you. Yours, &c., H. H. KITER.

ALL HAIR DYES ABANDONED—WOOD'S GREAT ARTICLE IS THE FIELD.—Prof. Wood stands on an eminence no chemist, whose attention has been turned to inventing a hair tonic, has ever before reached. His fame is world-wide, and thousands who have worn wigs or been bald for years, are now, through the use of his preparation, wearing their own natural and luxuriant head covering. So much for chemistry. Prof. Wood studied out the human hair, its properties, its diseases, and how to restore its decayed vitality; he saw, as in his own case, that gray hair is unnatural unless the age of the individual had reached fourscore, and he believed that the hair could be revitalized. He tried his own case—almost bald and wholly gray at 35—he restored his own hair—and the article he did it with he gave to the world. Get WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE, and take nothing else.—N. Y. Day Book.

The established popularity of this CHOICE OLD BOURBON as a medicinal agent, renders it superfluous to mention in detail the characteristics which distinguish it from the ordinary grade of Kentucky Whiskey.

Being distilled in 1848, and manufactured expressly for us with great care, it can be relied upon as a strictly pure stimulant, and peculiarly efficacious for the treatment of Lung Complaint, Dyspepsia, Derangement of the Stomach, Nervousness, &c.

As a curative agent it has a tendency to recreate and strengthen; while age has long contributed its genial charm, and enriched it with a delicious flavor and an oily body, it affords a pleasant incentive to the reader's hour of recovery and health, through the agreeable medium of a well pleased palate.

Put up in a variety of attractive forms, in iron-bound cases of one and two dozen bottles each, and sold by all prominent druggists, grocers and town agents. A. M. BININGER & CO.,

—FOR—
RHEUMATISM AND NEURALGIA.

GARDINER'S
RHEUMATIC AND NEURALGIA
COMPOUND

is a certain, safe and permanent cure for Rheumatism, Neuralgia and Salt Rheum. It is an internal remedy, driving out and entirely eradicating the disease, requiring no change in diet or business, and may be taken by children and persons of the most delicate constitutions with perfect safety.

TESTIMONIALS.

Having been a constant sufferer from Neuralgia for eighteen months, and been driven by excruciating pain to the trial of numberless remedies without obtaining relief, I was induced to try "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound." I have taken but one bottle, and am entirely well." D. D. BAXTER, Dry Goods Dealer, No. 5 Appleton Block, Lowell, Mass.

I have been afflicted with Salt Rheum in its worst form for a long time, and suffered more than can be imagined, except by those similarly afflicted. I tried one bottle of your Compound, and can honestly say that I believe myself entirely cured.—JOHN A. MORDO, Pearl St. House, Boston, Mass.

Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has entirely relieved me from sufferings of several years' standing.—W. E. HODGKINS, No. 1 Old State House, Boston.

My son, ten years of age, has been for three years a great sufferer from Salt Rheum, his hands covered with sores, and in constant pain. One bottle of your Compound cured him.—J. W. HAMMOND, 99 Milk street, Boston.

I certify that my friend, Wm. T. Glidden, Esq., presented me with a bottle of "Gardiner's Rheumatic Compound," in 1856, when I was suffering, with a painful attack of Neuralgia and Rheumatism, and that it proved to be of decided benefit.—ALBERT SMITH, Ex-Member of Congress from Maine.

TESTIMONY OF JUDGE KITTREDGE OF VERMONT.—Charles F. Gardiner, Esq.,—Dear Sir,—I beg leave to add my testimony in favor of "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound."—After suffering twenty years with Rheumatism, more or less, and last year with a very severe attack, I took one bottle of your Compound, which afforded decided relief. I think it the best and most efficacious medicine for that disease I ever used.—WM. C. KITTREDGE, Fair Haven, Vt., Dec. 1st, 1860.

The Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has been taken by hundreds of persons for Scrofulous Humors with great benefit.

Portsmouth, N. H.

THURSDAY, MARCH 7, 1861.

NEW HAMPSHIRE MATTERS.—We do not see that Judge Bell has either resigned his judgeship, or declined or accepted the democratic nomination for Congress. In this he acts wisely, as did Gen. Scott when he was up for the presidency. Both the Georges, Paul R. and John H., have declined, in favor of Judge Bell.

The Democratic Standard does not mention the declining of Messrs. Jenness and Morrison, but its Portsmouth correspondent writes:—

The Concord Clique may succeed in buying up newspaper establishments, and with the promise of office and promotion induce our candidates to resign, but it will avail them nothing; the honest men who voted for Breckinridge from principle cannot be bought, and they are the common working men, like myself, who want no office. We did not intend to meddle with our county ticket, but as the Concord Clique are making such desperate efforts, and as some of our leaders have been bought up by them, we are determined to have some extra redress.

Its Seabrook correspondent writes:—

I am sorry some of our candidates have resigned as some of our men have become disgusted at their weakness, and they swear they will not go to the polls in March. Still, all of our men who do vote will vote for Jenness, as it will preserve the Breckinridge party and its principles, and keep the national party together. This State cannot be redeemed until the Concord Clique are starved out. No democrat who has ever left them, has ever returned, and all who voted against them in November will vote against them in March. The present calamity upon our country is wholly owing to Douglas' course, for had he and his friends gone in for Breckinridge, Mr. Lincoln could not have been elected. This they well knew; and rather than Mr. Breckinridge should be elected they divided the party by putting Douglas in the field, and consequently Mr. Lincoln was elected.

Well, this is a little "rich"—the Douglas men are like the obstinate eleven jurors, who wouldn't agree with the mighty one.

"THE LAWS OF LIFE," is the name of a Monthly paper, printed at Dansville, N. Y.; Miss Harriet N. Austin, M. D., and Jas. Jackson, M. D., editors. As the title indicates, it goes on the principle that prevention is vastly better than cure of sickness. The editors well say:—

There is no subject in which everybody is interested, so poorly understood as this of health, or how to live free from sickness. To show that Sickness is not necessary, that Health may be the ruling condition of our people, that the life of a generation might as well be 48, as 32 years, are among the objects which we seek to accomplish. And should we do injustice were we to say, on the subject of Health, the people are ignorant? Who has taught them? Do they not live lawlessly? at hap hazard? What sanitary regulations have ever been taken by Government—except in specific instances and under specially impending dangers? What Medical College in Christendom has ever had a Professorship of Hygiene? What community, Christian or Civilized, ever had a temple erected to Health? What Physician—outside of the Hygienic School—ever taught the people among whom he lived how not to be sick? What pulpit ever instructed the people on the sin of dying out of time?

"The Laws of Life" is published by M. W. Simmons & Co, at Dansville, N. Y., who always take pleasure in sending specimen copies free to all who will apply for them.

☞ Drafts by Ex-Secretary Dix on the Assistant Treasurer at New Orleans, to pay for work on the Custom House in that city; also drafts on the Postmaster of New Orleans from Postmaster General King, in connection with the postal service, amounting to between two and three hundred thousand dollars, have been returned unpaid.

☞ Advices from Major Anderson, up to the 4th inst, speak of his situation as being safe, and express an opinion that reinforcements had better not be sent.

☞ The patent bill passed by Congress provides that all patents hereafter granted shall remain in force seventeen years, and all extensions are prohibited.

A Southern paper says a novel and intoxicating liquor has been made from the cotton plant. It may be "intoxicating," but there is certainly no novelty in the "cotton gin."

The Memphis Appeal says the next four years will be an age of steel, but forgets to say that the past four years have been a period of steal.

☞ The Manchester Mirror learns that a man, woman and child, while crossing Lake Winnipiseogee with a horse and sleigh, on Friday, broke through the ice and were drowned.

A little girl four years old was recently called as a witness in a police court, and in answer to the question as to what became of the little girls who told lies, she innocently replied that they were sent to bed.

☞ New Hampshire election comes off next Tuesday; be ready for it. See that your name is on the check-list.

☞ A Mobile paper states that the Northern Democrats "fully sustain the position of the confederated States."

WASHINGTON, March 5.—There is much speculation here in regard to the Inaugural Address. The extreme Southern men pronounce it to breathe a declaration of war.

The border State men say they shall advise their States to prepare for the worst, as possibly by such precaution the evils of civil war can be averted.

The Northern Democrats generally sustain the views of the Southerners.

The Representatives to Congress from the Free States who were defeated, at the last election, are especially bitter against the new Administration.

The Inauguration Ball was a failure, so far as numbers were concerned. There were only about two hundred tickets sold, and the affair cost somebody at least $5000.

There is a tremendous pressure for office, from all parts of the country. More young men are here than is usual at the beginning of a new administration.

The secessionists and disunionists, not content with the popular rebuke their cause has received in the border States, still keep boasting what they will do.

These traitors have lived to see what they denied could ever be effected, namely, the peaceful inauguration of a Republican President. They now talk about the secession of Maryland and Virginia, and the inauguration of Jefferson Davis at Washington on the Fourth of July next.

[From the time when Lincoln and Hamlin were nominated, threats were made by many so-called National papers at the south, and echoed by some at the north, that the inauguration of "black republicans" would never be suffered, or permitted. And now,—though the need of an armed force to keep away thieves and traitors has been stoutly denied by the thieves and traitors themselves, and also by some of their supple tools,—there is and will be needed, a small but faithful armed guard over the public property and records at Washington,—because the very men who howl the most dismally in Congress over the word coercion, would not hesitate to seize arms, treasure, forts and capitol, if they could do it without too much risk of their own precious lives.] U. T.

A BOY SAVED FROM DROWNING, BY A WOMAN.—While skating on a pond near Westville, on Thursday, a son of Mr. Zephaniah Hodges broke through the ice, where water was eight feet deep. His mother saw him from her window, and his aunt, Miss Louisa Robinson, ran to the pond, plunged in, seized the boy, and kept his head above water with one hand, while she broke the ice with the other, so as to get him into shallow water. A Mr. Bullock came to her assistance, and succeeded in bringing both to dry land, but in a benumbed and exhausted condition.

☞ In the Louisiana convention on Monday, a resolution was passed to unite in a public reception to Gen. Twiggs, late commander of the department of Texas, under the government of the United States, and inviting him to a seat in the convention. A resolution was introduced in the convention, instructing the Louisiana delegates to the Southern Congress not to cede any of the public domain to the confederation.

☞ Advices received from Galveston, at New Orleans, state that Capt. Hill, of Fort Brown, refused to surrender his post on demand of the State, backed by the order of Twiggs, the traitor. He had ordered reinforcements from the Ringgold Barracks to re-take the property on Brazos Island. A collision between him and the State troops was anticipated.

MR. LINCOLN'S ADMINISTRATION.—The New York Tribune of Monday says:

We do not expect to approve every act, much less every appointment of the new Administration. We expect to have reason to dissent from some of its views and demur to certain of its acts; and we shall, if we see cause, express that dissent with entire frankness." This would seem to prove that Mr. Greeley has learned, at Washington, that the Tribune is not the exponent of Mr. Lincoln's views.

NEW HAMPSHIRE.—Two of the no-concession members of Congress from New Hampshire are nominated for re-election, viz: Gilman Marston in the First district, and Thomas W. Edwards in the Third. Next Tuesday we shall know whether the people of the Granite State are willing to give up the Union for the Chicago platform. All parties opposed to the Republicans have united upon a ticket for State officers and members of Congress.—Boston Courier.

A LARGE FEE.—Mrs. R. A. Lockwood of Lafayette, Indiana, recently received a letter from Col. Fremont, at New York, informing her that he was ready to pay over a fee of $100,000 due her husband upon the determination in his favor of the celebrated Mariposa claim suit.

☞ It required the efforts of a steamtug to launch the celebrated floating battery at Charleston. When ready for use, the port holes will not be more than three feet above the water. It will be commanded by Capt. James H. Hamilton, formerly an officer in the U. S. Navy.

THE EDITORIAL "WE" AND "OUR."—A New York paper refers to the twelve thousand ladies who petitioned Congress to pass measures of compromise and conciliation, as "our mothers and wives."

A Southern paper says a novel and intoxicating liquor has been made from the cotton plant.

SPECIAL SESSION U. S. SENATE.

WASHINGTON, March. 5.—The floor of the Senate was crowded before the members were called to order, and the galleries were nearly filled, there being great anxiety to learn the names of the members of Mr. Lincoln's Cabinet.

The Senate was called to order at 1 o'clock. Prayer by the Chaplain.

On motion of Mr. Hale, a committee of two was appointed to inform the President that the Senate was ready to receive any communication he might wish to make.

Messrs. Hale and Douglas were appointed said committe, and the Senate took a recess until half-past four.

On re-assembling, Mr. Hale reported that the committee had waited upon the President, who would forthwith communicate a message in writing.

Soon after the Private Secreeary of the President appeared with a message, and the Senate went into executive session, when the following gentlemen were confirmed as Mr. Lincoln's Cabinet:

For Secretary of State—William H. Seward of New York.

For Secretary of the Treasury—Salmon P. Chase of Ohio.

For Secretary of War—Simon Comeron of Pennsylvania.

For Secretary of the Navy—Gideon Wells of Connecticut.

For Postmaster General—Montgomery Blair of Maryland.

For Secretary of the Interior—Caleb B Smith of Indiana.

For Attorney General—Edward Bates of Missouri.

Four or five votes were cast against Messrs. Blair and Bates, some of the Senators were unwilling that any one from the slave States should be a member of Mr. Lincoln's Cabinet. The other members of the Cabinet were unanimously confirmed.

A large crowd was around the doors, awaiting the result.

The Republican Senators had a caucus this morning, to arrange the standing committees.

A large number of citizens of Kentucky and Indiana, here are urging the appointment of Major Robert Anderson as Brigadier General, in place of General Twiggs, stricken from the roll for treachery.

WASHINGTON, March 6.—Mr. Chase, after persuasion on the part of his friends, this morning consented to accept the Secretaryship of the Treasury.

Mr. Seward's son, who is assistant editor of the Albany Evening Journal, will be Assistant Secretary of State.

The contest for the Boston collectorship is narrowed down between the friends of John Z. Goodrich of Massachusetts and Hon. Amos Tuck of New Hampshire.

Mr. Goodrich is ahead, and Mr. Tuck may accept the Surveyorship

"ALL THE WORLD AND THE REST OF MANKIND."—Much fun was made because President Taylor said—and said correctly, too:—

"We are at peace with all the world, and maintain our relations of amity with the rest of mankind," placing the two clauses in apposition, as it were. Supposing he had said:

"We are at peace with all the world; we maintain our relations of amity with the rest of mankind;"

would anybody have criticised that form?

We are reminded of this, by noticing in President Lincoln's Address, a use of language very similar; but wherein is it incorrect? Is it not parse-able, as well as passable? Here it is:

"and intercourse—either amicable or hostile relations, must continue between them."

FROM WASHINGTON.—The correspondent of the New York Evening Post says:

All the attempts made by outside parties to effect a modification of the firm but moderate tone of Mr. Lincoln's inaugural address utterly failed. Mr. Lincoln will not yield a point, nor recede from the position he has assumed.

The passage of Corwin's joint resolutions by the Senate, though it produces no marked sensation; it is thought by many Southern Unionists, will stop the progress of secession.

The twelve Senators who voted in the negative, did so not because they did not approve the doctrine of the resolutions; but because they saw no occasion for amending the Constitution to secure a right already well secured.

☞ The London Telegraph expresses the opinion that the English people have heretofore given too little attention to the politics and policy of the great American nation, and in view of the universal ignorance of its readers, it commences an explanatory essay, with the remark that the trouble now pending in America is occasioned by the desire to extend slavery into the States of Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and Michigan.

☞ The Charleston papers appeal earnestly to the people of South Carolina to take the new State loan of $600,000, which is put in $50 shares. A large quantity of South Carolina bonds are offered in New York, but there are no takers.

☞ Mr. Chenery, of Belmont, Mass., after the last of his large herd of cattle, diseased with pleuro-pneumonia, had been slaughtered by the commissioners of the State, asked the Board why they did not kill him.

☞ Mr. Charles Kimball, of Canterbury, N.H., was run over by the cars at Concord, Friday evening, and received injuries which proved fatal.

Several Southern as well as Northern Senators refused to vote at all. Mason and others wished to kill the measure, but were afraid to vote in the negative.

"Arn't you a little ashamed of your company, voting the same ticket as the "long heels?" said a case-hardened hunker to a wood sawyer the other day. "Druther be caught in their company than with traitors," replied Broadback, letting his saw rip through a hemlock knot.

☞ L. U. Bromley, of the Norwich Bulletin, has sent Jefferson Davis, the President of the "six Nations," a penholder made from a rafter in the house in which Benedict Arnold was born.

The time is near, when to protect one's family from the loss and want often attendant upon the death of its provider, will be as universal as it is now to protect ourselves from loss by fire.

No reflecting man can sit at his fireside with his young family about him, and feel at ease,—when he knows that if death should take him from them, they would be cast upon a selfish world, without the means for education or support, which he can easily provide for them thro' a life policy.

WISTAR'S BALSAM WILDCHERRY.

In the whole history of medical discoveries, NO REMEDY has performed so many or such remarkable cures of the Throat, Lungs and Chest,—of Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, or of Consumption itself, as this far-famed, long-tried and justly celebrated Balsam. So generally acknowledged is the superior excellence of this remedy, that but few of the many who have tested its virtues by experience fail to keep it at hand, as a speedy and certain cure for sudden attacks of Cold—fully believing that its remedial powers are comprehensive enough to embrace every form of disease, from the slightest cold to the most dangerous symptom of pulmonary complaint.

George W. Millet, Esq.

Editor of the Norway Advertiser, gives his opinion of this great remedy substantially as follows:

NORWAY VILLAGE, Me., Aug 4, 1860.

Messrs. S. W. Fowle & Co.—Gentlemen:—For a remedy of such undoubted merit as Dr. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, I cheerfully give you my testimony, and trust that others may be induced thereby to give it a trial and be relieved. Several years since I first became acquainted with this Balsam at a time of distressing cough and cold, which took such firm hold of my lungs as to render me unfit for business, and its operation produced a speedy and permanent cure, after trying various other remedies in vain.

In our town this remedy is a great favorite with many, and if all who suffer will but give it a fair trial, I think they will find it to be of more service in pulmonary affections than any other remedy of this class before the public.

Yours respectfully, GEO. W. MILLET.

☞ The funeral of Mr. George Greenleaf, whose decease was mentioned in yesterday's Chronicle, is to take place at half-past 2 P. M., from the Universalist Church.

Mr. Greenleaf was formerly one of the proprietors and junior editor of the N. H. Gazette, and subsequently a reporter of the Boston Times, Boston Herald, Washington Union, and Baltimore Republican; and latterly one of the publishers and editors of the Fulton City (Ill.) Advertiser.

☞ Rev. Mr. Gage is to deliver the seventh Temperance Lecture, of the Winter Course by ministers, on Sunday evening next, at the Temple. Exercises begin at 8 o'clock precisely.

RALLY FOR THE UNION. — Leverett Saltonstall and Daniel D. Kelley of Mass. will address the citizens of Portsmouth, at the Temple, this (Thursday) evening, on the political questions of the day.

Per order.

REAL, PRACTICAL EDUCATION.—N. P. Willis, of the New York Journal, thus endorses the sensible reform which has been inaugurated at Yale College:

"Yale College commences, this year, a radical revolution in its systems of tuition—substituting practical for classical education, if so desired, and offering to confer the Collegiate Degrees of "Bachelor of Philosophy," "Civil Engineer," and "Doctor of Philosophy," according to pursuance of the course specified.

"This, it will be seen at once, is a blow of reform, struck by the utilitarian spirit of our age, at the waste of time in what is commonly called a 'classical education'—the years that are given to Latin and Greek, and other studies mainly ornamental, while such knowledge as conduces to the arts of life, and to personal well-being, is proportionately neglected.

"The 'Yale Agricultural Lectures' which made such a stir last year, and which were tributary to the same end, were designed by Professor John A. Porter, (the pioneer of of the movement on this side the Atlantic) to galvanize the dead body of Learning by thus bringing it into contact with Live Wisdom—to unite scholars and practical farmers—to harness study and experience to the same plough."

So good an example might well be followed in all Academies, and public schools, by substituting music, physiology, chemistry, gymnastics, and other practical branches, for languages and similar (usually) mere ornamental studies.

NEW YORK, March 6.—The Times Washington correspondent says that Mr. Greeley has received assurances from Mr. Lincoln that Fremont will receive the French Mission.

Several Southerners telegraphed to Gov. Pickens on the 4th not to attack Fort Sumter until action was taken by the confederated States.

Mr. Seward, in an address to the Illinois delegation, advised conciliation.

It is understood that President Lincoln will decline any conference with Southern commissioners, on the ground that he still considers them in the Union.

Mr. Fessenden of Me. is urged for Minister to England.

President Lincoln attended the wedding of Hon. Amos Tuck of N. H. last evening.

RAILROAD ACCIDENT. — As the up-freight train on the Eastern Railroad was backing out of the Newburyport depot, at an early hour Tuesday morning, three empty cars were thrown from the track and rolled down a steep embankment which forms the abutment of the bridge, while another was left lying across the track.—The morning train from the east was obliged to stop on the bridge and transfer its passengers to a train on the other side. The damage is slight, estimated at about $300.—Trav.

☞ The Jew, Mordecai, at Charleston, who gave ten thousand dollars to the South Carolina Government, had just settled with his Northern creditors by paying fifty cents on the dollar. The ten thousand was thus a Northern donation to secession.

So says some paper—but Jews are not very apt to "fail," and compromise with creditors.

Chief Justice Bell of New Hampshire, the Union candidate for Congress in the second district, does not announce his position on the issues of the day—not caring to gratify the Republicans in giving them themes for political speeches. His opponents must find some way to put a tongue in that bell and set it ringing.—Newburyport Herald.

☞ It is said that the venders of lottery policies in New York draw, from the poor of that city, over $200,000 per annum.

So says a floating item—but how many "poor" people does it take to raise $200,000 annually?

LOUISVILLE, Ky., March 5.—Advices from Arkansas state that the convention yesterday elected Union officers by six majority.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., March 4.—Congress adopted a new flag for the confederacy today, and it was hoisted over the Capitol this afternoon.

☞ The United States Naval Gazette, edited by Chas. W. Dennison, is a large and elegantly executed paper, published in New York, at $1 per annum. No. 1, vol. 1, of a new series, appeared March 4. It is well edited and interesting.

☞ The demand for the Atlantic Monthly has been so great that the publishers are re-printing the January number.

HAYTIEN EMIGRATION.—The brig Jeanet Kidston, which took out the first colony of colored emigrants to Hayti, under the supervision of the Haytian Bureau arrived at Boston Tuesday. There were about sixty persons who arrived on the Island, in good spirits, and found things there very satisfactory. They were officially received by the Prime Minister, and introduced to the President, who gave them a hearty welcome, and said they should have the protection of the government. He told them they might settle where they chose. All but a few, who were bricklayers and masons, went to St. Mark, with intention of entering into the cotton growing business.—Atlas.

ST. LOUIS, Mar. 5.—In the convention to-day resolutions were read, that the protest of St. Louis against coercion be reduced to writing and a copy sent to the President.

Resolutions were adopted appointing a committee to wait upon the Georgia commissioner and inform him that Missouri dissented from the position taken by that State, and kindly but emphatically declines to share the honors of secession with her.

Messrs. Coulter and Doniphan, commissioners to the Peace Convention at Washington, addressed the convention.

☞ The Pennsylvania Legislature has voted $30,000 for the relief of the Kansas sufferers.

☞ It is said that the copyright of "Dixie's Land" has given to the author four thousand dollars.

☞ There was a cod in the Salem market on Saturday, which was labelled as weighing eighty pounds.

☞ The wheat raised in 1860 averages about three pounds in weight per bushel more than the crop of 1859.

CHARLES T. EMERY,

No. 10 Market Sq., Portsmouth,

Having been appointed

SOLE AGENT IN PORTSMOUTH

for the sale of the celebrated and unrivalled Noiseless

GROVER & BAKER

FAMILY AND MANUFACTURING

Sewing Machines,

would invite especial attention to the same.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE makes the only seam formed by a Sewing Machine, in which each stitch is independently locked, and without dependence on other stitches for strength, and the only seam that will admit of the thread being cut at every fourth stitch without injury to the seam in wear.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE is adapted to all varieties of fabrics, sewing equally well the finest Swiss Muslin or the heaviest cloth or leather, and requiring no adjustment for any kind of sewing other than the adaptation of needles and thread.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE sews from ordinary spools without rewinding, and fastens its own seams, thereby saving time and thread. It will sew common spool cotton, silk and linen thread with equal facility.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE is so simple that an intelligent child of ten years can readily learn to operate it. It is more easily kept in order than any other machine, and need not be taken apart to be oiled.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE makes the only stitch that cannot be injured by washing and ironing, and the only stitch that forms an elastic and durable seam. Fabrics put together with this stitch may wear out and drop to pieces from original weakness, or hard usage, but come apart or give way at the seams, they do not; they will hold together when the cloth or calico around them hangs in rags and tatters.

Every Machine Warranted for Years.

PRICE FROM $40 TO $125.

I have also been appointed agent for

THE UNIVERSAL HEMMER,

Which can be attached to any machine, and will turn a hem from 1-16 inch to 2½ inches, without previous basting.

PRICE $5.

—AND—

SILVER WARE,

Which I invite my customers and the public to call and examine, feeling assured that I can offer

THE FAMINE IN KANSAS.

Appeal for the Destitute, from the New York City Committee.

WM. C. BRYANT, Chairman. J. E. WILLIAMS, Treasurer.

Chas. H. Marshall, Seth B. Hunt, R. H. McCurdy, Morris Ketchum, G. C. Bronson, Chas. W. Elliott, Daniel Lord, Daniel Drew, J. S. Wadsworth.

It has become our imperative duty to urge upon the public attention the fact that over 40,000 of our fellow citizens in Kansas are now in imminent danger of starving. We have evidence from all sources—from Gen. Pomeroy, Chairman of the Territorial Relief Committee,—from the columns of nearly every newspaper, of all shades of politics—from our own reliable agent, who has just returned. There was no doubt of the misery, terrible, wide-spread, destructive.

We have evidence that whole families have already died of starvation; and that thousands more must die down discouraged, and die of want or disease consequent upon it, unless prompt and thorough relief is at once applied. Congress is now attempting to sustain the starving Indians, but our 40,000 fellow countrymen—men, women and children—can neither get away from their desolation, nor borrow, nor beg. Their only dependence is upon us, who have never known hunger.

THEY MUST BE SUSTAINED. Will you help us to help them?

To assure you that whatever you do will reach them, we state that in every destitute township is a Relief Committee—these are all represented by the Territorial Committee, as follows:

TERRITORIAL COMMITTEE.

S. C. Pomeroy, Atchison; W. W Guthrie, Brown County; J. L. McDowell, Leavenworth; Rev. C. Reynolds, Lawrence; Rev. L. Bodwell, Topeka; Dr. S. Ayers, Linn County; F U Blake, Junction City; C. B. Lines, Wabaunsee; F. B. Baker, Centralia; Rev. Wm. Bishop, Salina;—Judge A. Spaulding, Jefferson County; J. C. Burnett, Bourbon County; J. C. Lanoldin, Butler County; Geo. M. Russell, Wyandotte.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

S. C. Pomeroy, Chairman; J. L. McDowell, Rev. C. Reynolds, Rev. L. Bodwell, F. P. Baker. S. C. Pomeroy, Corresponding Secretary. G. H. FAIRCHILD, Treasurer.

Gen. Pomeroy is Chairman, and at ATCHISON devotes his whole time and energy, with assistants, to the receipt of food and clothing, all of which are delivered upon requisitions of Town Committees, and are distributed through them.—This organization is prompt, thorough and effective, and we advise the sending of supplies through it. Money and clothing are needed from us;—food can be got in the West.

The names of our committee appear at the head of this appeal, and we hope will be sufficient to induce co-operation. Our Treasurer is JOHN E. WILLIAMS, President of the Metropolitan Bank, New York City. All money sent to him will be applied to the payment of Gen. Pomeroy's drafts on account of freights and sacks. We appeal to you all, by every dictate of humanity, of honor, and of public good, to unite with us in alleviating this great calamity. There is no time to be lost.

FIRST—We ask individuals everywhere to contribute at once, and to urge it upon their friends and neighbors.

SECOND—We appeal to all churches and organized bodies to act promptly, generously and efficiently.

THIRD—We urge upon EVERY GOVERNOR OF EVERY STATE immediately to bring this matter to the attention of their Legislatures and people. Our last statistics show that nearly $200,000 is needed within the coming fortnight, to supply this people with seed for Spring planting. It can only be furnished by State action. Every consideration of interest also demands that this new State should be enabled to become self-sustaining, productive, and eventually rich—thus to fulfill her destiny, and to help others, as we are now helping her.

We ask, therefore, every Legislature to do as they would have others do to them in like distress, and at once to grant ample supplies.

All money sent to our Treasurer, JOHN E. WILLIAMS, Metropolitan Bank, New York City, will be gratefully acknowledged and effectively used.

All Clothing should be sent to "GEN. POMEROY, Atchison, Kansas," and freight should be prepaid. DaWlm

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS.

Are you sick, feeble, and complaining? Are you racked with pain, and your feelings unutterably miserable? Do you suffer from Dyspepsia, Costiveness, or other symptoms arising from disorded digestion? These symptoms are the forerunners of more serious illness. Some ill or sickness is creeping upon you. Nature should be averted by a timely use of the right remedy. Take Ayer's Pills, and restore your system to healthful action. Neglect may result in months of suffering and expense. Ayer's Pills, and let the fluids move on unobstructed in their channels. They stimulate the functions of the body into vigorous activity, purify the system from the obstructions which make disease. A cold settles somewhere in the body, and obstructs its natural functions. Those, if not relieved, react upon themselves and the surrounding organs, producing general aggravation, suffering, and disease. Pills in this condition, should be taken to stimulate and take Ayer's Pills, and see how directly they restore the natural action of the system, and with it the buoyant feeling of health again. What is true and so apparent in this trivial and common complaint, is also true in many of the deep-seated and dangerous distempers. The same purgative effect, by removing the cause of disease, obstructions and derangements of the natural functions of the body, they are rapidly, and many of them surely, cured by them who know the virtues of Ayer's Cathartic Pills. Pills will neglect to employ them when suffering from the disorders they cure.

Statements from leading physicians in some of the principal cities, and from other well known public persons.

From a Forwarding Merchant of St. Louis, Feb. 4, 1856.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the paragon of all that is great in medicine. They have cured my little daughter of ulcerous sores upon her hands and feet that had proved incurable for years. Her mother has been long grievously afflicted with blotches and pimples on her skin and in her hair. After our child was cured, she also tried your Pills, and they have cured her.

ASA MORGRIDGE.

As a Family Physic.

From Dr. E. W. Cartwright, New Orleans.

Your Pills are the prince of purges. Their excellent qualities surpass any cathartic we possess. They are mild, but very certain and effectual in their action on the bowels, which makes them invaluable to us in the daily treatment of disease.

Headache, Sick Headache, Foul Stomach.

From Dr. Edward Boyd, Baltimore.

DEAR REND. AYER: I cannot answer you what complaints I have cured with your Pills better than to say all that so ever treat with a purgative medicine. I place great dependence in your Pills, and find them a safe antagonistic to disease, and believing so I do that your Pills afford us the best we have, I of course value them highly.

PITTSBURG, PA., May 1, 1855.

DR. J. C. AYER, Sir: I have been repeatedly cured of the worst headache any body can have by a dose or two of your Pills. It seems to arise from a foul stomach which they cleanse at once.

Yours with great respect, ED. W. PREBLE,
Clerk of Steamer Clarion

Bilious Disorders—Liver Complaints.

From Dr. Theodore Bell, of New York City.

Not only are your Pills admirably adapted to their purpose as an aperient, but I find their beneficial effects upon the Liver very marked indeed. They have in my practice proved more effectual for the cure of bilious complaints than any one remedy I can mention. I sincerely believe that we have at length a purgative which is worthy the confidence of the profession and the public.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
Washington, D. C., 7th Feb., 1856.

SIR: I have used your Pills in my general and hospital practice ever since you made them, and cheerfully say they are the best cathartic we employ. Their rapid yet mild action on the liver is quick and decided, consequently they are an admirable family medicine for most of that organ. Indeed, I have seldom found a case of bilious disease so obstinate that it did not readily yield to them. Truly and yours, ALFRED STILLE, M. D.,
Physician of the Marine Hospital.

Dysentery, Diarrhea, Relax, Worms.

From Dr. J. G. Green, of Chicago.

Your Pills have had a long trial in my practice, and I hold them in esteem as one of the best cathartics I have ever found. Their alterative effect upon the liver makes them an excellent remedy, when given in small doses for bilious dysentery and diarrhea. Their regular operation makes them very acceptable and convenient for the use of women and children.

Dyspepsia, Impurity of the Blood.

From Rev. J. V. Himes, Pastor of Advent Church, Boston.

DR. AYER: I have used your Pills with extraordinary success in my family and among those I am called to visit in distress. To regulate the organs of digestion and purify the blood, these pills are the very best medicine I ever known, and I can confidently recommend them to my friends. Yours, J. V. HIMES.

WARSAW, Wyoming Co., N. Y., Oct. 24, 1853.

DEAR SIR: I am using your Cherry Pectoral for a cough, and find them an excellent purgative to cleanse the system and purify the fountains of the blood.

JOHN G. MEACHAM, M. D.

Constipation, Costiveness, Suppression, Rheumatism, Gout, Neuralgia, Dropsy, Paralysis, Fits, etc.

From Dr. J. P. Vaspin, Montreal, Canada.

Too much cannot be said of your Pills for the cure of costiveness. If others of our fraternity have found them as efficacious as I have, they should join me in proclaiming it for the benefit of the multitudes who suffer from that complaint, which, although bad enough in itself, is the progenitor of others that are worse. I believe cutaneous eruptions originate in the liver, but your Pills affect that organ and cure the disease.

From Rev. E. Everett, Physician and Moderate, Boston.

I find one or two large doses of your Pills, taken at the proper time, are excellent promotives of the natural movement when health or purgative is needed, and also very effectual to cleanse the stomach and expel worms. They are as much the best physic we have that I recommend no other to my patients.

From the Rev. Dr. Hawkes, of the Methodist Episc. Church

PLEASANT HOUSE, Savannah, Ga., July 6, 1855.

HONORED SIR: I should be ungrateful for the relief your skill has brought me if I did not report my case to you. A cold settled in my limbs and bowels, which, after causing excruciating pains, which ended in chronic rheumatism. Notwithstanding I had the best of physicians, the disease grew worse and worse, until by the advice of your excellent agent in Baltimore, Dr. Mackenzie, I tried your Pills. Their effect was slow, but sure. By persevering in the use of them, I am now entirely well.

SENATE CHAMBER, Baton Rouge, La., 1 Dec., 1855.

DR. AYER: I have been entirely cured, by your Pills, of Rheumatic Gout—a painful disease that has afflicted me for years.

VINCENT SLIDELL.

☞ Most of the Pills in market contain Mercury, which, although a valuable remedy in skilful hands, is dangerous in a public pill, from the dreadful consequences that frequently follow its unnecessary use. These contain no mercury or mineral substance whatever.

BLOOD FOOD

CONSUMPTIVES.

An equal and normal circulation of the blood is health. An abnormal, that is to say, an excessive or deficient circulation or stagnation of the blood, is disease. To illustrate—turpidity of the Liver is caused by stagnation of the blood in that organ; diseases of the Kidneys, Inflammation of the Lungs, Disease of the Heart, &c., for the same cause, viz., Improper Circulation; and from the same cause spring all the minor forms of disease. To discover a certain cure, then, for these diseases, the first great inquiry is, What causes the blood to circulate?

This has been a matter of much study among scientific and medical men; and while many experiments have been made and much labor expended upon the inquiry, it has been left to this century, among its other wonderful lessons in knowledge, to make this grand discovery also.

Acknowledging that life is the gift of the Creator and that "in Him we live and move and have our being," we still venture the remark that, as the planets move in their spheres, and all organic life is governed by certain absolute laws, so animal life is traceable to a fixed cause, which removes or destroy, and death, the certain effect, follows.

Analysis of the red corpuscles of the blood shows them to be compounds of iron, sulphur and phosphorous.

The air we breathe we know to contain a very large proportion of oxygen.

Oxygen, brought in contact with metal, evolves an electric fluid.

Electricity, brought in contact with a muscular fibre, causes it to contract.

These facts being indisputable, we have now the solution of the agitator or motive power of the heart. The oxygen in the air we breathe, coming in contact with the iron in the red corpuscles of blood, vivifies electricity, which, coming in contact with the heart, causes it to contract, and produces the power which expels the blood, and sends it tingling through the remotest arteries. What, then, are the causes of CONSUMPTION, NEURALGY, PALSY, PARALYSIS, ST. VITUS' DANCE, DYSPEPSIA, EPILEPSY, FEVER & AGUE, &c.? A deficiency of the red corpuscles containing the iron, sulphur and phosphorous, which causes a deficiency of electricity, and consequently an abnormal circulation. The blood becomes watery, colds and bronchial complaints and pre-tubercular diseases sufferer becomes nervous, and subject to rheumatic pains and neuralgia—complaints of the liver and kidneys set in; in short, almost every type of disease but virulent fevers may be traced to this deficiency in the blood, or the corpuscles or red globules.

Old age causes a deficiency of corpuscles, and while we do not pretend to say that we have discovered the "elixir vitæ," we do say that life can be materially prolonged by the use of the

which restores the red globules and the normal circulation. Consumptives! friends of consumptives! Sufferers in any organic disease! Unfortunates, who have by excess of the body or mind, reduce the standard of the blood and diminish the vitality of the system! Ladies, one of the diseases known as female complaints, be persuaded the "Blood Food" can cure you. It has cured others, and it will cure you. Do not give up hope, but be given up. Do not reject it so not throw away your only hope. The "Blood Food" is not a patent nostrum, but a

An elaborate treatise, carrying out and fully proving the theory advanced here to be correct, will be forwarded to any interested party, on receipt of two 3 cent postage stamps. Blood Food is sold by all druggists; or where it cannot be found, will send 6 bottles, freeze express, on receipt of $5 Price, single bottle, $1. It is put up in 8 oz. vials, in yellow wrappers—the old kind, in small bottles, is not wrapped. PROFESSOR WOOD'S

HAIR RESTORATIVE!

SEE WHAT OTHERS SAY OF IT.

A Distinguished St. Louis Physician Writes:

ST. LOUIS July 10, 1860.

O. J. WOOD, Esq.,—Dear Sir:—Allow me the pleasure and satisfaction of transmitting to you the beneficial effects of your Hair Restorative, after a trial of 5 years. I commenced using your Restorative in January, 1855, since which time I have not witnessed a single hair in my head. When I commenced the use, my hair was quite thin, and at least one third gray. A few applications stopped its falling, and in three weeks there was not a gray hair to be found, neither has there been up to this time

After my hair was completely restored, I continued its use by applying two or three times a month. My hair has ever continued healthy, soft and silky, and is quite perfectly free from dandruff. I do not imagine the facts above mentioned will be of any particular advantage to you, or your Restorative, particularly at this late, as I am well aware they are all well known already, and even more wonderful ones throughout the Union. I have occasionally spent time in travelling the greater part of the time the past three years, and have taken pleasure in recommending your Restorative, and exhibiting my hair in my own case. In several instances I have met with people who pronounced it a humbug; saying they had used it and without effect. In every instance, however, it proved, by probing the matter, that they had not used your article at all, but had used some other, and in fact, sold to be good, and selling at about half the price. I have noticed two or three articles myself advertised as above, which I have no doubt are humbugs. It is astonishing that people will patronize an article of no reputation, when there is one at hand that has been proved beyond a doubt.

Apparently some of these charlatans have not brains enough to write an advertisement, as I notice they have copied yours, word for word, in several instances, merely inserting their name in place of yours.

I have, within the past five years, seen and talked with more than two thousand persons that have used your preparation with perfect success—some for baldness, gray hair, scalt head, dandruff, and every disease the scalp and head are subject to.

I called to see you, personally, at your original place of business, I have, but learned you were now living in New York.

You are at liberty to publish this, or to refer parties to me for communication address Fremont, care box No. 1820, will be promptly answered. Yours truly, JAMES WHITE, M. D.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE has acquired a reputation from actual test and experiment which cannot be shaken by any opposition. In our own vicinity it has been extensively used, and we believe in every case with every desired result, and we feel no hesitation in recommending it to all who have tried it. We therefore recommend it as one of those few genuine nostrums which accomplish all they claim, and all the bald and gray could desire.—Columbia Spy.

PROF. WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—In another column will be found an advertisement of this well known and excellent preparation for restoring gray hair to its original color. The Hair Restorative also cures scurvy eruptions, and prevents the hair from falling off. We have seen many authentic testimonials in proof of these assertions, some of which are from gentlemen whom we have known for many years as persons of the most reliable character. Don't dye till you have tried the Restorative.—Boston Olive Branch.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—We are not in the habit of puffing every new discovery, for in nine cases out of ten they are quack nostrums;—but we take great pleasure in recommending Prof. Wood's article to all whose hair is falling off or turning gray. Our well known contributor, Finley Johnson, Esq., has experienced the benefit of its application, and joins with us in speaking of its virtue. Let all try it, and bald heads will be as rare as snow in summer.—Baltimore Patriot.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—Unlike most specifics, this is proved, by unquestionable evidence, to possess great efficacy as a restorer of the hair to its pristine vigor. Where the head had become almost bald from premature old age, or from any cause, it has produced a beautiful growth of thick, glossy hair. It is therefore a valuable preparation for all classes. Its ingredients are such as to effectually eradicate dandruff and other impurities which operate so injuriously to the hair. It also has curative powers of another description. In many cases pimples and other disfigurements of the skin disappear wherever it is used. There is no fear of attending to the trial of this remedy, and its effects can only be beneficial, as the compound, if it does not cause a man to grow young and lose all traces of sickness, the use of this article

Is a certain, safe and permanent cure for Rheumatism, Neuralgia and Salt Rheum. It is an internal remedy, driving out and entirely eradicating the disease, requiring no change in diet or business, and may be taken by children and persons of the most delicate constitutions with perfect safety.

TESTIMONIALS.
Having been a constant sufferer from Neuralgia for eighteen months, and been driven by excruciating pain to the trial of numberless remedies without obtaining relief, I was induced to try "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound." I have taken but one bottle, and am entirely well.—D. D. BAXTER, Dry Goods Dealer, No. 5 Appleton Block, Lowell, Mass.

I have been afflicted with Salt Rheum in its worst form for a long time, and suffered more than can be imagined, except by those similarly afflicted. I tried one bottle of your Compound, and can honestly say that I believe myself entirely cured.—JOHN A. MORDO, Pearl St. House, Boston, Mass.

Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has entirely relieved me from sufferings of several years' standing.—W. E. HODGKINS, No. 1 Old State House, Boston.

My son, ten years of age, has been for three years a great sufferer from Salt Rheum, his hands covered with sores, and in constant pain. One bottle of your Compound cured him.—J. W. HAMMOND, 99 Milk street, Boston.

I certify that my friend, Wm. T. Glidden, Esq., presented me with a bottle of "Gardiner's Rheumatic Compound," in 1856, when I was suffering with a painful attack of Neuralgia and Rheumatism, and that it proved to be of decided benefit.—ALBERT SMITH, Ex-Member of Congress from Maine.

TESTIMONY OF JUDGE KITTREDGE OF VERMONT.—Charles F. Gardiner, Esq.—Dear Sir,—I beg leave to add my testimony in favor of "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound."—After suffering twenty years with Rheumatism, more or less, and last year with a very severe attack, I took one bottle of your Compound, which afforded decided relief. I think it the best and most efficacious medicine for that disease I ever used.—WM. C. KITTREDGE, Fair Haven, Vt., Dec. 1st, 1860.

The Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has been taken by hundreds of persons for Scrofulous Humors with great benefit.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

FRIDAY, MARCH 8, 1861.

☞ The Boston Post of Friday, says, in its Money Article :—

It is somewhat amusing to hear stock people discuss the "Inaugural." The practical questions are, what does his party expect of the President, and what must be his course of action, with any sort of regard to antecedents and consistency? Evidently he must reinforce and supply the forts, even if he go no further. This course will lead to collision, and in this connection it matters little upon whom rests the responsibility. Hence, whatever the inaugural means, Mr. Lincoln practically means "collision," however averse he may personally be to bloodshed.

A Fort Smith, Arkansas, dispatch of March 7, says :—

Mr. Lincoln's inaugural is regarded here as a declaration of war; and prominent men, heretofore for the Union, have advised the convention to pass a secession ordinance.

These items are fair samples of an hundred such sayings, which we might copy. It is perfectly plain that the new president must have taken one of these two courses, in his inaugural, viz.:—

1. To say, as he has, and as Mr. Buchanan said, he will collect the revenues, and defend the property of the Union, as far as he can, agreeably to his oath of office. Or,

2. To say that any State or any mob might seize forts, navy yards and custom houses, steal muskets and money, collect revenues and postage, come into the Union and go out, all ad libitum,—and he would add amen, so be it.

Between this and what he has said, there seems to be no half-way house. The question is reduced to this point—Have we a government or not? He thinks we have; and will try to sustain it by all the means in his power.

And then the question comes up,—Will the people sustain him in this view? or do they prefer to consider the Union a mere rope of sand, with no strength for liberty, but with much weight in favor of slavery?

U. T.

☞ Messrs. Allen & Paine, who astonished Portsmouth people by a liberal system of advertising,—paying, without doubt, much more for that than for store rent—and who removed to Boston last Spring to have a wider field for business, continue to pursue the course which they found so profitable in this city. We find in a late number of the Commercial Bulletin three columns of their advertisements, and an editorial column descriptive of their cloak establishment; and on Inauguration Day, four columns of the Boston Journal were filled with their advertisements. The managing business partner told us, a short time since, that nothing paid so well, in Portsmouth or Boston, as liberal, judicious advertising; and, as usual, he evidently means what he says. These two advertisements, for a single day each, no doubt cost at least $500—probably more. And they will "pay" ten fold.

DOUGLAS ON THE INAUGURAL.—In the U. S. Senate Wednesday March 6, Mr. Dixon offered a resolution that the usual number of copies of the inaugural be printed.

Mr. Clingman said, in giving his assent, he did not intend to endorse the sentiments which it carried out. It would lead to war.

Mr. Douglas said he had come to the conclusion that it was a peace rather than a war message. He did not desire it should be inferred that he sympathized with the administration, or that in any contingency he and the President would be associated, for he expected to oppose his administration on those great principles which separated parties in former times; but on questions looking to the preservation of the Union by peaceful means, and to a settlement of the slavery question by amendments to the constitution, if he understood the President's true meaning, he was with him.

☞ In another column will be found the advertisement of Dr. S. O. Richardson's Sherry Wine Bitters, which have been fully tested during half a century; and their merits are at all times recognized by those who are in ill health, to whom they give generous support. For all diseases arising from a disordered stomach, liver or bowels, they are unsurpassed. They are highly recommended and freely prescribed by the Medical fraternity, and a simple trial will prove that these celebrated bitters still maintain the reputation which they have held for so many years. They are for sale by druggists generally. 1t daw

LANCASTER, PA., March 6.—Mr. Buchanan was received this afternoon by a large concourse of citizens. The bells were rung and a salute fired. The military and citizens formed a procession of great length, making a fine display and escorted him to his residence. Mr. Buchanan made a brief speech, thanking his fellow citizens for their kind reception, and concluding with the hope that the constitution and the Union might be perpetuated.

NEW YORK, March 7.—Dispatches from Montgomery state that war preparations were proceeding on a large scale.

A fire occurred in Forty-eighth street this morning, during which a man and his wife and five children perished in the flames.

COMMERCIAL PROSPECTS.

A Savannah dispatch of March 2, says:

It has been decided here that all goods shipped via this port for Tennessee, must pay duties here, as Tennessee is not one of the southern confederacy, unless the goods were purchased before February 28, and loaded in the vessel before March 14.

The probable effect of this will be, first to breed a difficulty between Georgia and Tennessee; secondly, to diminish importations through that channel, and consequently to make them go some other way.

The act passed by the Montgomery Convention, entitled "An act to declare and establish the free navigation of the Mississippi river," establishes the free navigation of the Mississippi to the citizens of any of the States upon its borders or upon the borders of its tributaries, but prohibits, under heavy penalties, the disposal at any point of any portion of their cargoes. If it is desired to enter the goods at any port upon the river within the limits of the Confederate States, the privilege is granted under certain forms. Vessels arriving at the first port of entry in the Confederate States, having on board goods subject to the payment of duties, are required to deposit with the Collector a manifest of the cargo; and the said collector, may, if he thinks it necessary, place an inspector on the vessel to accompany her to the first port of entry to which her cargo may be consigned. A failure to furnish the manifest or to receive the inspector, is to be visited with a penalty of five hundred dollars.

This also, leads toward a difficulty. Kentucky, Tennessee, Ohio, &c. not confederate States, may have something to say about this matter.

It is reported at Washington, that the English and French Governments have given official notice to the Government of the United States, that unless the Southern ports are under an actual blockade, they will not recognize it; that is, if only a paper blockade is initiated, they will protect their commerce in those ports.

That is right. Paper blockades are a nuisance: but we suppose our government will never blockade one of its own ports! If it fails to collect its revenue at any point, or if somebody steals the money after it is collected, there may be remedies for the evil,—but we think blockade is not one of them.

By the way, we do not believe either the English or French Governments have given any such notice. And just as we have penned this, our eye falls on a special dispatch to the Boston Transcript from Washington Wednesday noon, which says:—

The reported notification of the British Government, in regard to a blockade of the ports in the seceding States, is a fabrication.

DARING BURGLARIES.—On Wednesday night last week, three rogues supposed to hail from Boston, entered the stable of Oren Head Esq., Exeter, and stole a valuable horse and sleigh. They also entered the new clothing store of Mr. Robert C. Thomson on Water street by removing one of the large panes of glass in the front door, and stole therefrom a lot of ready-made clothing and furnishing goods, supposed to be worth about $150. The horse and sleigh, with several articles of Mr. Thomson's goods, were found the next morning near the house of Mr. Joseph Janvrin, on the Plains, the sleigh badly damaged in an attempt of the rogues to turn out of the road to avoid some persons in sight.

About o'clock Thursday morning Mr. Mace, living in Brentwood, about four miles from here, who was returning from a levee in Kingston, saw the three thieves in front of his house, one of whom was at tempting to raise a window. They fled on his approach, and about dark the same day they stopped at the house of Mr. Beals in Brentwood for food, being dressed in new overcoats. Mr. Richard Smith, a neighbor, at once started for Exeter and notified Mr. Thompson and Officer Towle of their whereabouts, when Mr. Towle and assistants started off to arrest them. They were too late, however, the rogues having left about twenty-five minutes before their arrival, although Mr. Beals and his wife kept them as long as possible in preparing for their entertainment. One of the rogues was an Irishman, but the other two were Americans.—Ballot.

NEW YORK, March 7.—The Washington correspondent of the Times says Mr. Judd of Chicago has been nominated as Minister to Berlin. Mr. Pettes is being urged for the Governorship of Nebraska. Mr. Burlingame has withdrawn in favor of Mr. Schurz for the Sardinian Mission.

Mr. Lincoln has been presented a span of black horses by citizens of New York.

It is understood that Gen. Scott has two light draught steamers ready to start at an hour's notice to take supplies or reinforcements to Fort Sumter.

THE PORTSMOUTH COMPANY OF HORSE GUARDS. — The regiment of Governor's Horse Guards, at present comprises three Companies. Company A. is composed of members residing in and near Concord, where the regimental armory is located;—Company B. have their armory and rendezvous at Nashua; Company C. comprises the members in Portsmouth and vicinity. At a meeting of the Portsmouth members, a day or two since, it was decided to request all recruits who have not already procured uniforms, to do so before the 1st of April; and that a meeting to locate an Armory in Portsmouth, and settle other important business matters, be held in this city on Monday, March 18th. There is no doubt that Company C. will appear with full ranks, in the Spring.

AUBURN, N. Y., March 6.—The Republican ticket for city officers was elected yesterday by 500 majority.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.

At the conclusion of the inaugural address, and while the procession was forming, Thurlow Weed, in passing General Scott's company, stopped to speak with the veteran commander-in-chief.

"How is the inaugural?" asked the General.

"A success," replied Mr. Weed.

"God be praised!" said the grim old chieftain, lifting his hands and clasping them together, while the tears rolled down his face. "The Good God be praised!"

Those who witnessed the General's emotion were deeply moved.

"You were much missed from the platform," said Mr. Weed.

"My duty," said the General, pointing to his guns, "is here."

Dispatch to the Transcript, Wednesday noon :—

The complexion of Mr. Lincoln's Cabinet gives general satisfaction. With the exception of the secessionists, the tone of the Inaugural address meets with public approval.

Mr. Seward's son, will be Assistant Secretary of State. He has every requisite qualification for the office.

Mr. Noel, a Democratic member of Congress from Missouri, says the Inaugural will please the people of that State of all parties.

It is understood here to-day that a special messenger is soon to start for Pensacola, with orders to annul the arrangements of Secretary Toucey at that naval station. Reinforcements will shortly follow.

The Traveller has these items :—

In the vote upon the confirmation of the Cabinet yesterday, Mason, Bragg, Chingman and Mitchell voted against Blair and Bates. Wigfall and Hunter refused to vote. Mason and Wigfall were somewhat bitter in their remarks relative to southerners taking office under Lincoln.

The new Cabinet meet with the President to-day, and will enter upon their duties.

A sub-committee has been chosen to reorganize the Senate Committees. It consists of Fessenden, King and Trumbull, and there is a rumor that Senator Douglas will be appointed Chairman of the Committee on Territories.

The vote of North Carolina and Arkansas against disunion has somewhat dashed the ardor of the secessionists.

The Southern Congress has voted to raise an army of 10,000 men, and made arrangements for its officering and organization.

Judge Campbell, of the Supreme Court, has resigned.

WASHINGTON, March 6.—Previous to the 4th inst. Gen. Scott and others received telegraphic dispatches cautioning them to be on the lookout for gunpowder plots at the Capitol. In consequence of these warnings, diligent searches of the building were made by the police.

Frederick W. Seward was confirmed today as Assistant Secretary of State.

ST. LOUIS, March 6.—In the convention this morning various resolutions declining co-operation with Georgia were referred.—Resolutions in reference to coercion, secession and co operation of the border slave States, were also referred.

Among the resolutions offered was one by ex-Governor Stewart, that no overt act had been committed by the federal authorities justifying either secession, nullification or revolution. Also one by Judge Orr, that we have the best government in the world and intend to keep it.

Resolutions amendatory of the State constitution were tabled. There was a long debate upon referring a resolution relative to Mr. Lincoln's inaugural, but the resolution was finally withdrawn, and the convention adjourned.

☞ Why are Dr. S. O. Richardson's Sherry Wine Bitters, unlike Day & Martin's Blacking? Because the Bitters, being "good wine, need no bush," (arn't a bush and brush synonmous, with the wood-chopper?) and the Blacking does need a brush.

Why are Dr. S. O. Richardson's Bitters like Day & Martin? Because both are "always on hand," or ought to be. 1t daw

☞ The Educational Journal, of Forsyth, Ga, reckons the total number of slaves connected with Christian churches, at 465,000. Of this number, 200,000 are connected with the Methodist church, and 157,000 with the Missionary and Hard Shell Baptists.

FROM KANSAS.—Atchison, Kansas, Mar. 5.—Seventy tons of provisions have been shipped for Wyandotte and Topeka, in both of which places supplies will be kept. The rush for a few days past has been tremendous. Little seed wheat compared with the wants of the country has as yet been received, and it has to be distributed in small quantities.

☞ A lady at Pittsfield, Mass., recently received a valentine, at which she was somewhat indignant, and was about to throw it in the stove unopened, but was persuaded to open it, when it was found to contain fifty dollars from an old friend and employer.

☞ A wood chopper named Romeo Hadsell, in Middlebury, Conn., who lived in a hut by himself in the woods, on Wednesday night the 29th, was burned to death, by his hut taking fire. It is supposed that he was intoxicated, and fire was carelessly communicated to the hut.

☞ The Montgomery convention are about to consider the expediency of prohibiting the importation of slaves from the "United States," except they are owned by persons emigrating for settlement or residence.

☞ California news, by pony express, is to the 13th. It seemed quite probable that there will be no election of U. S. Senator this session.

For the Chronicle.

THE FOURTH OF MARCH BALL.

On Monday night, at Union Hall, there was a scene of brilliancy rarely equalled in the catalogue of Balls given in Portsmouth. The Goodwin Guards, under whose auspices the Ball was gotten up, has but recently been organized, and appeared for the first time on that night, in a new and beautiful uniform. The company is composed of some of the most respectable young men of the city, under the command of Col. Wm. O. Sides. Full two hundred persons joined in the festivities; and the showy uniforms of twenty different Companies, with the brilliant and many-colored dresses of a hundred ladies, attired in the hight of fashion, glittering with gems, and with their eyes brightened, and their cheeks glowing with pleasure and interest, made the ball-room a place of boundless attractions.

The decorations throughout were very neat and appropriate for the occasion. At the head of the hall hung a life size painting of Washington, under which the American flag was arranged in festoons. Over the windows, on each side, were large engravings of Gen. Scott and Major Anderson, with the tall bear-skin hats of the Company at the ends of the window caps. Small Union Jacks draped to represent curtains, covered the windows. At the opposite end of the hall was a large engraving of President Lincoln, with a drapery of American flags and pennants below. On each side were fine engravings of French Generals, in rich frames, surrounded with festoons of foreign flags. A portrait of Garibaldi was placed over the music stand. At the side of the hall hung a fine engraving of the great Napoleon 1st, with the grenadier hats on each side, and the French flag below. Opposite was a picture of Commodore Perry, surrounded with pennants. Fine oil paintings of American scenery were placed in different parts of the hall. The walls, covered with flags of all nations, the ceiling festooned with pennants, and military equipments distributed at various parts of the floor, gave a very fine effect.

Union Hall is the largest in the city, and well accommodated seventy-five couples.—The ante-rooms are neat and roomy, and a fine supper room being attached to the building, it is now one of the best arranged halls in the city. The floor for the evening was in special charge of Mr. James H. Head, with a strong corps of assistant managers, who were dressed in rich uniforms, and wore tasty rosettes, composed of red, white and blue satin, decorated with garnets, gold fringes and spangles.

At 8 o'clock, the procession was formed, the full Portsmouth Cornet Band performing, and the Grand March commenced.—This was indeed a beautiful sight, and was spoken of by many as being one of the most pleasing features of the evening.—The march being over, Turner's Quadrille Band, Mr. E. E. Elliott prompter, took their places, and discoursed most excellent music the remainder of the evening. This being almost the first appearance of this new Band, at so large a gathering, it was not expected that they would do as well as some more experienced performers; but every one was agreeably surprised at the promptness with which they rendered every selection. The following was the programme of dances. Introductory Grand March, 'Good Evening;' 1, Cotillon, Goodwin Guards; 2, Contra, Hull's Victory; 3, Cotillon, Dixie's Land; 4, Spanish Dance; 5, Cotillon, Lancers; 6, Contra, Twin Sisters; 7, Contra, Virginia Reel; 8, Schottische and Polka; 9 Cotillon, Graffula; 10, Waltz; 11, Cotillon, Ladies' Choice;—Intermission :—12, Contra, Portland Fancy; 13, Cotillon, Governor's Horse Guards; 14, Waltz Quadrille, Strauss: 15, Cotillon, Army and Navy; 16, Contra, Beaux of Oak Hill; 17, Cotillon, Lancers; 18, Sicilian Circle; 19, Contra, Money Musk; 20, Military Cotillon, Kittery Artillery;—'Good Morning.'

The uniform of the Goodwin Guards attracted much attention; and in the ball room, in the glare of the gaslight, it showed to good advantage. Many of the Governor's Horse Guards were present, some in their showy full dress uniform, and others in undress suits. The army, navy, and marine uniforms looked well; also, a number of pretty costumes from out of town, among which was one of the Boston Fusileers'. At 12 o'clock the company adjourned to the supper-room and partook of a fine repast gotten up by Mr. Newell; after which they were entertained with some fine singing by the musical portion of the assembly. At 1 o'clock, dancing again commenced, and did not cease till daybreak. Everything passed off harmoniously, and every one had a pleasant time. In point of brilliancy and numbers, it was a decided success; and reflects great credit on the officers and members of the Company who were instrumental in arranging the affair. H.

SHIP-BUILDING IN PORTSMOUTH.—Messrs. Tobey & Littlefield, at their yard on Noble's Island, have a Ship on the stocks, nearly completed. She is of about a thousand tons burthen, and we believe is for sale.

Hon. Daniel Marcy, at the yard at the foot of Pleasant street, has recently commenced building another Ship, also of about a thousand tons.

These, we think, are all the vessels now in course of construction on the Piscataqua.

☞ At the Republican caucus of Wards Two and Three, held on Thursday evening, at the Court House, in this city, the following gentlemen were nominated as Representatives from the respective Wards:

Ward 2—Wm. P. Jones, S. H. Goodall, Charles Robinson.

Ward 3 — Wm. H. Rollins, Thomas Tarlton.

☞ The alarm of fire, on Thursday afternoon, was caused by the accidental burning of a pile of railroad sleepers, lying to the northwest of Hazelton's Iron Foundry, and near the Sagamore Mill. The wind blew from the northwest, very briskly,—and but for a prompt assembling of help, we had the prospect of quite a fire.

Immediately after, Mr. Asa Walker's barn, above the Foundry, was discovered to be on fire, but was extinguished without the aid of the engines.

☞ By an omission of the compositor, the notice appearing in the Chronicle, Thursday, was made to read that the funeral of Mr. George Greenleaf was to take place at the Universalist Church at 2 1-2 o'clock P. M. It should have read, on Saturday, at that hour.

☞ The body of James Burgess, of Bristol, R. I., was found in the river at Providence yesterday. He had been missing for several days, and is supposed to have fallen into the water while intoxicated.

☞ We call the attention of our readers to an article advertised in another column, called BLOOD FOOD. It is an entirely new discovery, and must not be confounded with any of the numerous patent medicines of the day. It is food for the blood, already prepared for absorption; pleasant to the taste and natural in action, and what one gains he retains. Let all those, then who are suffering from poverty, impurity, or deficiency of blood, and consequently with some chronic disease or ailment, take of this BLOOD FOOD and be restored to health.

WISTAR'S BALSAM WILD CHERRY.

In the whole history of medical discoveries, no REMEDY has performed so many or such remarkable cures of the Throat, Lungs and Chest,—of Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, or of Consumption itself, as this far-famed, long-tried and justly celebrated Balsam. So generally acknowledged is the supe for excellence of this remedy, that but few of the many who have tested its virtues by experience fail to keep it at hand, as a speedy and certain cure for sudden attacks of Cold—fully believing that its remedial powers are comprehensive enough to embrace every form of disease, from the slightest cold to the most dangerous symptom of pulmonary complaint.

George W. Millet, Esq.

Editor of the Norway Advertiser, gives his opinion of this great remedy substantially as follows:

NORWAY VILLAGE, Me., Aug 4, 1860.

Messrs. S. W. Fowle & Co.—Gentlemen:—For a remedy of such undoubted merit as DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, I cheerfully give you my testimony, and trust that others may be induced thereby to give it a trial and be relieved. Several years since I first became acquainted with this Balsam at a time of distressing cough and cold, which took such a firm hold of my lungs as to render me unfit for business, and its operation produced a speedy and permanent cure, after trying various other remedies in vain.

In our town this remedy is a great favorite with many, and it all who suffer will but give it a fair trial, I think they will find it to be of more service in pulmonary affections than any other remedy of this class before the public.

Yours respectfully, GEO. W. MILLET.

Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers!

This extraordinary preparation has been for many years the most certain and speedy remedy for Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, Influenza, and Diseases of the Chest and lungs. To those suffering from obstinate and confirmed Coughs, they give the most immediate and perfect relief; and when great liability to take cold exists, and a troublesome Cough succeeds the slightest exposure, these Wafers produce the most marked results. They at once relieve the Cough and other symptoms, and entirely remove that morbid irritability and weakness of the Lungs which give rise to the complaint. The medical properties are combined in an agreeable form and are pleasant to the taste, so that any child will readily take them; and they are warranted to give relief in ten minutes after use in all cases.

Price 25 cents per box. Sold by W. R. PRESTON and all druggists. feb28 daw3m

HEIMSTREET'S INIMITABLE

HAIR RESTORATIVE.

The following is a sample of many letters daily received by W. E. HAGAN & Co., Troy, N. Y., who are the Manufacturers and Proprietors of "HEIMSTREET'S HAIR RESTORATIVE," an article of which many of our first citizens speak as being the cheapest and best Hair Preparation which has ever been introduced in our market. A combination of Stimulating Spirits and Oil, affording an agreeable Hair Dressing, leaving the scalp perfectly free from dandruff, and causing the Hair to have a rich glossy appearance. Two articles in one. A fine "Hair Dressing," and a never-failing Restorative for the Bald and Gray.—Read the following letter:

A VOICE FROM THE WEST!

FROM THE CLEVELAND PLAINDEALER

UNIVERSAL, UNIVERSAL,

IS THE DEMAND FOR

DR. S. O. RICHARDSON'S

SHERRY WINE BITTERS,

The celebrated New England remedy for

Habitual Constipation, Jaundice, Fever and Ague, General Debility, and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Stomach, Liver or Bowels.

They are used and recommended by the leading Physicians of the country, and all who try them, pronounce them invaluable.

Dr. JAMES L. LEPEERE writes from Navarre, Stark Co., O.: "The Sherry Bitters are praised by those suffering from indigestion, dyspepsia and liver complaint."

E. S. DAVIS, Postmaster at Williamsport, Ohio, says: "They give great satisfaction. I use them myself. Having taken cold, become prostrate, and lost my appetite, it relieved me, and I can recommend it with great assurance of its merits."

Dr. WM. M. KERR, of Rogersville, Ind., writes us that they are the most valuable medicine offered. He has recommended them with great success, and with them made several cures of palpitation of the heart, and general debility.

THOMAS STANFORD, Esq., Blountville, Henry Co., Ind., writes us a long letter under date of May 4, 1860. He was much reduced, having been afflicted for three years with great nervous debility, palpitation of the heart of the m.st severe and prostrating character; "after using a few bottles, I was completely restored, and am now in robust health."

GEORGE W. HOFFMAN says he was afflicted with rheumatism in all its various forms for 20 years, and at the date of his letter he had been two years well, the Bitters effecting the cure, when several physicians attending him could do him no good. He says "for rheumatism, dyspepsia, liver complaint, kidney affection or dropsy, it is a specific certain remedy."

J. W. HUNT writes from Delphos, Allen Co., Ohio, (a section where fever and ague prevails,) that he cheerfully recommends them as of decided merit in all cases of fever and ague, dyspepsia and general debility.

D. K. GALLEHRES, M. D., writes from Van Wert, O.: "I most respectfully recommend the Sherry Wine Bitters to the notice of dyspeptic persons, and all who require a stimulating medicine."

LIFE INSURANCE.

"IN THE MIDST OF LIFE WE ARE IN DEATH."

The strong man often falters, and falls in the midst of the hurry and business of life. The wise man maketh provision for those whom he loveth, against the liability to accident and death.

THE

MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE CO.

Of New York,

with an accumulated capital of over

SEVEN MILLION DOLLARS,

Invested at seven per cent. on bond and mortgage loans in the City and State of New York, upon Real Estate worth double the amount loaned thereon, issues

POLICIES on lives, payable to the wife, or to the legal representative of the person insured.

POLICIES payable to the person insured, on his attaining the age of 50, 60 or 70; or to his representative in case of decease before attaining this age.

PREMIUMS may be paid, quarterly, semi-annually, or annually, at the option of the insured.

The long experience of this excellent institution, like the one hundred years' experience of the great English Life Insurance Co. of London, and other kindred institutions, proves their stability and perpetuity when established upon the right principle. Investments made with them have proved more remunerative than with Savings Banks.

The time is near, when to protect one's family from the loss and want often attendant upon the death of its provider, will be as universal as it is now to protect ourselves from loss by fire.

No reflecting man can sit at his fireside with his young family about him, and feel at ease;—when he knows that if death should take him from them, they would be cast upon a selfish world, without the means for education or support, which he can easily provide for them thro' a life policy.

Having been a constant sufferer from Neuralgia for eighteen months, and been driven by excruciating pain to the trial of numberless remedies without obtaining relief, I was induced to try "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound." I have taken but one bottle, and am entirely well."—D. D. BAXTER, Dry Goods Dealer, No. 5 Appleton Block, Lowell, Mass.

I have been afflicted with Salt Rheum in its worst form for a long time, and suffered more than can be imagined, except by those similarly afflicted. I tried one bottle of your Compound, and can honestly say that I believe myself entirely cured.—JOHN A. MORDO, Pearl St. House, Boston, Mass.

Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has entirely relieved me from sufferings of several years' standing.—W. E. HODGKINS, No. 1 Old State House, Boston.

My son, ten years of age, has been for three years a great sufferer from Salt Rheum, his hands covered with sores, and in constant pain. One bottle of your Compound cured him.—J. W. HAMMOND, 99 Milk street, Boston.

I certify that my friend, Wm. T. Glidden, Esq., presented me with a bottle of "Gardiner's Rheumatic Compound," in 1856, when I was suffering with a painful attack of Neuralgia and Rheumatism, and that it proved to be of decided benefit.—ALBERT SMITH, Ex-Member of Congress from Maine.

TESTIMONY OF JUDGE RITTEROOF OF VERMONT.—Charles F. Gardiner, Esq.,—Dear Sir,—I beg leave to add my testimony in favor of "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound."—After suffering twenty years with Rheumatism, more or less, and last year with a very severe attack, I took one bottle of your Compound, which afforded me great relief. I think it the best and most efficacious medicine for that disease I ever used.—WM. C. RITTEROOF, Fair Haven, Vt., Dec. 1st, 1860.

Sewing Machines,

would invite especial attention to the same.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE makes the only seam formed by a Sewing Machine, in which each stitch is independently locked, and without dependence on other stitches for strength, and the only seam that will admit of the thread being cut at every fourth stitch without injury to the seam in wear.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE is adapted to all varieties of fabrics, sewing equally well the finest Swiss Muslin or the heaviest cloth or leather, and requiring no adjustment for any kind of sewing other than the adaptation of needles and thread.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE sews from ordinary spools without rewinding, and fastens its own seams, thereby saving time and thread. It will sew common spool cotton, silk and linen thread with equal facility.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE is so simple that an intelligent child of ten years can readily learn to operate it. It is more easily kept in order than any other machine, and need not be taken apart to be oiled.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE makes the only stitch that cannot be injured by washing and ironing, and the only stitch that forms an elastic and durable seam. Fabrics put together with this stitch may wear out and drop to pieces from original weakness, or hard usage, but cannot part or give way at the seams, they cannot; they will hold together when the cloth or calico around them hangs in rags and tatters.

THE FAMINE IN KANSAS.

Appeal for the Destitute, from the New York City Committee.

WM. C. BRYANT, J. E. WILLIAMS,
Chairman. Treasurer.

Chas. H. Marshall, Seth B. Hunt, R H. McCurdy, Morris Ketchum, G. C. Bronson, Chas W. Elliott, Daniel Lord, Daniel Drew, J S. Wadsworth.

It has become our imperative duty to urge upon the public attention the fact that over 40,000 of our fellow citizens in Kansas are now in imminent danger of starving. We have evidence from all sources—from Gen. Pomeroy, Chairman of the Territorial Relief Committee,—from the column of nearly every newspaper, of all shades of politics—from our own reliable agent, who has just returned. There was no doubt of the misery, terrible, wide-spread, destructive.

We have evidence that whole families have already died of starvation; and that thousands more must die down discouraged, and die of want or disease consequent upon it, unless prompt and thorough relief is at once applied. Congress is now attempting to sustain the starving Indians, but our 40,000 fellow countrymen—men, women and children—can neither get away from their desolation, nor borrow, nor beg. Their only dependence is upon us, who have never known hunger.

THEY MUST BE SUSTAINED. Will you help us to help them?

To assure you that whatever you do will reach them, we state that in every destitute township is a Relief Committee—these are all represented by the Territorial Committee, as follows:

TERRITORIAL COMMITTEE.

S. C. Pomeroy, Atchison; W. W Guthrie, Brown County; J. L. McDowell, Leavenworth; Rev. C. Keyes, Lawrence; Rev. L. Bodwell, Topeka; Dr. S. Ayers, Linn County; F U Blake, Junction City; C. B. Lines, Wabaunsee; F. B. Baker, Centralia; Rev. W m. Bishop, Ottawa;—Judge A. Spaulding, Jefferson County; J. C. Burnett, Bourbon County; J. C. Lambdin, Butler County; Geo. M. Russell, Wyandotte.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

S. C. Pomeroy, Chairman; J. L. McDowell, Rev. C. Reynolds, Rev. L. Bodwell, F. P. Baker.

S. C. POMEROY, Corresponding Secretary.

G. H. FAIRCHILD, Treasurer.

Gen. Pomeroy is Chairman, and at ATCHISON devotes his whole time and energy, with assistants, to the receipt of food and clothing, all of which are delivered upon requisitions of Town Committees, and are distributed through them.—This organization is prompt, thorough and effective, and we satisfy ourselves the sending of supplies through it. Money and clothing are needed from us;—food can be got in the West.

The names of our committee appear at the head of this appeal, and we hope will be sufficient to induce co-operation. Our Treasurer is JOHN E. WILLIAMS, President of the Metropolitan Bank, New York City. All money sent to him will be applied to the payment of Gen. Pomeroy's drafts on account of freights and sacks. We appeal to you all, by every dictate of humanity, of honor, and of public good, to unite with us in alleviating this great calamity. There is no time to be lost.

FIRST—We ask individuals everywhere to contribute at once, and to urge it upon their friends and neighbors.

SECOND—We appeal to all churches and organized bodies to act promptly, generously and efficiently.

THIRD—We urge upon EVERY GOVERNOR OF EVERY STATE immediately to bring this matter to the attention of their Legislatures and people. Our last statistics show that nearly $200,000 is needed within the coming fortnight, to supply this people with seed for Spring planting. It can only be furnished by State action. Every consideration of interest also demands that this new State should be enabled to begin her self-sustaining, productive, and eventually rich—thus to fulfill her destiny, and to help others, as we are now helping her.

We ask, therefore, every Legislature to do as they would have others do to them in like distress, and at once to grant ample supplies.

All money sent to our Treasurer, JOHN E. WILLIAMS, Metropolitan Bank, New York City, will be gratefully acknowledged and effectively used.

All Clothing should be sent to "GEN. POMEROY, Atchison, Kansas," and freight should be prepaid. DaWlm

LET US DO RIGHT.—"Man proposes; God disposes," says Pascal; or as Cervantes expressed it years before Pascal was born—"Man appoints; God disappoints." The existing condition of our country is an illustration of the truth of these maxims.—Providence has dispensed into calamities what we, in our selfishness, and injustice, proposed as benefits. As our troubles have sprung from a kind of practical atheism, which ignored the existence of the Deity as present in human affairs, it is but natural that we should now be attempting to escape from our embarrassments by new violation of the Divine Law. * * * The annexation of Texas, has not fulfilled the expectations of its Northern advocates. We gained one State for a short period, and now are in danger, not only of losing it but fourteen others. Our country has dwindled in the attempted to enlarge it. God has disposed what man proposed. Moral ideas may to politicians seem to be contemptible abstractions, but their violations works awful ruin in the end. — Boston Transcript.

AYER'S Sarsaparilla

FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

And for the speedy cure of the following complaints:

Scrofula and Scrofulous Affections, such as Tumors, Ulcers, Sores, Eruptions, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Blains, and all Skin Diseases.

OAKLAND, Ind., 6th June, 1850.

J. C. AYER & CO. Gents: I feel it my duty to acknowledge what your Sarsaparilla has done for me. Having inherited a Scrofulous infection, I have suffered from it in various ways for years. Sometimes it broke out in ulcers on my hands and arms; sometimes it turned inward and distressed me at the stomach. Two years ago it broke out on my head and covered my scalp and ears with one sore, which was painful and loathsome beyond description. I tried many medicines and several physicians, but without much relief from any thing. In fact, the disease grew worse. At length I was induced to read in the Gospel Messenger that you had prepared an alterative (Sarsaparilla), for I knew from your reputation that any thing you made must be good. I went to Cincinnati and got it, and used it till it cured me. I took it, as you advise, in small doses of a teaspoonful over a month, and in second almost three bottles. New and healthy skin soon began to form under the scab which soon fell, while fell off. My skin is now clear, and I know by my feelings that the disease has gone from my system. You can well believe that I feel what I am saying when I tell you, that I hold you to be one of the apostles of the age, and remain ever gratefully,

Yours, &c.,
ALFRED B. TALLEY.

St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Eyes, Dropsy.

Dr. Robert M. Peebles writes from Hillsdale, N. Y., 13th Sept., 1850, that he has cured an inveterate case of Dropsy, which threatened to terminate fatally, by the perseverance of our Sarsaparilla, combined with other Malignant Erysipelas by large doses of the same; says he cures the common Erysipelas by it constantly.

Bronchocele, Goitre or Swelled Neck.

Zebulon Sloan of Prospect, Texas, writes: "Thousands of my Sarsaparilla cured me from a Goitre on the neck which I had suffered from two years."

Leucorrhœa or Whites, Ovarian Tumor, Uterine Ulceration, Female Diseases.

Dr. J. B. S. Channing, of New York City, writes: "I most cheerfully comply with the request of your agent in saying I have found your Sarsaparilla a most excellent alterative in the numerous complaints for which we employ such a remedy, but especially in the Leucorrhœa of the Scrofulous diathesis. I have cured many inveterate cases of Leucorrhœa by it, and some where the complaint was accompanied by ulceration of the uterus, the ulceration itself was soon cured. Nothing within my knowledge equals it for these female derangements."

Elias Marsteller, of Newberry, Abe. Co., writes, "I can give no certain tumor on one of the females in my family, which had defied all the remedies we could employ, but at length been completely cured by your Extract of Sarsaparilla. Our physician thought nothing but extirpation could afford relief, but he advised the trial of your Sarsaparilla as the last resort before cutting, and it proved effectual. After taking your remedy eight weeks no symptom of the disease remained."

Syphilis and Mercurial Disease.

NEW ORLEANS, 24th August, 1850.

DR. J. C. AYER: Sir, I cheerfully comply with the request of your agent, and report to you some of the cures I have realized with your Sarsaparilla.

I have cured with it, in my practice, most of the complaints for which it is recommended, and have found it effective and wonderful in the cure of the worst form of Secondary Disease. One of my patients had Syphilitic ulcers in his throat, which were consuming his palate and the top of his mouth. Your Sarsaparilla, taken by him, cured him in five weeks. Another was attacked by secondary symptoms in his nose, and the ulceration had eaten away a considerable portion of the cartilage. The disorder would soon reach his brain and kill him, but it yielded to my administration of your Sarsaparilla; the ulcers healed, and he is now sound and hearty, without some disfiguration to his face. A woman who had been treated for the same disorder by mercury was suffering from ulceration in her tonsils. The ulceration was so active to the weather that on a damp day she suffered excruciating pain in her joints and bones. She, too, was cured entirely by your Sarsaparilla in a few weeks. I know from its formula, which your agent gave me, that this Preparation from your laboratory must be a great remedy indeed, for no other truly remedial results with it have not surprised me.

Fraternally yours, G. Y. LAKIMER, M. D.

Rheumatism, Gout, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, &c.

BORDENTOWN, Burlington Co., Vt., 6th July, 1850.

DR. J. C. AYER: Sir, I have been afflicted with a chronic Rheumatism for a long time, which baffled the skill of the ablest physicians, and was in spite of all the remedies I could find, until I tried your Sarsaparilla. One bottle cured me in two weeks, and restored my general health so much that I am far better than before I was attacked. I think it a wonderful medicine. J. FREAS.

Jules Y. Gotchell, of St. Louis, writes: "I have been afflicted for years with an affection of the Liver, which destroyed my health. I tried every thing I thought would fail to relieve me; and I have been a broken-down man for some years from no other cause than derangement of the Liver. My beloved pastor, Father Kenrick, introduced me to try your Sarsaparilla, because he said he knew you, and any thing you made was worth trying. By the blessing of God it has cured me, and has so purified my blood as to make a new man of me. I feel young again. The best that can be said of you is not half good enough."

Schirrus, Cancer Tumors, Enlargements, Ulcerations, Caries and Exfoliation of the Bones.

A great variety of cases have been reported to us where cures of these formidable complaints have resulted from the use of this remedy, but our space forbids their insertion. Some of these may be found in our American Almanac, which the agents below named are pleased to furnish gratis to all who call for them.

Dyspepsia, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Melancholy, Neuralgia

Many remarkable cures of these affections have been made by the alterative power of this medicine. It often lays the vital functions into vigorous action, and thus overcome disorders which would be supposed beyond its reach. Such a remedy has long been required by the necessities of the people, and we are confident that this will do for them all that medicine can do.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the Relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced Stages of the Disease.

This is a remedy so universally known to surpass any other in the cure of these and kindred complaints, that it is useless here to publish the evidence of its virtues. We do not hold evidence for coughs and colds, and its truly wonderful cures of pulmonary disease, have made it known throughout the civilized nations of the earth. Few are the communities, or even families, among them in which some recent and personal experience of its efficacy does not bring trophy in their midst of its victory over the subtle and dangerous disorders of the throat and lungs. As all know the dreadful fatality of these disorders, and as they know, too, the efficacy of this remedy, we need not do more than to assure them that it has now all the virtues that it did have when making the cures which have won so strongly upon the confidence of mankind.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass.

BLOOD FOOD

CONSUMPTIVES.

An equal and normal circulation of the blood is health. An abnormal, that is to say, an excessive or deficient circulation or stagnation of the blood, is disease. To illustrate—torpidity of the Liver is caused by stagnation of the blood in that organ; disease of the Kidneys, Inflammation of the Lungs, Disease of the Heart, &c., by the same cause, viz., Improper Circulation; and from the same cause spring all the minor forms of disease, and to discover a certain cure, then, for these diseases, the first great inquiry is, What causes the blood to circulate?

For centuries it has been a matter of much study among scientific and medical men, and while many experiments have been made and much labor expended upon the inquiry, it has been left to this century, among its other wonderful increases in knowledge, to make the grand discovery also.

Acknowledging that life is the gift of the Creator and that "in Him we live and move and have our being," we still venture the remark that, as the planets move in their spheres, and all vegetable life is governed by certain absolute laws, so animal life is traceable to a fixed cause, which rules, move or destroy, and death, the certain effect, follows.

Analysis of the red corpuscles of the blood shows them to be compounds of iron, sulphur and phosphorous.

The air we breathe we know to contain a very large proportion of oxygen.

Oxygen, when in contact with metal, evolves or emits electricity.

Electricity, brought in contact with a muscular fibre, causes it to contract.

These facts being indisputable, we have now the solution to the motive power of the action of the heart. The oxygen in the air we breathe, coming in contact with the iron in the red corpuscles of blood, emits electricity, which, coming in contact with the heart, causes it to contract; and hence the power which expels the blood, and sends it tingling through the remotest arteries. What, then, are the causes of CONSUMPTION, DROPSY, PALSY, PARALYSIS, ST VITUS' DANCE, DYSPEPSIA, SCROFULOSY, FEVER AND AGUE, &c.?—a deficiency of the red corpuscles contained in the iron, sulphur and phosphorous, which produces a deficiency of electricity, and consequently an abnormal circulation. The blood becomes watery, colds and bronchial complaints and pros[illegible] ensue, or the liver becomes torpid, and subject to rheumatic pains and neuralgia—complaints of the liver and kidneys set in; in short, disease in every form and shape follows, which may be traced to this deficiency in the blood, of the corpuscles or red globules.

Old age carries a deficiency of corpuscles, and while we do not pretend to say that we have discovered the "elixir vita," we do say that life can be materially prolonged by the use of the which restores the red globules and the normal circulation. Consumptive, Scrofulous, Rheumatic Sufferers from any organic disease! Unfortunates, who have by excess of the body or mind, reduced the standard of the blood and diminished the red globules! Ladies suffering any of the distresses known as fema e complaints, be persuaded that "Blood Food" can cure you. It has cured thousands of desperate cases where all hope had been given up. Do not reject it do not throw away your only hope. The "Blood Food" is an unfailing remedy; give it a trial.

An elaborate treatise, carrying out and fully proving the theory advanced here to be correct, will be mailed to any interested party free on receipt of two 3 cent postage stamps. Blood Food is sold by all druggists, or where it cannot be had, I will send 6 bottles, free of expense, for $5. Price, single bottle, $1. BININGER'S OLD KENTUCKY BOURBON

"1849 RESERVE"

The established popularity of this CHOICE OLD BOURBON as a medicinal agent, renders it superfluous to mention in detail the characteristics which distinguish it from the ordinary grade of Kentucky Whiskeys.

Being distilled in 1849, and manufactured expressly for sale with great care, it can be relied on as a strictly pure stimulant, and peculiarly effective for the treatment of Lung Complaints, Dyspepsia, Derangement of the Stomach, Nervousness, &c.

As a curative agent it has a tendency to recruit and strengthen; while age having contributed its genial charm, and enriched it with a delicious flavor and an oily body, it affords a pleasant incentive to the prevention or recovery of health, through the agreeable medium of a well pleased palate.

Put up in a variety of attractive forms, in iron-bound cases of one and two dozen bottles each, and sold by all prominent druggists, grocers and town agents. A. M. BININGER & CO.,

SOMETHING MORE VALUABLE

THAN SILVER OR GOLD,

BECAUSE

IT WILL RESTORE THE WEAK, AND REINSTATE THE BLOOD IN ALL ITS ORIGINAL PURITY & VIGOR.

It is

PROF. O. J. WOOD'S

RESTORATIVE CORDIAL

—AND—

BLOOD RENOVATOR.

It is precisely what its name indicates, for, while pleasant to the taste, it is revivifying, exhilarating, and strengthening to the vital powers. It also revivifies, invigorates and renews the blood in all its original purity and thus restores and renders the system invulnerable to attacks of disease. It is the only preparation ever offered to the world in a popular form so as to be within the reach of all. So chemically and skillfully combined as to be the most powerful tonic, and yet so perfectly adapted as to act in perfect accordance with the laws of nature, and hence soothe the weakest stomach, and form in the digestive organs, and allay all nervous and other irritation. It is also perfectly exhilarating in its effects, and yet is not followed by any depression or depressing effects. It is composed entirely of vegetables, and those thoroughly combining powerful tonic and soothing properties, and consequently can never injure. As a sure preventive and cure of

CONSUMPTION, BRONCHITIS, DYSPEPSIA INDIGESTION, LOSS OF APPETITE, FAINTNESS, NERVOUS IRRITABILITY, NEURALGIA, PALPITATION OF THE HEART, MELANCHOLY, HYPOCHONDRIA, NIGHT SWEATS, LANGUOR, GIDDINESS, AND ALL OTHER FORMS OF DISEASE, THE FEARFULLY FATAL, CALLED FEMALE WEAKNESSES AND IRREGULARITIES,

THERE IS NOTHING ITS EQUAL!

Also Liver Derangements and Torpidity, and Liver Complaints, Diseases of the Kidneys, or any general derangement of the Urinary Organs.

It will not only cure the debility following CHILLS and FEVER, but prevent all attacks arising from miasmatic influences and cure the disease at once, if already attacked.

TRAVELLERS should have a bottle with them, as it will infallibly prevent any deleterious consequences following upon the change of climate and water.

As it prevents costiveness, and strengthens the digestive organs, it should be in the hands of all persons of sedentary habits.

LADIES not accustomed to much out-door exercise, should always use it.

MOTHERS should use it, for it is a perfect relief, taken a month or two before the final trial, she will pass the dreadful period with perfect ease and safety.

There is no mistake about it!

THE CORDIAL IS ALL WE CLAIM FOR IT!

MOTHERS, TRY IT!

And to you we appeal, to detect the illness which may lurk not only of your daughters, before it is too late, but also your sons and husbands, for while the former, from false delicacy, often go down to a premature grave rather than let their condition be known; in time, the latter are often too mixed up with the excitement of business that if it were not for you they too would travel in the same downward path; until too late to arrest their fatal fall. But the mother is always vigilant, and to you we confidently appeal; for we are sure that your sense of duty will unerringly point you to PROF. WOOD'S RESTORATIVE CORDIAL AND BLOOD RENOVATOR as the remedy which should be always on hand in time of need.

O. J. WOOD, Proprietor, 444 Broadway, New York, and 114 Market street, St Louis, Mo., and sold by all good Druggists. Price $1 per bottle.

Read what the Press say, after thoroughly testing the matter, and no one can have doubt.

PROF. WOOD'S Restorative Cordial and Blood Renovator is a genuine medicine of real merit, pleasant to taste, and invigorating to the system. While it purifies the blood and soothes the nervous irritation, it aids the organs of digestion in performing their functions, and resists the assaults of disease. It is a chemical compound so skillfully combined, that while it exhilarates it does not provoke the laudnum which usually follows excitement. A tonic composed exclusively of vegetable matter, it is absolutely beneficial, and we do not see why your success should not will unerringly point you to PROF. WOOD'S RESTORATIVE CORDIAL AND BLOOD RENOVATOR as the remedy which should be always on hand in time of need.

O. J. WOOD, Proprietor, 444 Broadway, New York, and 114 Market street, St Louis, Mo., and sold by all good Druggists. Price $1 per bottle.

PROF. WOOD'S RESTORATIVE CORDIAL.—It is recorded in the classics that Psyche was once sent to a climate warmer than the West Indies, to recover a sample of the beauty of Proserpine in a box. After some delay the messenger returned, and as soon as the top of the box was opened, out flew all the ills that flesh is heir to. Fortunately it was found to be the bottom of the box: Prof. Wood's Restorative Cordial was the last collection of the story, for it invigorates the blood, and the organs of digestion, imparts strength to the nervous system, and renders the citadel of health so as to bid defiance to the assaults of disease. It is a healthy tonic, composed entirely of vegetable productions, and yet so exhilarating as pure wine, no injurious results can possibly follow its use. It is a desideratum in the medical world, and those who are afflicted with loss of appetite, Dyspepsia, Consumption, Faintness, Neuralgia, Palpitation of the Heart, &c., will here find an infallible panacea.—St. Louis Daily Express

PROF. WOOD'S RESTORATIVE CORDIAL AND BLOOD RENOVATOR is, without doubt, the best tonic Cordial in the world. To those who are suffering from general debility, we would recommend its use; for it is pleasant to the taste, is strengthening to the system, and will at once tend to remove all impurities of the blood, and eradicate all traces of disease. It can be used by the weakest stomach, while none is good health will at once feel its exhilarating power. We are confident that after taking one bottle of this Cordial, none will be for a day without it.—N. Y. Leader.

A PURE, HEALTHY TONIC, and one free from the deleterious and injurious effects sure to follow those in ordinary use, has long been felt to be a desideratum in the medical world. Such a tonic, and one so skillfully combined from the vegetable kingdom as to act in perfect accordance with the laws of Nature, and thus soothe the weakest stomach, and at the same time allay nervous and other irritations, and tone up all the organs of which the human body is composed, is offered in Prof. Wood's Restorative Cordial and Blood Renovator. Hence it is perfectly adapted to old and Young, Render, Jury'n. Thousands have already done so; the testimony is universal in its favor.—New York Atlas.

☞ Before noticing a patent medicine, we have to be certain that it will prove itself to be all that it is recommended. And we would say that the Restorative Cordial and Blood Renovator of Prof. Wood will stand the test fully, and in fact it is without doubt the first article in the market for general use, and stand strengthening the system. We have no hesitation in recommending its use to all.—New Yorker.

Dyspepsia Remedy

AROMATIC INVIGORATING SPIRIT.

This medicine has been used by the public for six years, with increasing favor. It is recommended to cure Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Heartburn, Colic Pains, Wind in Bilious Stomachs, or Pains in the Bowels, Headache, Drowsiness, Kidney Complaints, Low Spirits, Delirium Tremens, Intemperance. It Stimulates, Exhilarates, Invigorates, but will not Intoxicate or Stupify.

As a Medicine, it is quick and effectual, curing the most aggravated cases of Dyspepsia, Kidney complaints, and all other derangements of the Stomach and Bowels, in a speedy manner.

It will instantly revive the most melancholy and drooping spirits, and restore the weak, nervous and sickly to health, strength and vigor.

Persons who from the injudicious use of liquors, have become dejected, and their constitutions shattered, consumptive, broken down, and subject to that horrible curse to humanity, the Delirium Tremens, will, almost immediately, feel the happy and invigorating effects of Dr. Ham's Invigorating Spirit.

What it will do!

DOSE.—1 wine glass full as often as necessary.
One dose will remove all Bad Spirits.
One dose will cure Heartburn.
Three doses will cure Dyspepsia
One dose will give you a good appetite.
One dose will stop the distressing pains of Dyspepsia.
One dose will remove the distressing and disagreeable effects of Wind or Flatulence, and as soon as the Stomach receives the Invigorating Spirit, the distressing load and all painful feelings will be removed.
One dose will remove the most distressing pains of Colic, either in the stomach or bowels.
A few doses will remove all obstructions in the Kidney, Bladder or Urinary Organs.
Persons who are seriously afflicted with any Kidney Complaints, are assured speedy relief by a dose or two, and a radical cure by the use of one or two bottles.

NIGHTLY DISSIPATION.

Personswho, from dissipating too much over night, and feel the evil effects of poisonous liquors, by violent headache, sickness of stomach, weakness, giddiness &c., will find one dose will remove all bad feelings.

Ladies of weak and sickly constitutions, should take the Invigorating Spirit three times a day; it will make them strong, healthy, and happy, remove all obstructions and irregularities from the menstrual organs, and restore the bloom of health and beauty to the careworn face.

During pregnancy it will be found an invaluable medicine to remove disagreeable sensations at the stomach.

All the proprietor asks, is a trial, and to induce this, he has put up the INVIGORATING SPIRIT in pint bottles, at 50 cents, qts $1.

MR. RAREY IN BROOKLYN.

The report of Mr. Rarey's exhibitions of Horse Teaching in New York, were received with so much satisfaction by our readers, that we give further extracts from Wilkes' Spirit's reports of Mr. Rarey's doings in Brooklyn and Philadelphia — as of more interest and at least as much value, as the everlasting political wranglings of the day.

Mr. Rarey made some introductory remarks on his system. He said, to illustrate it, some new horses would be introduced, upon which he had not yet placed his hands, and of which he knew nothing; but such was his confidence in the system, that he would undertake to teach the worst horse in the world. By a knowledge of the action of the brain, any horse, however vicious, might be subdued and governed. He knew, by experience, that the best bred horses were the most unmanageable, when vicious, and he instanced an Arab which had been taken to England, and could not be managed till his groom was sent over from the East to him, when the horse recognized and came to him.

Mr. Rarey then introduced the celebrated Cruiser, and exhibited the muzzle he had found on him when he undertook to tame him. He gave the history of the horse and his subjugation, which he illustrated by calling "Cruiser," upon which the now docile animal went to his master, gave him his foot, "like a gentleman," and otherwise testified his thorough reclamation.

A dark bay horse was next introduced. Mr. Rarey wished the audience to understand that he used no drugs, and employed no mesmeric influence in his system. The horse now before the audience had never been on the stage, nor in his hands before, and all the mystery was to understand his nature. After some more remarks against the system of rough breaking, Mr. Rarey proceeded to handle the horse, and attempted to lead him with a wisp of straw, in which he partially succeeded. He then applied the first strap, and followed up the process in the manner already described, completely subduing the horse in a short time. Finally, the horse was sufficiently tamed to allow a drum to be beaten on his back.

Mr. Rarey read a letter from Mr. Lewis, stating that he sent him a sorrel mare, the most vicious animal he had ever seen, refusing to be shod, even when held by two men. The mare, a fine-looking animal, was then brought on, and began to skip about quite lively. Mr. Rarey said it was impossible to handle her at once, but he would convince her in a few minutes that resistance would be of no avail. He proceeded to illustrate this by certain manifestations, from the shoulder downwards, and, in time, succeeded in applying the first, then the second strap. The struggle was a long one, the mare trembling in every nerve; but, at length, convinced that she had found her master, she lay quietly over on her side, and thus tacitly acknowledged that she had been conquered. Mr. Rarey said the mare was now taught two things: Firstly, that she could not get away; secondly, that he would not harm her. He proceeded to show his power over the animal in various ways, and at length put his face to her hoofs; but the mare showed that she had not been thoroughly subdued, for she made a sudden plunge, struck out with her hind legs, and would have kicked Mr. Rarey in the face had he not sprung briskly away.— His coolness at this crisis was really admirable. Once more the mare rose on her hind legs and her knees, and commenced plunging even more violently than at first; but it proved useless, and when Mr. Rarey retired with her, in a few minutes, quite subdued, loud and long acclamations rang through the building.

The two little Shetland ponies were now brought out, one being carried in the arms of a darkey, which caused great laughter. Mr. Rarey made a few remarks on the probable Arabic origin of the Shetland, and explained that the smaller one then on the stage weighed but seventy-seven lbs., and was probably the smallest piece of horse-flesh in the world. The other weighed two hundred and ten pounds.

Mr. Rarey said the next subject (a bitter and squealer,) would speak for itself, and it did to some purpose. It was a large, old gray mare, led by two grooms, with a heavy headstall and muzzle on. The two grooms kept at a respectable distance, while the mare caused much mirth by a series of short squeals, interspersed with attempts at kicking. The grooms having left, which they were evidently glad to do, Mr. Rarey, after a few manipulations, adjusted his straps, secundum artem, and, in a much quicker time than he had taken to tame the sorrel, the old gray was as docile as a new-born infant.

THE PEDESTRIAN TO WASHINGTON.—E. P. Weston, the young man who started from Boston for Washington on foot, arrived in Washington on the 4th, at 4 1-2 P.M. Consequently he was just too late to see the inauguration, being five hours behind time. He complained somewhat of being sore and weak, and declares he would not again undertake the journey, over such roads, for any sum of money. The men accompanying him in a carriage tired out several horses, and were so wearied that one left the carriage and proceeded the last portion of the journey by rail.

NEGRO VOLUNTEERS AT NEW ORLEANS.—The report of the military committee to the Louisiana Legislature, makes mention of the fact that among the free colored population of Louisiana, a large number of the old veterans of 1812 and their descendants have volunteered their services to the State.

HOW TO RAISE THE MONEY.—The report is that the people of Texas have voted to go out of the Union, by from 40,000 to 50,000. Possibly they have will considered the matter; if so, every reasonable being in the world would naturally say they must have the worst part of the bargain. The complaint that they have not been well used, or that they had anything to fear, has been often and clearly refuted. The report upon the finances of Texas shows that to meet the demands upon the treasury up to June next, after all other reliable means have been exhausted, there will be needed $817,000. The yearly taxes amount to $343,000; so that the tax must be increased three-fold under the present state of affairs. The expenses of the recent session of the Legislature and of the convention will make up $175,000 more to be provided for. The Saco Democrat very pertinently asks where the money is to come from? To establish an independent government, that paper estimates that the troops to protect the people from the Indians will cost $3,000,000, an army on the coast $2,500,000, a navy $1,000,000, which of course would allow only a very small one; and other expenses which would foot up $9,492,000.— After stating the various items, and the grounds for the statement, the editor says:

"We defy you to deny the facts. No other item in the bill can be controverted. Now where will you get the cash? This is a chapter in the drama, comedy, or rather farce, that our ultra friends always ignore. But you dare not "reckon without your host." You cannot borrow, for if you had the credit, your constitution stares you in the face. You cannot eat your wild mountain lands, nor cast them into cannons, sabres or muskets. Soldiers must be fed, even though they fight for glory. To build navies, big talk will not suffice. The $3,000,000 school fund is now the prey of hungry office-seekers. Must this fund now go, from fatherless orphans, into the pockets of politicians? Yes, take it—it is but a drop in the bucket. The remedy is, tax the people.'"

TEXAS SHEEP RAISING.—Geo. Wilkins Kendall, who we doubt not makes as good a farmer as he did an editor, writes to the San Antonio Herald, dated Post Oak Spring, Feb. 18:—

After this, be kind enough to send my paper to Boerne, Blanco county, and much oblige. I have left the 'Rancho, near New Braunfels,' with bag and baggage; and hereafter, unless driven off by Indians, or by the members of Montgomery's amiable band, can always be found at my estancia here.

I am happy to state that, so far, my flocks have passed through the winter in first-rate condition—never better, and so far in excellent health. We have still ten days before spring sets in, and March frequently brings rough, blustering, disagreeable weather; still, I entertain strong hopes that I shall be able to carry my sheep through until the grass rises, without any loss worth mentioning; and if I do, I can then say that I have had five years of uninterrupted good luck with my flocks.

So far as I can learn, the crops of small grain are looking well and most promising in the mountains. The ground is in good order, most of the fields about here are plowed, and we have better hopes of a good corn crop the coming season than for years past."

MONTGOMERY BLAIR.—Mr. Blair, who is Postmaster General, is son of Francis P. Blair, General Jackson's old editor and chief adviser, and brother of Frank P. Blair, Jr., of St. Louis. He is a tall, thin, wiry man in personal appearance, with sandy complexion, but quick, acute, astute. He graduated at West Point, left the army for the law, lived in St. Louis, was made judge there, married a daughter of Judge Levi Woodbury of New Hampshire, was appointed by President Pierce the Government Solicitor for the Court of Claims at Washington, and was removed from that office by President Buchanan. He resided at Montgomery Castle, near Silver Spring, Montgomery county, Md., only a few miles from Washington, where he has practiced law since his removal from office—able wherever you put him. Judge Blair is now in the prime of life and mental vigor, and there is no man South of Pennsylvania who is more devoted to Republicanism, or who is more popular among the radical Republicans all over the North and West.—Post.

☞ Thaddeus Hyatt publishes a card, defending himself from the charges made against him by individuals in Lawrence, K. T., of having exaggerated the amount of suffering in the Territory. He says that his assailants are moved to their efforts because of jealousy of a rival city, and a Senatorial candidate, and on account of a stupid idea that to tell the truth about this Kansas famine, will destroy land values and trade, and prevent immigration to the new State.

☞ Mr. Thomas C. Byron, of Charleston, Mass, who died last week at the age of 68, was a musician on board the frigate Constitution during several engagements in the war of 1812; and took great pride in saying that he played Yankee Doodle during the engagement with the Guerriere, Aug. 13, 1813.

☞ Capt. Hill, the commander of Fort Brown, has refused to surrender his post to the Texas authorities, and sent for reinforcements from up the river.

SPECIAL SESSION U. S. SENATE.

WASHINGTON, March 7.—The consideration of the resolution to print the inaugural was taken up.

Mr. Wigfall proceeded to speak on the inaugural. He said it was impossible for the administration, dealing in generalities, to give peace to the country. Seven States have established a government, and its representatives are now here, prepared to be received at this court, and matters in this controversy must be settled by treaty or by the sword. He argued that the only way to secure peace was to recognize the confederated States, and withdraw the troops from the forts. If the Northern States would reform their laws, there was a prospect of re construction. He said that neither Fort Sumter nor Fort Pickens would be allowed to be held but a short time, and any vessel with a flag of thirty-four stars will be fired into.

Mr. Douglas replied in substantially the same terms as yesterday. He feared that Forts Sumter and Pickens could not be held much longer by the federal troops.—There was a time when Fort Sumter could have been reinforced; he did not believe that it could be done now, without the use of ten thousand men by land and sea.—There were but a few men to serve the guns, and they must soon be exhausted; they had not bread and salt enough to last thirty days. There must be prompt action in favor of peace. He believed the President was in favor of peace.

Mr. Wigfall asked Mr. Douglas if he would advise the withdrawal of troops from Forts Sumter and Pickens, and from the borders of the confederated States, and that no attempt be made to collect the revenue?

Mr. Douglas replied that he was not in the confidence or councils of the administration, and should not tender his advice until it was asked for. Whenever the administration wanted advice, it would doubtless ask for it. It would hardly be the part of wisdom to state what its policy might be to one who may soon be in the councils of the enemy and commander of an army. In reply to the remarks of Mr. Wigfall, Mr. Douglas said he saw no reason to modify any sentiment in his Norfolk speech.

After further debate, Mr. Mason spoke against the inaugural, as a proclamation of war. Virginia would become a party to the war by the unanimous consent of her people, when the first gun was fired against the seceding States.

Mr. Douglas spoke further to the effect that if the administration anticipate the use of arms, we shall see a proclamation for an extra session of Congress, in order to increase the regular forces and call volunteers into the field. Adjourned.

WASHINGTON, Mar. 6.—[Dispatch to the N. Y. Herald.]—The defence of Mr. Lincoln's inaugural to-day by Senator Douglas in the Senate, and the declaration of John Bell to day that he should accept Mr. Lincoln's inaugural as a peace offering, until by some act it was proved that he meant otherwise, are received as good omens.

Mr. Douglas' speech to-day is regarded as carrying him over to Lincoln's administration. He was Lincoln's right hand man at the inauguration, and Mrs. Lincoln's companion at the ball, and is regarded in high favor at head quarters. Some say Douglas may yet be advanced to the Cabinet; for it is expected that this one will soon fall to pieces.

Douglas men say popular sovereignty has been established in the three new Territories organized by the late Congress, and that Lincoln's inaugural opens the door to full adjustment.

The new Postmaster General has given it out to-day, that he will require all applications for office in his department to be endorsed by the members of Congress from the respective districts, and that they will be held responsible for the appointments.

WASHINGTON, Mar. 6.—[Dispatch to the N. Y. World.]—It is reported in army circles that the War Department has transferred Major Anderson, now in command of Fort Sumter, to the department of Texas, made vacant by the treason of Gen. Twiggs. He would thus be advanced to a generalship.

Among the rumors afloat to-day, is one that Jeff. Davis has ordered Major Beauregard, late in command at West Point, but now of Louisiana, to Fort Sumter, thus assuming peaceable jurisdiction before actual possession.

The revolutionists continue to do all they can to create a secession feeling in the Virginia convention, but it does not work. Depend upon it, the Old Dominion will stand by the Union.

RIVAL GUNNERY IN CHARLESTON HARBOR.—A gentleman who arrived from South a day or two since, relates an anecdote that was current in Georgia, though but little was said about it in Charleston.—The gunners at Fort Moultrie recently anchored a rice-tierce equi-distant from Forts Moultrie and Sumter, and fired between twenty and thirty shots at it without effect. Major Anderson watched their proceedings for some time, and then aiming and sighting one of his large guns, shivered the tierce at the first shot.

☞ The sloop-of-war Portsmouth, Commodore Calhoun, sailed from St. Paul de Loando on the 9th of January, for Little Fish Bay, and was expected to arrive at St. Helena about the first of February.

The steamer Mohican, Com. Godon, arrived also at St. Helena on the 28th of December. Her crew have had a general liberty of three days, and are in excellent health and spirits.

☞ Judge Campbell of the Supreme Court has not resigned. No nominations were made by the President to the Senate on Thursday.

Past Assistant Surgeon Carrington of Va., Lieuts. Simmons and Hall of S. C., and Midshipman Hall of Ga., have resigned their positions in the navy.

HOPEFUL.—The Baltimore correspondent of the N. O. Picayune, in remarking upon the expected visit of Mr. Lincoln to that city, and of the determination to pay him respect, on account of his position, uses this hopeful language:—

"If I mistake not, the biggest Union party ever the world heard of will rise up in the next four years, and, like an avalanche, sweep everything before it. It has already commenced here. Men are joining it, pledging their lives and sacred honors upon the issue. Might it not be well to warn the citizens of sovereignties already seceded, against the possible incursions of this disorganizing spirit? I find even in Louisiana, Alabama, Mississippi, Georgia, Florida and Texas, some of the old leaven is left, whilst South Carolina has an occasional sprinkling. Without harmony and concord of action, the inhabitants of States cannot agree among themselves. This must, eventually, if allowed, prove fatal either to the establishing of a northern or southern confederacy."

RICHMOND, VA., March 7.—In the convention to-day Mr. Carlisle made a speech against instructing the Committee on Federal Relations to make a report, pledging the State to resist coercion. He upheld the right of the United States government to collect the revenues, and was agreeably disappointed by the tone of Mr. Lincoln's inaugural. He was opposed to any action placing the State in hostile attitude to general government, and believed it was in the power of the people to restore harmony.

WASHINGTON, March 7.—The Charleston Courier of the 5th says that General Beauregard expresses perfect confidence, after viewing the fortifications, that Fort Sumter can be reduced, and it was only a question of time.

In Washington, the discussion of the inaugural is still the main occupation of political gossipers. The Republicans continue unanimously in its praise. Horace Greeley, Sumner, King, Hale and Trumbull all say it is exactly the thing wanted.

There is likewise no doubt that very many of the leaders of the opposition are also satisfied with its general tenor. Senator Douglas and Johnson of Tennessee, and Representatives Etheridge and Harris, and others are known to have expressed their approbation. The border States men seem to think that they can fight and win the Union battle with it.

LET IT BE REMEMBERED, that not a Democratic Convention in this State has, in its resolutions, condemned the treason and wholesale thefts of Cobb, Floyd and Thompson, of Buchanan's Cabinet, thus showing that the leaders of the Democracy sympathize with those traitors and thieves. A vote for the Democratic Ticket, State, Congressional, County or Town will attest the same sympathy.—Independent Dem.

There is no greater every-day virtue than cheerfulness. This quality in man among men is like sunshine to the day, or gentle, renewing moisture to parched herbs.

A VOTE for Rollins, Edwards and Marston is a vote for Liberty, the Union, and the Constitution.—Independent Democrat.

He says much severe has been afflicted for three years with great nervous debility, palpitation of the heart of the most severe and distressing character; "after using a few bottles, I was completely restored, and am now in robust health."

WISTAR'S BALSAM WILD CHERRY.

In the whole history of medical discoveries, NO REMEDY has performed so many or such remarkable cures of the Throat, Lungs and Chest,—of Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, or of Consumption itself, as this far-famed, long-tried and justly celebrated Balsam. So generally acknowledged is the superiority of this remedy, that but few of the many who have tested its virtues by experience fail to keep it at hand, as a speedy and certain cure for sudden attacks of Cold—fully believing that its remedial powers are comprehensive enough to embrace every form of disease, from the slightest cold to the most dangerous symptom of pulmonary complaint.

George W. Millet, Esq.

Editor of the Norway Advertiser, gives his opinion of this great remedy substantially as follows:

NORWAY VILLAGE, Me., Aug 4, 1860.

Messrs. S. W. Fowle & Co.—Gentlemen:—For a remedy of such undoubted merit as DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, I cheerfully give you my testimony, and trust that others may be induced thereby to give it a trial and be relieved. Several years since I first became acquainted with this Balsam at a time of distressing cough and cold, which took such firm hold of my lungs as to render me unfit for business, and its operation proved a speedy and permanent cure, after trying various other remedies in vain.

In our town this remedy is a great favorite with many, and all who suffer will but give it a fair trial, I think they will find it to be of more service in pulmonary affections than any other remedy of this class before the public.

Yours respectfully, GEO. W MILLET.

WANTED,

Local.

☞ At the Republican caucus in Ward 1, Friday evening, John S. Harvey, Chas. Annable and James W. Emery were nominated as candidates for General Court.—The two first-named gentlemen were nominated unanimously; but there was quite a lively contest between the friends of Mr. Christopher S. Toppan and the adherents of Mr. Emery. The vote stood: Emery 32, Toppan 20.

Mr. Emery was called for, and in response made a few pithy, energetic remarks urging upon Republicans their duty to support President Lincoln, in the maintenance of the doctrines of his Inaugural Address.

☞ We are informed that the residences of Capt. Pray, in this city, and Capt. Geo. W. Towle, at the Martine farm on Sagamore Creek, were broken into and entered by burglars on Wednesday night; but little or no booty was obtained.

☞ A small lot of lumber at Chesley's yard was burnt about one o'clock on Friday morning. It probably caught by sparks from the locomotive on the freight train, which came up from the East about 11 o'clock. The fire was extinguished without alarm.

Deaths in February.—The bill of mortality, in Portsmouth, for the past month, included ten deaths.

Males five—aged 1 month, 24 years, 50, 51, 60.

Females five—aged 34, 65, 70, 71, 81.

☞ The ship at the South End yard, of which the frame is just going up, is being built by the firm of Marcy & Peligrew, as heretofore.

From Western Missouri.—A writer in the Missouri Democrat says:—

I spent over a month on the border, between Jackson and Vernon, and made particular inquiries in reference to the reported border troubles, and was nearly unanimously informed that there never had been, nor did they fear any trouble whatever from Montgomery or any of his band.—The troops located at McNeil's Mill have caused more excitement and trouble than Montgomery or any of his men, by their drunken conduct, in insulting and guarding a widow lady in her house, and burning her rails, representing themselves as Montgomery's men arresting peaceable citizens, &c.

There was a rascally plot in Cass county, gotten up to have a man hung, by a party of pro-slavery humans, who owed him; but, for once, justice is working for the right, and the guilty parties are for making tracks to Mississippi.

I found the people all along the line strong for the Union, without any conditions, or ifs or buts about it.

Washington, March 8.—Mr. Crittenden was serenaded last night. An immense crowd enthusiastically responded to his utterance of fervent Union sentiments. He exhorted his friends to uphold the Union and the Constitution, which have conferred unnumbered blessings upon us all.

General Scott, Senator Johnson and others were afterwards serenaded, and responded to the compliment.

President Lincoln said to the Southern gentlemen, who called upon him to-night to know how his inaugural was to be understood, that it meant peace.

It is reported that Fort Brown, in Texas, has been surrendered.

Pensacola advices say that Lieut. Slemmer is raising sand batteries a quarter of a mile east of Fort Pickens. The land batteries opposite Fort Warrington continue.

The nomination of Mr. Crittenden as the successor of Judge Daniell of Va. in the Supreme Court was agreed upon by Lincoln's Cabinet yesterday.

☞ We are indebted to Mr. Charles C. Cushman, formerly of Portsmouth, now residing at Victoria, Vancouver's Island,—for a copy of "The Daily British Colonist" newspaper, printed at that place. Concord, N. H., March 8.—George Minot, Esq., a prominent citizen of this city, died very suddenly this morning, of disease of the heart. Mr. Minot has long held the position of President of the Mechanics' Bank; also that of Treasurer of the Boston, Concord and Montreal Railroad. He was highly esteemed by all who knew him. His age was fifty-four years.

☞ The Democratic Standard and N. H. Patriot have "buried the hatchet"—Messrs. Burke and Minot have signed a treaty of peace as Chairmen of Committees; and the Patriot and Standard have published articles, which the Gazette says, show "that the Democracy of New Hampshire, press and people, are once more thoroughly united."

☞ The Bath (Eng.) Councilmen have been compelled to put palings around their city reservoir at a cost of £95—to arrest the incursions of toads—who flock to the water in myriads, and by choking the water pipes with their spawn, make themselves an intolerable nuisance.

A Family Wedding.—A somewhat novel wedding occurred at the Church of the Holy Trinity, Brooklyn, N. Y., on Tuesday evening, March 5th. Ten married sisters appeared with their ten husbands and a small army of children, to celebrate the marriage of the eleventh sister.

POLICIES on lives, payable to the wife, or to the legal representative of the person insured.

POLICIES payable to the person insured, on his attaining the age of 50, 60 or 70; or to his representative in case of decease before attaining this age.

PREMIUMS to be paid, quarterly, semi-annually, or annually, at the option of the insured.

The long experience of this excellent institution, like the one hundred years' experience of the great Equitable Life Insurance Co. of London, and other kindred institutions, proves their stability and perpetuity when established upon the right principle. Investments made with them have proved more remunerative than with Savings Banks.

The time is near, when to protect one's family from the loss and want often attendant upon the death of its provider, will be as universal as it is now to protect ourselves from loss by fire.

No reflecting man can sit at his fireside with his young family about him, and feel at ease;—when he knows that if death should take him from them, they would be cast upon a selfish world, without the means for education or support, which he can easily provide for them thro' a life policy.

TESTIMONIALS.

Having been a constant sufferer from Neuralgia for eighteen months, and been driven by excruciating pain to the trial of numberless remedies without obtaining relief, I was induced to try "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound." I have taken but one bottle, and am entirely well.—D. D. BAXTER, Dry Goods Dealer, No. 5 Appleton Block, Lowell, Mass.

I have been afflicted with Salt Rheum in its worst form for a long time, and suffered more than can be imagined, except by those similarly afflicted. I tried one bottle of your Compound, and can honestly say that I believe myself entirely cured.—JOHN A. MORDO, Pearl St. House, Boston, Mass.

Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has entirely relieved me from sufferings of several years' standing.—W. E. HODGKINS, No. 1 Old State House, Boston.

My son, ten years of age, has been for three years a great sufferer from Salt Rheum, his hands covered with sores, and in constant pain. One bottle of your Compound cured him.—J. W. HAMMOND, 99 Milk street, Boston.

I certify that my friend, Wm. T. Glidden, Esq., presented me with a bottle of "Gardiner's Rheumatic Compound," in 1856, when I was suffering, with a painful attack of Neuralgia and Rheumatism, and that it proved to be of decided benefit.—ALBERT SMITH, Ex-Member of Congress from Maine.

Testimony of Judge Kittredge of Vermont.—Dr. F. Gardiner, Esq.—Dear Sir,—I beg leave to add my testimony in favor of "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound."—After suffering for twenty years with Rheumatism, more or less, and last year with a very severe attack, I took one bottle of your Compound, which afforded me decided relief. I think it the best and most efficacious medicine for that disease I ever used.—WM. C. KITTREDGE, Fair Haven, Vt., Dec. 1st, 1860.

The Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has been taken by hundreds of persons for Scrofulous Humors with great benefit.

GROVER & BAKER

FAMILY AND MANUFACTURING

Sewing Machines,

would invite especial attention to the same.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE makes the only seam formed by a Sewing Machine, in which each stitch is independently locked, and without dependence on other stitches for strength, and the only seam that will admit of the thread being cut at every fourth stitch without injury to the seam in wear.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE is adapted to all varieties of fabrics, sewing equally well the finest Swiss Muslin or the heaviest cloth or leather, and requiring no adjustment for any kind of sewing other than the adaptation of needles and thread.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE sews from ordinary spools without rewinding, and fastens its own seams, thereby saving time and thread. It will sew common spool cotton, silk and linen thread with equal facility.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE is so simple that an intelligent child of ten years can readily learn to operate it. It is more easily kept in order than any other machine, and need not be taken apart to be oiled.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE makes the only stitch that cannot be injured by washing and ironing, and the only stitch that forms an elastic and durable seam. Fabrics put together with this stitch may wear out and drop to pieces from original weakness, or hard usage, but come apart or give way at the seams, they cannot; they will hold together when the cloth or calico around them hangs in rags and tatters.

Every Machine Warranted for Years.

From the Journal.

The Democrats held a meeting at the Temple on Thursday evening, which was called as a "Union Meeting," the word Democrat not appearing in the handbill. They were addressed by Col. L. Saltonstall, a leader of the Bellevertt party. Mr. L. commended the Inaugural, but thought the interests of the country required our citizens to rise above party and elect men to Congress from this state who were politically opposed to Lincoln.

Did any body ever hear the democratic party, or any of its leaders, says the Dover Enquirer, express a desire to "rise above party," when they were in the ascendency? Did any of them ever manifest a wish to "sink party issues and go for the country," when, being in the majority, they had anything to sacrifice! Never! It is only when they are thoroughly whipped—then they are down flat on their backs in the State and Nation—that this patriotic spasm comes over them, and they beseech the Republicans with tears in their eyes to "rise above party.

From the Gazette.

The Democratic Union Meeting, at the Temple, on Thursday evening, was well attended, but in consequence of the severity of the weather the hall was but partially filled. The meeting was organized by the choice of Hon. Richard Jenness for President, and Hon. Daniel Marcy, Hon. Robert Morrison, Hon. John R. Reding, and Albert R. Hatch, Esq., for Vice Presidents.—The meeting was opened by an able and earnest speech of the President, after which Col. Leverett Saltonstall delivered a very eloquent address upon the issues and dangers of the times. After he concluded, brief speeches were made by Albert R. Hatch, Esq., Hon. Daniel Marcy, Hon. Robert Morrison, Hon. Charles H. Peaslee, and Horace Webster, Esq. Very earnest and enthusiastic feeling was manifested by the meeting, and its influence will be strongly felt at the coming election.

We cannot refrain from quoting one sentence from the speech of Mr. Marcy, which may serve to show that the spirit of our Revolutionary patriots is not yet extinct.—He said:

"Since the dangers of disunion became apparent, I have not been able to sleep soundly in my bed. The horrors, the ruin, the disgrace of such a calamity, have been ever before me. Wherever I am called to act, my first and most earnest efforts will be made to save the Union of our States. To accomplish this, I would submit to any sacrifice and make any concession that an honest man may make. By years of toil I have accumulated some property; I would cheerfully give it all, if by the sacrifice I could preserve the peace and secure the integrity of my country."

It is somewhat unpleasant for us to be compelled by the sneers of the Journal to ask a comparison between Mr. Marston and the candidate of the Democratic party. But we fearlessly call upon every voter who knows Daniel Marcy to compare him and his principles with any man whom the Republicans of this District can find who is willing to be their candidate. The history of his life and his success in all the pursuits he has engaged in are evidence of his ability. The prominent position he has so long held, and the respect which is entertained for him wherever he is known, are proofs of his integrity and of the soundness of his principles. No man in the State is better acquainted with the commercial wants of the District, or is better qualified to represent her peculiar interests in Congress. He is extensively acquainted with the leading men, both in business and politics, all over the country, and would exert an influence in Congress, which no administration would venture to despise. More than all, he is known North and South as a sincere friend of the Union, an advocate of the just rights of all sections, and the uncompromising foe of every fanaticism which is used to disturb the peace or threaten the integrity of the country.

A Republican Dodge.—It is rumored on the street that a man, in a town not far from this city being particularly desirous to serve his country has written a petition to President Lincoln for an office, and affixed to it a long list of names which he obtained during the campaign of 1856, in anticipation of Fremont's election.

From the Portsmouth Journal.

The intimation of Senator Douglas, that if he correctly understands the purpose of the President as to the seceding States, he shall be with and support him, whatever occasion he may have to oppose him in other respects, shows, that upon the great question of upholding the Constitution, the preservation of the Union and enforcement of the laws, we are to have a united NORTH. A united North will soon restore us a united Country. So far as we have observed, Senator Douglas has executed a powerful and a well directed influence in favor of his country during the whole session which has just closed. His conduct to the new President is honorable to both of them.—This is a time for rivals to sink selfishness in a patriotic devotion to their country—for parties to postpone their disputes until common perils are past. Senator Douglas has set an example worthy of imitation.

Concord, N. H. March 4, 1861.

A full canvass of the voters of the State shows the following result:

For Nathaniel S. Berry,	38,474
For George Stark, Jenness, and Bartlett,	33,449
Doubtful,	1,502
Republican majority over all, (Dividing the doubtful equally,	6,025

The canvass has been carefully made, and with the exception of a few towns and wards, has been promptly returned.

If any seceding State ought to suffer for folly and ingratitude, that State is Louisiana. While every duty for protection has been uniformly scouted by the slave interest, they claimed, and have received aid for sugar by a large duty on the imported article. By documents now published, the United States have paid within ten years, nearly $60,000,000 of duty on sugar! This is the "horrible oppression" the planters have suffered! A day of retribution may come.

AYER'S

Sarsaparilla

FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

And for the speedy cure of the following complaints: Scrofula and Scrofulous Affections such as Tumors, Ulcers, Sores, Eruptions, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Blains, and all Skin Diseases.

OAKLAND, Ind., 6th June, 1856.

J. C. Ayer & Co. Gents: I feel it my duty to acknowledge what your Sarsaparilla has done for me. Having inherited a Scrofulous infection, I have suffered from it in various ways for years. Sometimes it broke out in Ulcers on my hands and arms; sometimes it turned inward and distressed me at the stomach. Some years ago it broke out on my head and covered my scalp and ears with one sore, which was painful and loathsome beyond description. I tried many medicines and several physicians, but without much relief from any things. In fact, the disorder grew worse. At length I was advised to read in the Boston Journal that you had prepared an alterative (Sarsaparilla), for I knew from your reputation that any thing you made must be good. I accordingly went and got it, and used it till it cured me. I think it, as you advise, in small doses of a teaspoonful over a month, and used almost three bottles. New and healthy skin was begun to form under the scab, which after a while fell off. My skin is now clear, and I know by my feelings that the disease has gone from my system. You can well believe that I feel what I am saying when I tell you, that I hold you to be one of the apostles of the age, and remain ever gratefully, Yours,

ALFRED B. TALLEY.

St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Eyes, Dropsy.

Dr. Robert M. Peebles writes from Hillsdale, N. Y., 12th Sept., 1859, that he has cured an inveterate case of Dropsy, which threatened to terminate fatally, by the persevering use of your Sarsaparilla. He also diagnosed Malignant Erysipelas by large doses of the same; says he cures the common Erysipelas by it constantly.

Bronchocele, Goitre or Swelled Neck.

Zebulon Sloan of Prospect, Texas, writes: "Three bottles of your Sarsaparilla cured me from a Goitre—a hideous swelling on the neck, which I had suffered from over two years."

Leucorrhœa or Whites, Ovarian Tumor, Uterine Ulceration, Female Diseases.

Dr. J. B. S. Channing, of New York City, writes: "I most cheerfully comply with the request of your agent in saying I have found your Sarsaparilla a most excellent alterative in the numerous complaints for which we employ such a remedy, but especially in Female Diseases of the Scrofulous diathesis. I have cured many inveterate cases of Leucorrhœa by it, and some where the complaint was caused by ulceration of the uterus. The alteration itself was soon cured. Nothing within my knowledge equals it for these female derangements."

Edward S. Merrier, of Newburyport, Mass., writes, "A dangerous ovarian tumor on one of the females in my family, which had defied all the remedies we could procure, for at length been completely cured by your Extract of Sarsaparilla. Our physician thought nothing but extirpation could afford relief, but he advised the trial of your Sarsaparilla as the last resort before enduring, and it proved effectual. After taking you remedy eight weeks no symptom of the disease remained."

Syphilis and Mercurial Disease.

NEW ORLEANS, 20th August, 1859.

Dr. J. C. AYER: Sir, I cheerfully comply with the request of your agent, and report to you some of the effects I have realized with your Sarsaparilla.

I have cured with it, in my practice, most of the complaints for which it is recommended, and have found its effects really wonderful in the cure of Venereal and Mercurial Disease. One of my patients had Syphilitic ulcers in his throat, which were consuming his palate and the top of his mouth. Your Sarsaparilla completely cured him in five weeks. Another was attacked by secondary symptoms in his nose, and the ulceration had eaten away a considerable part of it, so that I believe the disorder would soon reach his brain and kill him. But it yielded to my administration of your Sarsaparilla; the ulcers healed, and he is well again, and of course without some disfiguration to his face. A woman who had been treated for the same disorder by mercury was suffering from blind pokers in her bones. The pain became so sensitive to the weather that on a damp day she suffered excruciating pain in her joints and bones. She, too, was cured entirely by your Sarsaparilla in a few weeks. I know from its formula, which your agent gave me, that this Preparation from your laboratory must be a great remedy; consequently, these results have not surprised me.

Fraternally yours, G. Y. LARIMER, M. D.

Rheumatism, Gout, Liver Complaint.

INDEPENDENCE, Preston Co., Va., 6th July, 1859.

Dr. J. C. AYER: Sir, I have suffered much as a painful chronic Rheumatism for a long time, which baffled the skill of physicians, and could find no cure in spite of all the remedies I could find, until I tried your Sarsaparilla. One bottle cured me in two weeks, and restored my general health so much that I am far better than before I was attacked. I think it a wonderful medicine. J. FREAM.

Jules Y. Getchell, of St. Louis, writes: "I have been afflicted for years with an affection of the Liver, which destroyed my health. I tried many remedies, but all failed to relieve me; and I have been a broken-down man for some years from no other cause than derangement of the Liver. My informed friends, who had seen my misery me to try your Sarsaparilla, because he said he knew you, and any thing you made was worth trying. By the blessing of God it has cured me, and has restored my health so to make a new man of me. I feel young again. The test that can be said of you is not half good enough."

Schirrus, Cancer Tumors, Enlargement, Ulceration, Caries and Exfoliation of the Bones.

A great variety of cases have been reported to us where cures of these formidable complaints have resulted from the use of this remedy, but our space is too limited to enumerate them. Some of them may be found in our American Almanac, which the agents below named are pleased to furnish gratis to all who call for them.

Dyspepsia, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Melancholy, Neuralgia.

Many remarkable cures of these affections have been made by the alterative power of this compound. It stimulates the vital functions into vigorous action, and thus overcomes disorders which would be supposed beyond its reach. Such a remedy, having been tried by the nations of the people, and we are confident that this will do for them all that medicine can do.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the Relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced Stages of the Disease.

This is a remedy so universally known to surpass any other for the cure of throat and lung complaints, that it is useless here to publish the evidence of its virtues. Its unrivalled excellence for coughs and colds, and its truly wonderful cures of pulmonary disease, have made it known throughout the civilized nations of the earth. Few are the communities, or even families, among them who have not some personal experience to relate, or some living trophy in their midst of its victory over the subtle and dangerous disorders of the throat and lungs. As all know the dreadful fatality of these disorders, and as they know, too, the efficacy of this remedy, we need not do more than to assure them that it has now all the virtues that it did have when making the cures which have won so strongly upon the confidence of mankind.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass.

BLOOD FOOD

CONSUMPTIVES.

An equal and normal circulation of the blood is health. An abnormal, that is to say, an excessive or deficient circulation or stagnation of the blood, is disease. To illustrate—torpidity of the Liver is caused by stagnation of the blood in that organ; diseases of the Kidneys, Inflammation of the Lungs, Disease of the Heart, &c., by the same cause, viz., Improper Circulation; and from the same cause spring all the minor forms of disease. To discover a certain cure, then, for these diseases, the first great inquiry is, What causes the blood to circulate?

For centuries it has been a matter of much study among scientific and medical men; and while many experiments have been made and much labor expended upon the inquiry, it has been left to this century, among its other wonderful increase in knowledge, to make this grand discovery also.

Acknowledging that life is the gift of the Creator and that "in Him we live and move and have our being," we still venture to remark that the planets move in their spheres, and all vegetable life is governed by certain absolute laws, so animal life is capable of being fixed cause, which removes or destroys, and death, the certain effect, follows.

Analysis of the red corpuscles of the blood shows them to be compounds of iron, sulphur and phosphorous.

The air we breathe we know to contain a very large proportion of oxygen.

Oxygen, brought in contact with metal, evolves a certain electricity.

Electricity, brought in contact with a muscular fibre, causes it to contract.

These facts being indisputable, we have now the solution as to the motor or motive power of the heart. The oxygen in the air we breathe, coming in contact with the iron in the red corpuscles of blood, emits electricity, which, coming in contact with the heart, causes it to contract; and hence the power which expels the blood, and sends it tingling through the remotest extremities. Now, then, are the causes of CONSUMPTION, DROPSY, DALSY, PARALYSIS, ST. VITUS' DANCE, DYSPEPSIA, EPILEPSY, FEVER & AGUE, &c.?—a deficiency of the red corpuscles containing the iron, sulphur and phosphorous, which causes a deficiency of the electric fluid, and hence an abnormal circulation. The blood becomes watery, colds and bronchial complaints and prostration ensue—the sufferer becomes nervous, and subject to rheumatic pains and neuralgia—complaints of the liver and kidneys set in; in short, almost every type of disease but virulent fevers may be traced to this deficiency in the blood, of the corpuscles or red globules.

Now, the great desideratum is to supply the deficiency of corpuscles, and while we do not pretend to say that we have discovered the "elixir vitæ," we do say that life can be materially prolonged, by the use of the

which restores the red globules and the normal circulation. Consumptive friends of consumptives! Sufferers from any organic disease! Unfortunates, who have by excess of the body or mind, reduced the standard of the blood and diminished the red globules! Ladies suffering any of the diseases known as female complaints, be encouraged! "Blood Food" can cure you. It has cured thousands of desperate cases where all hope had been given up. Do not reject it, do not throw away your only hope. The "Blood Food" is an unfailing remedy; give it a trial.

An elaborate treatise, carrying out and fully proving the above facts, with testimonials of cures, will be mailed to any interested party, on the receipt of two 3 cent postage stamps. Blood Food is sold by all druggists, at $1 per bottle, or six bottles, had, I will send 6 bottles, free of expense, for $4. Price, single bottle, $1. It is put up in 3 oz. vials, in yellow wrappers—the old Indian Blood Food bottles, in red wrappers, having been done away with; and bears the fac-simile signature of Church & Dupont upon the face of the wrapper. Beware of counterfeits and imitations.

BININGER'S GENUINE Cognac Brandy

The infamous practice of adulterating Brandies having become so common that a genuine article is the exception; it is of vital importance to those requiring it for family and medicinal purposes, that it should be of undoubted purity and efficacy.

With a view to meeting the popular demand for a Brandy in its natural state, free from adulteration and impurities, and fully appreciating the fact that it is often commended by the Medical Faculty as a tonic and cordial, without other stimulant, we have now bottling and selling reasonable rates, a Brandy of our own importation, from one of the most responsible houses of France, and known as

It is mild, delicate and fruity, and is designed to be always uniform in quality and character.—Put up in pint and quart bottles, in case containing two dozen each, and in wood, in quantities to suit, is sold by all prominent druggists, grocers and town agents.

The above is also for sale in original packages, viz.: Eighths and Quarter Casks.

PROFESSOR WOOD'S

HAIR RESTORATIVE!

SEE WHAT OTHERS SAY OF IT.

A Distinguished St. Louis Physician Writes:

ST. LOUIS July 10, 1860.

O. J. WOOD, Esq.,—Dear Sir:—Allow me the pleasure and satisfaction of transmitting to you the beneficial effects of your Hair Restorative, after a trial of a few days. I commenced using your Restorative in January, 1855, since which time I have not been without a bottle on hand. When I commenced to use it, my hair was quite thin, and at least one third gray. A few applications stopped its falling, and in three weeks there was not a gray hair to be found, neither has there been up to this time.

After my hair was completely restored, I continued its use by applying two or three times a month. My hair has ever continued healthy, soft and glossy, and my scalp perfectly free from dandruff. I do not imagine the facts above mentioned will be of any particular advantage to you, or even flatter your vanity, at this late day, as I am well aware they are all well known already, and ever more wonderful ones throughout the Union. I have occupied my time in travelling the greater part of the time for past three years, and have taken pleasure in recommending your Restorative, and exhibiting its effects in my rounds. In several instances I have meet with people who pronounced it a humbug; saying they had used it and without effect. In every instance, however, by proceeding and probing the matter, that they had not used your article at all, but had used some new article, said to be as good, and selling at prices from 25 to 50 cents lower than two or three articles myself advertised as above, which I have no doubt are humbugs. It is astonishing that people will persist in trying all of no reputation, when there is one at hand that has been proved beyond a doubt.

Apparently, some of these counterfeits have not brains enough to write an advertisement, as I notice they have copied yours, word for word, in several instances, merely inserting some name in place of yours.

I have, within the past five years, seen and talked with more than two thousand persons that had no reputation, when there is one at hand that has been proved beyond a doubt.

Apparently, some of these counterfeits have not brains enough to write an advertisement, as I notice they have copied yours, word for word, in several instances, merely inserting some name in place of yours.

I have, within the past five years, seen and talked with more than two thousand persons that had no reputation, when there is one at hand that has been proved beyond a doubt.

I called to see you, personally, at your original place of business here, but learned you were now living in Cincinnati.

You are at liberty to publish this, or to refer parties to me. Any communication addressed to me, care box 1920, Boston, will be promptly answered. Yours truly, JAMES WHITE, M. D.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE has acquired a reputation from actual test and experiment which cannot be enhanced by newspaper puffs. In our two years' trial it has been extensively used, and we believe in every case with every desired result, and receives the universal indorsement of all who have tried it. We therefore recommend it as one of those few genuine nostrums which accomplish all they profess, and all the bald and gray could desire.—Columbia Spy.

PROF. WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—In another column will be found an advertisement of this well known and excellent preparation for restoring gray hair to its original color. The Hair Restorative also cures cutaneous eruptions, and prevents the hair from falling off. We have read many authentic testimonials in proof of these assertions, some of which are from gentlemen whom we have known for many years as a person of the most reliable character. Don't dye till you have tried the Restorative.—Boston Olive Branch.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—We are not in the habit of puffing every new discovery, for in time cases out of ten they are quack nostrums; but we take great pleasure in recommending Prof. Wood's article to all whose hair is falling off or turning gray. We have seen the inventor, Pinley Johnson, Esq., has experienced the benefit of its application, and joins with us in speaking of its virtue. Let all try it, and bald heads will be as rare as snow in summer.—Baltimore Patriot.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—Unlike most specifics, this is proved, by unimpeachable evidence, to possess great efficacy in restoring the hair to its pristine vigor. Where the head had become almost bald because of sickness, the use of this article has produced a beautiful growth of fine glossy hair. It is therefore a valuable preparation for all classes. Its ingredients are such as to effectually eradicate dandruff and other disorders of the skin (unless prejudiced by the hair. It also has curative powers of another description. In many cases pimples and other disfigurements of the skin disappear wherever it is used. There is no hazard attaching to the trial of this remedy, and its effects can only be beneficial. It is a compound, if it does not cause a manifest improvement, is incapable of doing harm, as its component elements are perfectly innocuous.—Boston Transcript, April 22, 1859.

WARREN SPRINGS, Perry Co., Pa., June, 7, '50.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir:—I was induced more than a year ago to try your valuable Hair Restorative to clean my head of dandruff. I had suffered from it for years, and had never been able to get rid of it. I saw your advertisement in a Harrisburgh paper. I bought a bottle, and am now prepared to recommend it to my acquaintance. I used it completely removed all dandruff from my head, and an application once in two weeks keeps it free from itching and other annoyances. I must also state that my hair had become quite white in places, and by the use of your preparation, has been restored to its original color. I am now 50 years of age, and although I have used two bottles of the Restorative, no one has any knowledge of it, as I allow a few gray hairs to remain, in order to have my appearance comport with my age. My head is now of less trouble to me in keeping it clean, &c., than at any time since I was a child. I consider your preparation of great value, and, altho' I do not like to expose myself, I consider it my duty to say so. You can use this, or any part of it, in any shape you think proper, if it is worth anything to you. Yours, &c., H. H. ETTER.

ALL HAIR DYES ABANDONED—WOOD'S GREAT ANTICEPTIC IN THE FIELD.—Prof. Wood stands on an eminence no chemist, whose attention has been turned to inventing a hair tonic, has ever forgot reached. His name is world-wide, and thousands who have worn wigs or been bald for years, are now, through the use of his preparation, enjoying their own natural and luxuriant head covering. So much for chemistry. Prof. Wood studied out the human hair, its properties, its diseases, and how to restore its decayed vitality; he saw, as in his own case, that gray hair is unnatural unless the age of the individual had reached fourscore, and he believed that the hair could be re vitalized. He tried his own case—almost bald and wholly gray at 37—he restored his own hair—and the article he did it with he gave to the world. Get WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE, and take nothing else.—N. Y. Day Book.

THE GREAT AMPHITHEATRE AT ROME. The form of the Coliseum is oval or elliptical, and its extent may be conveyed by the facts that its structure covers nearly six acres of ground, and that its four stories were originally one hundred and fifty seven feet in height. Eighty-seven thousand people were provided with seats around its arena; while the arena itself, when filled, as in case of a popular assemblage, might have held the population of all Rome.

We may help the conception of its size by a remark of Mr. Cass, that he saw at once sixty thousand soldiers stand up and hear mass in its aisles; and by the further fact that the entire cost of the edifice has been estimated at between seventy and eighty millions of dollars.

The Coliseum spans above six acres, St. Peter's covers nearly five; while St. Paul's of London, of which the English boast so much, occupies only two. The Coliseum however, covers all of its ground, while St. Paul's of London has a churchyard, and St. Peter's occupies a good slice of its five acres by a superb colonnade and circular courtyard in front.—Wilkes' Spirit.

HORSES IN NEW YORK.—Railroad and omnibus companies have had to purchase horses largely, on account of a great number being lame from the action of salting the streets and frost; it is estimated that there were last week, over 1,000 horses laid up through it. Several have died from the effects of it; some have lost the sole of the foot. We think the authorities deserve thanks of all lovers of good horses, and the horses themselves,for the ordinance recently passed by them, making it finable of $1,000 for each offence.—Wilkes' Spirit.

☞ Judge Vondersmith, the land warrant forger, whose pardon by Mr. Buchanan was announced by telegraph on Monday, was formerly a resident of Lancaster, Pa., and is a personal and political friend of the ex-president.

☞ It is said that Texas has ratified the secession ordinance by forty to forty-five thousand. It is also reported that Governor Houston has resigned.

The secessionists make their attacks upon empty forts and full mints and treasuries.

MONDAY, MARCH 11, 1861.

MR. RAREY IN NEW YORK.

"Cruiser," the inevitable, was introduced, as usual. Mr. Rarey then announced that several horses would be introduced as candidates for his peculiar system; that he had not had the honor to be introduced to either of them, and that he would do his devoirs as thoroughly as possible with them.

The first animal presented was an unbroken colt. Various attempts had been made to saddle this juvenile (a regular enfant terrible,) all of which he had resented as personal insults, kicking up, like antique Joseph in the ballad, behind and before.—(By-the-way, "Cruiser" struck out with hind legs a bit, before he went off. Rarey said that was a way he had when he wanted to take a little exercise.) Rarey and the colt had a brief but energetic struggle, when out came the straps, and down went the animal. Rarey wipes his brow, makes a few sensible remarks, as to the proper manner of breaking and saddling horses, then rides the colt about the inclosure, beats a drum in his ears, and the first lesson is over.

The next candidate was a brown mare, who looked as though she had been through a large number of civil wars. If anybody is anxious for a description of this Rosinante, he can overhaul Shakspeare's Katherine and Petruchio. The horse whereon the shrew was conveyed to her new home is our customer, with a slight difference. It was represented that the present pupil of Mr. Rarey had had her temper soured by too much Third avenue railway, and that she was in the habit of kicking to an unpleasant extent, not only to others, but herself. In point of fact, this animal had absolutely kicked herself off her feet, which was something of a feat, as she stood about sixteen hands high. In the inclosure she kicked not at all, but squealed like an insane soprano sfogato anxious for an engagement with a country manager. She went from the top to the bottom of the gamut, and a few floritures on her own account. Rarey soon conquered this equine prima donna, mounted upon her back (it was like climbing to the top of a five story house) and led her away perfectly docile, and silent as Greenwood.

His last customer, and the worst, so far, appeared in the shape of an iron-gray horse, as big as the Great Eastern, and as strong as a line of battle ship. It was stated that this horse was not vicious or "ugly," as the ladies say, but was wild and unmanageable. Truly, the iron-gray was a tough customer. No parlor horse was he. Rarey mesmerized him a long time, then succeeded in getting the hoof of the left fore-leg in his hand, and afterwards got the first turn of the strap about the ankle. A good deal more time than usual was occupied in this proceeding, and Rarey endeavored to hurry up the denouement. The horse, however, did not agree with this accommodating spirit of the exhibition. Quite to the contrary. He allowed Rarey to go on nicely enough until he arrived at the buckle wherewith the strap is fastened, when the most violent objections in the shape, of bolting and kicking, were interposed. The attempt to strap up the fore-leg was made at least fifty times without success. Once the horse threw Rarey down in the rawdust, broke the straps and bridle, and stood quite supreme in the inclosure. On another occasion, he broke away from Rarey, and rushed rapidly from one corner to the other, taking a general survey of the audience, creating considerable consternation among old ladies in the front seats of the parquet. A nervous gentleman in the gallery was also somewhat exercised, and inquired of Rarey if the people in the theatre were in any danger. Considering that this philosopher was perched some forty feet above the horse's head, his query seemed slightly superfluous. The groom was brought in, the bridle replaced, and the contest renewed. As the groom held the horse's head, Rarey applied himself to the task of strapping up Iron gray's fore-leg. Both man and horse were now pretty nearly done up. The horse was bathed in a profuse perspiration, which absolutely rained down from his body. Rarey patted him, smoothed his legs, applied the straps as delicately as Queen Victoria could have buckled the garter about Newcastle's leg, but all in vain. With every attempt out came the forelegs, and away went Rarey with the straps. This conflict was continued nearly an hour and a half, and Rarey's endurance is something miraculous. Any three ordinary men would have been exhausted long before the fight ended. Finally Mr. Iron-gray gave in so far as to permit his legs to be strapped half way, and in a short time he kneled over. Rarey embraced his old foe, took his head in his arms, fondled him and made the most of his victory, such as it was. The gray was not entirely subdued, but acknowledged that he found his master. Rarey mounted him, rode him about, and altogether brought him to a realizing sense of the superiority of mind over matter. At the end, the lecture having been unusually prolonged by the obstinacy of the iron-gray, Mr. Rarey announced that the horse has been frightened by the introduction of the buckle at too early a period, through his (Rarey's) anxiety to finish at as early a period as possible. His struggle with the iron-gray was a clear fight, in which pluck, perseverance and endurance won the victory. It proved, to the satisfaction of the most incredulous auditor, that Mr. Rarey fully deserves to wear the laurels he has won, and which he wears so modestly.

"A Good Business."—Such is the heading of a paragraph in the Providence Post. The statement is that seven hundred and twenty-six long car-loads of freight were received from the Commercial Line Propellers, and transported to Boston during the month of February last. This was in addition to the freight taken from the same boats and left along the line of the railroad between Providence and Boston.

A GREAT SCIENCE

indeed—one of the modern arts—is that of Newspaper Advertising; and few are they, comparatively, who have or can attain to its sublimest heights. But if all cannot reach the summit, each may share in the benefit of the system, to the extent warranted by his talents and enterprise. To practice it successfully, on the grandest scale, requires more courage than most men have,—larger resources of head and purse, than are generally possessed—and a thorough comprehension of the whole subject, which is as wide as christendom or the world itself. Many are the instances in which immense fortunes have been accumulated by advertising; and no living man has yet sounded the depths of this exhaustless resource. There are only three requisites to success, viz: to have something worth advertising, to possess means sufficient, and the knowledge how to do it.—Many "slow" people regard, or affect to regard, all wholesale advertising as one of the species humbug—but, no-matter who to the contrary, we are convinced that no eminent success has ever been achieved in the advertising line, without the experimenter's complying with all the three requirements stated.

As special instances, look at "Oak Hall," that inaugurated the system of good low-priced clothing for the million; at Geo. W. Warren & Co.'s elegant Dry Goods Palace in Boston; at that world's blessing, the Grover & Baker Sewing Machine Co.; at Hallett, Davis & Co.'s splendid and unexcelled Pianos; at Dr. J. C. Ayer, of Lowell, whose popular medicines are known and used in every clime; at the New York Ledger, one of the best family papers in the world, and probably the most widely circulated too; at the famous New England Carpet Company, of Boston, which buys whole cargoes or mills of webs; and last, though perhaps not to be least, in time, judging from the enterprise and the appreciation of the subject they evince, take our own recent home firm of Allen & Paine, now the leading Cloak Manufacturers of Boston, No. England, or the United States.

And of all the mediums of reaching the people, there is none so cheap, so certain, so thorough, so effective, as the newspaper; and no one of the successful wholesale advertisers has ever overlooked it—however much he may have advertised in other ways—by cards, circulars, books, or what not.

And as the power and influence of newspapers has yet hardly begun to be understood or realized—in politics, in morals, in education, in religion itself—so the extent to which advertising will be carried is not at all appreciated. And there is as much in the "manner, manner, manner" of writing an advertisement—of addressing the fickle public; as in writing a love letter or an application for office. With "all the world for a stage," how can the thing be over-done, if done wisely?

And who so well qualified to direct in this matter, as an intelligent, experienced, accomplished Advertising Agent? one who has spent his life in studying and conducting the business—who has, in fact, served a regular apprenticeship to the trade of promoting interchange of commodities, wider and more important than that effected by any other commission merchant? Notwithstanding the prejudice which has grown up in some quarters against Advertising Agencies—and not without reason, when so many irresponsible and incompetent "fools have rushed into" the business—yet they are of the greatest benefit to newspaper publishers, and to those who wish to patronize them to their own best advantage. The acquaintance and correspondence of a first-class Advertising house is almost as broad and comprehensive as "the mail," or newspaperdom itself—and a visit to such an establishment is a source of no little entertainment to the inquiring mind. The daily receipt and dispatching of hundreds of letters and papers, from and to all parts of America; and the varied extent of the Purchasing Bureau which naturally grows out of the business, and is also a great convenience to editors residing at a distance from any metropolis—with the pigeon-hole regularity absolutely essential to the preservation of the numberless files of papers and records—and the astonishing memories of the employees: all contribute to interest the visitor.

Like any other commission business, the Advertising Agency is of great benefit to both parties concerned—the seller and buyer of goods—when well conducted. V. B. Palmer, we think, was the pioneer in the business, in Boston—and deserves well of the American press for his exertions in their behalf—especially since they have derived far greater benefits therefrom, than himself. His successor in the business, in Boston, is Mr. S. R. Niles, to whose liberal, systematic and entirely satisfactory mode of doing business, we take pleasure in bearing our testimony, after a long and intimate personal acquaintance, and several years of quite extensive business connection. We always prefer that business men in Boston and New York should forward their favors through such entirely responsible and reliable agencies as that of Mr. Niles and S. M. Pettingill & Co., than to mail them to us direct, themselves. In a general system of advertising, the agent will do better for the advertisers, give them greater satisfaction, than they can hope for themselves; and both advertisers and publishers are more sure of being fairly dealt by.

In conclusion, we shall only add—commend us to liberal advertisers, and responsible advertising agents.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.

Washington, March 8.—The southern commissioners have made no official communications to the administrations as yet, owing to the sickness of Mr. Seward.—They have been actively occupied since their arrival in consultation and unofficial intercourse.

The subjects of the collection of the revenue and reinforcing Fort Sumter have not yet engaged the attention of the Cabinet. Great efforts are making to effect a peaceful settlement of the questions of the seizure of the forts and the revenues.

Ex-Secretary Floyd has published a statement vindicating the acceptances in favor of Russell, Majors and Co., and asserting their legality. He says that instead of their being six millions outstanding, there is only six hundred thousand, and the contractors have secured these by assignments of property, and if the government will permit the earnings of the trains of 1861 to be applied to the acceptances, they will be liquidated in that way without recourse to assignments. It would seem also according to Mr. Floyd's statement, that the government owes the contractors upwards of half a million, which is equivalent to the cash value of the Indian Trust Bonds, of the abstraction of which he (Floyd) repudiates all previous knowledge. He denounces the conduct and proceedings of the select committee with great severity, and says their sole object was political persecution and defamation.

Col. Lorenzo Thomas has been appointed Adjutant General, Vice Cooper resigned.

Quartermaster General Johnson of Virginia to-day denies having resigned, saying that the occasion for such a course has not arrived.

Southerners are making overtures to the best officers in the service, and certain officers of the army located here have been tendered lucrative appointments.

Washington, March 7.—Mr. Sumner urged the appointment of Mr. Crittenden to the Supreme Bench, because he is a Southern man, and must travel the Southern Circuit; because he concurs with the Republicans relative to questions of territorial policy; because he has popularity, and because the appointment would conciliate the South more than Constitutional amendments.

The War Department has received letters from Major Anderson, dated the 4th inst.; they contain nothing special. Friendly feelings continued to exist between him and the South Carolinian authorities—Postal facilities were still open to him, and market privileges on a limited extent.

Washington, March 7.—[Special dispatch to the N. Y. World.]—Sec. Cameron, having left the city on a brief visit to Pennsylvania, Mr. Holt continues to discharge the duties of the War Department until the return of Mr. Cameron.

The decided stand taken by the Missouri convention against secession, will perhaps give Senator Green a chance to fulfil the intention he recently expressed in the Senate, that if his State should not secede, he should. The action of Missouri had a decidedly good effect in Virginia, and alarms the revolutionists in the Senate.

KATIE LEE AND WILLIE GREY.

Two brown heads with tossing curls,
Red lips shutting over pearls,
Bare feet white and wet with dew,
Two eyes black and two eyes blue;
Little boy and girl were they,
Katie Lee and Willie Grey.

They were standing where a brook,
Bending like a shepherd's crook,
Flashed its silver; and thick ranks
Of green willow fringed the banks;
Half in thought and half in play,
Katie Lee and Willie Grey.

They had cheeks like cherries red;
He was taller—'most a head;
She, with arms like wreaths of snow,
Swung a basket to and fro,
As she loitered half in play,
Chattering to Willie Grey.

"Pretty Katie," Willie said—
And there came a dash of red
Through the brownness of his cheek—
Boys are strong and girls are weak,
And I'll carry, so I will,
Katie's basket up the hill."

Katie answered, with a laugh,
"You shall carry only half;"
And then, tossing back her curls,
"Boys are weak as well as girls."
Do you think that Katie guessed
Half the wisdom she expressed?

Men are only boys grown tall,
Hearts don't change much, after all;
And when, long years from that day,
Katie Lee and Willie Grey
Stood again beside the brook,
Bending like a shepherd's crook,—

Is it strange that Willie said—
While again a dash of red
Crossed the brownness of his cheek—
"I am strong and you are weak;
Life is but a slippery steep,
Hung with shadows cold and deep:

"Will you trust me, Katie dear?
Walk beside me without fear;
May I carry, if I will,
All your burdens up the hill?"
And she answered with a laugh,
"No, but you may carry half."

Close beside the little brook,
Bending like a shepherd's crook,
Washing with its silver hands
Late and early at the sands,
Is a cottage, where, to-day,
Katie lives with Willie Grey.

In a porch she sits, and lo!
Swings a basket to and fro,
Vastly different from the one
That she swung in years agone;
This is long, and deep, and wide,
And has—rockers at the side!

Wilmington, Delaware, March 8.—The Legislature has adjourned. An ineffectual effort was made to call an extra session in April on the state of the Union.

The Legislature refused by a large majority to renew present lottery grants, which expire in a few months. It also refused to sanction any more lottery grants in the State.

SPECIAL SESSION U. S. SENATE.

Friday, March 8.

Mr. Dixon's resolution to print the Inaugural Address was adopted.

Mr. Foster offered the following resolution:—

"Whereas Mr. Wigfall, now Senator from Texas, has declared in debate that he is a foreigner, owing no allegiance to this government, but to another, it is resolved that Louis T. Wigfall be expelled from this body."

Mr. Clingman moved to amend by substituting:—

"It is understood that the State of Texas has seceded from the Union, and is no longer one of the United States, therefore Resolved, That Texas is not entitled to be represented in this body."

Mr. Foster, not seeing Mr. Wigfall, let the resolution lay over.

Mr. Bright presented a list of the standing committees, which was adopted.

☞ The Concord Statesman says Hon. Samuel D. Bell "does not take a Newspaper." If this be possible, the Judge ought to be fined for stealing his reading. Or perhaps he don't read anything save mustyfusty old law-books—and that may be the reason he has made no response to his nomination—he hasn't found it out yet.

From Washington.—The manly and straightforward speech of Senator Douglas does much to silence the clamorous assertions of the Democrats, that the inaugural is warlike in its tone.

Mr. Douglas has a high appreciation of Mr. Lincoln's character and abilities. He knows the man from old conflicts, and his present endorsement of the address will do good.

Montgomery, Ala., March 8.—Mr. Clayton submitted a bill to establish an Admiralty Court at Key West.

Mr. Sparrow submitted a resolution of inquiry into the condition of the Custom House at New Orleans.

Mr. Conrad submitted a communication proposing changes in the law regulating boats.

The army bill was passed.

It is reported that 50,000 men will soon be ready to take the field.

Important from Virginia.—Richmond, Va., Mar. 8.—Mr. Wysor of Pulaski offered an ordinance in the convention to-day, dissolving the political connection of Virginia with the other States of the Union, and establishing her independence. Several Union and secession speeches were made during the day, but the convention adjourned without taking any action.

New York, Mar. 8.—The shoe shop on Randall's Island, in which juvenile delinquents were employed, was burnt this morning. Loss $20,000. Incendiary.

Mary Minus, while filling a fluid lamp, was fatally burnt at Brooklyn last evening.

Leading merchants and bankers made arrangements this morning to give Ex-Secretary Dix a public dinner.

Raleigh, N. C., Mar. 8.—The State has gone against a convention by 1000 majority. The members elected to the convention are two to one for the Union.

New York, March 9.—The Washington correspondent of the Times says either Mr. Fessenden or Mr. C. F. Adams will go to London.

A VOICE FROM THE WEST!

FROM THE CLEVELAND PLAINDEALER

UNIVERSAL, UNIVERSAL,

IS THE DEMAND FOR

DR. S. O. RICHARDSON'S

SHERRY WINE BITTERS,

The celebrated New England remedy for

Habitual Constipation, Jaundice, Fever and Ague, General Debility, and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Stomach, Liver or Bowels.

They are used and recommended by the leading Physicians of the country, and all who try them, pronounce them invaluable.

Dr. JAMES L. LEPEERE writes from Navarre, Stark Co., O.: "The Bitters are praised by those suffering from indigestion, dyspepsia and liver complaint."

E. S. DAVIS, Postmaster at Williamsport, Ohio, says: "They give great satisfaction. I use them myself. Having taken cold, become prostrate, and lost my appetite, it relieved me, and I can recommend it with great assurance of its merits."

Dr. WM. M. KERR, of Rogersville, Ind., writes us that they are the most valuable medicine offered. He has recommended them with great success, and with them made several cures of palpitation of the heart, and general debility.

THOMAS STANFORD, Esq., Bloomtrille, Henry Co., Ind., writes us a long letter under date of May 4, 1860. He was much reduced, having been afflicted for three years with fever and ague debility, palpitation of the heart of the most severe and prostrating character; "after using a few bottles, I was completely restored, and am now in robust health."

GEORGE W. HOFFMAN says he was afflicted with rheumatism in all its various forms for 20 years, and had spent a great deal of his letter he had been two years well, the Bitters effecting the cure, when several physicians attending him could do him no good. He says "for rheumatism, dyspepsia, liver complaint, kidney affection or dropsy, it is a specific certain remedy."

J. W. HUNT writes from Delphos, Allen Co. Ohio, (a section where fever and ague prevails,) that he cheerfully recommends them as of decided merit in all cases of fever and ague, dyspepsia and general debility.

D. K. GALLEHERS, M. D., writes from Van Wert, O.: "I most respectfully recommend the Sherry Wine Bitters to the notice of dyspeptic persons, and all who require a stimulating medicine."

WISTAR'S BALSAM WILD CHERRY.

In the whole history of medical discoveries, no remedy has performed so many or such remarkable cures of the Throat, Lungs and Chest,—of Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, or of Consumption itself, as this far-famed, long-tried and justly celebrated Balsam. So generally acknowledged is the superior excellence of this remedy, that but few of the many who have tested its virtues by experience fail to keep it at hand, as a speedy and certain cure for sudden attacks of Cold—fully believing that its remedial powers are comprehensive enough to embrace every form of disease, from the slightest cold to the most dangerous symptom of pulmonary complaint.

George W. Millet, Esq.

Editor of the Norway Advertiser, gives his opinion of this great remedy substantially as follows:

Norway Village, Me., Aug 4, 1860.

Messrs. S. W. Fowle & Co.—Gentlemen:—For a remedy of such undoubted merit as Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, I cheerfully give you my testimony, and trust that others may be induced thereby to give it a trial and be relieved. Several years since I first became acquainted with this Balsam at a time of distressing cough and cold, which took such firm hold of my lungs as to render me unfit for business, and its operation produced a speedy and permanent cure, after trying various other remedies in vain.

In our town this remedy is a great favorite with many, and it all who suffer will but give it a fair trial, I think they will find it to be of more service in pulmonary affections than any other remedy of this class before the public.

Yours respectfully, GEO. W MILLET.

ELECTION TO-MORROW.—Will our reporters, town clerks, and any other friends in the neighboring towns, be good enough to forward to us at the earliest moment possible, full and accurate returns from their respective places. For any trouble or expense incurred, we shall be very happy to remunerate liberally.

For the Chronicle.

TOO MANY LAWYERS.—Alison, in the History of Europe, states one of the powerful agencies in advancing the terrible French Revolution to have been the preponderance of lawyers elected to the State General. Uneasy and even turbulent by profession, they kindled the fires which desolated the nation, set up the guillotine, and deluged the land with the blood of its best citizens. What do we * * * want of more lawyers in Congress? Better send a larger proportion of men from the mercantile and mechanical walks of life, * * * men of sterling common sense, familiar with the needs of all classes of New Hampshire people. Such are the men to represent the citizens of this District.

Messrs. Editors:—The above, which I cut from the Concord Statesman, with the mere alteration of names and Districts, will apply to this part of the State, at least as well as it does there. Ponder it, ye Union men, and vote accordingly.

UNION DEM.

TIME.

I woke up in the morning; it was Spring,
And I smiled:
I walked out at noon; it was Summer,
And I was glad:
I sat down at even; it was Autumn,
And I was sad:
I laid down at night; it was Winter,
And I slept.

THE WINTER AT HAYTI.—A record of the range of the thermometer at the hour of noon, at Cape Haytien, from December 1st to February 12th, was between 74 and 85 degrees. In the whole seventy-four days, the difference at noon, between the warmest and coldest days, was only eight degrees.

☞ We find the following well-deserved testimonial in the columns of the N. Y. Leader, and cheerfully copy it for the benefit of our readers:—

"THE RIGHT SEWING MACHINE.—Nobody in these days of practical go-ahead ideas will deny that a sewing machine is a decidedly nice institution to have in the family. It does so much work in so little time, and does it so neatly and with such comparatively slight labor, that the women folks feel almost like cooking up excuses for running the machine, when there is really no work to be done. But amid the multitude of machines and apologies for machines with which the market is flooded, it is sometimes difficult for the bewildered purchaser to decide which machine is the one he really wants—which is the best, and will do him the most satisfactory service. A trial of over two years enables us to say with the greatest confidence that there is no better machine for general family use than that manufactured by the GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE CO. It makes a beautiful elastic seam that does not rip with wear or washing, run almost noiselessly, is plain, simple, easy to work, and not liable to get out of repair, fastens the ends of its own thread, and uses threads and silks directly from the spools on which they are bought. Add to it a set of the Company's inimitable hemmers and stitchers, and you have everything about as complete and satisfactory as you could reasonably expect. It is an article of furniture, once in your house, you will never willingly part with under any considerations."

Would you save yourself from suffering after eating, or from acidity of the stomach, or burning sensation or indigestion? Use Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus.—Never use soda if you can procure this article. It will strengthen weak stomachs and relieve dyspepsia; is a saving in the quantity of flour, &c. Try it. Grocers and Druggists most all sell it.

Sold at wholesale, by Israel Nash & Co., Boston; and Sumner, Swasey & Currier, Newburyport.

LIFE INSURANCE.

"IN THE MIDST OF LIFE WE ARE IN DEATH."

The strong man often falters, and falls in the midst of the hurry and business of life. The wise man maketh provision for those whom he loveth, against the liability to accident and death.

THE
MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE CO.
Of New York,
with an accumulated capital of over
SEVEN MILLION DOLLARS,

Invested at seven per cent. on bond and mortgage loans in the City and State of New York, upon Real Estate worth double the amount loaned thereon, issues

POLICIES on lives, payable to the wife, or to the legal representative of the person insured.

POLICIES payable to the person insured, on his attaining the age of 50, 60 or 70; or to his representative in case of decease before attaining this age.

PREMIUMS may be paid, quarterly, semi-annually, or annually, at the option of the insured.

The long experience of this excellent institution, like the one hundred years' experience of the great Equitable Life Insurance Co. of London, and other kindred institutions, proves their stability and perpetuity when established upon the right principle. Investments made with them have proved more remunerative than with Savings Banks.

The time is near, when to protect one's family from the loss and want often attendant upon the death of its provider, will be as universal as it is now to protect ourselves from loss by fire.

No reflecting man can sit at his fireside with his young family about him, and feel at ease;—when he knows that if death should take him from them, they would be cast upon a selfish world, without the means for education or support, which he can easily provide for them thro' a life policy.

CHARLES T. EMERY,

No. 10 Market Sq., Portsmouth,

Having been appointed

SOLE AGENT IN PORTSMOUTH

for the sale of the celebrated and unrivalled Noiseless

GROVER & BAKER

FAMILY AND MANUFACTURING

Sewing Machines,

would invite especial attention to the same.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE makes the only seam formed by a Sewing Machine, in which each stitch is independently locked, and without dependence on other stitches for strength, and the only seam that will admit of the thread being cut at every fourth stitch without injury to the seam in wear.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE is adapted to all varieties of fabrics, sewing equally well the finest Swiss Muslin or the heaviest cloth or leather, and requiring no adjustment for any kind of sewing other than the adaptation of needles and thread.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE sews from ordinary spools without rewinding, and fastens its own seams, thereby saving time and thread It will sew common spool cotton, silk and linen thread with equal facility.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE is so simple that an intelligent child of ten years can readily learn to operate it. It is more easily kept in order than any other machine, and need not be taken apart to be oiled.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE makes the only stitch that cannot be injured by washing and ironing, and the only stitch that forms an elastic and durable seam. Fabrics put together with this stitch may wear out and drop to pieces from original weakness, or hard usage, but come apart or give way at the seams, they cannot; they will hold together when the cloth or calico around them hangs in rags and tatters.

Every Machine Warranted.

THE FAMINE IN KANSAS.

Appeal for the Destitute, from the New York City Committee.

WM. C. BRYANT, Chairman. J. E. WILLIAMS, Treasurer.
Chas. H. Marshall, Seth B. Hunt, R. H. McCurdy, Morris Ketchum, G. C. Bronson, Chas. W. Elliott, Daniel Lord, Daniel Drew, J. S. Wadsworth.

It has become our imperative duty to urge upon the public attention the fact that over 40,000 of our fellow citizens in Kansas are now in imminent danger of starving. We have evidence from all sources—from Gen. Pomeroy, Chairman of the Territorial Relief Committee,—from the columns of nearly every newspaper, of all shades of politics—from our own reliable agent, who has just returned. There was no doubt of the misery, terrible, wide-spread, destructive.

We have evidence that whole families have already died of starvation; and that thousands more must lie down discouraged, and die of want or disease consequent upon it, unless prompt and thorough relief is at once applied. Congress is now attempting to sustain the starving Indians, but our 40,000 fellow countrymen—men, women and children—can neither get away from their desolation, nor borrow, nor beg. Their only dependence is upon us, who have never known hunger.

THEY MUST BE SUSTAINED. Will you help us to help them?

To assure you that whatever you do will reach them, we state that in every destitute township is a Relief Committee—these are all represented by the Territorial Committee, as follows:

TERRITORIAL COMMITTEE.

S. C. Pomeroy, Atchison; W. W Guthrie, Brown County; J. L. McDowell, Leavenworth; Rev. C. Reynolds, Lawrence; Rev. L. Bodwell, Topeka; Dr. S. Ayers, Linn County; F U Blake, Junction City; C. B. Lines, Wabaunsee; F. B. Baker, Centralia; Rev. Wm. Bishop, Salina;—Judge A. Spaulding, Jefferson County; J. C. Burnett, Bourbon County; J. C. Lambdin, Butler County; Geo. M. Russell, Wyandotte.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

S. C. Pomeroy, Chairman; J. L. McDowell, Rev. C. Reynolds, Rev. L. Bodwell, F. P. Baker.

S. C. POMEROY, Corresponding Secretary.
G. H. FAIRCHILD, Treasurer.

Gen. Pomeroy is Chairman, and at ATCHISON devotes his whole time and energy, with assistants, to the receipt of food and clothing, all of which are delivered upon requisitions of Town Committees, and are distributed through them.—This organization is prompt, thorough and effective, and we advise the sending of supplies through it. Money and clothing are needed from us;—food can be got in the West.

The names of our committee appear at the head of this appeal, and we hope will be sufficient to induce co-operation. Our Treasurer is JOHN E. WILLIAMS, President of the Metropolitan Bank, New York City. All money sent to him will be applied to the payment of Gen. Pomeroy's drafts on account of freights and sacks. We appeal to you all, by every dictate of humanity, of honor, and of public good, to unite with us in alleviating this great calamity. There is no time to be lost.

FIRST—We ask individuals everywhere to contribute at once, and to urge it upon their friends and neighbors.

SECOND—We appeal to all churches and organized bodies to act promptly, generously and efficiently.

THIRD—We urge upon EVERY GOVERNOR OF EVERY STATE immediately to bring this matter to the attention of their Legislatures and people. Our last statistics show that nearly $200,000 is needed within the coming fortnight, to supply this people with seed for Spring planting. It can only be furnished by State action. Every consideration of interest also demands that this new State should be enabled to become self-sustaining, productive, and eventually rich—thus to fulfill her destiny, and to help others, as we are now helping her.

We ask, therefore, every Legislature to do as they would have others do to them in like distress, and at once to grant ample supplies.

All money sent to our Treasurer, JOHN E. WILLIAMS, Metropolitan Bank, New York City, will be gratefully acknowledged and effectively used.

All Clothing should be sent to "GEN. POMEROY, Atchison, Kansas," and freight should be prepaid. DaWlm

BLOOD FOOD

CONSUMPTIVES.

An equal and normal circulation of the blood is health. An abnormal, that is to say, an excessive or deficient circulation or stagnation of the blood, is disease. To illustrate—torpidity of the Liver is caused by stagnation of the blood in that organ; diseases of the Kidneys, Inflammation of the Lungs, Disease of the Heart, &c., by the same cause, viz., Improper Circulation; and from the same cause spring all the minor forms of disease. To discover a certain cure, then, for those diseases, the first great inquiry is, What causes the blood to circulate?

For centuries it has been a matter of much study among scientific and medical men; and while many experiments have been made and much labor expended, upon the inquiry, it has been left to this century, among the other wonderful increase in knowledge, to make this grand discovery also.

Acknowledging that life is the gift of the Creator and that "in Him we live and move and have our being," we still venture the remark that, as the planets move in their spheres, and all vegetable life is governed by certain absolute laws, so animal life is governed by fixed laws, which remove or destroy, and death, the certain effect, follows.

Analysis of the red corpuscles of the blood shows them to be compounds of iron, sulphur and phosphorus.

The air we breathe we know to contain a very large proportion of oxygen.

Oxygen, brought in contact with metal, evolves or emits electricity.

Electricity, brought in contact with a muscular fibre, causes it to contract.

These facts being indisputable, we have now the solution as to the motor or motive power of the heart. The oxygen in the air we breathe, coming in contact with the iron in the red corpuscles of blood, emits electricity, which, when in contact with the heart, causes it to contract; and hence the power which expels the blood, and sends it tingling through the remotest extremities. What, then, are the causes of CONSUMPTION, DROPSY, PALSY, PARALYSIS, ST. VITUS' DANCE, DYSPEPSIA, EPILEPSY, FEVER & AGUE, &c.?—a deficiency of the red corpuscles containing the iron, sulphur and phosphorus, which causes a deficiency of electricity, and consequently an abnormal circulation. The blood becomes watery, colds and bronchial complaints and pneumonia ensue—the sufferer becomes nervous, and subject to rheumatic pains and neuralgia—complaints of the liver and kidneys set in; in short, almost every type of disease but contagious fevers may be traced to this deficiency in the blood, or the corpuscles or red globules.

Old age causes a deficiency of corpuscles, and while we do not pretend to say that we have discovered the "elixir vitæ," we do say that life can be materially prolonged by the use of the which restores the red globules and the normal circulation. Consumption! Hitherto a "dreaded Grim" Sufferers from any organic disease! Unfortunates, who have by excess of the body or mind, reduce the standard of the blood and diminished the red globules! Ladies suffering any of the distresses known as female complaints, be persuaded the blood FOOD can cure you. It has cured thousands of desperate cases where all hope had been given up. Do not reject it, do not throw away your only hope. The "Blood Food" is an unfailing remedy, give it a trial.

An elaborate treatise, carrying out and fully proving the theory advanced here to be correct, will be mailed to any interested party, on the receipt of two 3 cent postage stamps. "Blood Food" is sold by all Druggists, and where it cannot be had, I will send 6 bottles, free of expense, for $5. Price, single bottle, $1. It is put up in 8 oz. vials, in yellow wrapper—the old trade mark, in small bottles, in red wrappers, having been done away with; and bears the fac-simile signature of Church & Dupont upon the face of the wrapper. Beware of counterfeits and imitations.

BININGER'S
GENUINE
Cognac Brandy

The infamous practice of adulterating Brandies having become so common, the genuine article is the exception; it is of vital importance to those requiring it for Family use and Invalids, that it should be of undoubted purity and quality.

With a view to meeting the popular demand for a Brandy in its natural state, free from alcoholic fire and adulteration, we have imported, being the fact that it is often commended by the Medical Faculty as a sustaining stimulant, when all other remedies have failed, and are now selling reasonable rates, a Brandy of our own importation, from one of the most responsible houses France, and known as

It is mild, delicate and fruity, and is designed to be always uniform in quality and character. Put up in pint and quart bottles, in cases containing two dozen pints and one dozen quarts, and is sold by all prominent druggists, grocers and town agents.

The above is also for sale in original packages, viz.: Eighths and Quarter Casks.

PROFESSOR WOOD'S

HAIR RESTORATIVE!

SEE WHAT OTHERS SAY OF IT.

A Distinguished St. Louis Physician Writes:

ST. LOUIS July 10, 1869.

O. J. WOOD, Esq.,—Dear Sir:—Allow me the pleasure and satisfaction of transmitting to you the beneficial effects of your Hair Restorative, after using half a dozen vials. I commenced using your Restorative in January, 1865, since which time I have not been without a bottle on hand. When I commenced the use, my hair was quite thin, and at least one-third gray. A few applications stopped its falling, and in three weeks there was not a gray hair to be found, neither has there been any to this date.

After my hair was completely restored, I continued its use by applying two or three times a month. My hair is now even and continued, glossy, soft and glossy, and my scalp perfectly free from dandruff. I do not imagine the facts above mentioned will be of any particular advantage to you, or even flatter your vanity, at this late day, as I am well aware they are all well known already, and even more wonderful cures are made throughout the Union. I have occupied my time in travelling the greater part of the time the past three years, and have taken pleasure in recommending your Restorative, and exhibiting its effects in my own case. In several instances I have met with people who pronounced it a humbug, saying they had used it and without effect. In every instance, however, it proved, by probing the matter, that they had not used your article at all, but had used some new article, said to be as good, and selling at about half the price. I have noticed two or three articles myself advertised as above, which I have no doubt are humbugs. It is astonishing that people will patronize an article of merit when presented it is unknown;

Portsmouth, N. H.

TUESDAY, MARCH 15, 1861.

"UNDER WHICH KING?"

"Choose ye this day whom ye will serve;" or rather, who shall serve you. We give in another column, the two lists of State Officers nominated by the two great political parties; and also the legal notices for Town Meetings in the three Wards of the City, which include a statement of the objects of the same.

This is "Election Day,"—the existence of which constitutes, or at any rate represents, the chief and vital difference between a Monarchical and Representative form of Government. Let every man see to it, that he improves the opportunity offered, to "have his say" in the Government, so far as he may by casting his ballot for the men he prefers. We are free to say that we have not much faith in Parties—that we "put not our trust in" politicians, more than in Princes; and that to our appreciation, a man is no better or worse, merely for being on a certain ticket.

There is no vital question, of State policy, at stake to-day. New Hampshire has generally been well governed, and we have no doubt will continue to be so, no matter what the dominant party is called. The contest to-day is rather between men, than "principles"—though the Republicans do urge upon us, the advisability of "endorsing their new President, and the Democrats beseech us to "save the Union." For our part, we have some faith in President Lincoln, and more in "the people," and the ultimate success of the right; and our only hope is, like that usually expressed concerning contestants in a different ring: "May the best men win." JR.

THE ONLY WAY TO SAVE THE UNION. The New York Day Book, a celebrated paper of the Democratic party, lays down the following platform, as the only one possible for a re-construction of the Democratic party,—and for the salvation of the Union.

Nor is the Union now possible on the terms of the "Union-savers" or compromise-men. There must be a settlement of the question. The people of the South cannot afford to be in doubt any longer. They must have a government, as President Davis says, that protects, not wars upon them; this must be a government of white men, in which the negro has no connection or status whatever, as laid down by the Supreme Court; or it will be, as indeed it exist, substantially broken up on the fatal 6th of November.

Will not the northern masses assent to this? Will they not organize on the basis of the Dred Scott decision? Will they not stand up for white equality and negro subordination—for Democracy for white men, and "slavery" for negroes? Yes, indeed. Nothing is needed but an organization of the Democracy on sound ground, to sweep the North like a whirlwind.

Union savers in New Hampshire,—are you ready? Don't all speak at once! U.T.

AMALGAMATION PROHIBITED IN CALIFORNIA.—A bill introduced into the lower House of the California Legislature the 30th of January, to prevent the amalgamation of different races of men, provides that any white person who shall hereafter be convicted of marrying or otherwise cohabiting with a negro, mulatto, Chinese or Indian, shall be punished by fine or imprisonment, or both; and the fact that a person beds, boards, cohabits or intermarries with an individual of any of the said races, shall be prima facie evidence that such a person is not a white citizen, and shall subject him to all constitutional disabilities imposed on persons of color.

REPORTS OF FORT SUMTER.—We receive from Washington various contradictory statements in relation to Forts Sumter and Pickens. Some of the correspondents assert that powerful reinforcements are to be sent immediately. On the other hand, it is as confidently stated that the Government will soon withdraw the garrisons, and surrender those famous fortresses to the secessionists. Which of these reports is true, if either, will be proved by future events.

☞ Rev. Dr. Parsons Cooke, formerly of the Pleasant street church in this city, is now engaged in defending slavery as a divine institution of the old school, and very strongly condemns both the new school theology and the anti-slavery agitation. The doctor is an editor of the Boston Recorder, in which his essays appear; and with much zeal and acuteness, he tries to make the christian people of New England believe slavery to be one of the divine blessings, and his "old school" theology to be another.

☞ Three men, named Goodrich, alias Wade, a father and two sons, have been arrested in Boston, as henroost thieves.—One woman has picked 2000 fowls for them, during the winter, for which she had four cts. each, and the feathers. Four provision stores had been supplied by them with all their chickens, which were stolen mostly from Plymouth and Norfolk counties. The men are in jail.

THE REMEDY.

The Boston Herald of March 11, says, in speaking of the National troubles:

And what is the remedy? Some seem to think the remedy is an entire surrender to extreme Southern views; others, by making war upon the slave power. Now both are wrong. All legislation on the subject should be ignored. We do not believe in changing or amending the Constitution so as to force Slavery upon a free people, but would say to the people in the Territories: If you want Slavery, have it; if not, say so, and your decision shall be binding. * * * For this reason we have opposed the action of the men who are engaged in the conspiracy to destroy the Union.

They have seized the forts, navy yards and arsenals belonging to the United States, and have plundered the mints and treasury of the nation, refusing to give up the property thus taken, and say they will not again resume their association with those whom they have thus robbed and trampled upon. They have forgotten the benefits they have derived from the Union, and express a willingness to kick over the ladder by which they have climbed to power and prosperity. Under these circumstances we shall lend our humble efforts to assist in maintaining the integrity of the Government, and shall sustain those who are engaged in accomplishing the same ends, and shall not stop to inquire if they have been our political friends or foes in times gone by.

The men who are now at the head of the disunion movement at the South are the same individuals who broke up the Democratic party and defeated it, knowing and desiring the success of the Republicans.—They are now moving heaven and earth to destroy the union and to plunge the nation into untold difficulties, that they may erect upon its ruins a new Confederacy, which shall bow to their dictation and leadership. This whole crew of corrupt demagogues should be hurled down to destruction and made to bite the dust. This is the first duty to be performed by an intelligent people, and in this laudable enterprise please count us in.

☞ It is again rumored from Washington that the forts at the South are to be reinforced or retaken. We are told that several war steamers will land at Fort Sumter, and also at Fort Moultrie, which is to be carried by assault. We shall believe this when it is officially declared. The sending of troops to Charleston would be the opening of war. We cannot think that Mr. Lincoln will elect so to commence his administration—says the Newburyport Herald.

SENSIBLE TALK.—A few days ago, Mr. Howard, representative from Michigan, said in a speech:

When the madness of the hour shall pass away; when this excitement shall have disappeared; when men shall look at these things coolly, they will denounce this whole movement as the most causeless revolt to be found in the history of the world. There has been nothing like it since Lucifer and his angels were thrown over the battlements of heaven. There is no foundation for it. There are no difficulties here which might not be settled; and, in my judgment, they ought to be settled.

NEW YORK, March 11.—The Tribune Washington dispatch says it is reported that Maj. Ben McCullock is preparing for a descent upon the northern provinces of Mexico, with the intention of annexing them to Texas.

Georgre G. Fogg of New Hampshire has been tenderdd the position of Commissioner of Patents.

Eli Thayer is urged to accept the Governorship of New Mexico.

Thomas P. Scott of Connecticut has been appointed Chief Clerk of the Post Office Department.

NEW ORLEANS, Mar. 6—The convention has adopted an ordinance to transfer certain funds to the government of the confederated States, now in the hands of the State.

A dispatch from Montgomery says that the revenue laws have been adjusted by a regulation of the Treasury Department, so as to avoid any prejudice to the steamboat interest.

NEW YORK, Mar. 9.—A special dispatch says that a messenger reported that Fort Sumter, on Tuesday last, had only salt provisions enough for fifteen days, only a small quantity of vegetables, and supplies of all kinds were getting low. Fresh meats, however, were still procurable at Charleston.

THE KING OF DAHOMEY AT HIS OLD WORK.—Five Thousand Human Beings Sacrificed.—Another of those horrible massacres, which are a disgrace to humanity, has recently taken place at Dahomey, West Africa. * * * *

It must be a fearful crime to reduce (?) such elevated specimens of humanity as are above described, to the degraded condition of Southern slaves! The Abolitionists should at once commence the work of elevating the poor down trodden slave to the enviable condition of these "native freemen" who have never been cursed with white masters.—Portland Argus.

GALVESTON, Mar. 8.—The convention on the 4th inst. declared Texas out of the Union, and Gov. Houston immediately issued a proclamation to that effect. Incomplete returns give a large secession majority. Ordinances have been passed authorizing delegates to represent Texas in the provisional government. Vessels of the federal government sent to Texas will not be seized. Gov. Houston, it is said, will not resign, or take the oath of allegiance to the State. The convention is discussing a treason ordinance. Col. Ben. McCulloch has sent a detachment to guard the upper forts.

HAVE YOU ENEMIES?—Go straight on, and don't mind them. If they get in your way, walk round them regardless of their spite.

LATE WASHINGTON ITEMS.

WASHINGTON, March 9.—[Despatch to the Traveller.]—Endeavors have been made here and at New York, to raise funds for the Southern Confederacy, but the bankers had no money to loan on such securities as were offered.

Letters bearing the new Florida postage stamps, have been received here, but they have all been sent to the "Dead Letter Office."

Evidence has been received which shows that Gen. Twiggs, in addition to being a traitor, most basely deceived all the officers under him. If he had resisted the demands of Texas, his whole force there would have stood by him till the last. All the troops now there have been ordered North, and all in New Mexico have been ordered to Washington.

No fears are entertained of the floating battery, as two shots will sink it with all on board. All the vessels of the Pacific and Mediterranean squadrons have been ordered home, to assist in collecting the revenue. If the Southern Commissioners are not recognized by President Lincoln, Gen. Beauregard will be ordered by Davis to take Fort Sumter as soon as possible.

The Postmaster General, for the convenience of Northern merchants, will continue the mail service in the seceded States as far as practicable. Several applications from seceded States for postmasterships have been made.

WASHINGTON, Mar. 9.—The Charleston Courier says the works in the harbor have made formidable progress under Gen. Beauregard. Three soldiers, whose enlistment had expired, left Fort Sumter on Wednesday for New York.

WASHINGTON, March 10.—The Cabinet meeting last night was on subjects other than appointments.

The Southern forts now held by federal troops engaged the attention yesterday of Gen. Scott and other high functionaries.

From information recently received, there is much disaffection in the army, even on the frontier.

The pressure yesterday for office was much larger on the Postmaster General than on any other person.

Mr. Seward will resume his duties tomorrow.

Several more resignations in the army have taken place.

Perley says, under date of Washington, Sunday, March 10—there is reason to believe that Major Anderson, being short of provisions, will be ordered to evacuate Fort Sumter, and that Lieutenant Slemmer will be ordered away from Fort Pickens. This conciliatory policy is but the carrying out of the ideas of Secretary Seward.

The Republican Senators have decided to make changes in the officers of that body.

It has been ascertained that over one hundred men, many of them old soldiers or marines, have been quietly enlisted here during the present week, and sent to the army of the Confederated States by the remitting agents located at Baltimore.

The seceded Southern members continue to claim their packages of seeds and cuttings, which are sent to them.

Under date of Monday, March 11:

The reasons assigned for evacuating Fort Sumter are that while Major Anderson's provisions are nearly exhausted, it is certain that the fortifications which have been thrown up to command the fort are so formidable that 10,000 men would be required to invest them with a certainty of being successful; but the President has not even 1000 men at his command, unless he withdraws the troops from here and the forts in Virginia and Florida.

Maj. Anderson, having defied an attack until his provisions gave out, can now retire with the honors of war, and then the Government can proceed with any plan that may be determined upon for collecting the revenue, without the embarrassing influence of this useless fort. Besides, it will defeat the desire of the secessionists to precipitate hostilities, and the step will be regarded as conciliatory by the border States.

The New York Herald's Washington correspondent says leading Democrats declare that the evacuation of Fort Sumter would be a master stroke of policy.

The Times' correspondent says "leading secessionists say that if Lincoln withdraws the troops from Fort Sumter, secession is dead and its leaders ruined.

The notorious Wigfall has had his face slapped by Capt. Jackson of Ky. for abusing Mr. Crittenden, and a duel was anticipated, but Wigfall apologized, and there will be no duel.

Lt. F. L. Childs of Me. has resigned his commission, and entered the army of the Confederated States as Colonel.

RICHMOND, VA., March 10.—The majority report of the Committee on Federal Relations recommends the border States to hold a conference to determine their future action, and oppose coercion. A minority report by Ex-Governor Wise, requests the States to give an answer by October next to certain demands, and that in the meantime every step should be taken to preserve the peace, the government retaining only sufficient force in the forts to protect them, and neither the government nor the seceded States to commence hostilities. Another minority report, with three signatures attached to it, is for the passage of a secession ordinance by the convention. Still another report says that government should immediately adopt measures to afford the people of the slaveholding States their full constitutional rights, &c., and recommends that commissioners be sent to confer with the confederated States.

☞ At the Kittery town election, Monday, the following officers were elected:—Moderator, John L. Lawrence; Town Clerk, John Rogers; Selectmen, Jas. Phillbrick, Joshua H. Sanborn, Joseph Frisbee; Town Treasurer, Jos. D. Parker; Town Agent, Warrington Paul; School Committee, Dennis M. Shapleigh, Howard Cutts;—all Republicans.

INTEREST.—It is a law among the Japanese, that he who lends them cash in this world, will receive in the next world the capital and ten per cent. at simple interest. Exchange.

Who has got a few thousands to "lend," on those conditions? Or they may charge even twenty per cent. "in the next world."

☞ The Herald states that "Moses S. Little, the well known keeper of the livery stable, in Newburyport, has arranged to become proprietor of the Merimack House. He has the energy to put through any of his undertakings, and all the qualification for a landlord of a first class hotel."

THE PEACE PROPOSITIONS.—Gov. Ellis of North Carolina has stated that he would as soon see the Chicago Platform inserted in the constitution, as the Peace Conference plan. Notwithstanding the plan was not adopted, the people of North Carolina, though far from the border, have concluded to stay a while longer in the Union.

☞ In the Bonaparte-Patterson case, in Paris, the Court declared that the demands of Madame Elizabeth Patterson, and her son, Jerome Bonaparte, are not admissible, and must be rejected; and further sentenced the claimants to pay the costs.

☞ A dispatch was received in New York on Sunday, stating that the Governor of Georgia has attached all the stock owned by northern men in the Macon and Western Railroad, amounting to millions of dollars.

☞ The Alabama convention has adopted an ordinance transferring all its authorities to the confederated States—also transferring all the arms, munitions, &c., taken from the United States, to the confederacy.

☞ The Portland Post Office has an increase of force on account of the reinstatement of the office as a distributing office.

If a ship is of the feminine gender, why are not fighting vessels called women-of-war instead of men of war?

WISTAR'S BALSAM WILD CHERRY.

In the whole history of medical discoveries, NO REMEDY has performed so many or such remarkable cures of the Throat, Lungs and Chest,—of Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, or of Consumption itself, as this far-famed, long-tried and justly celebrated Balsam. It is generally acknowledged is the cape for excellence of this remedy, that but few of the many who have tested its virtues by experience fail to keep it at hand, as a speedy and certain cure for sudden attacks of Cold—fully believing that its remedial powers are comprehensive enough to embrace every form of disease, from the slightest cold to the most dangerous symptom of pulmonary complaint.

George W. Millet, Esq.

Editor of the Norway Advertiser, gives his opinion of this great remedy substantially as follows:

NORWAY VILLAGE, Me., Aug 4, 1860.

Messrs. S. W. Fowle & Co.—Gentlemen:—For a remedy of such undoubted merit as DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, I cheerfully give you my testimony, and trust that others may be induced thereby to give it a trial and be relieved. Several years since I first became acquainted with this Balsam at a time of distressing cough and cold, which took such firm hold of my lungs as to render me unfit for business, and its operation produced a speedy and permanent cure, after trying various other remedies in vain

In our town this remedy is a great favorite with many, and if all who suffer will but give it a fair trial, I think they will find it to be of more service in pulmonary affections than any other remedy of this class before the public.

Yours respectfully. GEO. W. MILLET.

STRONG TESTIMONY.

HEIMSTREET'S IMIMITABLE

HAIR RESTORATIVE.

The following is a sample of many letters daily received by W. E. HAGAN & Co., Troy, N. Y., who are the Manufacturers and Proprietors of "HEIMSTREET'S HAIR RESTORATIVE," an article of which many of our first citizens speak as being the cheapest and best Hair Preparation which has ever been introduced in our market. A combination of Stimulating Spirits and Oil, affording an agreeable Hair Dressing, leaving the scalp perfectly free from dandruff, and causing the Hair to have a rich glossy appearance. Two articles in one. A fine "Hair Dressing," and a never-failing Restorative for the Bald and Gray.—Read the following letter:

ST. LOUIS, MO., June, 1859.

MR. HENRY REYNOLDS,—Dear Sir:—I hereby certify that my hair having become gray, I used, at your request, HEIMSTREET'S IMMITABLE HAIR RESTORATIVE, (prepared by W. E. HAGAN & Co., Troy, N. Y.,) for several weeks. My hair was in that time restored to its original color, with all its luxuriance and beauty; and I will be much pleased to recommend the article, personally, on any and every occasion, as I know it has merits that the Proprietors do not claim for it in their circulars. Respectfully yours,

Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers!

This extraordinary preparation has been for many years the most certain and speedy remedy for Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, Influenza, and Diseases of the Chest and Lungs. To those suffering from obstinate and confirmed Coughs, they give the most immediate and perfect relief; and when great liability to take cold exists, and a troublesome Cough succeeds the slightest exposure, these Wafers produce the most marked results. They at once relieve the Cough and other symptoms, and entirely remove that morbid irritability and weakness of the Lungs which give rise to the complaint. The medical properties are combined in an agreeable form, and so pleasant to the taste, so that any child will readily take them; and they are warranted to give relief in ten minutes after use in all cases.

For the Chronicle.

THE FACTS.—Messrs. Editors:—The Journal of last week contains an account of the speech of Dr. Frank Fuller, at New Castle, which seems to have been principally devoted to the praise of Hon. Gilman Marston, for his attempts to procure a new fort to be built at the mouth of our harbor. This great praise of Mr. Marston for his patriotic efforts to obtain the aid of Congress for the protection of our harbor, is entirely undeserved by him; and the statements made by the eloquent gentlemen in his speech at New Castle, are not supported by the facts.

There have been two surveys for a new fort at New Castle, by order of the War Department—the last of which was made early in the year 1858, at least a year before Mr. Marston was elected to Congress.—Some part of the work requiring verification, an examination of the last survey was made by officers of the engineer corps in the summer of 1859—which was after Mr. Marston's election, but before that gentle- took his seat in Congress. The high compliment to Mr. Marston, and the zeal exhibited by the eloquent orator in favor of Old Abe, originates in a regard as high as that displayed by the Western gentleman who was "running for the post office," and endeavored to make capital by the presentation of apples to the President elect.

The affection of Mr. Marston for Portsmouth and its vicinity, is best shown by his successful efforts to prevent the Courts of the United States, now partially but unnecessarily holden at Exeter, from being holden in the new Court House recently built by the Government in this city. JUSTICE.

☞ The seventh lecture of the series by ministers, on temperance, was delivered on Sunday evening, to an audience which crowded the Temple as usual, and which was more than ordinarily attentive, the voice of the speaker being easily heard in all parts of the house.

The particular subject was Home Influence, as a means of preserving boys and young men from falling into intemperance and kindred vices, if the influences were active and healthy—and as the means of sending them from home, and into temptation and vices, if such influences are negligent, unwatchful or cold.

☞ There was an alarm of fire at the South End, on Sunday evening, about 7 o'clock, occasioned by the chimney of a house in Pickering street taking fire.—One engine (Granite State No. 1,) was promptly on hand, but, like the Irishman and the skunk, when they got where the fire was, it wasn't there, so they retraced their steps, and attended the temperance meeting at the Temple. ☞ The Dover Gazette says that H. H. Champion of that city, made a bet a short time ago, that if the stars and stripes did not float over the public buildings of South Carolina before the 5th of March, he would draw a hose carriage from Dover to Portsmouth, a distance of eighteen miles. As he lost, he promises to perform the feat as soon as the travelling is good, and will probably claim to be the Champion hose-man.

NO POISON IN SPIRITUOUS LIQUORS.—In a communication to The Boston Medical and Surgical Journal, Dr. Hayes, State Assayer of Massachusetts, states that he has made a somewhat extended series of analytical observation on spirits, and in no case had he found that any deleterious body had been added by manufacturers to distilled liquors.

VENTILATION.—If fresh air finds its way into offices and dwellings through the crevices by which the dust poured in yesterday—the buildings of Boston are better ventilated than most people have supposed them to be. Some carpets were so well covered as to tempt the inmates of the houses to plant a crop of early vegetables. Transcript, Friday.

HELPER PLAYED OUT.—Hinton Rowan Helper, whose infamous book has done more mischief than any other publication, proposed to lecture at Dayton, Ohio, on Monday last. GARDINER'S
RHEUMATIC AND NEURALGIA
COMPOUND;

Is a certain, safe and permanent cure for Rheumatism, Neuralgia and Salt Rheum. It is an internal remedy, driving out and entirely eradicating the disease, requiring no change in diet or business, and may be taken by children and persons of the most delicate constitutions with perfect safety.

TESTIMONIALS.

Having been a constant sufferer from Neuralgia for eighteen months, and been driven by excruciating pain to the trial of numberless remedies without obtaining relief, I was induced to try "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound." I have taken but one bottle, and am entirely well." D. D. BAXTER, Dry Goods Dealer, No. 5 Appleton Block, Lowell, Mass.

I have been afflicted with Salt Rheum in its worst form for a long time, and suffered more than can be imagined, except by those similarly afflicted. I tried one bottle of your Compound, and can honestly say that I believe myself entirely cured.—JOHN A. MORDO, Pearl St. House, Boston, Mass.

Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has entirely relieved me from sufferings of several years' standing.—W. E. HODGKINS, No. 1 Old State House, Boston.

My son, ten years of age, has been for three years a great sufferer from Salt Rheum, his hands covered with sores, and in constant pain. One bottle of your Compound cured him.—J. W. HAMMOND, 99 Milk street, Boston.

I certify that my friend, Wm. T. Glidden, Esq., presented me with a bottle of "Gardiner's Rheumatic Compound," in 1856, when I was suffering, with a painful attack of Neuralgia and Rheumatism, and that it proved to be of decided benefit.—ALBERT SMITH, Ex-Member of Congress from Maine.

TESTIMONY OF JUDGE KITTREDGE OF VERMONT.—Charles F. Gardiner, Esq.,—Dear Sir,—I beg leave to add my testimony in favor of "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound."—After suffering twenty years with Rheumatism, more or less, and last year with a very severe attack, I took one bottle of your Compound, which afforded decided relief. I think it the best and most efficacious medicine for that disease I ever used.—WM. C. KITTREDGE, Fair Haven, Vt., Dec. 1st, 1860.

The Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has been taken by hundreds of persons for Scrofulous Humors with great benefit.

LIFE INSURANCE.

"IN THE MIDST OF LIFE WE ARE IN DEATH."

The strong man often falters, and falls in the midst of the hurry and business of life. The wise man maketh provision for those whom he loveth, against the liability to accident and death.

THE
MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE CO.
Of New York,
with an accumulated capital of over
SEVEN MILLION DOLLARS,

Invested at seven per cent. on bond and mortgage loans in the City and State of New York, upon Real Estate worth double the amount loaned thereon, issues

POLICIES on lives, payable to the wife, or to the legal representative of the person insured.

POLICIES payable to the person insured, on his attaining the age of 50, 60 or 70; or to his representative in case of decease before attaining this age.

PREMIUMS may be paid, quarterly, semi-annually, or annually, at the option of the insured.

The long experience of this excellent institution, like the one hundred years' experience of the great Equitable Life Insurance Co. of London, and other kindred institutions, proves their stability and perpetuity when established upon the right principle. Investments made with them have proved more remunerative than with Savings Banks.

The time is near, when to protect one's family from the loss and want often attendant upon the death of its provider, will be as universal as it is now to protect ourselves from loss by fire.

No reflecting man can sit at his fireside with his young family about him, and feel at ease:—when he knows that if death should take him from them, they would be cast upon a selfish world, without the means for education or support, which he can easily provide for them thro' a life policy.

Having been appointed
SOLE AGENT IN PORTSMOUTH
for the sale of the celebrated and unrivalled Noiseless
GROVER & BAKER
FAMILY AND MANUFACTURING
Sewing Machines,
would invite especial attention to the same.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE makes the only seam formed by a Sewing Machine, in which each stitch is independently locked, and without dependence on other stitches for strength, and the only seam that will admit of the thread being cut at every fourth stitch without injury to the seam in wear.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE is adapted to all varieties of fabrics, sewing equally well the finest Swiss Muslin or the heaviest cloth or leather, and requiring no adjustment for any kind of sewing other than the adaptation of needles and thread.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE sews from ordinary spools without rewinding, and fastens its own seams, thereby saving time and thread It will sew common spool cotton, silk and linen thread with equal facility.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE is so simple that an intelligent child of ten years can readily learn to operate it. It is more easily kept in order than any other machine, and need not be taken apart to be oiled.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE makes the only stitch that cannot be injured by washing and ironing, and the only stitch that forms an elastic and durable seam. Fabrics put together with this stitch may wear out and drop to pieces from original weakness, or hard usage, but come apart or give way at the seams, they cannot; they will hold together when the cloth or calico around them hangs in rags and tatters.

A Dog Story.—The Gloucester Telegraph tells the story of a dog who is in the habit of making himself comfortable among the buffalo robes whenever his master leaves his sleigh. The other day, it being unusually cold, the robes were thrown over the horse, and Skip, the dog, was left to bare boards and cold weather. Skip thought it rather hard, but, not to be treated out of his buffalo skin, leaped upon the horse's back, where, rotating himself two or three times as dogs are wont, he settled himself for a cosy siesta, which he enjoyed to his own apparent satisfaction, and to the great amusement of those who witnessed the performance.

Missing Man Found Dead.—Mr. Carlos Clark, who has been missing from his home in Northfield, N. H., was found dead in the snow in that town. Several girls were sliding down hill when, they saw something which they supposed to be bare ground, and going towards it with the intention of running upon the same, discovered the dead body of Mr. Clark. Eleven dollars were found in his clothing. He was a talented young man, but was probably ruined by excessive drinking.—Mirror.

CATHARTIC

PILLS.

Are you sick, feeble, and complaining? Are you out of order, when your system requires a cathartic? These symptoms are often the prelude to serious illness. Nine-tenths of sickness is creeping upon you, and should be averted by a timely use of the right remedy. Take Ayer's Pills, and cleanse out the disordered humors—purify the blood, and let the fluids move on unobstructed to health again. Ayer's Pills stimulate the functions of the body into vigorous activity, purify the system from the obstructions which make disease. A cold settles somewhere in the body, and obstructs its natural functions. These, if not relieved, react upon themselves and the surrounding organs, producing general aggravation, suffering, and disease. While in this condition, oppressed by the derangements, take Ayer's Pills, and see how directly they restore the natural action of the system, and with it the buoyant feeling of health again. What is true and so apparent in this trivial and common complaint, is also true in many of the deep-seated and dangerous distempers. The same purgative effect expels them. Caused by similar obstructions and derangements of the natural functions of the body, they are rapidly, and many of them surely, cured by the same means. None who know the virtues of these Pills will neglect to employ them when suffering from the disorders they cure.

Statements from leading physicians in some of the principal cities, and from other well known public persons

From a Forwarding Merchant of St. Louis, Feb. 4, 1856.

Dr. Ayer: Your Pills are the paragon of all that is great in medicine. They have cured my little daughter of ulcerous sores upon her hands and feet that had proved incurable for years. Her mother has been long grievously afflicted with blotches and pimples on her skin and to her hair. After one child was cured, she also tried your Pills, and they have cured her.

ASA MORGRIDGE.

As a Family Physic.

From Dr. E. W. Ostherhjit, New Orleans.

Your Pills are the prince of physics. Their excellent qualities surpass any cathartic we possess. They are mild, but very certain and effectual in their action on the bowels, which makes them invaluable to us in the daily treatment of disease.

Headache, Sick Headache, Foul Stomach.

From Dr. Edward Boyd, Baltimore.

Dear Sir, Ayer: I cannot answer you what complaint I have cured with your Pills better than to say all that is cure treat with a purgative medicine. I place great dependence on an effectual cathartic in my daily contest will disease, and believing as I do that your Pills afford us the best we have, I of course value them highly.

Pittsburg, Pa., May 1, 1855.

Dr. J. C. Ayer. Sir: I have been repeatedly cured of the worst headache any body can have by a dose or two of your Pills. It seems to arise from a foul stomach which they cleanse at once.

Yours with great respect, ED. W. PREBLE, Clerk of Steamer Clarion.

Bilious Disorders—Liver Complaints.

From Dr. Theodore Bell, of New York City.

Not only are your Pills admirably adapted to their purpose as purgative, but I find in them some peculiar effects upon the Liver very marked indeed. They have in my practice the proved more effectual for the cure of bilious complaints than any one remedy I am acquainted. I sincerely rejoice that we have at length a purgative which is worthy the confidence of the profession and the people.

Department of the Interior, Washington, D. C., Feb. 18, 1855.

Sir: I have used your Pills in my general and hospital practice ever since you made them, and cannot hesitate to say they are the best cathartic we employ. Their regulating action on the liver is quick and decided, consequently they are an admirable remedy for derangements of that organ. Indeed, I have seldom found a case of bilious disease so obstinate that it did not readily yield to them. Fraternally yours, ALONZO BALL, M. D., Physician of the Marine Hospital.

Dysentery, Diarrhœa, Rheumatism, Worms.

From Dr. J. G. Cooper, of Chicago.

Your Pills have had a long trial in my practice, and I hold them in esteem as one of the best aperients I have ever found. Their alterative effect upon the liver makes them an excellent remedy, when given in small doses, in bilious dysentery and diarrhœa. Their sugar-coating makes them very acceptable and convenient for the use of women and children.

Dyspepsia, Impurity of the Blood.

From Rev. J. V. Himes, Pastor of Advent Church, Boston.

Dr. Ayer: I have used your Pills with extraordinary success in my family and among those I am called to visit in Boston. To regulate the organs of digestion, and purify the blood, they are the very best remedy I have ever known, and I can cordially recommend them to my friends.

Yours, J. V. HIMES.

Warsaw, Wyoming Co., N. Y., Oct. 24, 1855.

Dear Sir: I am using your Cathartic Pills in my practice, and find them an excellent purgative to cleanse the system and purify the humors of the blood. I recommend no other to my patients.

From the Rev. Dr. Hendee, of the Methodist Episc. Church

Pulaski House, Savannah, Ga., Jan. 5, 1856.

Honored Sir: I should be ungrateful for the relief your skill has brought me if I did not report anyone in my case. A cold settled in my limbs and brought on excruciating rheumatic pains, which yielded to no other treatment. Notwithstanding I had the best of physicians, the disease grew worse and worse, until by the advice of your excellent agent in Baltimore, Dr. Mackenzie, I tried your Pills. They effects were slow, but sure. By persevering in the use of them, I am now entirely well.

Senate Chamber, Baton Rouge, La., 8 Dec., 1854.

Dr. Ayer: I have been entirely cured, by your Pills, of Rheumatic Gout—a painful disease that had afflicted me for years. VINCENT SLIDELL.

Agt—Most of the Pills in market contain Mercury, which, although a valuable remedy in skillful hands is dangerous in a public pill, from the dreadful consequences that frequently follow its incautious use. These contain no mercury or mineral substance whatever.

Price, 25 cents per Box, or 5 Boxes for $1.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass.

MOTHERS

It must be obvious not only to you, but to every attentive and intelligent person, that the first diseases of infants arise chiefly from a disordered condition of their bowels, and in this connection, we present to your notice, for the alleviation and cure of these diseases, a remedy known as

Dr. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL,

Prepared from a formula used by Dr. Eaton with remarkable success during several years' practice. We know it to be a most reliable and efficacious remedy for infantile complaints, and one trial alone will convince you of its superiority over every other preparation of the kind. It is particularly recommended

FOR CHILDREN TEETHING,

And at this period of infantile life, when your anxious hearts are pained by witnessing the sufferings of your little ones, it will be found invaluable in Softening the Gums, Reducing Inflammation and Relaxing the Pulse. FOR DISEASES ATTENDING TEETHING, such as Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Griping in the Bowels, Acidity of the Stomach, Wind, Colic, and Costiveness, Heat, etc. we confidently offer this as a certain relief and cure in every case when given in time. It will invariably regulate the stomach and bowels, and its importance in this respect can hardly be estimated.

IN CONVULSIONS,

From which more infants are said to die than from any other disease, this little cordial is relieved instantaneously, as if by magic; and in this dread complaint alone, its intrinsic value is such that it has been recommended from one family to another, until the name of DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL has become "familiar as a household word." We now simply call your attention to a subject of vital interest to yourself, as well as to your suffering child. DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL contains

NO MORPHINE OR OPIATE,

Of any kind, or of whatever nature, a fact which we are fully warranted in saying cannot be said of any other preparation for infantile diseases, at this time before the public. We find that throughout this country, Mothers are becoming convinced of this truth, and of the sad and blighting consequences which are certain to result from the use of narcotics disguised in the form of quieting remedies, their continued administration being invariably followed by constipation and congestion of the bowels, ending oftentimes in convulsions. Here in DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL all fears from every other remedy, is

DOES NOT CONSTIPATE

The Bowels, neither does it act by deadening the sensibilities of your children, but naturally, from its rare medicinal qualities, by removing all pain and cause of disease. We earnestly recommend you, therefore, to lose no time in procuring a bottle, that you may have at hand a remedy which will never fail to relieve your child in time of need. It is perfectly harmless, and cannot injure the most delicate infant.

Take none but DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL. This you can rely upon. Price 25 cts per bottle.

PROFESSOR WOOD'S

HAIR RESTORATIVE!

SEE WHAT OTHERS SAY OF IT.

A Distinguished St. Louis Physician Writes:

St. Louis July 10, 1860.

O. J. WOOD, Esq.—Dear Sir:—Allow me the pleasure and satisfaction of transmitting to you the wonderful effects of your Hair Restorative, after a trial of 5 years. I commenced using your Restorative in January, 1855, since which time I have not been without a bottle on hand. When I commenced the use, my hair was quite thin, and at least one third gray. A few applications stopped its falling, and in three weeks there was not a gray hair to be found, neither has there been up to this time.

After my hair was completely restored, I continued its use by applying two or three times a month. My hair has ever continued healthy, soft and glossy, and as gray scarcely free from dandruff. I do not imagine the facts above mentioned will be of any particular advantage to you, or even flatter your vanity, at this late day, but I am well aware they are all well known already, and even more wonderful ones throughout the Union. I have occupied my time in travelling greater portion of the past ten or twelve years, and have taken pleasure in recommending your Restorative, and its satisfactory effects, in my own case, in several instances I have met with people who pronounced it a humbug; saying they had used it without effect. In every instance, however, it proved, by probing the matter, that they had not used your article at all, but had used some other article, said to be as good, and selling at about half the price. I have bottled two or three articles myself advertised as above, which I have no doubt are humbugs. It is astonishing that people will patronize an article of no reputation, when there is one at hand that has been proved beyond a doubt.

Apparently, some of these charlatans have not brains enough to write an advertisement, as I notice they have copied yours, word for word, in several instances, merely inserting some name in place of yours.

I have, within the past five years, seen and talked with more than two thousand persons that have used your preparation with perfect success—some for baldness, gray hair, scald head, dandruff, and every disease the scalp and head are subject to.

I called to see you, personally, at your original place of business, but learned you were now living in New York.

You are at liberty to publish this, or to refer parties to me. Any communication addressed to me, care box No. 1520, will be promptly answered. Yours truly, JAMES WHITE, M. D.

Wood's Hair Restorative has acquired a reputation from actual test and experiment which cannot be enhanced by newspaper puffs. In our neighborhood it has been extensively used and we believe in every case with every desired result, and receives the universal indorsement of all who have tried it. We therefore recommend it as one of those few genuine nostrums which accomplish all they profess, and all that any quack good could desire.—Columbus Spy.

Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative.—In another column will be found an advertisement of this well known and excellent preparation for restoring gray hair to its original color. The Hair Restorative also cures cutaneous eruptions, and prevents the hair from falling off. We have seen many authentic testimonials in proof of these assertions, some of which are from gentlemen whom we have known for many years as persons of the most reliable character. Don't dye till you have tried the Restorative.—Boston Olive Branch.

Wood's Hair Restorative.—We are not in the habit of puffing every new discovery, for in nine cases out of ten they are quack nostrums;—but we take great pleasure in recommending Prof. Wood's article to all whose hair is falling off or turning gray. Our well known contributor, Tinley Johnson, Esq., has experienced the benefit of its application, and joins with us in speaking of its virtues. We all try it, and bald heads will be as rare as snow in summer.—Baltimore Patriot.

Wood's Hair Restorative.—Unlike most specifics, this is proved, by unimpeachable evidence, to possess great efficacy as a preserver of the hair to its pristine vigor. Where the head has become almost bald because of sickness, the use of this article has produced a beautiful growth of thick, glossy hair. It is therefore a valuable preparation for all classes. Its ingredients are such as to effectually eradicate dandruff and other impurities which operate so injuriously to the hair. It also has curative powers of another description. In many cases pimples and other disfigurements of the skin disappear wherever it is used. There is no hazard attaching to the trial of this remedy, and its effects can only be beneficial, as the compound, if it does not cause a manifest improvement, is incapable of doing harm, as its components are perfectly innocuous.—Boston Transcript, April 22, 1859.

Warren Springs, Perry Co., Pa., June, 7, '60.

Prof. Wood:—Dear Sir:—I was induced more than a year ago to try your valuable Hair Restorative to clean my head of dandruff. I had suffered from it for years and had never been able to get anything to do me any good. Seeing your advertisement in a Harrisburgh paper, I bought a bottle, and am now prepared to recommend it to universal sale, for it completely removed all dandruff from my head, and an application once in two weeks keeps it free from itching and other annoyances. I must also state that my hair had become quite white in places, and by the use of your preparation, has been restored to its original color. I am now 60 years of age, and although I have used two bottles of the Restorative, no one has any knowledge of it, as I allow a few gray hairs to remain, in order to have an appearance comport with my age. My head is now of less trouble to me in keeping it clean, &c., than at any time since I have been a child. I consider your preparation of great value, and, although I do not like to expose myself, I consider it my duty to make it known. You can use this, or any part of it, in any shape you think proper, if it is worth anything to you. Yours, &c., H. H. ETTER.

All Hair Dyes Abandoned—Wood's Great Article in the Field.—Prof. Wood stands on an eminence no chemist, whose attention has been turned to inventing a hair tonic, has ever before reached. His fame is world-wide, and thousands who have worn wigs or been bald for years, are now, through the use of his preparation, enjoying a healthy natural and luxuriant head covering. So much for chemistry. Prof. Wood studied out the human hair, its properties, its disease, and how to restore its decayed vitality; he saw, as in his own case, that gray hair is unnatural unless the age of the individual had reached fourteen, and he believed that the hair could be restituted. He tried his own case—almost bald and wholly gray at 37—he restored his own hair—and the article he did it with he gave to the world. Get WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE, and take nothing else.—N. Y. Day Book.

SOUTH CAROLINA TRADE.—The steamer South Carolina arrived at Boston from Charleston Saturday morning, bringing a full cargo of cotton and rice—1600 bales of cotton and 200 casks of rice—said to be one of the largest ever sent out of Charleston in a steamer. Several traders who went out in this steamship for the purpose of engaging in traffic there, carrying with them a large quantity of shoes, returned in the same steamer, not succeeding as well as they expected. After arriving at Charleston, these articles were taxed 25 per cent., in accordance with a law of the State, which forbids all but residents from establishing themselves as merchants. The goods were seized, but after suitable representations to the authorities, were restored to their owners, who returned with them to Boston, having been obliged to pay the freight both ways without having disposed of their merchandize.—Atlas.

A PARK FALLING IN.—Last fall the city of Roxbury purchased a lot of marsh land on Ruggles street, to fill up and lay out as a park. While filling it up, however, with gravel, it was found that in a certain part all the gravel which was carted on immediately sunk; and though for several days it has been brought on at the rate of 600 or 700 loads a day, nearly all has disappeared from sight.

MILLIONS OF VULGAR PEOPLE.—The Charleston Mercury says of Mr. Lincoln's Inaugural:—

If ignorance could add anything to folly, or insolence to brutality, the President of the Northern States of America has, in this address, achieved it. But the positions assumed and the sentiments uttered by him are but what all men had a right to expect. He but represents millions of equally fanatical, ignorant, presumptuous and vulgar people.

☞ At Richmond, Va., on Saturday last Hon. Wm. C. Rives addressed a large meeting on the subject of the peace conference propositions. He spoke in favor of conciliation, and denounced secession.—There was much enthusiasm manifested.

☞ President Lincoln's inaugural was received in Fayetteville, Arkansas, March 9th. Immediately after its reception, the secessionists called a meeting to instruct the delegates to the convention, from Fayetteville, to go for secession. The meeting was held, but a majority of those present being Union men, it was adjourned, amid great enthusiasm for the stars and stripes.

John Quincy Adams asserted that the "abandonment of tobacco would add five years to the average of human life." The Indians formerly poisoned their arrows with a decoction of tobacco; and soldiers in the United States army shirk duty by wearing tobacco under their arms, thus causing symptoms of illness.

☞ Some time since, a negro was hung for murder in Baltimore. He protested his innocence, but in vain—the gibbet got him. A negro died in that city recently, who declared on his death bed that he committed the murder for which Cyphus suffered, and that Cyphus was innocent.

The humorous and clever N. Y. correspondent of the Hartford Times, apropos to "theaytres," says Miss Cushman has succeeded in making herself a celebrated woman, but nature had a very narrow miss of it in not making her a very ordinary man. She is intensely masculine; so much so that in her struggle with the ruffian, Bill Sykes, who murders her, those who did not know the story would bet six to one against Bill.

☞ Among the passengers by the Northern Light, are Chang and Eng, the Siamese twins, who have been exhibiting themselves in California. They are accompanied by two of their children.

Spurgeon sometimes comes out with a good thing; "Brethren" said he, "if God had referred the Ark to a committee on naval affairs, it's my opinion it wouldn't have been built yet."

☞ A raving lunatic in an asylum in California, was restored to reason by seeing her father, from whom she had long been separated.

Courting is an irregular, active, transitive verb, indicative mood, present tense, third person, singular number, and agrees with all the girls—don't it?

☞ A bill has been introduced into the N. Y. Assembly, forbidding the use of carpbene in hotels and boarding houses.

For President in 1864—Rarey. His election would secure what we seem to want very badly at present,—a stable government.

SOME FISH.—A halibut brought into Gloucester, last week, weighed, when dressed, 180 lbs.

Portsmouth, N. H.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 13, 1861.

THE STATE ELECTION.

New Hampshire Election for State and County Officers, Legislature, and three Representatives to Congress, took place on Tuesday, in fine weather.

From the returns which follow, we infer that the Republican party have generally prevailed by a majority something like that of March 1860.

We give below, all the returns we could procure, up to midnight, by telegraph, mail, and otherwise.

VOTES FOR GOVERNOR.

	Stark.	Berry.
Portsmouth	720	727
Newington	72	38
Hampton Falls	42	75
Greenland	59	81
Seabrook	110	161
Hampton	129	139
Newcastle	81	67

Rye, 25 dem. majority reported.

Concord	885	1362
Manchester	974	1509
Nashua	856	908
Dover	601	860

Berry's majority will probably be upwards of 4000.

In Dover, Marston had 874 votes, and Marsy 589. Majority for Marston, 285.

?? o'clock, midnight.

Returns from 102 towns give Berry 21,889, Stark 18,012. 109 Repub. to 26 Dem. Representatives.

The vote already received indicates that the majority for Berry will be from 3500 to 4000. Rollins, repub. candidate for Congress, in 2d District, will receive from 800 to 1000 majority.

All the republican members of Congress are elected: four of the five republican Councillors—and perhaps five;—and of the 12 Senators, 9 republicans are elected.

UNANIMOUS VOTING IN TEXAS.—A surprising vote of 40 or 50,000 in Texas, for secession, came along in the papers a few days ago. Later there came an explanation of how it was done. A man in Texas, who seems to have been carried to the polls, and to be very angry about it, writes from Texas to the Hartford Courant as follows, on the day of voting on the question of secession:

The only ticket in the field reads thus, in large letters—"Let us have our rights—For Secession." You are called upon with a carriage by two rough looking fellows, and compelled to go to the polls, and when there, this is the only ticket you can present. Thus you cannot avoid sacrificing your convictions, by staying away; and if you should vote when there for anything but secession, your vote being taken no notice of, you would be told that this is not the place for you, or else be otherwise dealt with.

A letter sent from Texas to Kentucky and Tennessee, with a printed circular, shows the convention, which called for this vote, to have been gotten up by fraud of the grossest description. In Texas, there are 122 counties; and there was neither a constitutional nor a legal call for the convention, but some sixty persons met and called upon the people to elect delegates.—Nearly half the counties held no election, and were wholly unrepresented; and in many others only a few votes were polled, partial notices only being given—and the whole proceeding was considered illegal and unconstitutional.

The writer gives instances of counties in which no elections were held, having from 1023 to 1644 voters: and of those which were represented, from 50 to 300 voted, averaging of the voters from one-third to one-fifteenth.

"This irregular convention, first, passed an ordinance of secession; second, sent commissioners to the Montgomery Congress; third, passed a law to have an election, without sufficient time being given to notify half the voters of the State, and then adjourned to meet again on the 2d day of March—only one week after the proposed election. Now, with our immense territory, in mid-winter, with few mail facilities, and no telegraph lines, every man not an idiot, looks upon the whole matter as a base fraud upon the people."

Those persons who remember the swindling, bribery, corruption and lying, by which Texas came into the Union, will not wonder at any swindle by which she may go out.

Mr. Walter of Mississippi said, in 1844, "If Texas is not annexed, the South and South-West must unite with Texas."

Mr. Sedgwick, an eminent Democrat, in reply, expressed his conviction that the annexation of Texas would be fatal to the Union, and predicted exactly such a conflict of opion and action as we now see.

CLOCKS BY THE QUANTITY.—The New Haven clock company makes 686 clocks per day, or 250,000 a year. There are 150 kinds of clocks made, and each contains 400 parts. The number of rooms occupied by the workmen at this establishment is about 100. That occupied by those who paint the pictures on the glass doors is jealously guarded, as that operation is a valuable secret.

LATE WASHINGTON ITEMS.

WASHINGTON, March 12.—Gen. Scott's official opinion on the evacuation of Fort Sumter is based upon a report made by Gen. Totten, of the Engineer Corps, showing that Fort Sumter is surrounded by a concentric circle of fortifications; and also upon a report by Capt. Ward of the Navy, stating the risks and inevitable slaughter attendant upon an attempt to reinforce the fort by water.

Western Republicans are unwilling to submit to this military necessity, but no way is proposed to reinforce it with the means at the disposal of the government, before Anderson's forces would be reduced by starvation.

NEW YORK, March 12.—The Herald Washington correspondent says the Southern Commissioners will have an interview with the President to-day.

Times correspondent says Amos Tuck has been nominated for Naval Officer of Boston, and Mr. Phillips for the collectorship of Salem.

Commodore Stewart has resigned, and takes this occasion to review the proceedings of the Board which dismissed him, with much feeling. His resignation will not be accepted.

Mr. Seward has been consulted by mercantile friends as to the political prospects of the country, and gives them every encouragement that the policy of the administration is pacific.

Senator Foster of Ct. introduced the resolution to expel Wigfall without consulting Republicans, and it will not pass.

THE COTTON CONFEDERACY.—The Montgomery correspondent of the Charleston Courier says that much difficulty is experienced by the Southern Congress in framing a constitution.

Basis of representation—whether three-fifths or all the slaves shall be counted—is a hard matter to settle; and another is found in the constitution of the Senate of the new Republic. If the plan of the old Union be adopted—two Senators for each State—the balance of power in the government will be held by sixteen men only. On this latter point the correspondent asks the following pregnant question:—

May we not well tremble lest the balance of power be allotted to those who are least identified with the true feelings of the people, least sympathizing in the political opinions of the majority—estranged from the popular will, and perhaps with time biased with autocratical views, may look only to their elevation and interests! Can two men, selected as they generally are from those embued with aristocratical proclivities, properly represent a million of their fellow citizens who have no voice in their election?

This does not look as if all was fair weather down that way.

ST. LOUIS, March 11.—A resolution was passed in the convention to-day, to investigate the charge published in the Republican, that there was a secret conspiracy to force Missouri out of the Union.

A minority report was presented from the Committee on Federal Relations, proposing a convention of the border slave States to decide upon such amendments to the constitution as may be satisfactory, and advising the appointment of commissioners to Delaware, Maryland, Kentucky, Tennessee, North Carolina and Arkansas to secure their co-operation.

A debate ensued on the majority report, but the convention adjourned without taking action upon it.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., March 11.—A permanent constitution has been adopted, but is kept secret. A member of Congress says it provides that the President shall have six years; executive appointments under the grade of Cabinet are to hold their offices during good behavior; the slave trade is prohibited, and Cabinet officers are eligible to seats in Congress.

An act has passed issuing a million of dollars in treasury notes. An appropriation bill for current expenses has passed.

The Secretary of the Treasury finds no difficulty in negotiating the fifteen million loan at par.

NEW ORLEANS, March 11.—Brazos dates of the 7th says that Col. Bacchus, previously in command of Rio Grande city, was en route to take command of Fort Browne. There were no Texas troops in Brownsville, but some were hourly expected.

The report of Capt. Hill's determination to defend Fort Browne, created great excitement along the Rio Grande, and a number of State troops were on their way to Brownsville, and other companies were organizing for the same destination. The State commissioners have taken possession of the Brownsville Custom House.

RICHMOND, Va., March 11.—The convention to-day returned a vote of thanks to Mr. Crittenden for his patriotic efforts to bring about an honorable adjustment of the national difficulties.

Mr. Baldwin made a minority report from the Committee on Foreign Relation, in favor of a border State convention at Frankfort, Ky., opposing coercion, and charging the present condition of the country upon politicians.

CONGRESS.—The public session of the U. S. Senate, on Monday, was spent in discussing the resolution offered by Mr. Foster, for the expulsion of Mr. Wigfall of Texas. No question was taken on the resolution. In executive session, the Senate confirmed Robert Paine as District Attorney for Northern Ohio. The President sent in the following nominations, which were referred:—J. Z. Goodrich, Collector of Boston; George W. McLellan, Second Assistant Post Master General; Archibald Williams, District Judge of Kansas, and Wm. B. Dole of Illinois, Commissioner of Indian Affairs.

THE PROS AND CONS OF EVACUATION.—The Washington correspondent of the New York Herald says:

It appears that the actual condition of Fort Sumter is much worse than was represented by the recent administration.—The question discussed and to be settled by Mr. Lincoln and his advisers, is, whether Sumter can be reinforced, and if so, what it will cost; and thirdly, what value will it be to the service after it is reinforced?—These queries are met thus:—At the time South Carolina passed her secession ordinance, Fort Sumter could and should have been reinforced. Mr. Buchanan neglected to do so; secondly, to supply Fort Sumter with men and provisions now would require ten thousand men at least, and more naval ships than can be brought into requisition, a large expenditure of treasure, a great sacrifice of life, and the initiation of civil war; thirdly, would the administration be justified in making such reinforcement at such price, in view of the fact that such a terrible condition of affairs at Sumter is only an entailment of the Buchanan administration upon the present, and not produced by any act of the party now in power, but against its well known policy, especially inasmuch as Sumter would be of no value whatever to the government, in the present condition of affairs, if it was reinforced?

The New York Times' correspondent says:—

Gen. Scott advises that reinforcements cannot now be put in without an enormous sacrifice of life.

The general impression here on the streets is that the administration has determined on withdrawing the troops from Fort Sumter, leaving only one corporal, two men and the stars and stripes, compelling the chivalry to capture the fort after all. They have been threatening to do it for three months, and failed when there were only about seventy men in it. They may have an opportunity to accomplish it against only three.

Southern Union men express the earnest hope that the administration will pursue such a policy as will render it unnecessary to send federal troops South. If that is not done, they say the pressure brought about by secession is pushing on a reaction in the South, which will sweep the secessionists into oblivion. They fully expect to have an armed conflict in Texas, but prefer that it shall be between the Unionists and disunionists of the South. All the Union men ask is the privilege of whipping out their own traitors.

INGENIOUS ESCAPE OF A FEMALE CONVICT.—Men have the advantage of women in the boldness and bravery with which they meet dangers and overcome difficulties, but women can undoubtedly outwit men where their ends are susceptible of accomplishment by stratagem. This fact was illustrated recently at Harrisburg, by the ingenious escape of Margaret Brett, serveing out a sentence upon charges of forgery and larceny. She had displayed a great deal of shrewdness in the manner she had passed the forged checks, and was evidently no novice in crime. She had excited the interest of the keeper of the prison in her behalf, by alleging that she was conciente. In consequence of this she had been permitted more privileges in and about the buildings than she otherwise would have enjoyed. And is too often the case with the class to which she belonged, she abused the confidence placed in her, and took advantage of the kindness shown her. In going to and from the kitchen where she was put to work, she of course had many opportunities of learning all about the habits of the family, and, as the sequel will show, she made good use of her opportunities. Among those who passed the prison gate frequently during the day, was Mrs. Trueman, mother-in-law of Capt. Boyd, the jailor. A few days ago Margaret Brett was missed, and could nowhere be found. After long search and anxious inquiry it was ascertained that Margaret had fairly outwitted the jailor. She had gone into the room of the lady before mentioned, had assumed her dress, shawl, bonnet, and veil, and walking boldly to the door in the customary manner of the lady, had rapped to call the captain from his seat in the corridor. Hearing the rap, and seeing, as he believed, Mrs. Trueman standing at the door, to be let out, he of course went and, turning the key in the politest manner imaginable, bowed his prisoner Margaret out into freedom. Margaret imitated the walk, air and general carriage of Mrs. Trueman, and it being just the hour when objects can be but dimly seen in the prison, no wonder that she successfully imposed upon the wary and watchful keeper. The disguise was pefect, and she had selected the best hour of the day to carry out her design.

☞ Two foreign steamers have arrived—the Niagara at Halifax, and the Prince Albert at St. Johns—bringing European advices to the 26th ult. The political news is unimportant. In the English market, cotton had slightly advanced, closing firm—Other articles dull. In money and stocks no change to notice.

☞ The Democrats carried the municipal election in Biddeford, Me., on Monday, electing S. S. Fairfield Mayor, and a majority of the Aldermen and Councilmen.

☞ The Town Election in Kittery, as a correspondent informs us, gave republican majorities ranging from 38 to 57, showing a republican gain of about 50 from November.

DETROIT, March 11.—The House indefinitely postponed the consideration of the repeal of the personal liberty bill.

NASHVILLE, March 11.—Hon. John Bell contradicts the reported views of the inaugural and advice to Tennessee ascribed to him.

NEW YORK, March 11.—A large fire on Broadway to night destroyed the upper portions of Nos. 52 to 60 inclusive, wholesale warehouses. Damage very heavy, but particulars not ascertained.

☞ Gen. Twiggs' reception in New Orleans on the 3d inst., is described by the Delta as most triumphant. The whole city greeted him as he passed through the streets in a barouche drawn by four horses, ladies waved their kerchiefs, men cheered, &c., &c. The General made a speech of thanks, during which he was choked——by emotion.

WISTAR'S BALSAM WILD CHERRY,

In the whole history of medical discoveries, NO REMEDY has performed so many or such remarkable cures of the Throat, Lungs and Chest,—of Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, or of Consumption itself, as this far-famed, long-tried and justly celebrated Balsam. So generally acknowledged is the superior excellence of this remedy, that but few of the many who have tested its virtues by experience fail to keep it at hand, as a speedy and certain cure for sudden attacks of Cold—fully believing that its remedial powers are comprehensive enough to embrace every form of disease, from the slightest cold to the most dangerous symptom of pulmonary complaint.

George W. Millet, Esq.

Editor of the Norway Advertiser, gives his opinion of this great remedy substantially as follows:

NORWAY VILLAGE, Me., Aug 4, 1860.

Messrs. S. W. Fowle & Co.—Gentlemen:—For a remedy of such undoubted merit as Dr. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, I cheerfully give you my testimony, and trust that others may be induced thereby to give it a trial and be relieved. Several years since I first became acquainted with this Balsam as a time of distressing cough and cold, which took such firm hold of my lungs as to render me unfit for business, and its operation produced a speedy and permanent cure, after trying various other remedies in vain

In our town this remedy is a great favorite with many, and if all who suffer will but give it a fair trial, I think they will find it to be of more service to them than any other remedy of this class before the public.

Yours respectfully, GEO. W MILLET.

The following is a sample of many letters daily received by W. E. HAGAN & CO., Troy, N. Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers!

This extraordinary preparation has been for many years the most certain and speedy remedy for Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, Influenza, and Diseases of the Chest and Lungs. To those suffering from obstinate and confirmed Coughs, they give the most immediate and perfect relief; and when great liability to take cold exists, and a troublesome Cough succeeds the slightest exposure, these Wafers produce the most marked results. They at once relieve the Cough and other symptoms, and entirely remove that morbid irritability and weakness of the Lungs which give rise to the complaint. The medicinal properties are combined in an agreeable form and are pleasant to the taste, so that any child will readily take them; and they are warranted to give relief in ten minutes after use in all cases.

ELECTION IN PORTSMOUTH.

Tuesday, the day of Election, was favorable to comfort and quiet; being neither too warm nor too cold, and the walking very good.

Meetings, by the two parties, were held the evening before; every thing was ready; no State policy had been much mentioned in the papers, as every body knew the general course of Gov. Goodwin's administration, and that of his immediate predecessors, had been prudent and satisfactory to the great body of the people. Our city election, having been removed to the other end of the year, was not a disturbing element.

In fine, the election was as really on National ground, as was the vote for President in November,—and all those voters who use their privilege with any discretion, knew that they were either sustaining the national and state administrations, in republican hands, or opposing them.

In Wards 1 and 2, as may be seen by the following returns, the Republicans had majorities, and elected their Representatives. In Ward 3, of course Democrats were elected.

VOTE IN PORTSMOUTH.

The whole vote of Portsmouth for Governor, last year, was 1490—this year 1447, a decrease of 43. The Democratic Governor vote last year was 669, Republican 821—this year Berry has 720, Stark 727. Goodwin's majority last year was 152; now Stark has 7—a Democratic gain of 159 votes.

In Portsmouth, two years ago, Marcy's majority was 259—now it is only 21, a loss for him of 238. Marston, two years ago, had 717; now 712,—a loss for him of only 5 votes.

But of course, in the elections of two years ago, and yesterday, very much of the difference between the votes of Marcy, and those relatively for Cate and Stark, was due to the exchange of votes between the friends of Goodwin and Marcy—which influence of course was not brought to bear in this last contest.

TREES.—Soon the time will come to set trees; let every boy set, cultivate and protect, one or more, in a public or private place. And as there is an abundance of shade trees in this city, let every unoccupied place be set out with fruit trees of some kind: let every horse-chesnut tree give place to a fruit or nut tree of some kind, that will bear something which is wholesome to eat.

Last year, Portsmouth paid from three to five thousand dollars for fruit that might have been raised in the streets. Last fall chesnuts sold for twenty cents a quart; while the ground that was occupied by the horse-chesnuts, might have produced thousands of bushels.

If you have ground in front of your buildings, on the street, do not hesitate to set fruit trees, for fear that the boys will get some; for if they do, you will have a chance to get more than you would from an empty space, or from barren trees; and you will have the most effectual guard for other fruit or gardens; and while you do the public and yourself a great good, you remove a strong inducement for boys, (and they may be your boys,) to take the first steps to a life of mortification and crime.

A law of the State allows the City Government to set out trees in the public highway, at an expense not exceeding twenty-five cents for each tax-payer; and they need not exceed half that sum. Could the City authorities ever do a more important or more profitable act?

It would be a kind of property that would add health, wealth, and beauty to the city, and increase in value while the citizens were awake or asleep, and be a strong inducement for our own citizens to stay at home, or for others to settle amongst us. R.

☞ We understand that the "Atlantic Associates, Ex. 6's," of this city, intend meeting Mr. H. H. Champion (who is to draw the Hose Carriage from Dover to Portsmouth) at the Portsmouth Bridge, accompanied by the Cornet Band; and will give him a grand complimentary Dance and Supper in the evening, at Washington Hall.

Mr. Champion, it is expected, will arrive in Portsmouth this (Wednesday) evening at half-past 7 o'clock.

☞ Through the kindness of our friend A. Tibbetts, we were supplied with a dish of excellent oysters, which strengthened the "inner man," and contributed much to our comfort, during a night of toil. If any of our friends would like a 'fry,' 'stew,' 'roast,' or bivalves served up in any shape, just call on Tibbetts, and he will be sure to suit.

☞ Newburyport has a fine Public City Library, and is going to have a Library Building. A Lyceum held the past winter to aid the project, netted $600; but there were no hundred dollar speakers—all contributed their services for the good cause.

A VOICE FROM THE WEST!
FROM THE CLEVELAND PLAINDEALER
UNIVERSAL, UNIVERSAL,
IS THE DEMAND FOR
DR. S. O. RICHARDSON'S
SHERRY WINE BITTERS,
The celebrated New England remedy for
Habitual Constipation, Jaundice, Fever and Ague, General Debility, and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Stomach, Liver or Bowels.

They are used and recommended by the leading Physicians of the country, and all who try them, pronounce them invaluable.

Dr. JAMES L. LEFEERE writes from Navarre, Stark Co., O.: "The Bitters are praised by those suffering from indigestion, dyspepsia and liver complaint."

E. S. DAVIS, Postmaster at Williamsport, Ohio, says: "They give great satisfaction. I use them myself. Having taken cold, become prostrate, and lost my appetite, it relieved me, and I can recommend it with great assurance of its merits."

Dr. WM. M. KERR, of Rogersville, Ind., writes us that they are the most valuable medicine offered. He has recommended them with great success, and with them made several cures of palpitation of the heart, and general debility.

THOMAS STANFORD, Esq., Blountville, Henry Co., Ind., writes us a long letter under date of May 4, 1860. He was much reduced, having been afflicted for three years with great nervous debility, palpitation of the heart of the most severe and prostrating character; "after using a few bottles, I was completely restored, and am now in robust health."

GEORGE W. HOFFMAN says he was afflicted with rheumatism in all its various forms for 20 years, and at the date of his letter he had been two years well, the Bitters effecting the cure, when several physicians attending him could do him no good. He says "for rheumatism, dyspepsia, liver complaint, kidney affection or dropsy, it is a specific certain remedy."

J. W. HUNT writes from Delphos, Allen Co., Ohio, (a section where fever and ague prevails,) that he cheerfully recommends them as of decided merit in all cases of fever and ague, dyspepsia and general debility.

D. K. GALLEHERS, M. D., writes from Van Wert, O.: "I most respectfully recommend the Sherry Wine Bitters to the notice of dyspeptic persons, and all who require a stimulating medicine."

LIFE INSURANCE.

"IN THE MIDST OF LIFE WE ARE IN DEATH."

The strong man often falters, and falls in the midst of the hurry and business of life. The wise man maketh provision for those whom he loveth, against the liability to accident and death.

THE
MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE CO.
Of New York,
with an accumulated capital of over
SEVEN MILLION DOLLARS,

Invested at seven per cent. on bond and mortgage loans in the City and State of New York, upon Real Estate worth double the amount loaned thereon, issues

POLICIES on lives, payable to the wife, or to the legal representative of the person insured.

POLICIES payable to the person insured, on his attaining the age of 50, 60 or 70; or to his representative in case of decease before attaining this age.

PREMIUMS may be paid, quarterly, semi-annually, or annually, at the option of the insured.

The long experience of this excellent institution, like the one hundred years' experience of the great Equitable Life Insurance Co. of London, and other kindred institutions, proves their stability and perpetuity when established upon the right principle. Investments made with them have proved more remunerative than with Savings Banks.

The time is near, when to protect one's family from the loss and want often attendant upon the death of its provider, will be as universal as it is now to protect ourselves from loss by fire.

No reflecting man can sit at his fireside with his young family about him, and feel at ease;—when he knows that if death should take him from them, they would be cast upon a selfish world, without the means for education or support, which he can easily provide for them thro' a life policy.

GROVER & BAKER

SEWING
MACHINES.

TO THE LADIES.

CHARLES T. EMERY,
No. 10 Market Sq., Portsmouth,
Having been appointed
SOLE AGENT IN PORTSMOUTH
for the sale of the celebrated and unrivalled Noiseless
GROVER & BAKER
FAMILY AND MANUFACTURING
Sewing Machines,
would invite especial attention to the same.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE makes the only seam formed by a Sewing Machine, in which each stitch is independently locked, and without dependence on other stitches for strength, and the only seam that will admit of the thread being cut at every fourth stitch without injury to the seam in wear.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE is adapted to all varieties of fabrics, sewing equally well the finest Swiss Muslin or the heaviest cloth or leather, and requiring no adjustment for any kind of sewing other than the adaptation of needles and thread.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE sews from ordinary spools without rewinding, and fastens its own seams, thereby saving time and thread. It will sew common spool cotton, silk and linen thread with equal facility.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE is so simple that an intelligent child of ten years can readily learn to operate it. It is more easily kept in order than any other machine, and need not be taken apart to be oiled.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE makes the only stitch that cannot be injured by washing and ironing, and the only stitch that forms an elastic and durable seam. Fabrics put together with this stitch may wear out and drop to pieces from original weakness, or hard usage, but come apart or give way at the seams, they cannot; they will hold together when the cloth or calico around them hangs in rags and tatters.

Every Machine Warranted.

PRICES FROM $40 UPWARDS.

MOTHERS

It must be obvious not only to you, but to every attentive and intelligent person, that the first disease of infants arise chiefly from a disordered condition of their bowels, and in this connection, we present to your notice, for the alleviation and cure of these diseases, a remedy known as

Dr. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL,

Prepared from a formula used by Dr. Eaton with remarkable success during several years' practice. We know it to be a most reliable and efficacious remedy for infantile complaints, and one trial alone will convince you of its superiority over every other preparation of the kind. It is particularly recommended

FOR CHILDREN TEETHING,

And at this period of infantile life, when your anxious hearts are pained by witnessing the sufferings of your little ones, it will be found invaluable in Softening the Gums, Reducing Inflammation and Relieving all Pain. FOR DISEASES ATTENDING TEETHING, such as Diarrhea, Dysentery, Cropings in the Bowels, Acidity of the Stomach, Wind, Colic, and Cold in the Head, we confidently offer this as a certain relief and cure in every case when given in time. It will invariably regulate the stomach and bowels, and its importance in this respect can hardly be estimated.

IN CONVULSIONS,

From which more infants are said to die than from any other disease, the little sufferer is relieved instantaneously, as if by magic; and in this dread complaint alone, the intrinsic value of the compound that it has been recommended from one family to another until the name of DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL has become familiar as a household word." We now ask your attention to a subject of vital interest to yourself, as well as to your suffering child. DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL contains

NO MORPHINE OR OPIATE.

Of any kind, or of whatever nature, a fact which we do fully warranted in saying cannot be said of any other preparation for infantile diseases, at this time before the public. We find that throughout the country, Mothers are becoming convinced of this truth, and of the sad and blighting consequences which are certain to result from the use of narcotics disguised in the form of quieting remedies; their continued administration being invariably followed by stupefaction and constipation of the bowels, ending oftentimes in convulsions. Here in DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL differs from every other remedy. It

DOES NOT CONSTIPATE

The Bowels, neither does it act by deadening the sensibilities of your children, but naturally, thro' its rare medicinal qualities, by removing all pain and cause of disease. We earnestly recommend you, therefore, to lose no time in procuring a bottle, that you may have at hand a remedy which will never fail to relieve your child in time of need. It is perfectly harmless, and cannot injure the most delicate infant.

Take none but DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL. This you can rely upon. Price 25 cts per bottle.

Cognac Brandy

The infamous practice of adulterating Brandies having become so common that a genuine article is the exception; it is of importance to those requiring it for Family use and Invalids, that it should be of undoubted purity and efficacy.

With a view to meeting a popular demand for a Brandy in its natural state, free from alcoholic flavor and impurities, and fully appreciating the fact that it is often commended by the Medical Faculty as a sustaining stimulant, when all other remedies fail, we are now bottling and selling reasonable rates, a Brandy of our own importation, from one of the most responsible houses France, and known as

It is mild, delicate and fruity, and is designed to be always uniform in quality and character.—Put up in pint and quarter bottles, in cases containing two dozen pints and one dozen quarts, and is sold by all prominent druggists, grocers and town agents.

The above is also for sale in original packages, viz.: Eighth and Quarter Casks.

SOMETHING MORE VALUABLE

THAN SILVER OR GOLD,

BECAUSE

IT WILL RESTORE THE WEAK,
AND REINSTATE THE BLOOD IN ALL ITS ORIGINAL PURITY & VIGOR.

It is

PROF. O. J. WOOD'S

RESTORATIVE CORDIAL

—AND—

BLOOD RENOVATOR.

It is precisely what its name indicates, for, while pleasant to the taste, it is revivifying, exhilarating, and strengthening to the vital powers. It purifies, invigorates, and renews the blood in all its original purity, and thus restores and renders the system invulnerable to attacks of disease. It is the only preparation ever offered to the world in a popular form so as to be within the reach of all. So chemically and skillfully combined as to be the most powerful tonic, and yet so perfectly adapted as to act in perfect accordance with the laws of nature, and hence soothe the weakest stomach, and tone up the digestive organs, and allay all nervous and other irritation. It is also perfectly exhilarating in its effects, and yet is never followed by lassitude or depression of spirits. It is composed entirely of vegetable, and those thoroughly combining powerful tonic and soothing properties, and consequently can never injure. As a sure preventive and cure of

CONSUMPTION, BRONCHITIS, DYSPEPSIA INDIGESTION, LOSS OF APPETITE, FAINTNESS, NERVOUS IRRITABILITY, NEURALGIA, PALPITATION OF THE HEART, MELANCHOLY, HYPOCHONDRIA, NIGHT SWEATS, LANGUOR, GIDDINESS, AND ALL THAT CLASS OF CASES SO FEARFULLY FATAL, CALLED FEMALE WEAKNESSES AND IRREGULARITIES,

THERE IS NOTHING ITS EQUAL!

Also Liver Derangements and Torpidity, and Liver Complaints, Diseases of the Kidneys, or any general derangement of the Urinary Organs.

It will not only cure the debility following CHILLS and FEVER, but prevent all attacks arising from miasmatic influences and cure the disease at once, if already attacked.

TRAVELLERS should have a bottle with them, as it will infallibly prevent any deleterious consequences following upon the change of climate and water.

As it prevents costiveness, and strengthens the digestive organs, it should be in the hands of all persons of sedentary habits.

LADIES not accustomed to much out-door exercise, should always use it.

MOTHERS should use it, for it is a perfect relief, taken a month or two before the final trial—she will pass the dreadful period with perfect ease and safety

There is no mistake about it!

THE CORDIAL IS ALL WE CLAIM FOR IT!

MOTHERS, TRY IT!

And to you we appeal, to detect the illness or decline not only of your daughters, but of your sons, your husbands, your wives and husbands, for while the former, from false delicacy, often go down to a premature grave rather than let their condition be known; in the latter are often so mixed up with the excitement of business that if it were not for you they too would travel in the same downward path, until too late to arrest their fatal fall. But the mother is always vigilant, and to you we confidently appeal; for you are our guardian angels, and we unerringly point you to PROF. WOOD'S RESTORATIVE CORDIAL AND BLOOD RENOVATOR as the remedy which should be always on hand in time of need.

O. J. WOOD, Proprietor, 444 Broadway, New York, and 114 Market street, St Louis, Mo., and sold by all good Druggists. Price $1 per bottle.

Certify that the resident Druggists have assured them,

PROF. WOOD'S Restorative Cordial and Blood Renovator is a genuine medicine of real merit, pleasant to the taste, and invigorating to the system. While it purifies the blood and soothes the nervous irritation, it aids the organs of digestion to perform their functions, and resists the assaults of disease. It is a chemical compound so skillfully combined, that while it exhilarates it does not provoke the lassitude which usually follows excitement. A tonic composed exclusively of vegetable matter, it is absolutely beneficial, and no ill effects can possibly accompany its use. It is an infallible and speedy remedy for Loss of Appetite, Faintness, Nervous Debility, Neuralgia, Falling of the Womb, and other delicate diseases to which women are subject, for Sickness of the Stomach, Billous Attacks, Liver Complaints, Costiveness, Dyspepsia, Consumption, and a host of evils flesh is heir to, it is a certain cure.—St. Louis Morning Herald.

PROF. WOOD'S RESTORATIVE CORDIAL.—It is recorded in the classics that Psyche was once sent to a climate warmer than the West Indies, to procure a sample of the beauty of Proserpina in a box. After some delay the messenger returned, and as soon as the top of the box was removed, out flew all the ills that flesh is heir to. Fortunately hope was found in the bottom of the box. Prof. Wood's Restorative Cordial revives the recollection of the story, for it invigorates the blood, aids the organs of digestion, imparts strength to the nervous system, and fortifies the citadel of health so as to bid defiance to the assaults of disease. It is a healthy tonic, composed entirely of vegetable productions, and while it is exhilarating as pure wine, no injurious effects can possibly follow its use. It is a desideratum in the medical world, and those who are afflicted with loss of appetite, Dyspepsia, Consumption, Faintness, Neuralgia, Palpitation of the Heart, &c., will here find an infallible panacea.—St. Louis Daily Express

PROF. WOOD'S RESTORATIVE CORDIAL AND BLOOD RENOVATOR is, without doubt, the best tonic Cordial in the world. To those who are suffering from general debility, we would recommend its use, for it is pleasant to the taste, is strengthening to the system, and will at once tend to remove all impurities of the blood, and eradicate all traces of disease. It can be taken by the weakest stomach, while those in good health will at once feel its exhilarating power. We are confident that after using one bottle of this Cordial, none will be for a day without it.—N. Y. Leader.

A PURE, HEALTHY TONIC, and one free from the deleterious and injurious effects sure to follow those in ordinary use, has long been felt to be a desideratum in the medical world. Such a tonic, and one so skillfully combined from the vegetable kingdom as to act in perfect accordance with the laws of Nature, and thus soothe the weakest stomach, and at the same time allay nervous and other irritations, and tone up all the organs of which the human body is composed, is offered in Prof. Wood's Restorative Cordial and Blood Renovator. Hence it is perfectly adapted to old and Young. Reader, try it. Thousands have already done so; the testimony is universal in its favor.—New York Atlas.

☞ Before noticing a patent medicine, we have to be certain that it will prove itself to be all that it is recommended. And we would say that the Restorative Cordial and Blood Renovator of Prof. Wood will stand the test fully, and in fact it is without doubt the first article in the market for purifying the blood and strengthening the system. We have no hesitation in recommending its use to all.—New Yorker.

Morning Chronicle.

☞ The Boston Courier of Tuesday, says:

There was a great deal of excitement in town yesterday, and much rejoicing, in consequence of the reports that the forts were to be evacuated. "This is peace," was the general utterance. We had already in type the editorial article on the evacuation, when the accounts from Washington assumed a more definite shape. We let it stand as it is, rejoicing, if the news shall be confirmed, that the Administration has determined upon a course so judicious and conformable to the requirements of the case.

The editorial referred to, concludes thus:

Reason and good feeling, then, point to peace. So far as the forts are concerned, it is only a matter of pride. They would be safe enough, in general, with half-a-dozen old soldiers, as fort-keepers. If the Southern people like to take care of them, for a time, until public sentiment becomes modified, as it will very rapidly, throughout the country, and matters take a more favorable turn—we do not see the least objection to letting them remain in the hands of the State authorities. They will get tired of all this, by and by—we shall save civil war and all its disorders and miseries, and the fruits of moderation will soon become visible, in the progress of affairs towards final and complete restoration.

A special dispatch to the Boston Daily Advertiser, dated Washington, March 11, says:

There are strong grounds for the utmost confidence in the restoration of peaceful relations. The Administration is peace.

☞ The pupils of the St. Charles College, Louisiana, have rebelled against their teachers, for the reason that the teachers had used language too unpleasant to be put up with, and because they were not satisfied with their fare. The Picayune doubts whether the rebellious pupils will be coerced back again, and sees a solution only in a compromise on the part of the teachers.

KILLED WITH A WAD.—At Newtown, Penn., on Saturday, while playing soldiers with a musket, loaded with a blank charge, Casper Rapp raised and levelled the weapon at Wm. Merrick, who stood a few feet off, and fired; the wad struck him on the temple, instantly killing him.

☞ The way of conciliation is the way of wisdom, says Mr. Seward. Those who oppose coercion are in favor of disunion, says the Boston Journal. Doctors differ, sometimes—says the Post.

ACCIDENT.—On Monday, Mr. Henry Butters seriously injured one of his eyes by the bursting of a bottle of wine which he was testing. It is hoped by careful attention the sight may be saved.—Haverhill (Mass.) Democrat.

RHEUMATISM AND NEURALGIA.

GARDINER'S
RHEUMATIC AND NEURALGIA
COMPOUND,
Is a certain, safe and permanent cure for Rheumatism, Neuralgia and Salt Rheum. It is an internal remedy, driving out and entirely eradicating the disease, requiring no change in diet or business, and may be taken by children and an entirely well." D. D. BAXTER, Dry Goods Dealer, No. 5 Appleton Block, Lowell, Mass.

I have been afflicted with Salt Rheum in its worst form for a long time, and suffered more than can be imagined, except by those similarly afflicted. I tried one bottle of your Compound, and can honestly say that I believe myself entirely cured.—JOHN A. MORDO, Pearl St. House, Boston, Mass.

Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has entirely relieved me from sufferings of several years' standing.—W. E. HODGKINS, No. 1 Old State House, Boston.

My son, ten years of age, has been for three years a great sufferer from Salt Rheum, his hands covered with sores, and in constant pain. One bottle of your Compound cured him.—J. W. HAMMOND, 99 Milk street, Boston.

I certify that my friend, Wm. T. Glidden, Esq., presented me with a bottle of "Gardiner's Rheumatic Compound," in 1856, when I was suffering, with a painful attack of Neuralgia and Rheumatism, and that it proved to be of decided benefit.—ALBERT SMITH, Ex-Member of Congress from Maine.

TESTIMONY OF JUDGE KITTREDGE OF VERMONT.—Charles F. Gardiner, Esq.,—Dear Sir,—I beg leave to add my testimony in favor of "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound."—After suffering twenty years with Rheumatism, more or less, and last year with a very severe attack, I took one bottle of your Compound, which afforded decided relief. I think it the best and most efficacious medicine for that disease I ever used.—WM. C. KITTREDGE, Fair Haven, Vt., Dec. 1st, 1860.

The Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has been taken by hundreds of persons for Scrofulous Humors with great benefit.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

THURSDAY, MARCH 14, 1861.

SOME SCOLDING.

There appears to be as much disappointment among the newspaper readers, at the proposed evacuation of Fort Sumter, by Lincoln, Scott and Anderson, as there was among the same class when the French Emperor all of a sudden made peace with Austria, stopping short in what seemed to them a glorious, inevitable war of long duration. It takes them all aback, now, as it did then.

The Times' correspondent at Washington, March 11, says:

The report of the intended withdrawal of the troops has scattered consternation among the secessionists. Wigfall, who is undoubtedly honest—honest, however fanatical, expresses the greatest concern on the subject, and says if it is done he and his friends are ruined.

Mason, Hunter and other secession leaders are in a perfect agony of apprehension that the report is true. If it is done, they say there is no shadow of chance to push secession any further, and every Southern man who favored it will be tomahawked.

Andrew Johnson freely advises a withdrawal in the present condition of affairs.—He says that as an original question, he would have reinforced without hesitation; but now the policy is not to precipitate a conflict between the sections, but to leave it to Southern men themselves to deal with the [illegible], and to dispose of them.

While no decision has been come to on the subject, I am satisfied that the administration will not reinforce at the terrible sacrifice of life which Gen. Scott says it would require.

Of course there are divisions of opinion on this policy. Wade says it is a surrender, but many who at first doubted its propriety, accept its wisdom on reflection.

Andrew Johnson says Mr. Lincoln should have no false pride on this subject; that his administration is not responsible for the present condition of affairs, which makes it wiser now to withdraw the troops than to reinforce.

It is very plain that, by the management of the traitors in the last Cabinet and Congress, by the character of the Southern officers in the army and navy, and by the action of the secessionists and others in Congress, there is not enough army nor navy available, to risk an expedition against the army of the cotton confederacy.

The Tribune correspondent says:

Congress gave no power to call out volunteers in case of necessity, and therefore the President is confined to the actual and limited regular force. His hands are tied and his resources crippled by the treasonable conspiracy of his predecessor and Cabinet. The predicament was deliberately contrived to embarrass the new administration.

The decision to withdraw Major Anderson naturally excites much feeling, particularly among the Western delegations.—Here, it is regarded as a compulsory alternative, to which Mr. Lincoln has yielded from overwhelming necessity, and because he was powerless to carry out his own purpose.

It is supposed in some quarters that the withdrawal will operate beneficially in conciliating the South, but this opinion is not shared by reflecting observers. The Northern Democracy will of course assail the administration, though Mr. Douglas is precommitted to the very policy which has been adopted, by his recent speech in the Senate.

The forts at Key West and Tortugas cannot be given up, because they may be easily reinforced, and are of national importance in military and commercial aspects. Fort Sumter involved a point of honor only.

☞ The following items are from the Charleston Courier of 7th inst.:

Our Southern exchanges, so far as time has allowed returns, concur emphatically in regarding and considering Lincoln's inaugural as a defiance and war notice to the South.

Let it be so considered, and we shall be safe and ready for any result.

The latest advices from Washington, however, look as if it was not defiance nor war, —but peace: and so the fiery spirits in the Quattlebum country may fight one another, if they please, having nobody else to fight; and having stolen all they could from the general government, may now steal from one another, if they can find anything worth stealing.

☞ The Southern tarifl causes a good deal of hot discussion in the papers in the seceded States, as it did in the Congress.—The New Orleans Delta, a violent secession paper, says:

"New Orleans will suffer immensely from the effects of the new tariff, and the other seaport towns will share the detriment in proportion to their trade."

It calls for the speedy establishment of a new and more equitable system.

☞ There are many so-called "gift enterprises" flooding the country with books, promising to each purchaser a valuable gift, by which many are enticed into purchasing. At a recent sheriff's sale in Philadelphia, of the stock of one of these "gift enterprises," the gold watches brought only thirty dollars a dozen!

☞ In the Legislature of Massachusetts, on Tuesday, the new Personal Liberty bill came up in the House, and after a short debate was ordered to a third reading, by a vote of 114 to 63.

MR. RAREY IN BROOKLYN.

He next introduced, in accordance with his usual programme, a quiet horse, of a very dark iron-gray color, with a light gray face, inclining to white. The animal was of rather slender proportions, and well-shaped. With him Mr. Rarey went through the regular routine of strapping, bringing him down on the knees, laying him on the side, raising him on all-fours, etc.; finishing off with beating a drum on his back, which the iron gray, with all his docility, however, did not seem to relish.

The next horse introduced was a large chestnut. He was quiet enough, but nervous, with a peculiar aversion to an open umbrella. Before introducing the horse, Mr. Rarey read a letter from his owner, stating the horse's peculiarity, which was so deeply rooted as to cause him to run away with the wagon he was put to draw. Mr. Moore said he had endeavored to cure him, but without effect, and if Mr. Rarey could teach him to overcome his repugnance to an umbrella, he (the writer) would be willing to say he could subjugate any horse.

The chestnut was then led out upon the stage, when Mr. Rarey, in order to test him, opened an umbrella in his face, upon which he shied and leaped in such a manner as to cause the persons in the orchestra to entertain serious apprehensions that he was about to leap in among them. However, he contented himself with scattering a quantity of dust, as a gentle hint of what he was capable of doing. Mr. Rarey then closed the umbrella and brought it cautiously within reach of the horse's nose. He smelt of it, and examined it curiously and half-fearfully with his upper lip. Mr. Rarey then rubbed his head with it, then his neck, mane and back. At first the horse exhibited symptoms of fear, which gradually subsided as the conviction gained upon him that the umbrella was harmless. Mr Rarey then half-opened the umbrella, and proceeded, as before, with similar results. He then opened it wide, and held it in an inverted position, first on the horse's back, and gradually brought it forward over his neck and head, till he placed it before his eyes. At this sight, however, the chestnut shrunk back, but Mr. Rarey persisted in holding it in front of him, though he did not seem to like it. He did not, however, make such abrupt attempts to get away from the object of his aversion as when it was held before his eyes at first.

The first part of the lesson over, Mr. Rarey proceeded to fasten the straps on the horse with the view of his more complete subjugation. After getting him down on his side twice, Mr. Rarey again showed him the closed umbrella. This revived his rage, and he made a plunge and raised himself on his haunches. A second sight only enraged him the more, and he plunged more furiously than ever, but only to become the more convinced of his utter helplessness, and to be induced to lie down once more. Again was the umbrella shown him, and again he manifested the same aversion towards it, but Mr. Rarey persisted, and had the satisfaction of being permitted to hold the umbrella over the head of the restive animal. Mr. Rarey then drew the umbrella in an inverse position all over him, but the horse had already cried peccavi, as plainly as a horse could speak, and submitted to the indignity quiety. The umbrella was now opened and shut violently and in rapid succession in the horse's face, but without the least symptoms of equine remonstrance on his part, and finally the audience burst into a roar of laughter as Mr. Rarey mounted him, with the umbrella wide open over his head, while the horse lay crouched quietly on the straw.

In order to show that the cure, for the present, at least, was complete, Mr. Rarey raised the horse on all fours, mounted him and held the umbrella over his head, with the same quiet result as before. Mr. Rarey then explained the reason why the horse appeared subdued. He said he was satisfied that the object at which he had formerly manifested alarm could do him no harm.—He further said he would be will be willing for any person to bring the worst scarecrow in the world before a nervous horse, and he would undertake to cure him of his fright, so long as the object could not inflict positive pain. He then informed the audience that he had outside a vicious kicking horse, which he was about to introduce. He was greeted with loud applause as he retired.

The Shetland ponies were next exhibited, with the usual explanations, causing much amusement among the audience, especially at the observation that he knew not how much smaller the breed might become if taken still further north than the Shetland Isles and awarded with scantier fare.

While the preceding part of the illustrated lecture was going on, an occasional squeal would be heard behind the scenes, suggestive of certain vicious pieces of horse-flesh being in close proximity, and on the retirement of the ponies a bay mare was led out, which Mr. Rarey informed the audience had not been shod for four years, and that it was believed that the legs of the animal could not be handled. This seemed to be founded on fact; for every time Mr. Rarey offered to touch her she gave a squeal, suggestive of the highly interesting interview between Moroc's wild beasts and Dagobert's mare, as described by Eugene Sue, in his "Wandering Jew." But her temper soon gave way before the superior intelligence of the horse-tamer. In the twinkling of a bed-post the two straps were on, and the bay mare was lying helpless on her side.

Mr. Rarey here observed that he had often been asked, after a similar trial, whether a horse was sufficiently broken. He considered the question absurd, for it could not be expected that a horse could be completely tamed in the first lesson, but sufficient could be taught him to let him understand that man was his master. He believed that though he should be absent from Cruiser for any length of time, he would recognize and obey him. The real advantage of his system was that under it a horse could be taught no vice. Was it reasonable to suppose that a horse that had been subjued by rough breaking, and had been taught to kick, run away, and practice other bad habits, would do his work as well as one that had been broken quietly, within a week? The horse, if properly treated, could be taught just as a boy was taught his lessons. He had heard that other persons said they had broken horses by his system before him, and that they could do so by other processes. He had no objection to their doing so. All he would say was, he believed his system was the very best. The horse was the most useful of all animals, but it was the most abused of all. He believed however, that his ill treatment was more the result of ignorance than of cruelty, and that if better methods of treating him were known, he would be treated accordingly.

TREAT YOUR FAMILY WITH A BEAUTIFUL CARPET.—Three hundred pieces Tapestry Brussels Carpeting, for 80 cents a yard. As some of these carpets are subject to manufacturers' slight imperfections in weaving, they will all be sold at 80 cts. a yard. They consist of modern styles, rich and gorgeous colors, and fine qualities. The imperfections are scarcely perceptible, not injuring the appearance or durability of the goods. Now open and for sale at retail or wholesale, by the New England Carpet Co., No. 75 Hanover street.—Boston Daily Bee.

☞ Gov. Pickens has proclaimed martial law on James' Island, in the vicinity of Fort Johnson. The Charleston News of Friday mentions the following incident:

"Early this morning, between 6 and 7 o'clock, while cleaning out the guns at the iron battery, Cumings' Point, a ball contained in one of the guns struck near the gate at Fort Sumter. Major Anderson immediately opened his battery on that side, but a boat being dispatched to explain the circumstance as unintentional, nothing further resulted from the accidental discharge."

☞ The Cabinet of the new confederacy is severely attacked by the rabid secessionists in South Carolina and elsewhere. Not only is President Davis denounced for his supposed conservatism, but Secretaries Toombs and Mallory are declared to be unsafe men, and Stephens and Memminger are said to be reconstructionists.

DEMAND FOR PAPER.—The demand for materials to be converted into paper has increased enormously within a few years. Junk dealers and tinmen penetrate every part of New England in search of rags; and latterly they have commenced purchasing books and pamphlets for this purpose. Ninety eight tons of books and pamphlets were ground up in only one of the paper mills in Massachusetts in one year.

OFFICE-SEEKERS.—Mr. Lincoln is more likely to be done to death by the awful rush of applicants for places under him than by secessionists or assassins. How will the five loaves and two small fishes feed the immense and hungry multitude? The siege of Fort Sumter will be nothing comparable with the siege which the new President and his Cabinet will undergo, which said siege will not be relinquished until every crumb of comfort has been extracted from them.—Uneasy lie the heads that wear Presidential or Cabinet night-caps.—Charlestown Adv.

BALTIMORE, March 12.—The State conference assembled again to-day. The attendance was small. The Chairman said it was understood that Governor Hicks was still unwilling to call a convention, and it was evident that the sentiments of the members had become somewhat modified. It is thought a committee will be appointed to confer with the Virginia convention. Adjourned until to-morrow.

IMPORTANT TO MARINERS.—The Collector of Savannah has received intelligence from Pensacola that the lights on Pensacola bar were to be discontinued after the 8th inst.

MOBILE, March 12.—The lights at Mobile Point and Sand Island have been extinguished by order of the commander at Fort Morgan.

SINGULAR EFFECT OF DIPTHERIA.—Noah Burnham, Jr., a young man nineteen or twenty years old, and Elizabeth Clifford, about sixteen, had the mysterious throat malady a few months since, which has resulted in a paralysis of their lower limbs—both being unable to walk, and not being able even to stand upon the floor.—Cape Ann Advertiser.

☞ The Viceroy of Egypt's little son Toussoun Pasha, at the mature age of seven years, enters upon the enjoyment of a separate establishment of his own. Towards its formation, he has already been presented with a couple of Circassian female slaves, while the English nurse is discharged.

☞ A reckless fellow, smoking a cigar while making cartridges, at Jackson, Miss., dropped the ashes into an open keg of gunpowder, which exploded, blew up the place, and nearly killed four men. Secession is almost equally foolish.

☞ The Boston Post of Wednesday says:

Stocks hopped up merrily at the rumor that Fort Sumter would be abandoned, but they came down very quick when the rumor was found to be unauthentic.

BANGOR, ME., March 12.—At the municipal election in this city yesterday, Isaiah Stetson, Republican, was re-elected Mayor by 750 majority.

☞ Three impudent scamps were fined $15 each, at Montreal, for attempting to kiss a pretty girl in the street, and then snowballing her little brother, who tried to prevent the outrage.

☞ It is believed that an extra session of Congress will be held in May.

☞ A lap-dog recently brought $2000, in London, by auction.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.

WASHINGTON, Macrh 12.—Gentlemen in prominent positions confidently assert that Fort Sumter will be abandoned, in obedience to the peremptory opinion of Gen. Scott. Some say it will be done next Monday. This information is not, however, official.

What the southern commissioners have done so far has been informal, and in the direction of peace.

The resolution for the expulsion of Mr. Wigfall, with Clingman's amendment, was referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Mr. Trumbull from the Judiciary Committee, reported back Mr. Mason's resolution to defray Silas Carleton's expenses while attempting to arrest Mr. Sanborn at Concord, Mass., with a recommendation that its consideration be postponed to the third Monday in December. Agreed to.—The committee deemed it premature to order payment at this time

The President to-day nominated to the Senate Amos Tuck Naval Officer at Boston; Willard Phillips, Collector at Salem, Mass., and Rufus Hosmer, Consul at Frankfort on the Main.

Archibald Williams as District Judge of Kansas, and William P. Dole, as Commissioner of Indian affairs, were confirmed by the Senate to-day. Other nominations were referred.

Inquiry at the proper quarter warrants the assertion that no order has yet been issued with reference to the evacuation of Fort Sumter

WASHINGTON, March 11.—Private letters received here from Montgomery iterates the opinion that, notwithstanding the great number of troops organizing at the South, there will be no fighting.

They also express the opinion, that a recognition by President Lincoln will open the way to a reconstruction of the Government of the thirty-four States.

The reported determination of the administration to evacuate Fort Sumter creates much astonishment here, but is generally regarded favorably, the exceptions to the rule being the ultraists of both sections.

The Cabinet were considering the question of the evacuation of Fort Sumter, on Saturday. The evacuation is probable.—Major Anderson has but seventeen days provisions.

It is estimated that twenty thousand men would be required to effect a reinforcement of the fortress, while only two thousand are available.

Gov. Hicks still refuses to convene the Maryland Legislature.

NEW ORLEANS, March 12.—Texas advices report that the troops of Camp Ringgold had arrived at Fort Brown on their way to the coast. The steamer Daniel Webster is outside at Brazos to take on board federal troops. It is reported that 1500 Texans were stationed on the Rio Grande, and that reinforcements were still arriving. The collector of the District of Brazos had resigned and resumed his duties under the State. Col. Ford was at Brownsville. Gen. McLeod is in command at Brazos, and Gen. Nichols at Point Isabel.

WISTAR'S BALSAM WILD CHERRY.

In the whole history of medical discoveries, no REMEDY has performed so many or such remarkable cures of the Throat, Lungs and Chest,—of Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, or of Consumption itself, as this far-famed, long-tried and justly celebrated Balsam. So generally acknowledged is the superior excellence of this remedy, that but few of the many who have tested its virtues by experience fail to keep it at hand, as a speedy and certain cure for sudden attacks of Cold—fully believing that its remedial powers are comprehensive enough to embrace every form of disease, from the slightest cold to the most dangerous symptom of pulmonary complaint.

George W. Miller, Esq.

Editor of the Norway Advertiser, gives his opinion of this great remedy substantially as follows:

NORWAY VILLAGE, Me., Aug 4, 1860.

Messrs. S. W. Fowle & Co.—Gentlemen:—For a remedy of such undoubted merit as DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, I cheerfully give you my testimony, and trust that others may be induced thereby to give it a trial and be relieved. Several years since I first became acquainted with this Balsam at a time of distressing cough and cold, which took such firm hold of my lungs as to render me unfit for business, and its operation produced a speedy and permanent cure, after trying various other remedies in vain.

In our town this remedy is a great favorite with many, and it all who suffer will but give it a fair trial, I think they will find it to be of more service in pulmonary affections than any other remedy of this class before the public.

Yours respectfully, GEO. W. MILLET.

Mr. Hackett's majority, will be about 140. Mr. March's majority, last year, was about 250,—and the whole vote about 300 larger than this year.

Rev. I. S. Kalloch has accepted a call as pastor of the Laight Street Baptist Church, New York.

So says an item in the papers. Some time ago, he was reported as I. S. Kalloch, Esq., a lawyer in Kansas. Now he turns up again as a city pastor.

NEW ORLEANS CUSTOM HOUSE.—It came out in a debate in the Montgomery Congress, on the 18th ult., that the New Orleans Custom House is in a condition that requires immediate attention. The records in the building are liable to injury from exposure to the weather, as the building does not now afford protection from rain or storm.

☞ The Washington correspondent of the New York Journal of Commerce says it is alleged, in some quarters, that a correspondence between Mr. Seward and prominent Union men of the Virginia Convention, has been held with reference to the adoption by the Lincoln administration of a pacific policy.

☞ In Concord, Moses Humphrey, the Republican candidate for Mayor, was elected by 283 majority. And a capital Mayor he will make, too.

☞ The Statesman and Independent Democrat, of Concord, both furnished us with Extras on Wednesday morning, containing election returns from 107 towns.

To-day the question is—shall we yield Fort Sumter? Hundreds of people say no; never; but they suggest no way in which it can be retained; nor can they show what profit it would be to retain it.—All would lament, and nobody more than President Lincoln. The fire eaters would yell for joy and, glory in it as a victory; and there would not be wanting those in the North—the fierce radicals who dreamed that Mr. Lincoln was to whip the South into subjection regardless of consequences—who would growl with rage and denounce Abraham Lincoln worse than they have James Buchanan.

WASHINGTON, March 13.—Messrs. Forsyth and Crawford, Jefferson Davis' commissioners, are confident that Anderson will either be ordered to evacuate Fort Sumter, or that he will be withdrawn, together with the greater portion of his force. They expect an interview with Mr. Seward to-day, and may be received by President Lincoln unofficially.

The French Minister has tended to Mr. Seward the mediation of his government between the United States and Peru.

A dispatch from Gen. Beauregard says, "We are prepared at all points, and defy them to reinforce Fort Sumter."

Would you save yourself from suffering after eating, or from acidity of the stomach, or burning sensation or indigestion? Use Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus.—Never use soda if you can procure this article. It will strengthen weak stomachs and relieve dyspepsia; is a saving in the quantity of flour, &c. Try it. Grocers and Druggists most all sell it.

Sold at wholesale, by Israel Nash & Co., Boston; and Sumner, Swasey & Currier, Newburyport.

A VOICE FROM THE WEST!
FROM THE CLEVELAND PLAINDEALER.

UNIVERSAL, UNIVERSAL,
IS THE DEMAND FOR
DR. S. O. RICHARDSON'S
SHERRY WINE BITTERS,
The celebrated New England remedy for
Habitual Constipation, Jaundice, Fever and Ague, General Debility, and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Stomach, Liver or Bowels.

They are used and recommended by the leading Physicians of the country, and all who try them, pronounce them invaluable.

Dr. JAMES L. SPEERE writes from Navarre, Stark Co., O.: "The Bitters are praised by those suffering from indigestion, dyspepsia and liver complaint."

E. S. DAVIS, Postmaster at Williamsport, Ohio, says: "They give great satisfaction. I use them myself. Having taken cold, become prostrate, and lost my appetite, it relieved me, and I can recommend it with great assurance of its merits."

Dr. WM. M. KERR, of Rogersville, Ind., writes us that they are the most valuable medicine offered. He has recommended them with great success, and with them made several cures of palpitation of the heart, and general debility.

THOMAS STANFORD, Esq., Blountville, Henry Co., Ind., writes us a long letter under date of May 4, 1860. He was much reduced, having been afflicted for three years with great nervous debility, palpitation of the heart of the most severe and prostrating character; "after using a few bottles, I was completely restored, and am now in robust health."

GEORGE W. HOFFMAN says he was afflicted with rheumatism in all its various forms for 20 years, and at the date of his letter he had been two years well, the Bitters effecting the cure, when several physicians attending him could do him no good. He says "for rheumatism, dyspepsia, liver complaint, kidney affection or dropsy, it is a specific certain remedy."

J. W. HUNT writes from Delphos, Allen Co., Ohio, (a section where fever and ague prevails,) that he cheerfully recommends them as of decided merit in all cases of fever and ague, dyspepsia and general debility.

D. K. GALLEHERS, M. D., writes from Van Wert, O.: "I most respectfully recommend the Sherry Wine Bitters to the notice of dyspeptic persons, and all who require a stimulating medicine."

LIFE INSURANCE.

"IN THE MIDST OF LIFE WE ARE IN DEATH."

The strong man often falters, and falls in the midst of the hurry and business of life. The wise man maketh provision for those whom he loveth, against the liability to accident and death.

THE
MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE CO.
Of New York,
with an accumulated capital of over
SEVEN MILLION DOLLARS,

Invested at seven per cent. on bond and mortgage loans in the City and State of New York, upon Real Estate worth double the amount loaned thereon, issues

POLICIES on lives, payable to the wife, or to the legal representative of the person insured.

POLICIES payable to the person insured, on his attaining the age of 50, 60 or 70; or to his representative in case of decease before attaining this age.

PREMIUMS may be paid, quarterly, semi-annually, or annually, at the option of the insured.

The long experience of this excellent institution, like the one hundred years' experience of the great Equitable Life Insurance Co. of London, and other kindred institutions, proves their stability and perpetuity when established upon the right principle. Investments made with them have proved more remunerative than with Savings Banks.

The time is near, when to protect one's family from the loss and want often attendant upon the death of its provider, will be as universal as it is now to protect ourselves from loss by fire.

No reflecting man can sit at his fireside with his young family about him, and feel at ease;—when he knows that if death should take him from them, they would be cast upon a selfish world, without the means for education or support, which he can easily provide for them thro' a life policy.

GROVER & BAKER

SEWING MACHINES.

TO THE LADIES.

CHARLES T. EMERY,
No. 10 Market Sq., Portsmouth,
Having been appointed
SOLE AGENT IN PORTSMOUTH
for the sale of the celebrated and unrivalled
Noiseless
GROVER & BAKER
FAMILY AND MANUFACTURING
Sewing Machines,
would invite especial attention to the same.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE makes the only seam formed by a Sewing Machine, in which each stitch is independently locked, and without dependence on other stitches for strength, and the only seam that will admit of the thread being cut at every fourth stitch without injury to the seam in wear.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE is adapted to all varieties of fabrics, sewing equally well the finest Swiss Muslin or the heaviest cloth or leather, and requiring no adjustment for any kind of sewing other than the adaptation of needles and thread.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE sews from ordinary spools without rewinding, and fastens its own seams, thereby saving time and thread. It will sew common spool cotton, silk and linen thread with equal facility.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE is so simple that an intelligent child of ten years can readily learn to operate it. It is more easily kept in order than any other machine and need not be taken apart to be oiled.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE makes the only stitch that cannot be injured by washing and ironing, and the only stitch that forms an elastic and durable seam. Fabrics put together with this stitch may wear out and drop to pieces from original weakness, or hard usage, but come apart or give way at the seams, they cannot; they will hold together when the cloth or calico around them hangs in rags and tatters.

Every Machine Warranted.

PRICES FROM $40 UPWARDS.

THE FAMINE IN KANSAS.

Appeal for the Destitute, from the New York City Committee.

WM. C. BRYANT, Chairman. J. E. WILLIAMS, Treasurer.
Chas. H. Marshall, Seth B. Hunt, R. H. McCurdy, Morris Ketchum, G. C. Bronson, Chas. W. Elliott, Daniel Lord, Daniel Drew, J. S. Wadsworth.

It has become our imperative duty to urge upon the public attention the fact that over 40,000 of our fellow citizens in Kansas are now in imminent danger of starving. We have evidence from all sources—from Gen. Pomeroy, Chairman of the Territorial Relief Committee, from the columns of nearly every newspaper, of all shades of politics—from our own reliable agent, who has just returned. There was no doubt of the misery, terrible, wide-spread, destructive.

We have evidence that whole families have already died of starvation, and that thousands more must be down discouraged, and die of want or disease consequent upon it, unless prompt and thorough relief is at once applied. Congress is now attempting to sustain the starving Indians, but our 40,000 fellow countrymen—men, women and children—can neither get away from their desolation, nor borrow, nor beg. Their only dependence is upon us, who have never known hunger.

THEY MUST BE SUSTAINED. Will you help us to help them?

To assure you that whatever you do will reach them, we state that in Leavenworth City there is a Relief Committee—these are all represented by the Territorial Committee, as follows:

TERRITORIAL COMMITTEE.

S. C. Pomeroy, Atchison; W. W. Guthrie, Brown County; J. L. McDowell, Leavenworth; Rev. C. Reynolds, Lawrence; Rev. L. Bodwell, Topeka; Dr. S. Ayers, Linn County; F. U. Blake, Junction City; C. B. Lines, Wabaunsee; E. B. Baker, Centralia; Rev. Wm. Bishop, Salina;—Judge A. Spaulding, Jefferson County; J. C. Burnett, Bourbon County; J. C. Lamboln, Butler County; Geo. M. Russell, Wyandotte.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

S. C. Pomeroy, Chairman; J. L. McDowell, Rev. C. Reynolds, Rev. L. Bodwell, E. U. Baker.
S. C. POMEROY, Corresponding Secretary.
G. H. FAIRCHILD, Treasurer.

Gen. Pomeroy is Chairman, and at ATCHISON devotes his whole time and energy, with assistants, to the receipt of food and clothing, all of which are delivered upon requisitions of Town Committees, and are distributed through them.—This organization is prompt, thorough and effective, and we advise the sending of supplies through it. Money and clothing are needed from us;—food can be got in the West.

The names of our committee appear at the head of this appeal, and we hope will be sufficient to induce co-operation. Our Treasurer is JOHN E. WILLIAMS, President of the Metropolitan Bank, New York City. All money sent to him will be applied to the payment of Gen. Pomeroy's drafts on account of freights and seeds. We appeal to you all, by every dictate of humanity, of honor, and of public good, to unite with us in alleviating this great calamity. There is no time to be lost.

FIRST—We ask individuals everywhere to contribute at once, and to urge it upon their friends and neighbors.

SECOND—We appeal to all churches and organized bodies to act promptly, generously and efficiently.

THIRD—We urge upon EVERY GOVERNOR OF EVERY STATE immediately to bring this matter to the attention of their Legislatures and people. Our last statistics show that nearly 200,000 is needed within the coming fortnight, to supply this people with seed for Spring planting. It can only be furnished by State action. Every consideration of interest also demands that this new State should be enabled to become self-sustaining, productive, and eventually rich, thus to fulfill her destiny, and to help others, as we are now helping her.

We ask, therefore, every Legislature to do as they would have others do to them in like distress, and at once to grant ample supplies.

All money sent to our Treasurer, JOHN E. WILLIAMS, Metropolitan Bank, New York City, will be gratefully acknowledged and effectively used.

All Clothing should be sent to "GEN. POMEROY, Atchison, Kansas," and freight should be prepaid. DaWlm

AYER'S Sarsaparilla

FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

And for the speedy cure of the following complaints:

Scrofula and Scrofulous Affections, such as Tumors, Ulcers, Sores, Eruptions, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Blains, and all Skin Diseases.

OAKLAND, Indiana, March 3rd, 1859.

J. C. Ayer & Co. Gents: I feel it my duty to acknowledge the virtues of Sarsaparilla has done for me. Having inherited a scrofulous taint in my blood, I have suffered from it in various ways for years. Sometimes it breaks out in blotches on my hands and arms; sometimes it turned inward and distressed me with a cough. Two years ago it broke out on my head and covered my scalp and ears with one sore, which was painful and loathsome beyond description. I tried many medicines and consulted physicians, but without much relief from any thing. In fact, the disorder grew worse. At length I was repeatedly to read in the Gospel Messenger that if you had prepared an alterative (Sarsaparilla), for I knew from your reputation that any thing you made must be good. I sent to Cincinnati and got it, and used it till it cured me. I took it, as you advise, in small doses of a teaspoonful over a month, and used almost three bottles. New and healthy skin soon began to form under the scales, which fell off while fell off. My skin is now clear, and I know by my feelings that the disease has gone from my system. You can well believe that I feel what I am saying when I tell you, that I hold you to be one of the apostles of the age, and remain ever gratefully, Yours,

M. A. B. TALLEY.

St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Eyes, Dropsy.

Dr. Robert M. Fridley writes from Salem, N. Y., 12th Sept., 1859, that he has cured a very obstinate case of Dropsy, which threatened to terminate fatally, by the corrective use of your Sarsaparilla, and also a dangerous Malignant Erysipelas by large doses of the same; says he cures the common Ringworm by it constantly.

Bronchocele, Goitre or Swelled Neck.

Zebulon Shaw of Pecatonica, Ill., writes, "Three bottles of your Sarsaparilla cured me from a Goitre—a hideous swelling on the neck, which I had suffered from over two years."

Leucorrhea or Whites, Ovarian Tumor, Uterine Ulceration, Female Diseases.

Dr. J. B. S. Channing, of New York City, writes: "I most cheerfully comply with the request of your agent in saying I have found your Sarsaparilla an invaluable alterative in the numerous complaints for which we employ such a remedy, but especially in Scrofulous Diseases of the Scrofulous diathesis. I have cured many inveterate cases of Leucorrhoea by it, and none where the complaint was caused by uncovering of the cervix uteri. The alteration itself was soon cured. Nothing within my knowledge equals it for those female derangements."

Edward S. Marvey, of Newark, Ala., writes, "A dangerous ovarian tumor on one of the females in my family which had defied all the remedies we could employ, has at length been completely removed by your Extract of Sarsaparilla. Our physician thought nothing but extirpation would afford relief, but he advised the trial of your Sarsaparilla as the last resort before cutting, and it yielded to my administration of your Sarsaparilla after taking about half a dozen bottles, and of course without some disfiguration to his face. A woman who had been treated for the same disorder by mercury was suffering from ulceration in her bones. They ached, because to suffer to the weather that on a damp day she suffered excruciating pain in her joints and bones. She was cured entirely by your Sarsaparilla in a few weeks. I know from its formula, which your agent gave me, that this Preparation from your laboratory must be a great remedy considering the those truly remarkable results with it have not surprised me.

Fraternally yours, G. V. LARIMER, M. D.

Rheumatism, Gout, Liver Complaint.

HERSCHERSVILLE, Preston Co., Va., 6th July, 1858.

Dr. J. C. Ayer: Sir, I have been a sufferer from a painful chronic Rheumatism for a long time, which baffled the skill of physicians, and stuck to me in spite of all the remedies could find, and I despaired of a cure. Your pill bottle cured me in two weeks, and restored my general health so much that I am far better than before I was attacked. I think it a wonderful medicine. Yours, &c.

John Y. Gelchell, of St. Louis, writes: "I have been afflicted for years with an affection of the Liver, which destroyed my health. I tried every thing, and every thing failed to relieve me; and I knew nothing short of death, for some years from no other cause than derangement of the Liver. My beloved pastor, the Rev. Mr. Espy, advised me to try your Sarsaparilla. I took it, and it cured me, and any thing you made was worth trying. By the blessing of God it has cured me, and has so purified my blood as to make a new man of me. I feel young again. The best that can be said of you is not half good enough."

Schirrus, Cancer Tumors, Enlargement, Ulceration, Caries and Exfoliation of the Bones.

A great variety of cases have been reported to us where cures of these formidable complaints have resulted from the use of this remedy, but our space here will not admit them. Some of them may be found in our American Almanac, which the agents below named are pleased to furnish to all who call for them.

Dyspepsia, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Melancholy, Neuralgia

Many remarkable cures of these affections have been made by the alterative power of this medicine. It stimulates the vital functions into vigorous action, and thus overcomes disorders which would be supposed beyond its reach. Such a remedy has long been required by the medical profession of the people, and we are confident that this will do for them all that medicine can do.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the Relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced Stages of the Disease.

This is a remedy so universally known to surpass any other for the cure of throat and lung complaints, that it is needless for us to publish the evidence of its virtues. Its unrivaled excellence for coughs and colds, and its truly wonderful cures of pulmonary disease, have made it known throughout the civilized world, and all the truth, Few are the communities, or even families, into which they have not some personal experience of its effects—some lost friend or relative saved from the grave, the victim of these dreadful and dangerous disorders of the throat and lungs. As all know the wonderful fatality of these disorders, and as they know, too, the efficacy of the remedy, we need only do more than to assure them that it has now all the virtues it ever had, and that when making the cures which have won it its great renown, the medicine is the same.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass.

MOTHERS

It must be obvious not only to you, but to every attentive and intelligent person, that the first diseases of infants arise chiefly from a disordered condition of their bowels, and in the superstition, we present to your notice, for the alleviation and cure of these diseases, a remedy known as

Dr. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL,

Prepared from a formula used by Dr. Eaton with remarkable success during several years' practice. We know it to be a most reliable and efficacious remedy for infantile complaints, and one trial alone will convince you of its superiority over every other preparation of the kind. It is particularly recommended

FOR CHILDREN TEETHING,

And as the period of infancy is the time when your anxious hearts are pained by witnessing the sufferings of your little ones, it will be found invaluable in Regulating the Bowels, Giving Easy Compositions and Relieving the Pains, FOR DISEASES AT TENDING TEETHING, such as Diarrhea, Dysentery, Griping in the Bowels, Acidity of the Stomach, Wind, Colic, and Cold in the Head, we confidently offer this as a certain relief and cure in every case when given in time. It will invariably regulate the stomach and bowels, and its importance in this respect can hardly be estimated.

IN CONVULSIONS,

From which more infants are said to die than from any other disease, the little sufferer is relieved instantaneously, as if by magic; and in this dread complaint alone, its intrinsic value is such that it has been recommended as a specific to another, until the name of DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL has become "familiar as a household word." We now simply call your attention to a subject of vital interest to yourself, as well as to your suffering child. DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL contains

NO MORPHINE OR OPIATE,

Of any kind, or of whatever nature, a fact which we are fully warranted in saying cannot be said of any other preparation for infantile disorders, or this time before the public. We find that through the whole country, Mothers are becoming convinced of the truth, and of the sad and blighting consequences which are certain to result from the use of opiatics disguised in the form of quieting remedies. Their continued administration being invariably followed by stupefaction and constipation of the bowels, ending oftentimes in convulsions. Here is DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL offers from every other remedy.

DOES NOT CONSTIPATE

The Bowels, neither does it act by deadening the sensibilities of your children, but naturally, from its rare medicinal qualities, by removing all pain and cause of disease. We earnestly recommend it to Mothers, to save them the trouble in procuring a bottle, that you may have at hand, when your child will never fail to relieve your child in time of danger. It is perfectly harmless, and cannot injure the most delicate infant.

Take none but DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL. This you can rely upon. Price 25 cts per bottle.

BININGER'S OLD KENTUCKY BOURBON "1849 RESERVE"

The established popularity of this CHOICE OLD BOURBON as a medicinal agent, renders it superfluous to mention in detail the characteristics which distinguish it from the ordinary grade of Kentucky Whiskeys.

Being distilled in 1849, and manufactured expressly for we with great care, it can be relied upon as a strictly pure stimulant, and peculiarly effective for the treatment of Lung Complaints, Dyspepsia, Derangement of the Stomach, Nervousness, &c.

As a curative agent it has a tendency to recruit and invigorate, when the system is enfeebled by general charm, and enriched it with a delicious flavor and an oily body, it affords a pleasant incentive to the prescription or ordinary grade of Kentucky Whiskeys.

SOMETHING MORE VALUABLE

THAN SILVER OR GOLD,

BECAUSE

IT WILL RESTORE THE WEAK,

AND REINSTATE THE BLOOD IN ALL ITS ORIGINAL PURITY & VIGOR.

It is

PROF. O. J. WOOD'S

RESTORATIVE CORDIAL,

—AND—

BLOOD RENOVATOR.

It is precisely what its name indicates, for, while pleasant to the taste, it is revivifying, exhilarating, and strengthening to the vital powers. It also revivifies, reinstates and renews the blood in all its original purity, and thus restores and renders the system invulnerable to attacks of disease. It is the only preparation ever offered to the world in a popular form so as to be within the reach of all. So chemically and skillfully combined as to be the most powerful tonic, and yet so perfectly adapted in its combination and ingredients with the laws of nature, and hence suits the weakest stomach, and tone up the digestive organs, and all by all other preparations. It is so perfectly exhilarating in its effects, and yet is never followed by lassitude or depression of spirits as all other preparations of vegetable, and these thoroughly combining powerful tonic and soothing properties, and consequently can never injure. As a sure preventive and cure of

CONSUMPTION, BRONCHITIS, DYSPEPSIA INDIGESTION, LOSS OF APPETITE, FAINTNESS, NERVOUS DEBILITY, NEURALGIA, PALPITATION OF THE HEART, MELANCHOLY, HYPOCHONDRIA, NIGHT SWEATS, LANGUOR, GIDDINESS, AND ALL THAT CLASS OF CASES SO FEARFULLY CALLED SECRET, FEMALE WEAKNESSES AND IRREGULARITIES.

THERE IS NOTHING ITS EQUAL!

Also Liver Derangements and Torpidity, and Liver Complaints, Diseases of the Kidneys, or any generally deranged Secretions of the Urinary Organs.

It will not only cure the debility following CHILLS and FEVER, but it will prevent the attacking from miasmatic influences and cure the disease at once, if already attacked.

TRAVELLERS should have a bottle with them, as it will infallibly prevent any deleterious consequences following upon the change of climate and water.

As it prevents costiveness, and strengthens the digestive organs, it should be in the hands of all persons of sedentary habits.

LADIES not accustomed to much out-door exercise, should always use it.

MOTHERS should use it, for it is a perfect relief, taken a month or two before the final trial; she will pass the dreadful period with perfect ease and safety.

There is no mistake about it!

THE CORDIAL IS ALL WE CLAIM FOR IT!

MOTHERS, TRY IT!

And to you we appeal, to detect the illness or decline not only of your daughters before it is too late, but also your sons and husbands, for while the former, from false delicacy, often go down to a premature grave rather than let their condition be known; in time, the latter are often so mixed up with the excitement of business that if it were not for you they too would travel in the same downward path, until too late to arrest their fatal fall. Be the mother's ever vigilant, and in you we confidently appeal; to make sure your never failing affection will meritingly prevail on PROF. WOOD'S RESTORATIVE CORDIAL AND BLOOD RENOVATOR as the remedy which should be always on hand in your family.

O. J. WOOD, Proprietor, 444 Broadway, New York, and 114 Market street, St Louis, Mo., and sold by all good Druggists. Price $1 per bottle.

Read what the Press say, after thoroughly testing the matter, and no one can doubt longer.

PROF. WOOD'S Restorative Cordial and Blood Renovator is a genuine medicine of real merit, pleasant to the taste, and invigorating to the system. Its effect upon the blood and healthes the nervous irritation, it aids the organs of digestion to perform their functions, and resists the assaults of disease. Its a chemical compound so skillfully combined, that while it exhilarates it does not provoke the lassitude which usually follows excitement. A tonic composed of a variety of vegetable matter, it is absolutely beneficial, and none ill effects can possibly accompany its use. It is an invaluable and speedy remedy for Loss of Appetite, Faintness, Nervous Debility, Neuralgia, Failing of the Womb, and other delicate diseases to which women are subject. Also for Liver, Stomach, Bilious Attacks, Liver Complaints, Costiveness, Dyspepsia, Consumption, and a host of evils flesh is heir to, it is a certain cure.—St. Louis Morning Herald.

PROF. WOOD'S Restorative Cordial.—It is recorded in the classics that Apelle was successful to a climate warmer than the West Indies, to procure a sample of the beauty of Phyllis in a box. After some delay the messenger returned, and as soon as the top of the box was removed, out flew all the ills that flesh is heir to. Fortunately hope was found in the bottom of the box. Prof. Wood's Restorative Cordial revives the recollection of the story, for it invigorates the blood, aids the organs of digestion, imparts strength to the nervous system, and fortifies the citadel of health so as to bid defiance to the assaults of disease. It is a healthy tonic, composed entirely of vegetable productions, and while it is exhilarating as pure wine, its invigorating qualities can possibly follow its use. It is a desideratum in the medical world, and those who are afflicted with loss of appetite, Dyspepsia, Consumption, Faintness, Neuralgia, Palpitation of the Heart, &c. will have find an infallible panacea.—St. Louis Daily Express.

PROF. WOOD'S RESTORATIVE CORDIAL AND BLOOD RENOVATOR is without doubt, the best tonic known to the world. To those who are suffering from general debility, we would recommend its use, for it is pleasant to the taste, is strengthening to the system, and will act as a tonic and to remove all impurities of the blood, and eradicate all traces of disease. It can be taken by the weakest stomach, while those in good health will at once feel its exhilarating power. We are confident that after using one bottle of this Cordial, none will be for a day without it.—N. Y. Leader.

A PURE, HEALTHY TONIC, and one free from the deleterious and injurious effects sure to follow those in ordinary use, has long been felt to be a desideratum in the medical world. Such a tonic, and one so skillfully combined from the vegetable kingdom as to act in perfect accordance with the laws of Nature, and thus soothe the weakest stomach, and at the same time allay nervous and other irritations, and tone up all the organs of which the human body is composed, is offered in Prof. Wood's Restorative Cordial and Blood Renovator. Hence it is perfectly adapted to old and Young. Reader, try it. Thousands have already done so, and testimony is universal in its favor.—New York Star.

Morning Chronicle.

A newly married man in Boston went home one evening much earlier than customary; and finding his wife in bed, he retired also. In a few minutes she requested him to go to the druggist's and procure some medicine for the toothache, from which she was suffering terrible pain. The kind husband dressed himself and complied; but on paying for the articles purchased, he was astonished to find the pockets of his pantaloons replenished with plenty of gold and silver, and on further examination he found a wallet containing $154 in bills. The pantaloons he had on were of fine broadcloth, while his usual nether garments were coarse cassimere. When he got home, in rather a suspicious frame of mind, his own pantaloons had disappeared, and his wife was so crazed with the toothache that she could not say a single word. The cash and the cassimere were confiscated by the husband, and the wife dismissed until she is cured of the toothache.—Herald.

RUSSIAN EMANCIPATION.—A letter from Petersburgh, dated Feb. 10, says:

"The moment is close at hand when the emancipation of the serfs will be an accomplished fact. The proclamation will be issued on the 3d of March next, the anniversary of the elevation to the throne of Alexander II, whose reign will be forever illustrated by this measure of social justice.

Thus, more than 20,000,000 of Christian souls will at one and the same hour have ceased to be a property. Yesterday a solemn sitting of the Council of the Empire was held on the subject, and much curiosity and anxiety prevailed to know what it would lead to. There were a thousand different rumors this morning, but during the day well-informed persons have assurred me that the date I have above given is that fixed for the act of liberation.—The emotion created by this news throughout the Empire is immense."

☞ The Louisville Journal thinks that it might be well, in taking any future Territory into the Union as a State, to require from her a bond, with reasonable security, that she will not secede in less than ninety days. "Perhaps there might be a compromise on sixty."

☞ Mrs. Ruth Goss died at Henniker on Saturday morning last, at the age of 97 years and 10 months, being previous to her death the oldest person in town.

Constant occupation prevents temptation and begets contentment, and content is the true philosopher's stone.

RHEUMATISM AND NEURALGIA.

GARDINER'S
RHEUMATIC AND NEURALGIA COMPOUND
Is a certain, safe and permanent cure for Rheumatism, Neuralgia and Salt Rheum. It is an internal remedy, driving out and entirely eradicating the disease, requiring no change in diet or business, and may be taken by children and persons of the most delicate constitutions with perfect safety.
TESTIMONIALS.
Having been a constant sufferer from Neuralgia for eighteen months, and been driven by excruciating pain to the trial of numberless remedies without obtaining relief, I was induced to try "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound." I have taken but one bottle, and am entirely well." D. D. BAXTER, Dry Goods Dealer, No. 5 Appleton Block, Lowell, Mass.
I have been afflicted with Salt Rheum in its worst form for a long time, and suffered more than can be imagined except by those similarly afflicted. I tried one bottle of your Compound, and can honestly say that I believe myself entirely cured.—JOHN A. MORDO, Pearl St. House, Boston, Mass.
Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has entirely relieved me from sufferings of several years' standing.—W. E. HODGKINS, No. 1 Old State House, Boston.
My son, ten years of age, has been for three years a great sufferer from Salt Rheum, his hands covered with sores, and in constant pain. One bottle of your Compound cured him.—J. W. HAMMOND, 99 Milk street, Boston.
I certify that my friend, Wm. T. Glidden, Esq., presented me with a bottle of "Gardiner's Rheumatic Compound," in 1856, when I was suffering, with a painful attack of Neuralgia and Rheumatism, and that it proved to be of decided benefit.—ALBERT SMITH, Ex-Member of Congress from Maine.
TESTIMONY OF JUDGE KITTREDGE OF VERMONT.—Charles F. Gardiner, Esq.,—Dear Sir,—I beg leave to add my testimony in favor of "Gardiner's Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound."—After suffering twenty years with Rheumatism, more or less, and last year with a very severe attack, I took one bottle of your Compound, which afforded decided relief. I think it the best and most efficacious medicine for that disease I ever used.—WM. C. KITTREDGE, Fair Haven, Vt., Dec. 1st, 1860.
The Rheumatic and Neuralgia Compound has been taken by hundreds of persons for Scrofulous Humors with great benefit.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

FRIDAY, MARCH 15, 1861.

BEFORE AND AFTER.

On the 6th of March, before election, the Concord Patriot said:

Every vote for Rollins, or Marston, or Edwards, is a vote to destroy the Union, a vote to bring upon the country all the evils, the sufferings, the horrors of civil war;—but by voting for Stark, Marcy, Bell and Burns, they will declare for peace, for the Union, for the material prosperity and future welfare and happiness of the people.

The Democratic Standard of March 9th, said:

There is an open rebellion in the Republican ranks in this the first Congressional District, on account of the nomination of Rollins for Congress. He has not the ability for such a place, and the Republicans know it, and hundreds of them in this city declare they will not vote for him.

Thousands have come out from the Republican ranks within a few weeks, and they are rallying around our candidate for Governor, Gen. Stark, as their only hope. He will be elected by a handsome vote, and his election will be celebrated throughout the land of the American people, as we now celebrate the 4th of July.

The Patriot of March 13, after election, states that Rollins, in Concord, had 1316 votes, or only 15 less than Tappan in 1859; and that Bell had 891, or 25 less than George had in 1859.

The same paper shows that Berry, in Concord, had 13 votes more than Gov. Goodwin received last year, and that Stark received 21 votes less this year than Cate got last year.

The same Patriot says of the election returns, so far:

They indicate the general result—the triumph of the most radical and uncompromising type of black republicanism, by a reduced majority. The republican majority will be about 3500; it was 4500 last year.

SHEEP vs. DOGS.—No matter how much we may all love or admire a good Dog—any reasonable man must allow that nine-tenths at least of the curs in New Hampshire, are an expensive nuisance. Our State is peculiarly fitted for grazing—especially sheep-feeding; and but for the dogs in all parts of it, mutton and wool would be much more plenty, and of course cheaper.

In view of the evil of so many Dogs, it is time the State took some action in the matter, if this could be done—seeing that the Towns do not appreciate the subject.—At the East Washington, N. H., Lyceum, recently, the following preamble and resolution was discussed and passed:

Whereas, a large portion of New Hampshire is unfit for the plow, but valuable for grazing; and whereas, sheep grazing, the most profitable of any in the State, is seriously retarded by the destruction of sheep by dogs; therefore,

Resolved, that it is the duty of the next Legislature to impose a tax upon the owners of dogs, sufficient to meet the loss sustained by sheep owners in consequence of the destruction of their sheep by dogs.

W. D. Proctor, a citizen of that place, stated that his flock was damaged to the amount of $100 the past season, by dogs.—The above resolution is right, in spirit, but does not go far enough; for the Dogs have "had their day" far too long, and ought to be absolutely driven off the face of the earth, in favor of the sheep.

N. B.—Of course no "good dog" ever troubles sheep, or does any other bad thing,—he has brains enough to know better.

MUSICAL GOSSIP.—The American Prima Donna, Miss Isabella Hinckley, made her debut at the Boston Academy, in the opera of Lucia di Lammermoor. The Boston papers claim that she is the only American lady that ever appeared in opera, tho' we cannot see why they should ignore Mme. Biscaccianti, who, although of foreign parents was certainly American born.—Newburyport Herald.

Yes, and where is Mrs. Varian James also, who has sung in opera with Parodi for "second"—and to whom neither Miss Hinckley nor Madame Biscaccianti can claim superiority.

It is reported that the London manager, Gye, has succeeded in obtaining the services of Jenny Lind for this season.—Boston Post.

You must be Green to believe that, when Jenny is just reported as to have just received in charge, a new petite tenore of the genus Goldschmidt. That story must be all a "guy."

HAMPTON TOWN OFFICERS.—Moderator, Thomas Leavitt, jr.; Town Clerk, John J. Leavitt; Selectmen, Abraham Fogg, Joseph A. Dearborn, Jonathan M. Lamprey; Collector of Taxes and Constable, Samuel Merserve.

THE BOSTON LIQUOR SHOPS ON SUNDAY.—The Chief of Police reports to the Mayor's office that the city was very quiet on Sunday last; all the places for the sale of liquor were closed during the day. Notices were sent to 208 persons, and only 30 places were reported yesterday as having opened during any portion of Sunday or that night.—Boston Atlas.

"Awful" Gardner, the reformed prize-fighter, is insane.

What Miss will ruin any man? Mismanagement.

COMPARISON OF VOTES.—Messrs. Editors:—Our vote in this city, at the last presidential election was only 1337, in the whole, of which Lincoln had 778, just 8 more than Gov. Berry got here last Tuesday. Douglas had 418, Breckinridge 126, Bell and scat. 15; total 559, or about 100 less than Mr. Cate had for governor in March 1860. The two democratic parties were then pulling two ways; now they pull together, with the Bell party.

The vote for Governor last Tuesday, was 1447, or 110 heavier than the presidential vote in November.

It has been already stated that the vote for member of Congress in 1859 was 1696, and in 1861 was 1460,—showing a decrease of 236. And that while Marston loses 5 votes, Capt. Marcy loses 235.

And to account for this difference in the two years' election, it has been said that very much of the difference between the votes of Marcy, and those relatively for Cate and Stark, was due to the exchange of votes between the friends of Goodwin and Marcy—which influence of course was not brought to bear in this last contest.

To see exactly how much of that difference belonged to this cause, we state that in 1859, Mr. Dow, for Senator, got 807 votes, and the ticket generally had 800.—Gov. Goodwin had 837, or about 37 votes above the average republican ticket in this city, for State and County officers.

At the same time Capt. Marcy had 967 votes, or 67 above the average vote of his party, which averaged 900.

Mr. Cate had 854 votes, and there were 3 scattering,—so that he only fell about 37 votes short of his party,—and these 37 were all that were or could have been transferred.

It is possible that 30 of them might pair off twice, but not very probable. It is certain, however, that not more than 37 votes would have been exchanged.

There has, no doubt, been an actual diminution of voters, especially of Irish voters, within these two years,—and Capt. M.'s loss is divided among the wards thus; in Ward 3 about 28, Ward 2 about 70, and in Ward 1, 137—greatest where the largest foreign vote was, and the most removals.

It is well known here, that in the autumn of 1858, about 200 men were naturalized in our Courts, while few or none were naturalized in the autumn of 1859. Of these 200 men, nearly all of whom lived in the first congressional district, probably not half can be found in it now.

These figures need no explanations; they speak for themselves. A VOTER.

LARGE IMPORTATION OF FINE ENGLISH CARPETS.—For sale at retail, by the "New England Carpet Company," comprising Velvets, Tapestries and Brussels, of the celebrated productions of John Crossley & Sons, Halifax, England. These goods are of the very newest and most desirable patterns, and are the finest and stand the highest of any carpets which come into the American market. This entire invoice was purchased of a New York importer, who was in need of the ready cash, for a low figure, and will be cut up in quantities to suit our customers, at about three-quarters value. New England Carpet Company, 75 Hanover street, opposite American House.—Boston Journal. 1t

☞ Capt. Chas. H. Sanborn has given the Baptist Church of Seabrook, a new Bell, which with fixtures cost $350. Capts. Wm. and James Sanborn gave the fixtures and hangings. The bell is of bronze, weighs 1000 pounds, and was cast by Henry N. Hooper & Co. It was elevated to the belfry and rung for the first time on the 4th of March, and gives great satisfaction to the people.

☞ A correspondent of a New Orleans paper says:—

"Through a typographical error you made me call Page, the artist's wife, Miss Page. She was duly married to Page, and furnished the model of his celebrated Venus. The union, however, became disagreeable to Mrs Page, and she seceded with an Italian Count, who pleased her no better than her husband. Now she is like the last rose of Summer, left blooming alone, and purposes to come out as an actress."

OFFICE SEEKING.—Since the inauguration there has been quite an addition to the applicants for office in this quarter, and autographs are in demand. We hope this administration will appoint men as good as the present encumbents, or let the present remain. The institution of a general change of office holders with every change in the government was a bad practice; and if we are to have any reforms, this Administration cannot do better than to inquire fully into the character and habits of applicants.—Newburyport Herald.

☞ Gen. Stark, the Democratic candidate for Governor, ran considerably ahead of his ticket in Nashua, his place of residence, but not enough to carry the city, by 52 votes.

The Niagara Falls Gazette tells a story of two young ladies who were promenading along the street recently, when one of them slipped and came down on the icy pavement "like a thousand of bricks." Jumping quickly up she exclaimed, sotto voce, "Before another winter I'll have a man to hang on to; see if I don't."

LATEST FROM WASHINGTON.

[It is highly probable he carries the order for evacuation, or a suggestion that such an order will follow him very soon.]

The President to day nominated Col. Sumner as Brigadier General, vice Twiggs, in accordance with the regular order of promotion; also James M. Edwards, Commissioner of the General Land Office; Ex-Congressman Spinner, Treasurer of the United States; Lieut. Talbot for promotion to occupy the rank of Adjutant General.

The resolution offered in the Senate today by Mr. Douglas, was designed, by obtaining a reply, to officially disclose the fact that there is no adequate power under the existing laws to retake and hold the southern forts now in possession of the seceded States, and to show that proceedings to that end would involve a large additional military force, and a great expenditure of money; and that, therefore, the question of war must necessarily be postponed until the next session of Congress.

Commissioners Forsyth and Crawford have received such assurance from high sources of the pacific intentions of the administration in reference to the Southern forts, that they will make no official demands at present, pending the movements at Fort Sumter, but will remain quiet. It is said their instructions contemplate a disregard of forms and etiquette in the attainment of results.

[If this be true, there can be little doubt that peace will continue.]

The Washington dispatch of the 12th, to the N. Y. Herald says:—

I am able to state positively that the abandonment of Fort Sumter has been determined upon by the President, and his Cabinet. An order to that effect has, however, not been issued, and may not be for some days. The cause of the delay is not want of resolution, but simply a desire to prepare the northern mind better for the now inevitable emergency. This is the case in a nut-shell. Both Gen. Scott and Gen. Wool have given, upon request, their opinion advising an evacuation.

The excitement and indignation of the majority of the Republicans at the humiliation in store for them, continues to be immense.

Nobody regrets the existing state of facts concerning Major Anderson's position more than the President. He had no part in the work of creating them, but, at the same time, coming into power with them staring him fully in the face, he does not propose to shrink from the responsibility of meeting them, and will do so as promptly as the importance of the subject will admit, and act as wisely upon them as time and the facts will allow.

I learn to-day, from an official source that cannot be questioned, that no vessel drawing more than six feet of water can enter the harbor of Charleston. The channel, closed up some time since with sunken vessels, is still closed.

NEW YORK, March 14.—Advices from Montgomery say that President Davis has received most ominous communications from Washington respecting the intentions of the Lincoln administration relative to blockading the Southern ports, and attempting to collect the revenue. In consequence of these advices, the Montgomery Cabinet, it is said, resolved to put 50,000 troops in motion for Washington as soon as a single vessel is stopped outside of a Southern port, believing that the people of the border States will rally to assist them.

A dispatch to the World says it is reported that Gen Scott has stated that the garrison of Fort Sumter would be out on Monday.

WASHINGTON, March 14.—The Charleston Courier states that the batteries bearing on the ship channel are of the heaviest kind and are now in a high state of preparation and ready for almost any force.

The Courier believes that reinforcements for Fort Sumter are impossible, and estimates that there are three thousand highly disciplined troops in the various harbor fortifications.

☞ News from Europe, via Liverpool Feb. 27, by the Etna, which brings £260,000. The Arabia was to sail soon with £200,000 specie.

The slave trade was debated in the House of Commons upon the resolutions offered by Mr. Cave, declaring the efforts to suppress it hitherto ineffectual, and pointing to the introduction of free labor into the West Indies as the most efficient means.

Lords Russell and Palmerston strongly deprecated the policy of America in preventing a search and permitting the prostitution of its flag.

PRESERVATION OF THE HAIR.—Some attention paid to this item of propriety would avoid much of the Baldness so prevalent in this country. Dr. Bellingham, of London, has immortalized his name as the inventor of a "Stimulating Onguent," which would be as appropriate in preventing as in curing baldness. To cause a luxuriant growth of beard or whiskers, it is equally certain. Messrs. H. L. Hegeman & Co. now have the entire American market.—Hence we look for a large increase in hirsute appendages among our young men.—See our advertising columns. 1t

NEW HAMPSHIRE ELECTION.—One hundred and thirty-six towns give Berry 26,050; Stark 21,569; scattering 104. The Republicans have elected 115 Representatives to the Legislature, and the Democrats 50.

☞ The California Legislature, by a vote of 41 to 32, have expunged the resolutions of censure formerly passed against the late Senator Broderick.

What perfume is most injurious to female beauty? The essence of thyme (time.)

SPECIAL SESSION U. S. SENATE.

WEDNESDAY, March 13.

Mr. Douglas offered a resolution calling upon the Secretary of War for information relative to the forts in the seceded States, and, if necessary to occupy the same, what force would be required to do so.

Messrs. Wilson and Mason objecting, the resolution lies over.

Mr. Fessenden offered a resolution directing the Secretary to strike from the roll, the names of the Senators from the seceding States who have declared they were no longer members.

The Senate then went into executive session, after which, adjourned.

FROM TEXAS.—New Orleans, Mar. 13. Galveston dates of the 11th say that Gov. Houston refuses to recognize the convention, considering its functions ended when the ordinance of secession was submitted to the people. He tells the convention that he and the Legislature, which meets on the 18th, will attend to the public questions now arising, and favors a new convention to make such changes in the State constitution as may be necessary. He is opposed to Texas joining the new confederacy. The convention in reply passed an ordinance claiming full powers, and promising to consummate as speedily as possible the connection of Texas with the Confederated States. It will at once require all officers to take the oath of allegiance to the new government and carry out the ordinances of the convention.

It is reported that Mr. Clark will be put in Governor Houston's place if he refuses to take the oath. It is also said that Houston is raising troops on his own account.

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS.—The amendment to the Constitution, which was passed by the last Congress, before it can become a part of that instrument, must be ratified by three-fourths of the Legislatures of the States. There are thirty-four States claimed, and three fourths of this number would be twenty-six. If North Carolina and Arkansas secede, there will be nine States that would not recognise the Constitution, and would take no action on any proposed amendment. In that case the Constitution can never be amended unless some of these States be brought peacefully back, or the independence of the Southern Confederacy recognized.—Boston Courier.

Some people may amuse themselves with the idea of the proposed amendment—but the prospects of its adoption by three-fourths of the States, either in conventions or by the people, are rather small.

☞ The Rev. Thomas Beecher, brother of Henry Ward Beecher, walking through Elmira, saw a poor widow, who had no one to help her, sawing her wood. Immediately, off went his overcoat and muffler, and sound ministerial muscle soon finished the little pile she had. The next day, a cord of wood was laid before the widow's door, and sawed and piled by two men—the pay coming out of the Rev. Beecher's pocket.

☞ On the 6th inst., Mr. Charles F. Woodman of Durham, being at work in a shingle mill, in attempting to remove a belt from the wheel with the aid of a bar, received a blow in the stomach which is supposed to have killed him instantly, as he was found dead. Mr. Woodman was about 33 years of age, brother of Professor John S. Woodman of Dartmouth College.

☞ In 1790, the population of New Hampshire gave her rank as the tenth State in the Union. Now she is the twenty-seventh. Then, as now, there were seven States of lesser magnitude than our own. These are at present, Vermont, Rhode Island, Minnesota, Florida, Kansas, Delaware and Oregon.

☞ Two bids on the eight million United States loan, were made from New Hampshire—one by the Claremont Bank for $10,000, and the other by George N. Farwell of Claremont. The bids were 90 1-4 per cent. on the hundred. Both were accepted.

☞ The fall and imprisonment of Mires, the Paris banker, continue to excite the Parisians. His commitment took the whole people by surprise, as he had wielded immense sway over the world of speculation. He is delinquent to the amount of one hundred and twenty millions of dollars.—He is a Hebrew.

The famous floating battery at Charleston, which cost $15,000, and was to be used in assaulting Fort Sumter, has come to a melancholy end. Soon after it was launched it capsized and sunk, and there is no getting it to the surface again. The engineer made a slight mistake in putting all the weight on one side.—Boston Post.

THE SOUTHERN FLAG.—The flag finally adopted by the Montgomery Congress is made thus:—

Three stripes—the first red, the next white, and the third red. In the extreme left hand corner of the flag, at the top, on a blue ground, are seven white stars in a circle.

☞ The Richmond Examiner says that Lincoln was inaugurated as John Brown was hanged—under the protection of cannons and bayonets.

We are born crying, live complaining, and die disappointed.

☞ Mr. Seward is not a great ways from right, when he says—"A Union upheld by force would be a despotism."

☞ Miss Prescott, the popular magazine writer, is about to be married to Mr. Richard S. Spofford, Jr., a young and talented lawyer of Newburyport.

☞ Occasionally, we are favored with an advertisement or communication, which, like the marble lying dormant in the quarry, untouched by the skillful hand of the sculptor,—needs to be hewn, trimmed and polished, in order to please the author, and printer. The following is a specimen, which, the reader will readily perceive, will require a few "touches," to make it read in the usual style of an advertisement.

EXCITEMENT AMONG THE CLAM BANKS. Yesterday was a stirring day at Easton's Beach. The violent storm of Saturday, or the sea which it created, had torn the large sea clams from their beds at the bottom of the ocean, and the ground swell of Sunday and yesterday, threw them on the beach in hundreds of bushels, where they lay exposed and within the reach of all who chose to pick them up. Hundreds of bushels were thus gathered yesterday.

These clams are of large size, many of them measuring four or five inches in length, and weighing more than a pound. We hear of one of old patriarch picked up yesterday, measuring twelve or more inches in length and which must have weighed several pounds.—Newport News.

GETTING HONEST.—The Republicans of Rhode Island have resolved to spend no money in the coming election in that State. The Democrats say they were cleaned out in the Presidential contest, and, consequently, have now no money to spend.

WISTAR'S BALSAM WILDCHERRY.

In the whole history of medical discoveries, no REMEDY has performed so many or such remarkable cures of the Throat, Lungs and Chest,—of Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, or of Consumption itself, as this far-famed, long-tried and justly celebrated Balsam. So generally acknowledged is the supe for excellence of this remedy, that but few of the many who have tested its virtues by experience fail to keep it at hand, as a speedy and certain cure for sudden attacks of Cold—fully believing that its remedial powers are comprehensive enough to embrace every form of disease, from the slightest cold to the most dangerous symptom of pulmonary complaint.

George W. Millet, Esq.

Editor of the Norway Advertiser, gives his opinion of this great remedy substantially as follows:

NORWAY VILLAGE, Me., Aug 4, 1860.

Messrs. S. W. Fowle & Co.—Gentlemen:—For a remedy of such undoubted merit as DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, I cheerfully give you my testimony, and trust that others may be induced thereby to give it a trial and be relieved. Several years since I first became acquainted with this Balsam at a time of distressing cough and cold, which took such firm hold of my lungs as to render me unfit for business, and its operation produced a speedy and permanent cure, after trying various other remedies in vain.

In our town this remedy is a great favorite with many, and if all who suffer will but give it a fair trial, I think they will find it to be of more service in pulmonary affections than any other remedy of this class before the public.

Yours respectfully, GEO. W. MILLET.

A VOICE FROM THE WEST!

FROM THE CLEVELAND PLAINDEALER.

UNIVERSAL, UNIVERSAL,
IS THE DEMAND FOR
DR. S. O. RICHARDSON'S
SHERRY WINE BITTERS,

The celebrated New England remedy for

Habitual Constipation, Jaundice, Fever and Ague, General Debility, and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Stomach, Liver or Bowels.

They are used and recommended by the leading Physicians of the country, and all who try them, pronounce them invaluable.

Dr. JAMES L. LEFEERE writes from Navarre, Stark Co., O.: "The Bitters are praised by those suffering from indigestion, dyspepsia and liver complaint."

E. S. DAVIS, Postmaster at Williamsport, Ohio, says: "They give great satisfaction. I use them myself. Having taken cold, become prostrate, and lost my appetite, I relieved me, and I can recommend it with great assurance of its merits."

Dr. WM. M. KERR, of Rogersville, Ind., writes us that they are the most valuable medicine offered. He has recommended them with great success, and with them made several cures of palpitation of the heart, and general debility.

THOMAS STANFORD, Esq., Blountville, Henry Co., Ind., writes us a long letter under date of May 4, 1860. He was much reduced, having been afflicted for three years with great nervous debility, palpitation of the heart of the most severe and prostrating character: "after using a few bottles, I was completely restored, and am now in robust health."

GEORGE W. HOFFMAN says he was afflicted with rheumatism in all its various forms for 20 years, and at the date of his letter he had been two years well, the Bitters effecting the cure, when several physicians attending him could do him no good. He says "for rheumatism, dyspepsia, liver complaint, kidney affection or dropsy, it is a specific certain remedy."

J. W. HUNT writes from Delphos, Allen Co., Ohio, (a section where fever and ague prevails,) that he cheerfully recommends them as of decided virtue in cases of fever and ague, dyspepsia and general debility.

D. K. GALLEHERS, M. D., writes from Van Wert, O.: "I most respectfully recommend the Sherry Wine Bitters to the notice of dyspeptic persons, and all who require a stimulating medicine."

LIFE INSURANCE.

"IN THE MIDST OF LIFE WE ARE IN DEATH."

The strong man often falters, and falls in the midst of the hurry and business of life. The wise man maketh provision for those whom he loveth, against the liability to accident and death.

THE
MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE CO.
Of New York,
with an accumulated capital of over
SEVEN MILLION DOLLARS,

Invested at seven per cent. on bond and mortgage loans in the City and State of New York, upon Real Estate worth double the amount loaned thereon, issues

POLICIES on lives, payable to the wife, or to the legal representative of the person insured.

POLICIES payable to the person insured, on his attaining the age of 50, 60 or 70; or to his representative in case of decease before attaining this age.

PREMIUMS may be paid, quarterly, semi-annually, or annually, at the option of the insured.

The long experience of this excellent institution, like the one hundred years' experience of the great Equitable Life Insurance Co. of London, and other kindred institutions, proves their stability and perpetuity when established upon the right principle. Investments made with them have proved more remunerative than with Savings Banks.

The time is near, when to protect one's family from the loss and want often attendant upon the death of its provider, will be as universal as it is now to protect ourselves from loss by fire.

No reflecting man can sit at his fireside with his young family about him, and feel at ease;—when he knows that if death should take him from them, they would be cast upon a selfish world, without the means for education or support, which he can easily provide for them thro' a life policy.

GROVER & BAKER

SEWING MACHINES.

TO THE LADIES.

CHARLES T. EMERY,

No. 10 Market Sq., Portsmouth,

Having been appointed

SOLE AGENT IN PORTSMOUTH

for the sale of the celebrated and unrivalled Noiseless

GROVER & BAKER

FAMILY AND MANUFACTURING

Sewing Machines,

would invite especial attention to the same.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE makes the only seam formed by a Sewing Machine, in which each stitch is independently locked, and without dependence on other stitches for strength, and the only seam that will admit of the thread being cut at every fourth stitch without injury to the seam in wear.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE is adapted to all varieties of fabrics, sewing equally well the finest Swiss Muslin or the heaviest cloth or leather, and requiring no adjustment for any kind of sewing other than the adaptation of needles and thread.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE sews from ordinary spools without rewinding, and fastens its own seams, thereby saving time and thread It will sew common spool cotton, silk and linen thread with equal facility.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE is so simple that an intelligent child of ten years can readily learn to operate it. It is more easily kept in order than any other machine, and need not be taken apart to be oiled.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE makes the only stitch that cannot be injured by washing and ironing, and the only stitch that forms an elastic and durable seam. Fabrics put together with this stitch may wear out and drop to pieces from original weakness, or hard usage, but come apart or give way at the seams, they c not; they will hold together when the cloth or calico around them hangs in rags and tatters.

Every Machine Warranted.

PRICES FROM $40 UPWARDS.

THE FAMINE IN KANSAS.

Appeal for the Destitute, from the New York City Committee.

WM. C. BRYANT, Chairman. J. E. WILLIAMS, Treasurer.
Chas. H. Marshall, Seth B. Hunt, R H. McCurdy, Morris Ketchum, G. C. Bronson, Chas. W. Elliott, Daniel Lord, Daniel Drew, J S. Wadsworth.

It has become our imperative duty to urge upon the public attention the fact that over 40,000 of our fellow citizens in Kansas are now in imminent danger of starving. We have evidence from all sources—from Gen. Pomeroy, Chairman of the Territorial Relief Committee,—from the columns of nearly every newspaper, of all shades of politics—from our own reliable agent, who has just returned. There was no doubt of the misery, terrible, wide-spread, destructive.

We have evidence that whole families have already died of starvation; and that thousands more must die down discouraged, and die of want or disease consequent upon it, unless prompt and thorough relief is at once applied. Congress is now attempting to sustain the starving Indians, but our 40,000 fellow countrymen—men, women and children—can neither get away from their desolation, nor borrow, nor beg. Their only dependence is upon us, who have never known hunger.

THEY MUST BE SUSTAINED. Will you help us to help them?

To assure you that whatever you do will reach them, we state that in every destitute township is a Relief Committee—these are all represented by the Territorial Committee, as follows:

TERRITORIAL COMMITTEE.

S. C. Pomeroy, Atchison; W. W Guthrie, Brown County; J L. McDowell, Leavenworth; Rev. C. Reynolds, Lawrence; Rev. L. Bodwell, Topeka; Dr. S. Ayers, Linn County; F U Blake, Junction City; C. B. Lines, Wabaunsee; F. B. Baker, Centralia; Rev. Wm. Bishop, Salina;—Judge A. Spaulding, Jefferson County; J. C. Burnett, Bourbon County; J. C. Lambdin, Butler County; Geo. M. Russell, Wyandotte.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

S. C. Pomeroy, Chairman; J. L. McDowell, Rev. C. Reynolds, Rev. L. Bodwell, F. P. Baker.
S. C. POMEROY, Corresponding Secretary.
G. H. FAIRCHILD, Treasurer.

Gen. Pomeroy is Chairman, and at ATCHISON devotes his whole time and energy, with assistants, to the receipt of food and clothing, all of which are delivered upon requisitions of Town Committees, and are distributed through them.—This organization is prompt, thorough and effective, and we advise the sending of supplies through it. Money and clothing are needed from us;—food can be got in the West.

The names of our committee appear at the head of this appeal, and we hope will be sufficient to induce co-operation. Our Treasurer is JOHN K. WILLIAMS, President of the Metropolitan Bank, New York City. All money sent to him will be applied to the payment of Gen. Pomeroy's drafts on account of freights and sacks. We appeal to you all, by every dictate of humanity, of honor, and of public good, to unite with us in alleviating this great calamity. There is no time to be lost.

FIRST—We ask individuals everywhere to contribute at once, and to urge it upon their friends and neighbors.

SECOND—We appeal to all churches and organized bodies to act promptly, generously and efficiently.

THIRD—We urge upon EVERY GOVERNOR OF EVERY STATE immediately to bring this matter to the attention of their Legislatures and people. Our last statistics show that nearly $200,000 is needed within the coming fortnight, to supply this people with seed for Spring planting. It can only be furnished by State action. Every consideration of interest also demands that this new State should be enabled to become self-sustaining, productive, and eventually rich—thus to fulfill her destiny, and to help others, as we are now helping her.

We ask, therefore, every Legislature to do as they would have others do to them in like distress, and at once to grant ample supplies.

All money sent to our Treasurer, JOHN E. WILLIAMS, Metropolitan Bank, New York City, will be gratefully acknowledged and effectively used.

All Clothing should be sent to "GEN. POMEROY, Atchison, Kansas," and freight should be prepaid. DaWim Celebrated Stimulating Ongnent!

For the Whiskers and Hair.

The subscribers take pleasure in announcing to the citizens of the United States, that they have obtained the Agency for, and are now enabled to offer to the American people, the above justly celebrated and world-renowned article.

THE STIMULATING ONGUENT

is prepared by DR. C. P. BELLINGHAM, an eminent physician of London, and is warranted to bring out a thick set of

It is a beautiful, economical, soothing, yet stimulating compound, acting as if by magic upon the roots, causing a beautiful growth of luxuriant hair. If applied to the scalp, it will cure BALDNESS, and cause to spring up in place of the bald spots a fine growth of new hair. Applied according to directions, it will turn RED or TOWY hair DARK, and restore GRAY hair to its original color, leaving it soft, smooth and flexible. The "ONGUENT" is an indispensable article in every gentleman's toilet, and after one week's use they would not for any consideration be without it.

The subscribers are the only Agents for the article in the United States, to whom all orders must be addressed.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS.

Are you sick, feeble, and complaining? Are you costive, cadaverous, and your spirits disorganized, and your feelings uncomfortable? These symptoms are often the prelude to serious illness. Some 21 of sickness is everything to you, and should be averted by a timely use of the right remedy. Take Ayer's Pills, and cleanse out the disordered humors—purify the blood, and let the healthy stream move on unobstructed in health again. They stimulate the functions of the body into vigorous activity, purify the system from the obstructions which make disease. A cold settles somewhere in the body, and strikes its natural functions. These if not removed, react upon themselves and the surrounding organs, producing general aggravation, suffering, and disease. While in this condition, nature calls for assistance. Give her the assistance she needs, and she will soon throw off the disease. Take Ayer's Pills, and see how directly they restore the natural action of the system, and with it the buoyant feeling of health again. What is true in the case of this trivial and common complaint, is also true in many of the deep-seated and dangerous distempers. The same purgative effect expels them. Caused by similar obstructions and derangements of the natural functions of the body, they are rapidly, and many of them surely, cured by the same means. Not to know that we have these Pills, will neglect to employ them when suffering from the disorders they cure.

Statements from leading physicians in some of the principal cities, and from other well known public persons:

From a Forwarding Merchant of St. Louis, Feb. 4, 1856.

Dr. Ayer: Your Pills are the perfection of all that is great in medicine. They have cured my little daughter of ulcerous sores upon her hands and feet that had proved incurable for years. Her mother has been grievously afflicted with blotches and pimples on her skin and in her hair. After our child was cured, she also tried your Pills, and they have cured her.

ASA MORGRIDGE

As a Family Physic.

From Dr. E. W. Cartwright, New Orleans.

Your Pills are the prince of purges. Their excellent qualities surpass any cathartic we possess. They are mild, but very certain and effectual in their action on the bowels, which makes them invaluable to us in the daily treatment of disease.

Headache, Sick Headache, Foul Stomach.

From Dr. Edward Boyd, Baltimore.

Dear Bro. Ayer: I cannot answer you what complaint I have cured with your Pills better than to say all that we ever treat with a purgative medicine. I place great dependence on an efficient cathartic in my daily contest with disease, and believing as I do that your Pills afford us the best we have, I of course value them highly.

Tuscumbia, Ala., May 1, 1855.

Dr. J. C. Ayer, Sir: I have been repeatedly cured of the worst headache any body can have by a dose or two of your Pills. It seems to arise from a foul stomach which they cleanse at once.

Yours with great respect, ED. W. PEEBLE, Clerk of Steamer Clarion

Bilious Disorders—Liver Complaints.

From Dr. Theodore Bell, of New York City.

Not only are your Pills admirably adapted to their purpose as an aperient, but I find their beneficial effects upon the Liver very marked indeed. They have in my practice proved more effectual in the cure of bilious complaints than any one remedy I can mention. I sincerely rejoice that we have at length a purgative which is worthy the confidence of the profession and the people.

Department of the Interior, Washington, D. C., 7th Feb., 1856.

Sir: I have used your Pills in my general and hospital practice ever since you put them in market, and believe to say they are the best cathartic we employ. Their regulating action on the liver is quick and decided, consequently they are an admirable remedy for derangements of that organ. Indeed, I have seldom found a case of bilious disease so obstinate that it did not readily yield to them. Fraternally yours, ALONZO BALCH, M. D., Physician of the Marine Hospital.

Dysentery, Diarrhœa, Relax, Worms.

From Dr. J. G. Green, of Chicago.

Your Pills have had a long trial in my practice, and I hold them in esteem as one of the most valuable we have ever found. Their alterative effect upon the liver makes them an excellent remedy, when given in small doses for bilious dysentery and diarrhœa. Their easy operation makes them very acceptable and convenient for the use of women and children.

Dyspepsia, Impurity of the Blood.

From Rev. J. V. Himes, Pastor of Advent Church, Boston

Dr. Ayer: I have used your Pills with extraordinary success in my family and among those I am called to visit in distress. To regulate the organs of digestion and purify the blood, they are the best medicine I have ever known, and I can confidently recommend them to my friends. Yours, J. V. HIMES.

Warsaw, Wyoming Co., N. Y., Oct. 24, 1855.

Dear Sir: I am using your Cathartic Pills in my practice, and find them an excellent purgative to cleanse the system and purify the fountains of life and health.

JOHN G. MEACHAM, M. D.

Constipation, Costiveness, Suppression, Rheumatism, Gout, Neuralgia, Dropsy, Paralysis, Fits, etc.

From Dr. J. P. Vaughn, Montreal, Canada.

Too much cannot be said of your Pills for the cure of costiveness. If others of our fraternity have found them as efficacious as I have, they should join me in proclaiming to the world the benefit of the multitude who suffer from that complaint, which, although bad enough in itself, is the progenitor of others that are worse. I believe costiveness to originate in the liver, but your Pills affect that organ and cure the disease.

From Mrs. E. Stuart, Physician and Midwife, Boston.

I find one or two large doses of your Pills, taken at the proper time, are excellent promotives of the natural secretion when healthy or sensibly suppressed, and also very effectual to cleanse the stomach in sick spells. They are so much the best physic we have that I recommend no other to my patients.

From the Rev. Dr. Hawks, of the Methodist Episc. Church

Pulaski House, Savannah, Ga., Dec. 6, 1856.

Honored Sir: I should be ungrateful for the relief your skill has brought me if I did not report my case to you. A cold settled in my limbs and brought on excruciating neuralgic pains, which ended in chronic rheumatism. Notwithstanding I had the best of physicians, the disease grew worse and worse, until by the blessing of your excellent agent in Baltimore, Dr. Mackenzie, I tried your Pills. Their effects were slow, but sure. By persevering in the use of them, I am entirely cured.

Senate Chamber, Boston Hospital, Jan. 5 Dr. Ayer: I have been entirely cured, by your Pills, of Rheumatic Gout—a painful disease that had afflicted me for years. VINCENT DELELL.

☞ Most of the Pills in market contain Mercury, which, although a valuable remedy in skillful hands, is dangerous in a public pill, from the dreadful consequences that frequently follow its improper use. These contain no mercury or mineral substance whatever.

Price, 25 cents per Box, or 5 Boxes for $1.

MOTHERS

It must be obvious not only to you, but to every attentive and intelligent person, that the first disease of infancy arises chiefly from a disordered condition of their bowels, and in this order of diseases, we present to your notice, for the alleviation and cure of these diseases, a remedy known as

Dr. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL,

Prepared from a formula used by Dr. Eaton with remarkable success during several years' practice. We know it to be a most reliable and efficacious remedy for infantile complaints, and one trial alone will convince you of its superiority over every other preparation of the kind. It is particularly recommended

FOR CHILDREN TEETHING,

And at this period of infantile life, when your anxious hearts are pained by witnessing the sufferings of your little ones, it will be found invaluable in Softening the Gums, Reducing Inflammation and Relieving all Pain. FOR DISEASES ATTENDING TEETHING, such as Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Griping in the Bowels, Acidity of the Stomach, Wind, Colic, and Cold in the Head, we confidently offer this as a certain relief and cure in every case when given in time. It will invariably regulate the stomach and bowels, and its importance in this respect can hardly be estimated.

IN CONVULSIONS,

From which more infants are said to die than from any other disease, the little sufferer is relieved instantaneously, as if by magic; and in this dread complaint alone, its inestimable value is such that it has been recommended from one family to another, until the name of DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL has become familiar as a household word." We now ask your attention to a subject of vital interest to yourself, as well as to your suffering child. DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL contains

NO MORPHINE OR OPIATE.

Of any kind, or of whatever nature, a fact which we are fully warranted in saying cannot be said of any other preparation of an infantile character, now before the public. We find that throughout the country, Mothers are becoming convinced of this truth, and are fast losing their prejudices against those which are certain to result from the use of narcotics disguised in the form of quieting remedies, their continued administration being invariably followed by stupefaction and constipation of the bowels, ending oftentimes in convulsions. Here is Dr. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL suffers from every other remedy. It

DOES NOT CONSTIPATE

The Bowels, neither does it act by deadening the sensibilities of your children, but quietly, thru its rare medicinal qualities, by removing all pain and cause of disease. We earnestly recommend you, therefore, to lose no time in procuring a bottle, that you may have at hand a remedy which will never fail to relieve your child in time of need. It is perfectly harmless, and cannot injure the most delicate infant.

Take none but DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL. This you can rely upon. Price 25 cts per bottle.

PROFESSOR WOOD'S

HAIR RESTORATIVE!

SEE WHAT OTHERS SAY OF IT.

A Distinguished St. Louis Physician Writes:

St. Louis July 10, 1860.

O. J. WOOD, Esq.—Dear Sir:—I deem it my duty to express the pleasure and satisfaction of transmitting to you the beneficial effects of your Hair Restorative, after a trial of 5 years. I commenced using your Restorative in January, 1855, since which time I have not been without a bottle on hand. When I commenced the use, my hair was quite thin, and of a very dark color. My hair was continued falling, and in three weeks there was not a gray hair to be found, neither has there been up to this time.

After my hair was completely restored, I continued its use by applying two or three times a month. My hair has ever continued healthy, soft and glossy, and my scalp perfectly free from dandruff. I do not imagine the facts above mentioned will be of any particular advantage to you, or even flatter your vanity, at this late day, as I am well aware they are all well known alike to you and even more wonderful cures have taken place in the Union. I have occupied my time in travelling the greater part of the time the past three years, and have never ceased recommending your Restorative, and exhibiting its effects in my own case. In several instances I have met with people who pronounced it a humbug; saying they had used it and without effect. In every instance, however, it proved, by probing the matter, that they had not used your article at all, but had used some new article, said to be as good, and selling at about half the price. I have noticed two or three articles myself advertised as above, which I have no doubt are humbugs. It is astonishing that people will patronize an article of no reputation, when there is one at hand that has been proved beyond a doubt.

Apparently, some of these charlatans have not brains enough to write an advertisement, I notice they have copied yours, word for word, in several instances, merely inserting some name in place of yours.

I have, within the past five years, seen and talked with more than two thousand persons that have used your preparation with perfect success—some for baldness, gray hair, scald head, dandruff, and every disease the scalp and head are subject to.

I called to see you, personally, at your original place of business here, but learned you were now living in New York.

You are at liberty to publish this, or to refer parties to me. Any communication addressed to me, care box No. 1920, will be promptly answered. Yourstruly, JAMES WHITE, M. D.

Wood's Hair Restorative has acquired a reputation from actual test and experiment which cannot be enhanced by newspaper puffs. In our own vicinity it has been extensively used, and we believe in every instance where directed respectfully receives the universal indorsement of all who have tried it. We therefore recommend it as one of those articles which merit and have accomplish all they profess, and all the bald and gray could desire.—Columbia Spy.

Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative.—In another column will be found an advertisement of this well known and excellent preparation for restoring gray hair to its original color. The Hair Restorative also cures cutaneous eruptions, and prevents the hair from falling off. We have seen many authentic testimonials in proof of these assertions, some of which are from gentlemen whom we have known for many years as persons of the most reliable character. Don't dye till you have tried the Restorative.—Boston Olive Branch.

Wo D'S Hair Restorative.—We are not in the habit of puffing every new discovery, for in nine cases out of ten they are quack nostrums—but we take great pleasure in recommending Prof. Wood's article to all whose hair is falling off or turning gray. Our well known contributor, Philo Johnson, has recently tried the Restorative also cures cutaneous eruptions, and prevents the hair from falling off. We have seen many authentic testimonials in proof of these assertions, some of which are from gentlemen whom we have known for many years as persons of the most reliable character. Don't dye till you have tried the Restorative.—Boston Olive Branch.

Wood's Hair Restorative.—Unlike most specifics, this is proved, by unimpeachable evidence, to possess genuine virtues as a restorer of the hair to its pristine vigor. Where the head had become almost bald because of sickness, the use of this article has produced a beautiful growth of thick, glossy hair. It is therefore a valuable preparation for all classes. Its ingredients are such as to effectually eradicate dandruff and other impurities which operate so injuriously to the hair. It also has curative powers of another description. In many cases pimples and other disfigurements of the skin disappear wherever it is used. There is no hazard attaching to the trial of this remedy, and its effects can only be beneficial, as the compound, if it does not cause a manifest improvement, is incapable of doing harm, as it is composed of the purest and perfectly innocuous.—Boston Transcript, April 22, 1859.

Warren Springs, Perry Co., Pa., June, 7, '59.

Prof. Wood—Dear Sir:—I was induced more than a year ago to try your Hair Restorative to clean my head of dandruff. I had suffered from it for years, and had never been able to get rid of it, and to do my duty good. I saw your advertisement in a Harrisburgh paper. I bought a bottle, and am now prepared to recommend it to the universal head, for it has completely removed all dandruff from my head, and an application once in two weeks keeps it free from itching and other annoyances. I must also state that my hair had become quite white in places, and by the use of your preparation, has been restored to its original color of a dark brown, and although I have used two bottles of the Restorative, no one has any knowledge of it, as I allow a few gray hairs to remain, in order to have my appearance comport with my age. My head is now of less trouble to me in keeping it clean, &c., than at any time since I have been a child. I consider your preparation of great value, and, altho' I do not like to expose myself, I consider it my duty to say so. You can use this, or any part of it, in any shape you think proper, if it is worth anything to you. Yours, &c., H. H. ETTER.

All Hair Dyes Abandoned—Wood's Great Article in the Field.—Prof. Wood stands on an eminence no chemist, whose attention has been turned to inventing a hair tonic, has ever before reached. His fame is world-wide, and thousands who have worn wigs or been bald for years, are now, by the use of his preparation, free, wearing their own natural and luxuriant head covering. So much for chemistry. Prof. Wood studied out the human hair, its properties, its diseases, and how to restore its decayed vitality; he saw, as in his own case, that gray hair is unnatural unless the age of the individual had reached fourscore, and he believed that the hair could be vitalized. He tried his own case—almost bald and wholly gray at 37—he restored his own hair—and the article he did it with he gave to the world. Get WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE, and take nothing else.—*N. Y. It will instantly revive the most melancholy and drooping spirits, and restore the weak, nervous and sickly to health, strength and vigor.

Persons who, from the injudicious use of liquors, have been neglected, and their nervous systems shattered, constitutions broken down, and subject to that horrible disease, the Delirium Tremens, will, almost immediately, feel the happy and invigorating efficacy of Dr. Ham's Invigorating Spirit.

What it will do!

Dose.—1 wine glass full as often as necessary.
One dose will remove all Bad Spirits.
One dose will cure Heartburn.
Three doses will cure Indigestion.
One dose will give you a good appetite.
One dose will stop the distressing pains of Dyspepsia.

A few doses will remove all obstructions in the Kidney, Bladder or Urinary Organs.

Persons who are seriously afflicted with any Kidney Complaints, are assured speedy relief by a dose or two, and a radical cure by the use of one or two bottles.

NIGHTLY DISSIPATION.

Persons who, from dissipating too much over night, and feel the effects of Spirituous Liquors, in violent headaches, sickness at stomach weakness, giddiness &c., will find one dose will remove all bad feelings.

Ladies of weak and sickly constitutions, should take the Invigorating Spirit three times a day; it will make them strong, healthy, and happy, remove all obstructions and irregularities from the menstrual organs, and restore the bloom of health and beauty to the careworn face.

During pregnancy it will be found an invaluable medicine to remove disagreeable sensations at the stomach.

All the proprietor asks, is a trial, and to induce this, he has put up the Invigorating Spirit in pint bottles, at 50 cents, qts $1.

SATURDAY, MARCH 16, 1861.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ELECTION. — We have no further details of the result of the New Hampshire election. The Manchester Mirror says:

The smallness of the vote here was an indication of the feeling through the State. Where it was known, the news that Fort Sumter was to be evacuated, called off many Republicans, and some refused to go to the polls on that account.

No doubt this tended to diminish the republican vote in some degree. But it is not easy to see why it should diminish the democratic vote also.

"SPIRITUOUS LIQUORS are not mixed with poison," seems to be Dr. Hayes's verdict. But an eminent drinker said to Uncle Toby, the other day, "they put dreadful stuff in whiskey—look at my face!" And the Manchester Mirror of last Tuesday, gives the following item:—

Two men were found dead in Mason, on Monday morning, in the field, a short distance from the house where they live. They were named Elliott, one an uncle to the other. They both went off to the store Saturday night, and did not return. The wife of one of them started after them Monday morning, and had not got far before she found her husband dead. She aroused the neighborhood and they went out and found the other one near by. They had a jug of rum and a couple of codfish. It was not cold enough to freeze them, and it is supposed that the liquor was more than usually poisonous. An inquest was held Monday, and was adjourned to Wednesday. There was a wide brook for them to cross before arriving home, and they were tracked up that, taking a direct path to the narrow crossing. The rum is to undergo a chemical examination.

WASHINGTON, March 14.—The amount involved in the Gaines case is estimated variously at from ten to fifteen millions.—Mrs. G. was in Court and received the congratulations of her friends. The Louisiana act of secession does not affect the decision.

Commissioners Forsyth and Crawford yesterday sent an official note asking a recognition, and stating that an answer would be called for to-day. The Secretary of the Commission accordingly called at the State Department to day for a reply. The response was for a request of time to consider their propositions, which was accorded. The opinion prevails that the administration will refer the whole matter to the Senate for advice.

The Cabinet held two meetings to-day.

It is denied in administration circles that any unusual naval display is intended in southern waters.

The vessels at New York are to be put into the transport service, as upwards of twenty-five hundred troops in Texas are waiting conveyance northward.

DEATH FROM THE BITE OF A CAT.—In Toronto, C. W., on Sunday week, a cat entered Trinity Church during service, and got into one of the pews, where it bit a Miss Goderham on the hand. The animal was subsequently caught by the sexton, Mr. Mulligan, and while he was carrying it out it bit him on the hand and scratched him. Mr Mulligan regarded the wounds as trifling, and paid no attention to them. A few days afterwards his hand and arm began to swell in a fearful manner, and although physicians were at once called in, their skill was of no avail, and the man died in great agony. Miss Goderham was also very ill at last accounts, but hopes were entered of her recovery.

SUPPLIES IN KANSAS.—Atchison, Mch. 13.—The Relief Committee have received over 50,000 bushels of seed wheat, about equal to the amount received previously.—Ten thousand bushels were shipped to-day for Leavenworth for distribution in Leavenworth and Douglas counties. The demand for potatoes for seed is very large, and there is scarcely any on hand. The supply of provisions is small, though applications are more pressing than ever.

☞ The U. S. Senate has confirmed the nomination of Amos Tuck of New Hampshire as Naval Officer at Boston, and of Cassius M. Clay as Minister to Spain.—The nomination of Mr. Corwin as Minister to Mexico was not acted on.

If the administration orders the evacuation of Fort Sumter, with a full knowledge that it will be immediately seized by South Carolina, wherein will the act differ from the surrender of United States property to Texas by Gen. Twiggs? And how can those who approve the former act, with any show of consistency condemn the latter?—Bath Times.

RICHMOND, Va., March 14.—John Tyler closed his speech to-day. He demanded of Virginia to put forth an ultimatum demanding full and ample security as the only condition of remaining in the Union; though such security might eventually bring back the cotton States, and Virginia cannot exist without them. The speech was generally conciliatory, but unequivocally favored southern rights. The propositions were referred to a committee. The report of the Committee on Federal Relations will come up to-morrow.

The first Fuschia was taken from Africa to London by a sailor, as a present to his mother, who was fond of flowers,—from which plant, it is said, England was stocked with those beautiful flowering shrubs.

SELECTIONS

From the Writings of Rev. Dr. Peabody.

Let us walk with God now; and then, should the days come when we can no longer walk with men, we shall retain our hidden life with him: and in hoary winter, when the harvest of our life has passed, and its sheaves are all gathered in, the fruits of piety shall be ripening for a better harvest in heaven.

It is astonishing how smooth the roughest ways of Providence look at a little distance. Sickness, bereavement, disappointment, tho' agonizing in their immediate pressure, are remembered without torment; nay, if they were submissively borne, their place, in the way that they have led, is marked by a pillar of gratitude, with the inscription, Bethel. If shadows gather about our dying bed, they will be the shadows of our negligences, follies and sins.

Sudden and premature deaths among the innocent and holy are precious, as giving us a nearer view of heaven than we can otherwise gain. * * * * * The sky remains parted; we trace their passage; we follow them within the veil; and through the vivid impressions which they have left us of their characters, we seem to see them still; the same in all that was good—entering upon the joys of Paradise—sweeping the harps of Heaven. It is as if a gem of unearthly radiance, which had shone in our dwellings, and which we had handled and sported in the sunlight, and gazed at in all its rainbow tints, had been snatched from our grasp, planted in the sky, and made a star.

I cannot sympathize with the dread of sudden death, as such, which many feel. Only give me the full assurance that I am prepared to meet my God, that I am leading a Christian life, that my prevalent frame of mind is spiritual and heavenly, and I would even pray to be spared the slow decay of nature or disease, the sad farewell—the parting conflict. I would beg of my Master to let me work in his vineyard till the very last moment, and close my life with my labors. But such wishes, so far as we cherish them, let us breathe with submission, and with the willingness, if such be Heaven's decree, to glorify God in the pains of a last illness and lingering death. For the cause of piety needs suffering witnesses, and for the service which some must render, all should hold themselves in readiness. If the chariot of fire comes for us, we will deem it a blessed privilege thus to go; but if it be our lot to tread the dark valley with slow and painful steps, we will do it, inwardly repeating at every stage those beautiful words of the Saviour, "Even so, Father, for it seems good in thy sight."

Without a higher life man is the greatest anomaly in existence—the only broken column in creation. Every thing else lives its span and does its work; but man "cometh forth as a flower and is cut down; he fleeth as a shadow and continueth not." With him everything is incomplete and unfinished. A human life, that seems entire in itself, reaches a natural period, and comes to the grave in full age, like a shock of corn in its season, is the rare exception—not the rule. And as God, having endowed man more highly than the rest of his creatures, cannot love him less, the mere light of nature might prompt the belief in a higher state of being, where this seeming incompleteness will be filled up; where defeated aims, broken plans and unfinished works may be consummated. Everything else we can comprehend in the cycle bounded by earth and time. If man comes not within that cycle, it must be because his interests and fortunes belong to the large cycle of eternity. It is this only that brings man into harmony with the rest of creation, and makes his being, anything else than an insolvable enigma.

U. S. SENATE—SPECIAL SESSION.

THURSDAY, March 14.

Mr. Mason offered a resolution inquiring of the Secretary of War, whether any portion of the District militia or any officer thereof since the first of January had received pay for service rendered the United States, and the facts in relation thereto.

Mr. Sumner objected. Laid over.

Mr. Douglas moved to take up his resolution of yesterday. Disagreed to—16 against 24.

Mr. Fessenden's resolution was then considered.

Mr. Bayard moved to substitute that Albert G. Brown, Jefferson Davis, Stephen B. Mallory, C. C. Clay, Robert Toombs and J. P. Benjamin, having announced that by the secession of their respective States they were no longer members of this Senate, and had withdrawn therefrom, the Secretary is directed to omit their names in calling the roll of the Senate. Mr. Bayard denied there had been any resignation, but by the action of their States they were no longer members.

Mr. Mason suggested the substitution of "omitted" in Mr. Fessenden's resolution, instead of the words "stricken from the roll," which Mr. Fessenden accepted.

After debate Mr. Bayard's substitute was rejected—12 against 26

Mr. Bayard moved to strike out the name of Mr. Brown of Mississippi from Mr. Fessenden's resolution, as he had not given any notice of resigning.

A long debate ensuel as to whether Mr. Brown had or had not made such announcement.

The Senate then went into executive session, after which the consideration of the resolution was resumed.

Mr. Clark offered a substitute, which Mr. Fessenden accepted, viz:—

Whereas, The seats occupied by Messrs. Brown, Davis, Mallory, Clay, Toombs and Benjamin, as members of the Senate have become vacant, therefore,

Resolved, That the Secretary be directed to omit their names respectively from the roll.

Mr. Mason ineffectually proposed to amend the resolution by making it read "the gentlemen named have ceased to be members."

Mr. Clark's substitute was adopted—10 against 24.

☞ The Legislature of Pennsylvania has chosen Mr. David Wilmot a United States Senator, in place of Mr Cameron.

NO SECT IN HEAVEN.

Talking of sects till late one eve,
Of the various doctrines the saints believe.
That night I stood, in a troubled dream,
By the side of a darkly flowing stream.

And a "Churchman" down to the river came;
When I heard a strange voice call his name,
"Good father, stop; when you cross this tide,
You must leave your robes on the other side."

But the aged father did not mind,
And his long gown floated out behind,
As down to the stream his way he took,
His pale hands clasping a gilt-edged book.

"I'm bound for heaven, and when I'm there,
I shall want my book of Common Prayer;
And though I put on a starry crown,
I should feel quite lost without my gown."

Then he fixed his eye on the shining track,
But his gown was heavy, and held him back,
And the poor old father tried in vain,
A single step in the flood to gain.

I saw him again, on the other side,
But his silk gown floated on the tide;
And no one asked in that blissful spot,
Whether he belonged to "the Church" or not.

Then down to the river a Quaker strayed;
His dress of a sober hue was made;
"My coat and hat must be all of gray,—
I cannot go any other way."

Then he buttoned his coat straight up to his chin,
And steadily, solemnly, waded in;
And his broad-brimmed hat he pulled down tight
Over his forehead, so cold and white.

But a strong wind carried away his hat;
A moment he silently mourned over that,
And then, as he gazed to the farther shore,
The coat slipped off and was seen no more.

As he entered heaven, his suit of gray
Went quietly sailing—away—away:
And none of the angels questioned him
About the width of his beaver's brim.

Next came Dr. Watts, with a bundle of psalms
Tied nicely up in his aged arms,
And hymns as many—a very wise thing,
That the people in heaven, "all round," might sing.

But I thought that he heaved an anxious sigh,
As he saw that the river ran broad and high;
And looked rather surprised, as, one by one,
The psalms and hymns in the wave went down.

And after him, with his MSS.,
Came Wesley, the pattern of godliness;
But he cried, "Dear me, what shall I do?
The water has soaked them thro' and thro'."

And there on the river, far and wide,
Away they went down the swollen tide;
And the saint, astonished, went thro' alone,
Without his manuscripts, up to the throne.

Then, gravely walking, two saints, by name,
Down to the stream together came;
But as they stepped at the river's brink,
I saw one saint from the other shrink.

"Sprinkled or plunged, may I ask you, friend,
How you attained to life's great end?"
"Thus, with a few drops on my brow."
"But I have been dipped, as you'll see me now

"And I really think it will hardly do,
As I'm 'close communion,' to cross with you;
You're bound, I know, to the realms of bliss,
But you must go that way, and I'll go this."

Then straightway plunging with all his might,
Away to the left—his friend at the right;
Apart they went from this world of sin,
But at last together they entered in.

And now, when the river was rolling on,
A Presbyterian church went down;
Of women there seem'd an immeasurable throng,
But the men I could count as they passed along.

And concerning the road, they could never agree,
The old or the new way, which it could be;
Nor even a moment paused to think
That both would lead to the river's brink.

And a sound of murmuring, long and loud,
Came ever up from the moving crowd:
"You're in the old way, and I'm in the new:
That is the false, and this is the true;"—
Or, "I'm in the old way, and you're in the new;
That is the false way, and this is the true."

But the brethren only seemed to speak;
Modest the sisters walked, and meek,
And if ever one of them chanced to say
What troubles she met with on the way,
How she longed to pass to the other side,
Nor feared to cross over the swelling tide,
A voice arose from the brethren then:
"Let no one speak but the holy men;
For have ye not heard the words of Paul,
'Oh, let the women keep silence all?'"
I watched them long in my curious dream,
Till they stood by the borders of the stream;
Then, just as I thought, the two ways met;
But all the brethren were talking yet.
And would talk on, till the heaving tide
Carried them over, side by side;
Side by side, for the way was one,
The toilsome journey of life was done;
And priest and Quaker, and all who died,
Came out alike on the other side.
No forms, or crosses, or books had they;
No gowns of silk, or suits of gray;
No creed to guide them, or MSS.,
For all had put on Christ's righteousness."

IMPORTANT LAW CASES.—At Washington, the Supreme Court of the United States has rendered a decision, giving all the property of the late Daniel Clark to Mrs. Gaines, his only legitimate child.

The court decided adversely in the Kentucky and Ohio mandamus case; while announcing that the Governor of a State should surrender fugitives on proper proof, it held that Congress cannot impose any duty on the State officer.

ACTIVITY OF THE SHOE BUSINESS.—Our Haverhill, Mass., correspondent, says that the sale of shoes there is a sweeping one, and everything will be cleared out, but at prices very low indeed. Large dealers are here from the South and West and are buying freely. Two large concerns from Charleston are purchasing freely here, their purchases here and elsewhere amounting to 1762 cases within three weeks.—Our manufacturers say the demand was never more active and prices never lower.—One pleasant feature in the trade is, that it is more for cash than formerly.—Traveller.

Prentice says Mr. Lincoln has his hand shaken thousands of times a day, but his homeliness prevents his being half-smothered with the kisses of pretty women, as Mr. Clay used to be.

☞ It appears by returns to the Statesman office to Thursday noon, that the Republicans in this State, have elected 10 Senators, instead of 8, as first stated.

WISTAR'S BALSAM WILD CHERRY.

In the whole history of medical discoveries, no REMEDY has performed so many or such remarkable cures of the Throat, Lungs and Chest,—of Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, or of Consumption itself, as this far-famed, long-tried and justly celebrated Balsam. So generally acknowledged is the superior excellence of this remedy, that but few of the many who have tested its virtues by experience fail to keep it at hand, as a speedy and certain cure for sudden attacks of Cold—fully believing that its remedial powers are comprehensive enough to embrace every form of disease, from the slightest cold to the most dangerous symptom of pulmonary complaint.

George W. Millet, Esq.

Editor of the Norway Advertiser, gives his opinion of this great remedy substantially as follows

NORWAY VILLAGE, Me., Aug 4, 1860.

Messrs. S. W. Fowle & Co.—Gentlemen:—For a remedy of such undoubted merit as DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, I cheerfully give you my testimony, and trust that others may be induced thereby to give it a trial and be relieved. Several years since I first became acquainted with this Balsam at a time of distressing cough and cold, which had took such firm hold of my lungs as to render me unfit for business, and its operation produced a speedy and permanent cure, after trying various other remedies in vain

In our town this remedy is a great favorite with many, and it all who suffer will but give it a fair trial, I think they will find it to be of more service in pulmonary affections than any other remedy of this class before the public.

Yours respectfully. GEO. W MILLET.

Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers!

This extraordinary preparation has been for many years the most certain and speedy remedy for Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, Influenza, and Diseases of the Chest and Lungs. To those suffering from obstinate and confirmed Coughs, they give the most immediate and perfect relief; and when great liability to take cold exists, and a troublesome Cough succeeds the slightest exposure, these Wafers produce the most marked results. They at once relieve the Cough and other symptoms, and entirely remove that morbid irritability and weakness of the Lungs which give rise to the complaint. The medical properties are combined in an agreeable form and are pleasant to the taste. I trust any child will readily take them; and they are warranted to give relief in ten minutes after use in all cases.

ANOTHER COMPARISON OF VOTES.—Messrs. Editors:—Your correspondent, "A Voter," is correct in saying that there has been an actual diminution of voters, in this city, within the last two years;—but he is mistaken about the Irish vote in the different wards. We never had above 30 Irish names on the check list of Ward 1,—but in Ward 2 this year, they threw 67 votes.—The falling off in the North Ward, is chiefly of carpenters and other workmen, many of whom I know have moved away.

ANOTHER VOTER.

Messrs. Editors:—Mr. Leo Miller visited this city week before last, and in company with two citizens, called on Rev. Mr. Pratt, and refuted the charge that he (Mr. M.) had in any way "backed down;" but that he held himself in readiness to meet any intelligent gentleman whom Mr Pratt might name, in public debate on the question of Spirit Intercourse. Mr. Miller is to lecture at the Temple on Tuesday evening March 19th, in answer to Mr. Pratt's Sunday evening lecture. †

☞ On the 30th of January the Haytien Government treated the people of Port au Prince to a curious exhibition on the Place Geffrard. A group of figures were arranged to represent the five martyrs of Harper's Ferry—John Brown, Cook, Green, Coppie and Copeland—while near them was Mrs. John Brown in mourning costume, her countenance wearing the impress of profound grief, heightened by an air of Christian resignation.

☞ The Michigan Homestead law, which has passed both Houses of the Legislature, donates to the actual settler eighty acres instead of forty acres, as under the old law. It also throws around the State new safeguards against imposition and spoliation.

☞ Prof. Rarey (professor of Horseology,) appeard at the Music Hall, Boston, Thursday evening, before a large audience. He went through his usual programme, conquering all the horses presented, and captivating all the people. He performs on Saturday and Tuesday evenings.

☞ The celebrated Capt. Bragg has taken command of the troops of the Confederated States, with the rank of Major General, and it may be supposed that he will, in case of necessity, be prepared to give the enemies of the Confederacy "a little more grape."

SECESSION FROM DARTMOUTH.—We learn that the Southern students, seven or eight in number, have "seceded" from Dartmouth College. Even President Lord, with all his notions of the divineness and desirableness of Human Slavery, could not prevent those young sprigs of fire-eating chivalry from tearing themselves away, and going home to the "Confederated States." We take it that "Old Dartmouth" will "still live" notwithstanding this "secession movement."—Concord. Ind. Democrat.

NEW YORK, March 15.—The government has chartered the steamer Coatzacoalcos, in addition to three already reported, to bring troops from Texas.

Steamers Empire City and Star of the West still lie at Quarantine, awaiting final orders from Washington. It is said to be doubtful whether the troops in Texas will be brought here or to some other port within the acknowledged jurisdiction of the federal government.

It is rumored that the U. S. steamer Crusader will be dispatched to take off Major Anderson's command.

The Times Washington dispatch says that Mr. Crittenden has postponed his eastern tour till May or June, going home in the meantime to fight secession in Kentucky.

Messrs. Crawford and Forsyth say there will be no attack upon Fort Pickens until they report the result of their mission to President Davis.

WASHINGTON, March 15.—There is no truth in the sensation report that unusual naval preparations are being made by the government for blockading the Southern ports.

It is frequently said here that Major Anderson should have notified the War Department of his destitution of provisions prior to the adjournment of Congress. It is rumored that he has suffered the garrison to dwindle away by letting men go whose term of enlistment had expiredd.

Hon. John Cochrane of New York has returned from Union mission to Virginia. He says there is no danger of the secession of that State through the agency of the Convention, but srong efforts are being made to influence the public mind in that direction.

BEES.—The bumble-bee bites through the tube of flowers to extract the honey.—All persons are acquainted with the flowers of the broad Windsor and common field beans. These contain a great quantity of honey, situated deeply in a tabular calyx. In order to obtain this honey, the bumble-bee with its sharp mandibles pierces the tube of the calyx; and it is very singular that the ordinary honey-bee, having a mouth of very different construction, takes advantage of these openings when a fresh store of honey has been secreted, and may be observed settling on those flowers only which have been perforated by the bumble-bee.—London Fields.

VERACITY.—The groundwork of all manly character is veracity. That virtue lies at the foundation of everything solid. When you undertake to benefit a lying man, it is like putting your foot into the mire.—F. D. Huntington.

OFFICE SEEKERS.—The Republican officials and heirs expectant if not apparent, are something like the royal families of Europe. All marriages and alliances among the latter are confined to royal circles; so with the former,—all expectation and prospect is claimed to belong to those who have been annointed with official oil. Like unfledged robins, they stretch up their necks, open their mouths, and with a guttural sound naturally rendered, "give," are ready to swallow any garbage that may be dropped in. The royal families of Europe, by intermarriages and restriction upon crossing blood, have become mentally imbecile;—that the parallel in the case before us runs to this extent we do not assert, though many would not deny it. The rule is a scriptural one: "to him that hath shall be given," but woe to those who have nothing—not those, who "give suck," but to those who do not but would suck, in these days. No one can calculate the amount of depravity to be developed in the only righteous and pure party of the country during the next fou weeks. We fear we shall have to abandon our creed and knock under to a belief in "total depravity." "If the righteous scarcely be saved," &c.—Bath Times, dem.

Would you save yourself from suffering after eating, or from acidity of the stomach, or burning sensation or indigestion? Use Herrick Allen's Gold Medal Saleratus.—Never use soda if you can procure this article. It will strengthen weak stomachs and relieve dyspepsia; is a saving in the quantity of flour, &c. Try it. Grocers and Druggists most all sell it.

Sold at wholesale, by Israel Nash & Co., Boston; and Sumner, Swasey & Currier, Newburyport.

A Distressing Cough, causes the friends of the sufferer as much pain as the sufferer himself. Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry will certainly cure coughs, colds, arrest consumption, and that speedily. When did it ever fail?

Celebrated Stimulating Onguent!

For the Whiskers and Hair.

The subscribers take pleasure in announcing to the citizens of the United States, that they have obtained the Agency for, and are now enabled to offer to the American people, the above justly celebrated and world-renowned article.

THE STIMULATING ONGUENT

Is prepared by DR. C. P. BELLINGHAM, an eminent physician of London, and is warranted to bring out a thick set of

WHISKERS OR A MUSTACHE

in from three to six weeks. This article is the only one of the kind used by the French, and in London and Paris it is in universal use.

It is a beautiful, economical, soothing, yet stimulating compound, acting as if by magic upon the roots, causing a beautiful growth of luxuriant hair. If applied to the scalp, it will cure BALDNESS, and cause to spring up in place of the bald spots a fine growth of new hair. Applied according to directions, it will turn RED or TOWY hair DARK, and restore GRAY hair to its original color, leaving it soft, smooth and flexible. The "ONGUENT" is an indispensable article in every gentleman's toilet, and after one week's use they would not for any consideration be without it.

The subscribers are the only Agents for the article in the United States, to whom all orders must be addressed.

LIFE INSURANCE.

"IN THE MIDST OF LIFE WE ARE IN DEATH."

—BY—

The strong man often falters, and falls in the midst of the hurry and business of life. The wise man maketh provision for those whom he loveth, against the liability to accident and death.

THE

MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE CO.

Of New York,

with an accumulated capital of over

SEVEN MILLION DOLLARS,

Invested at seven per cent. on bond and mortgage loans in the City and State of New York, upon Real Estate worth double the amount loaned thereon, issues

POLICIES on lives, payable to the wife, or to the legal representative of the person insured.

POLICIES payable to the person insured, on his attaining the age of 50, 60 or 70; or to his representative in case of decease before attaining this age.

PREMIUMS may be paid, quarterly, semi-annually, or annually, at the option of the insured.

The long experience of this excellent institution, like the one hundred years' experience of the great Equitable Life Insurance Co. of London, and other kindred institutions, proves their stability and perpetuity when established upon the right principle. Investments made with them have proved more remunerative than with Savings Banks.

The time is near, when to protect one's family from the loss and want often attendant upon the death of its provider, will be as universal as it is now to protect ourselves from loss by fire.

No reflecting man can sit at his fireside with his young family about him, and feel at ease—when he knows that if death should take him from them, they would be cast upon a selfish world, without the means for education or support, which he can easily provide for them thro' a life policy.

GROVER & BAKER

SEWING

MACHINES.

TO THE LADIES.

CHARLES T. EMERY,

No. 10 Market Sq., Portsmouth,

Having been appointed

SOLE AGENT IN PORTSMOUTH

for the sale of the celebrated and unrivalled Noiseless

GROVER & BAKER

FAMILY AND MANUFACTURING

Sewing Machines,

would invite especial attention to the same.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE makes the only seam formed by a Sewing Machine, in which each stitch is independently locked, and without dependence on other stitches for strength, and the only seam that will admit of the thread being cut at every fourth stitch without injury to the seam in wear.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE is adapted to all varieties of fabrics, sewing equally well the finest Swiss Muslin or the heaviest cloth or leather, and requiring no adjustment for any kind of sewing other than the adaptation of needles and thread.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE sews from ordinary spools without rewinding, and fastens its own seams, thereby saving time and thread. It will sew common spool cotton, silk and linen thread with equal facility.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE is so simple that an intelligent child of ten years can readily learn to operate it. It is more easily kept in order than any other machine, and need not be taken apart to be oiled.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE makes the only stitch that cannot be injured by washing and ironing, and the only stitch that forms an elastic and durable seam. Fabrics put together with this stitch may wear out and drop to pieces from original weakness, or hard usage, but come apart or give way at the seams, they cannot; they will hold together when the cloth or calico around them hangs in rags and tatters.

Every Machine Warranted.

PRICES FROM $40 UPWARDS.

☞ Be sure to call and examine.

I have also been appointed agent for

THE UNIVERSAL HEMMER,

Which can be attached to any machine, and will turn a hem from 1-16 inch to 2½ inches, without previous basting.

PRICE $5.

—AND—

SILVER WARE,

Which I invite my customers and the public to call and examine, feeling assured that I can offer

AS LARGE AN ASSORTMENT,

AND SELL AS REASONABLY,

As can be Purchased Elsewhere.

CHARLES T. EMERY,

No. 10 Market Square.

Portsmouth, N. H., March 1, 1861.

From the Gazette.

THE VOICE OF NEW HAMPSHIRE.—New Hampshire has spoken, and what conviction must her utterance carry to the border slave States except that the North is thoroughly abolitionized, and that there is no safety or hope for them in the Union? Never has the abolition issue been so distinctly and thoroughly made up and passed upon, under circumstances so threatening to the country from its success, as in this election. The question was emphatically put to the people whether John Brown-Republicanism should triumph in the election of N. S. Berry and the "yield not an-inch" delegation in Congress, or whether these men and this policy should be supplanted by the success of the party of the Constitution and the Union, and we grieve to say that the verdict of the people has been given on the side of rank, black and uncompromising abolitionism. This fact stands boldly out, and admits of no favorable explanation or qualification.—If such a victory could be secured in New Hampshire at such a time, it can scarcely be doubted that it could be secured in most if not every other Northern State, and we see with pain and apprehension what must be its influence on the Southern mind. It will inevitably convince the people of the South that the North is hopelessly abolitionized, and thus strengthen and consolidate the sentiment of separation throughout the Southern States.

The Vote in this City.

We are highly gratified with the result of the election in this city. Once more, in the face of the strongest opposition, Portsmouth has redeemed herself. What that opposition was can be fully understood only by those who know how large a number of candidates are expecting to obtain valuable offices as a reward for their affection for Abraham Lincoln. To say that each office is watched and sought for and expected by at least a dozen hungry applicants, is, we think far within the truth. It is melancholy to reflect, that the greater part of these gentlemen will soon find that their zeal has been wasted, that their labors are despised, and that they have rolled in the dirt of abolitionism and disunionism for nothing.

The friends of the Union labored nobly, and have redeemed the honor of the town. A glorious meeting in Jefferson Hall Monday eve, such as we have not seen in the city for many years, was followed by the most vigorous and enthusiastic action during the day of the election. Let us look at the result:

Democratic majority 7

Mr. Marcy's majority was larger, but the difference is fairly attributable to his great and deserved personal popularity where he is known.

Though the Democrats have a clear and decided majority, so infamously is our city gerrymandered, that we have elected but two out of eight Representatives. That is, six men are chosen to represent the minority and two to speak for the majority of the city!! This is one of the blessings entailed upon us by Republican rule.

The exertions of our friends in each of the three wards are deserving of all commendation. Ward 3 gloriously maintained its position as the stronghold of the Democracy of the State. We gained in ward 2. In ward 1 the contest was very warm, and when we remember the disadvantages against which our friends contended there, it will be concluded that they did nobly. The Republicans were greatly disappointed by the vote in that ward.

THE RESULT THUS FAR.—The Independent Democrat says,—Up to the time we go to press, returns have been received from 192 towns, which foot up as follows: Berry, 32,346; Stark, 29,289; Scattering, 139; Berry's majority thus far, 3,918.

☞ We have as yet seen but very few returns for Senator or for Member of Congress in this district. Those received do not differ materially from the Governor vote, except in a few instances, and it is probable the Black-republican candidates are elected by about the same majority as the gubernatorial vote in the same towns.

One of the Clerks of Hovey & Co's Dry Goods Store, Boston has been detected in a defalcation to the amount of $7000 to $10000. His plan was to pocket a portion of the cash received in his department.

FIRE.—The one-story wooden building in Daniel street, occupied by Andrew Davis as an oyster saloon, was considerably injured by fire on Thursday night. The fire was discovered by the watchmen, shortly after eleven o'clock, and must have been smouldering in the attic, where the principal damage was done, before the occupant closed for the night. It is probable the fire originated from some defect in the chimney. The building is owned by the heirs of Jacob Sheafe.

GOOD CIDER.—From the best evidence we have been able to obtain, we have reached the conclusion that Major Z. J. Wiggin, of Stratham, prepares the finest quality of cider which can be found in the market. His method for its clarification and preservation is unknown to any one but himself. It presents the color, purity and excellence of flavor of champaigne, and undoubtedly is more whole, some than much of the wine that is sold under that name.

☞ The Boston Herald of Thursday publishes a remarkable chapter in the history of the notorious Rev. Mr. Kalloch. It goes very far beyond the developments brought out at the trial at Boston a few years ago.

☞ Let it be remembered that three territorial governments were organized during the recent session of Congress, without any prohibition of slavery. Why do not the Republicans raise a hue and cry? Why did not their members of Congress defeat these bills? they had the power. If it was such a terrible crime to organize Kansas and Nebraska without any prohibition of slavery, what has changed the nature of the offence? Is not the present silence of Republicans a significant confession that their screeches about the Kansas bill were all humbug—got up just for political effect?

MOTHERS

It must be obvious not only to you, but to every attentive and intelligent person, that the first diseases of infants arise chiefly from a disordered condition of their bowels, and in this connection, we present to your notice, for the alleviation and cure of these diseases, a remedy known as

Dr. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL,

Prepared from a formula used by Dr. Eaton with remarkable success during several years' practice. We know it to be a most reliable and effectious remedy for infantile complaints, and one trial alone will convince you of its superiority over every other preparation of the kind. It is particularly recommended

FOR CHILDREN TEETHING,

And at this period of infantile life, when your anxious hearts are pained by witnessing the sufferings of your little ones, it will be found invaluable in Softening the Gums, Reducing Inflammation and Relieving all Pain. FOR DISEASES AT TENDING TEETHING, such as Diarrhoea, Dysentery, Griping in the Bowels, Acidity of the Stomach, Wind Colic, and Heat in the Head, we confidently offer this as a certain relief and cure in every case when given in time. It will invariably regulate the stomach and bowels, and its importance in this respect can hardly be estimated.

IN CONVULSIONS,

From which more infants are said to die than from any other disease, the little sufferer is relieved instantaneously, as if by magic; and in this dread complaint alone, its intrinsic value is such that it has been recommended from one family to another, until the name of DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL has become "familiar as a household word." We now ask your attention to a subject of vital interest to yourself, as well as to your suffering child. DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL contains

NO MORPHINE OR OPIATE,

Of any kind, or of whatever nature, a fact which we are fully warranted in asserting cannot be said of any other preparation for infantile diseases, at this time before the public. We find that throughout the country, Mothers are becoming conscious of the truth, and of the sad and blighting consequences which are certain to result from the use of narcotics disguised in the form of quieting remedies, their continued administration being invariably followed by Costiveness and Constipation of the bowels, which sometimes is considerable. Here is DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL differs from every other remedy.

DOES NOT CONSTIPATE

The Bowels, rather does it act by deadening the sensibilities of your children, but naturally, thro' its rare medicinal qualities, by removing all pain and cause of disease. We earnestly recommend you, therefore, to lose no time in procuring a bottle, that you may have at hand a remedy which will never fail to relieve your child in time of need. It is perfectly harmless, and cannot injure the most delicate infant.

Take none but DR. EATON'S INFANTILE CORDIAL. This you can rely upon. Price 25 cts per bottle.

"1849 RESERVE"

The established popularity of this CHOICE OLD BOURBON as a medicinal agent, renders it superfluous to mention in detail the characteristics which distinguish it from the ordinary grade of Kentucky Whiskey.

SOMETHING MORE VALUABLE

THAN SILVER OR GOLD,

BECAUSE

IT WILL RESTORE THE WEAK,
AND REINSTATE THE BLOOD IN ALL ITS ORIGINAL PURITY & VIGOR.

It is

PROF. O. J. WOOD'S

RESTORATIVE CORDIAL

—AND—

BLOOD RENOVATOR.

It is precisely what its name indicates, for, while pleasant to the taste, it is revivifying, exhilarating, and strengthening to the vital powers. It also revivifies, reinstates and renews the blood in all its original purity, and thus restores and renders the system invulnerable to attacks of disease. It is the only preparation ever offered to the world in a popular form so as to be within the reach of all. So chemically and skillfully combined as to be the most powerful tonic, and yet so perfectly adapted to act in perfect accordance with the laws of nature, and hence soothe the weakest stomach, and tone up the digestive organs, and allay all nervous and other irritations. It is also perfectly exhilarating in its effects, and yet is never followed by lassitude or depression of spirits It is composed entirely of vegetables, and those thoroughly combining powerful tonic and soothing properties, and consequently can never in jure. As a sure preventive and cure of

CONSUMPTION, BRONCHITIS, DYSPEPSIA INDIGESTION, LOSS OF APPETITE, FAINTNESS, NERVOUS IRRITABILITY, NEURALGIA, PALPITATION OF THE HEART, MELANCHOLY, HYPOCHONDRIA, NIGHT SWEATS, LANGUOR, LOSS OF MUSCLE, AND ALL THAT CLASS OF CASES SO FEARFULLY FATAL, CALLED FEMALE WEAKNESSES AND IRREGULARITIES,

THERE IS NOTHING ITS EQUAL!

Also Liver Derangements and Torpidity, and Liver Complaints, Diseases of the Kidneys, or any general derangement of the Urinary Organs.

It will not only cure the debility following CHILLS and FEVER, but prevent all attacks arising from miasmatic influence and cure the disease at once, if already attacked.

TRAVELLERS should have a bottle with them, as it will infallibly prevent any deleterious consequences following upon the change of climate and water.

As it prevents costiveness, and strengthens the digestive organs, it should be in the hands of all persons of sedentary habits.

LADIES not accustomed to much out-door exercise, should always use it.

MOTHERS should use it, for it is a perfect relief, taken a month or two before the final trial - she will pass the dreadful period with perfect ease and safety

There is no mistake about it!

THE CORDIAL IS ALL WE CLAIM FOR IT!

MOTHERS, TRY IT!

And to you we appeal, to detect the illness or decline not only of your daughters, before it is too late, but also your sons and husbands, for while the former, from false delicacy, often go down to a premature grave rather than let their condition be known in time, the latter are often so mixed up with the excitement of business that it will not for you they too would travel in the same downward path, until too late to arrest their fatal fall. But the mother is always vigilant, to her we confidently appeal, for we are sure your never-failing affection will unerringly point you to PROF. WOOD'S RESTORATIVE CORDIAL AND BLOOD RENOVATOR as the remedy which should be always on hand in time of need.

O. J. WOOD, Proprietor, 444 Broadway, New York, and 114 Market street, St Louis, Mo., and sold by all good Druggists. Price $1 per bottle.

Read what the Press say, after thoroughly testing the matter, and no one can have doubt.

PROF. WOOD'S Restorative Cordial and Blood Renovator is a genuine medicine of real merit, pleasant to the taste, and invigorating to the system. While it purifies the blood and soothes the nervous irritation, it aids the organs of digestion to perform their functions, and resists the assaults of disease. It is a chemical compound so skillfully combined, that while it exhilarates it does not provoke the lassitude which usually follows excitement. A tonic composed exclusively of vegetable matter, it is absolutely beneficial, and no ill effects can possibly accompany its use. It is an infallible and speedy remedy for Loss of Appetite, Faintness, Nervous Debility, Neuralgia, Falling of the Womb, and other delicate diseases, to which women are subject. For Sickness of the Stomach, Bilious Attacks, Liver Complaints, Costiveness, Dyspepsia, Consumption, and a host of evils flesh is heir to, it is a certain cure.—St. Louis Morning Herald.

PROF. WOOD'S RESTORATIVE CORDIAL.—It is recorded in the classics that Pysche was sent to a climate warmer than the West Indies, to procure a sample of the beauty of Proserpine in a box. After some delay the messenger returned, and as soon as the top of the box was removed, out flew all the ills that flesh is heir to. Fortunately, for our sex, at the bottom of the box, Prof. Wood's Restorative Cordial revives the recollection of the story, for it invigorates the blood, aids the organs of digestion, imparts strength to the nervous system, and fortifies the citadel of health so as to bid defiance to the assaults of disease. It is a healthy tonic, composed entirely of vegetable productions, and while it is exhilarating as pure wine, no injurious results can possibly follow its use. It is a desideratum in the medical world, and those who are afflicted with loss of appetite, Dyspepsia, Consumption, Faintness, Neuralgia, Palpitation of the Heart, &c., will here find an infallible panacea.—St. Louis Daily Express

PROF. WOOD'S RESTORATIVE CORDIAL AND BLOOD RENOVATOR is, without doubt, the best tonic Cordial in the world. To those who are suffering from general debility, we would recommend it as a cordial for its pleasant to the taste, is strengthening to the system, and will at once tend to remove all impurities of the blood, and eradicate the germs of disease. It can be taken by the weakest stomach, while those in good health will at once feel its exhilarating power. We are confident that after using one bottle of this Cordial, none will be for a day without it.—N. Y. Leader.

A PURE, HEALTHY TONIC, and one free from the deleterious and injurious effects sure to follow those in ordinary use, has long been felt to be a desideratum in the medical world. Such a tonic, and one so skillfully combined from the vegetable kingdom as to act in perfect accordance with the laws of Nature, and thus soothe the weakest stomach, and at the same time allay nervous and other irritations, and tone up all the organs of which the human body is composed, is offered in Prof. Wood's Restorative Cordial and Blood Renovator. Hence it is perfectly adapted to old and Young, Reader, try it. Thousands have already done so, and their testimony is universal in its favor.—New York Atlas.

☞ Before noticing a patent medicine, we have to be certain that it will prove itself to be all that it is recommended. And we would say that the Restorative Cordial and Blood Renovator of Prof. Wood will stand the test fully, and in fact it is without doubt the first article in the market for purifying the blood and strengthening the system. We have no hesitation in recommending its use to all.—New Yorker.

A few doses will remove all obstructions in the Kidney, Bladder or Urinary Organs.

Persons who are seriously afflicted with any Kidney Complaints, are assured speedy relief by a dose or two, and a radical cure by the use of one or two bottles.

NIGHTLY DISSIPATION.

Persons who, from dissipating too much over night, and feel the evil effects of poisonous liquors, in violent headaches, sickness at stomach, weakness, giddiness &c., will find one dose will remove all bad feelings.

Ladies of weak and sickly constitutions, should take the Invigorating Spirit three times a day; it will make them strong, healthy, and happy, remove all obstructions and irregularities from the menstrual organs, and restore the bloom of health and beauty to the cheeks of the fair sex.

During pregnancy it will be found an invaluable medicine to remove disagreeable sensations at the stomach.

ATROCIOUS. — The following startling and highly inflammatory dispatches appeared in a newspaper "out West," to which they were specially telegraphed:

"Charleston, Supper-time.—All the babies in the entire South are in arms, and many in this city are now employed at the breast-work."

"Two and a half Minutes Later.—Hundreds of the noblest women of South Carolina are behind the breast-works, supplying the laborers with nourishment, and they boldly express their determination to remain there."

"Later Still—Three-quarters of a Minute. A number of young ladies were in arms during the greater part of last evening, and many more are extremely anxious to follow the self-sacrificing example of their sisters. Shame on the young men.

One-Quarter of a Minute Later.—We have learned from a reliable source that the study of military tactics will be introduced into the female schools of the Palmetto State immediately, as the spirited girls declare their willingness to take charge of the South Carolina 'infantry' which is to be raised."

A report from the interior says the negroes 'wear' drilling, but it needs confirmation. Everybody is in a blaze of enthusiasm, and the gas company has suspended in consequence."—Newburyport Herald.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

MONDAY, MARCH 18, 1861.

THE LEGISLATURE.—Among the prominent members of the new House, we notice the names of Hon. Levi Chamberlain of Keene, E. A. Straw of Manchester, Stephen Kenrick of Franklin, on the Republican side; and W. H. H. Mason of Moultonborough, Aaron P. Hughes of Nashua, Charles S. George of Barnstead, and Moses Eaton, Jr., of South Hampton, from the Democratic party.

The lawyers will be present in full force. In addition to those mentioned above, are Moses N. Collins of Exeter, Messrs. Emery and Goodall of this city, E. A. Rollins of Somersworth, L. D. Stevens of Concord, F. N. Blood of Hillsboro', N. W. Westgate of Haverhill, Harry Bingham of Littleton, &c. We notice that the veteran member from Rumney, Hon. Josiah Quincy, is not returned this year, having declined the honor of an election. Mr. Quincy has ably represented his town for many years—is a sound legislator, and his loss will be felt, as his influence was always given in favor of all just measures.

REFORMS IN ITALY.— An important act of reform has been promulgated in Southern Italy and Sicily, which abolishes the concordats of 1818 and 1834, between the courts of Rome and Naples, and establishes at once entire freedom of worship. The right of ecclesiastics to inflict secular punishment, or to be exempted from the operation of State laws, is also taken away. All causes regarding the right of nomination to ecclesiastical benefices, are placed under civil jurisdiction.

Another decree lays the axe to the roots of those monstrous outgrowths of ignorant superstition, monastic institutions. All such orders are to be recognized no longer; not the chapters of collegiate churches in places having a population less than twenty thousand. The property hitherto held by these bodies is to be taken possession of by the State, and administered by a special commission to be appointed. The present members of religious houses may continue to reside in these edifices, receiving an annual pension of from sixty to one hundred and eighty ducats, according to membership, age, etc. After discharging such obligations, the annual sum of forty thousand ducats is to be set apart from the revenues of such places for educational purposes; the remaining proceeds to be applied to similar objects of usefulness and charity.

THE SOUTHERN CONGRESS.— A special dispatch from Montgomery, March 13, to the New York Tribune, says:

The news from Washington is considered unsatisfactory. The surrender of Sumter is not sufficient. The slaves here are universally regarded as an element of military power rather than of weakness. No fears are entertained of their insurrection.

It would be very remarkable if any body there, just now, expressed fears at all.—The military power of slaves, is like the power of gunpowder, quite a handy thing while you control it, but somewhat dangerous if it gets a spark. Every thing at Montgomery is universal, no doubt:—but after all, Montgomery is not the Universe.

☞ The Charleston correspondent of the Providence Journal confirms the reported failure of the famous floating battery. He states that from the weight being all on one side, it was found necessary to build a staging beyond the other side, on which were piled bags of sand in order to bring it to an even keel, which had the effect to break it in two, and thus render it useless, as it is improbable that it can be strengthened sufficiently to be of any utility hereafter. And it will remain, after they have expended twenty thousand dollars upon it, a monument of Charleston ingenuity.

DRUNKENNESS AND DEATH.—Hazen Heath and Philip Cilley, two very intemperate men, had a drunken carousal on Tuesday, at the house of Cilley, on Beacon Hill, in Salisbury. Cilley, in a state of intoxication, attempted to get from the bed, and in so doing fell headlong upon the floor. Heath, being quite drunk, struggled some time before getting Cilley back upon the bed; and when he succeeded, it was found that he was dead. Two physicians, Drs. Sleeper and Wilson, were called, and after careful inquiry they pronounced the death to have resulted from disease of the heart. Cilley leaves a wife and several children. Heath was for some years an inmate of the State Prison.—Concord Statesman.

☞ The experiment of increasing the power of the speaker's voice, by placing a paraboloid over the pulpit, so successfully made in Trinity Church, New York, under the surpervision of Prof. Hackley, is to be repeated in several other churches. The cost, put up, is about a hundred and fifty dollars.

☞ The Tribune says, editorially and truly:—

Two thirds of the gossip telegraphed from Washington is equally baseless and mischievous. It is high time it were discountenanced and excluded by journals even pretending to character and credibility.

FIRST CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT.

We give below, the returns of the Governor Vote, in nearly all the towns of this district;—and taking the vote of last year, for those few towns where we have no returns this year, the vote would stand, for Marcy 11,847, Marston 12,945, scat. 37;—showing a majority for Marston of 1,061, which will not fall below 1000. His majority in 1859 was 694.

209 towns,	33,988	29,576	167

In the above 209 towns, the vote is as follows: Berry, 33,988: Stark, 29,743. There remain to be heard from twenty one towns, the vote of which in March, 1860, was as follows: For Goodwin, 1,358; Cate, 1,707. Taking that vote for present purposes, the result this year will be: For Berry, 35,346; Stark, 31,450; Berry's majority, 3,896.

The vote this year, when complete, will not exceed 67,000. Last year it was 71,603—showing a decrease in the aggregat vote of about 4,500.

The vote in 1860, was, Goodwin 38,037, Cate 33,544, scat. 22—a majority of 4471. Gov. Berry's majority is about 400 less than Gov. Goodwin's was, last year.

In all the towns but Gosport, the vote for Senator stands thus: Wm. H. Y. Hackett, 1935; Simes Frink, 1781; scattering, 16.—Majority for Hackett, 138.

MONTGOMERY, ALA., March. 15.—President Davis, in his veto of the African slave trade act, objects to the section authorizing the sale of Africans to the highest bidder, as in opposition to the clause in the constitution forbidding such trade. The vote on passing the act over the veto resulted as follows:—Yeas, 15; nays, 24. Nothing of importance was done in Congress to-day.—It will probably adjourn to-morrow, sine die.

SENATE.—The resolution of Mr. Douglas, concerning the Southern forts, was again before the U. S. Senate, Friday. A spicy and rather ill-tempered debate occurred between Messrs. Douglas, Fessenden, Wilson and Hale. The Republican Senators are apparently not willing that Douglas should presume to interpret the inaugural, or predict the policy of the administration. Mr. Wilson, declared that this policy should be made known through gentlemen in whom the administration had confidence; Mr. Fessenden spoke ironically of Mr. Douglas, and would not admit him to be a gentleman; Mr. Hale quoted Scripture against him. The resolution was not finally disposed of.

Mr. Hale said he recognized a portion of the censure of Mr. Douglas, as intended for himself. He found already prepared for him a little speech to be found in an old book. It is as follows: "Absalom said, moreover, O that I were made a judge in the land, that every man that hath any suit or cause might come unto me, and I would do him justice." (Laughter.) This speech he preferred to his own crude ideas.

Mr. Douglas said the quotation would have no great weight. It only showed that it was read to avoid argument, and to make a personal attack upon him. Hence he would say, Come on, make attack after attack, get your quotations ready in advance: I am ready for you. The Senator from Massachusetts led off in a miserable attack upon him, the Senator from Maine followed, and then the Senator from New Hampshire came in with what he called a little speech. Mr. Douglas continued, saying—I expect to give them some trouble during the session. I know their schemes, and I do not mean they shall break up the Union and draw the country into a war.—[Applause in the galleries.]

A Senator suggested that the galleries be cleared.

Mr. Douglas said that as the galleries would not be quick he would say no more, and abruptly took his seat.

NAPOLEON'S POLICY TOWARDS ENGLAND.—We clip the following extract from the "Paris Gossip" of the Boston Post, as an evidence that it is not Irishmen only who see a determination on the part of Napoleon to break off his alliance with England, and sooner or later to let slip his dogs of war, to wipe out and avenge the insult which England heaped upon the founder of his race. When that day comes, let all Irishmen be prepared to take part in the struggle for the destruction of this Nemesis of nations.—New York "Nation".

"There is not a man of sense or discernment in that country (France) who does not openly maintain that there can be but one reason for the whole of the Emperor's policy, let it be directed to the east or west, to the north or south—whether it be in defence of Victor Emanuel against the Emperor of Austria, or in defence of the King of Naples against Victor Emanuel—whether it be the occupation of Syria by French troops, or the negotiation of the mortgage on the Turkish loan—the sole and unique reason for every movement is nothing else than the determination to outwit and overpower England!—Cor. Boston Post.

BET PAID.—Mr. Charles Stark, of Fisherville, a descendant of Gen. John Stark, the Hero of Bennington, paid an election bet by walking from Fisherville to Manchester, on Thursday, and back again on Friday, and purchasing three gallons of oysters. His friends will probably realize more fun in eating the oysters, than he did in walking after them, in the present hard condition of the roads.

☞ The New York Knickerbocker Magazine for April, "opens rich." In the long and glorious existence of the "Old Knick," it never turned out a better volume, than this for the current year gives promise of being. "The Revelations of Wall Street" are richly worth the subscription price; and there is the usual variety of literature and fun. Subscribers also received for the $3, a beautiful engraving of Burns, worth that money.

Strange, that men cannot learn, moral questions cannot be settled by law, but only by public opinion; and a thousand laws to prevent slavery in the territories will be of no avail, unless a strong public sentiment in those same territories sustain them; and if that public sentiment exists, there will be no need of Congressional action. It might have proved better for the cause of the slave—as we believe it would for Temperance—if these subjects had never been introduced into legislative halls, but been discussed only before the reason and consciences of men.—Newburyport Herald.

WASHINGTON, March 15.—The Southern Commissioners do not expect an answer for several days. The Cabinet now have their mission under consideration.

Great weight is attached in political circles to the declaration of Mr. Fessenden, in the Senate to-day, that the Administration contemplates the policy of peace, and would exercise no authority not strictly in accordance with law, and not until ample time had been taken for an examination of the question in all its bearings.

NORFOLK, VA., March 15.—A heavy snow storm is prevailing here, and much damage to vessels on the coast is expected. Steamers Adelaide and Ben Deford, the latter for Boston, are detained.

He who knows the world will never be too bashful; and he who knows himself will never be impudent.

A handful of common sense is worth a bushel of learning.

He that is good, will invariably become better; and he that is bad, will as certainly become worse; for vice, virtue, and time, are three things that never stand still.

WHAT THE SOUTHERN VISITORS IN NEW YORK SAY.—Burleigh, writing to the Boston Journal from New York city March 13, tells this story:

We have a good many Southern men in New York. Many of them come here with their pockets full of gold and with bills on their native States. But all seems to mark haste, and when they are willing to speak they allow that they turned all they had into cash and ran, lest it should be seized and appropriated by the new government. Some of them are ready to say that the little finger of the new Confederation is stouter and heavier than the whole hand of the whole Union.

One of the maddest men I have heard of lately was in the vestibule of one of the leading hotels in New York. He came from an inflamed and excited people—a people lashed to the greatest pitch in view of wrongs inflicted on them, real or fancied,—a people who pass their nights in vigils—their days in military excitement and shows—with the hourly expectation of an attack from some unseen quarter—a people whose homes are filled with weeping women—whose daily prayer is that the great curse that now bends them down may be lifted, and the fear of a servile insurrection may be stayed. Coming North, he expected to find a state of things not unlike that at the South. He expected to find an exasperated people, filled with fear—without business,—with no safe investments—breathing war and ready to fight at the mention of the new Confederation, and turning pale at the mention of Jeff. Davis.

Instead of that he found, he said, a general apathy in all the North about the condition of the South; calm as a summer's morning, waiting for the South to "play out;" "to come to their senses," &c. No fear, no bravado, no threats; confidence in the ability of the North to take care of herself; and with the assurance that, come what will, the free States' capital, industry and integrity will bear them through. This man is a leading and influential Southerner, and his madness was created by the fact that the North did not seem to be excited or alarmed in any degree by the aspect of things at the South. To use his words, 'this apathy was a ——insult to the South.'

A room usually vacant—the room for improvement.

WISTAR'S BALSAM WILD CHERRY.

In the whole history of medical discoveries, NO REMEDY has performed so many or such remarkable cures of the Throat, Lungs and Chest,—of Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, or of Consumption itself, as this far-famed, long-tried and justly celebrated Balsam. So generally acknowledged is the superior excellence of this remedy, that but few of the many who have tested its virtues by experience fail to keep it at hand, as a speedy and certain cure for sudden attacks of Cold—fully believing that its remedial powers are comprehensive enough to embrace every form of disease, from the slightest cold to the most dangerous symptom of pulmonary complaint.

George W. Millet, Esq.

Editor of the Norway Advertiser, gives his opinion of this great remedy substantially as follows:

NORWAY VILLAGE, Me., Aug 4, 1860.

Messrs. S. W. Fowle & Co.—Gentlemen—For a remedy of such undoubted merit as DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, I cheerfully give you my testimony, and trust that others may be induced thereby to give it a trial and be relieved. Several years since I first became acquainted with this Balsam at a time of distressing cough and cold, which took such firm hold of my lungs as to render me unfit for business, and its operation produced a speedy and permanent cure, after trying various other remedies in vain

In our town this remedy is a great favorite with many, and if all who suffer will but give it a fair trial, I think they will find it to be of more service in pulmonary affections than any other remedy of this class before the public.

Yours respectfully, GEO. W MILLET.

HEIMSTREET'S INIMITABLE

HAIR RESTORATIVE.

The following is a sample of many letters daily received by W. E. HAGAN & Co., Troy, N. Y., who are the Manufacturers and Proprietors of "HEIMSTREET'S HAIR RESTORATIVE," an article of which many of our first citizens speak as being the cheapest and best Hair Preparation which has ever been introduced in our market. A combination of Stimulating Spirits and Oil, affording an agreeable Hair Dressing, leaving the scalp perfectly free from dandruff, and causing the hair to have a rich glossy appearance. Two articles in one. A fine "Hair Dressing," and a never-failing Restorative for the Bald and Gray.—Read the following letter:

Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers!

This extraordinary preparation has been for many years the most certain and speedy remedy for Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, Influenza, and Diseases of the Chest and Lungs. To those suffering from obstinate and confirmed Coughs, they give the most immediate and perfect relief; and when great liability to take cold exists, and a troublesome Cough succeeds the slightest exposure, these Wafers produce the most marked results. They at once relieve the Cough and other symptoms, and entirely remove that morbid irritability and weakness of the Lungs which give rise to the complaint. The medical properties are combined in an agreeable form and are pleasant to the taste, so that any child will readily take them; and they are warranted to give relief in ten minutes after use in all cases.

SAD ACCIDENT.—The 12 o'clock train from Boston to Salem, on Friday evening, killed a boy who was walking on the track just above Lynn. His name was John White, son of Mrs. Elizabeth B. White, of this city. He, with a boy named Danielson, started from Portsmouth a short time since, for Boston, in pursuit of employment; failing to find work there, they went to New York, where they were equally unsuccessful. Without friends, or money enough to get home again, they returned to Boston, partly by rail, and part way on foot, which latter city they reached on Friday: and on the same day started on foot for this city. Just before they reached Lynn, as before stated, the accident occurred. The engine struck the boy and knocked him from the track,—and falling upon his head, he was instantly killed.—His comrade barely escaped the same fate, by jumping to one side, the engine just grazing him. **

WHO BEAT?—Messrs. Editors:—We notice that the Gazette of Saturday rejoices over the Democratic victory achieved in this city, at the recent annual State election. If Portsmouth is a Democratic city, why did our citizens decide by their votes to send six Representatives to General Court, when the party who claimed the city sent only two? and why did our honored fellow-citizen, Mr. Hackett, the republican candidate for Senator, go out of the city with 56 majority?—and, moreover, why did that union-loving citizen, Mr. Marcy, who received two years ago 259 majority, receive but 26 majority?

Two years ago, Mr. Cate, the Democratic candidate for Governor, had thirteen majority, and the Democrats carried two wards, electing five Representatives. This year, notwithstanding the effort by the Democracy to unite the opposition against the Republicans, under the Union dodge, the Republicans have achieved a glorious victory by giving Mr. Marston a larger majority by over 200 than they did two years ago; and by electing Mr. Hackett as Senator; and by electing all their Representatives but two.

Think of it, ye Democrats, and rally again for the Union. JUSTICE.

AT THE CITY'S EXPENSE.—The Black Republicans of this city couldn't raise money enough, among all their long list of office seekers, to pay for ringing the bells an hour on the 4th, in honor of Lincoln's inauguration. They were only able to obtain sufficient to defray the expense of ringing half an hour; but the City messenger was sent around to the several churches before the time had expired, to direct the sextons to go on the other half hour, and the city would assume the expense! Truly, has not the city charges enough to meet, without having the Black Republican party expenses drawn directly from the city treasury?—Gazette.

Messrs. Editors of Chronicle:—Gents, The statement made in the Gazette, that the ringing of bells on the 4th of March, was at the expense of the city, is not correct.

Of New York,
with an accumulated capital of over
SEVEN MILLION DOLLARS,

Invested at seven per cent. on bond and mortgage loans in the City and State of New York, upon Real Estate worth double the amount loaned thereon, issues

POLICIES on lives, payable to the wife, or to the legal representative of the person insured.

POLICIES payable to the person insured, on his attaining the age of 50, 60 or 70; or to his representative in case of decease before attaining this age.

PREMIUMS may be paid, quarterly, semi-annually, or annually, at the option of the insured.

The long experience of this excellent institution, like the one hundred years' experience of the great Equitable Life Insurance Co. of London, and other kindred institutions, proves their stability and perpetuity when established upon the right principle. Investments made with them have proved more remunerative than with Savings Banks.

The time is near, when to protect one's family from the loss and want often attendant upon the death of its provider, will be as universal as it is now to protect ourselves from loss by fire.

No reflecting man can sit at his fireside with his young family about him, and feel at ease:—when he knows that if death should take him from them, they would be cast upon a selfish world, without the means for education or support, which he can easily provide for them thro' a life policy.

GROVER & BAKER

SEWING MACHINES.

TO THE LADIES.

CHARLES T. EMERY,
No. 10 Market Sq., Portsmouth,
Having been appointed
SOLE AGENT IN PORTSMOUTH
for the sale of the celebrated and unrivalled Noiseless
GROVER & BAKER
FAMILY AND MANUFACTURING
Sewing Machines,
would invite especial attention to the same.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE makes the only seam formed by a Sewing Machine, in which each stitch is independently locked, and without dependence on other stitches for strength, and the only seam that will admit of the thread being cut at every fourth stitch without injury to the seam in wear.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE is adapted to all varieties of fabrics, sewing equally well the finest Swiss Muslin or the heaviest cloth or leather, and requiring no adjustment for any kind of sewing other than the adaptation of needles and thread.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE sews from ordinary spools without rewinding, and fastens its own seams, thereby saving time and thread. It will sew common spool cotton, silk and linen thread with equal facility.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE is so simple that an intelligent child of ten years can readily learn to operate it. It is more easily kept in order than any other machine, and need not be taken apart to be oiled.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE makes the only stitch that cannot be injured by wasting and ironing, and the only stitch that forms an elastic and durable seam. Fabrics put together with this stitch may wear out and drop to pieces from original weakness, or hard usage, but come apart or give way at the seams, they cannot; they will hold together when the cloth or calico around them hangs in rags and tatters.

Every Machine Warranted.

PRICES FROM $40 UPWARDS.

A VOICE FROM THE WEST!

FROM THE CLEVELAND PLAINDEALER.

UNIVERSAL, UNIVERSAL,
IS THE DEMAND FOR
DR. S. O. RICHARDSON'S
SHERRY WINE BITTERS,
The celebrated New England remedy for
Habitual Constipation, Jaundice, Fever and Ague, General Debility, and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Stomach, Liver or Bowels.

They are used and recommended by the leading Physicians of the country, and all who try them, pronounce them invaluable.

DR. JAMES L. LEFEBERE writes from Navarre, Stark Co., O.: "The Bitters are praised by those suffering from indigestion, dyspepsia and liver complaint."

E. S. DAVIS, Postmaster at Williamsport, Ohio, says: "They give great satisfaction. I use them myself. Having taken cold, become prostrate, and lost my appetite, it relieved me, and I can recommend it with great assurance of its merits."

Dr. WM. M. KERR, of Rogersville, Ind., writes us that they are the most valuable medicine offered. He has recommended them with great success, and with them made several cures of palpitation of the heart, and general debility.

THOMAS STANFORD, Esq., Blountsville, Henry Co., Ind., writes us a long letter under date of May 4, 1860. He was much reduced, having been afflicted for three years with great nervous debility, palpitation of the heart of the most severe and prostrating character; "after using a few bottles, I was completely restored, and am now in robust health."

GEORGE W. HOFFMAN says he was afflicted with rheumatism in all its various forms for 20 years, and at the date of his letter he had been two years well, the Bitters effecting the cure, when several physicians attending him could do him no good. He says "for rheumatism, dyspepsia, liver complaint, kidney affection or dropsy, it is a specific certain remedy."

J. W. HUNT writes from Delphos, Allen Co., Ohio, (a section where fever and ague prevails,) that he cheerfully recommends them as of decided merit in all cases of fever and ague, dyspepsia and general debility.

D. K. GALLSHEES, M. D., writes from Van Wert, O.: "I most respectfully recommend the Sherry Wine Bitters to the notice of dyspeptic persons, and all who require a stimulating medicine."

DETRACTION OF THE VICE PRESIDENT.

About two months since a letter appeared in the Charleston Mercury, traducing the character of Hon. HANNIBAL HAMLIN, the Vice President of the United States. The Mercury stated that Hamlin was of negro descent and that one of his children had kinky hair. We have had some curiosity to see the letter, but have not been able to obtain a copy of the Mercury of Jan. 22d until this week. The letter was written just before the Presidential election, and the Mercury heads it as "from a gentleman of the highest respectability." Here it is:

PORTSMOUTH, N. H. October 20, 1860.

DEAR SIR: On my return to this place, after an absence of ten days, I found your letter of the 9th inst. making inquiries respecting Senator Hamlin's pedigree, which I hasten to answer. I was told by Hon. JOHN BURNHAM, of Hancock County, Maine, who was many years a member of our state Senate and Executive Council, that "he knew Hannibal Hamlin's ancestry well, having, lived, in early life, in their immediate neighborhood. He said that his great grand father was a mulatto, and married a French woman (Canadian) for his wife. I have a very distinct recollection of his remarks, and have quoted his exact words. My father who was a soldier in the Revolutionary army under Generals SULLIVAN and GREEN, at Rhode Island, often told me that he knew Hannibal Hamlin a grand-father, Captain Eleazer Hamlin, who, at that time and place, commanded a company of negros, mulattos and Indians. He once heard the inspector of the regiment inquire of Captain Hamlin, "how many blacks, besides himself, he had in his company?"

It is not true, as some of the republican papers represent, that the grand-father, Eleazer Hamlin, served the country faithfully during the Revolutionary War. My father said he embezzled the money he received for paying his men, and after stealing a quantity of wine and other necessaries provided for the sick and wounded, sold them, pocked the proceeds, and left the army in disgrace.

The father of Hannibal Hamlin lived where Hannibal was born, within a quarter of a mile of my residence in Paris, Maine. The father was a Federalist of the Hartford Convention stamp and had a brother named Africa Hamlin. It is a current report in that neighborhood, that a servant girl once heard an uncle of Hannibal Hamlin, while looking at him in the cradle, remark, "For God's sake, how long will this d—— black blood remain in our family?"

The above facts are all that have come to my knowledge, and I have stated them correctly.

MRS. ELIZABETH LORD.

Died, in Portsmouth, N. H. Feb. 28, Mrs. Elizabeth Lord, wife of Samuel Lord, Esq. aged 31.

In the death of this lady the Unitarian denomination has lost a strong and steady advocate; the poor a generous helper, a large circle of acquaintance a people friend, and her family a powerful support. Emphatic and decisive, loving and true, swift and conscientious, she was able to plan and as able to execute. Duty and duty she had canonized in her mind, and its performance was a passion with her. The family into which she entered as stepmother was the centre, about which her thoughts, affections and hopes loved to revolve; and she accepted the care of it as her beautiful mission from heaven. As a housekeeper she had no superior; and her devotion to her husband and his three children was the most entire self-surrender we ever beheld—Thirty-seven years of unbroken sunlight of love made her so dear and so necessary to that united and happy family! The place she has left vacant can never be filled; but she has demonstrated to us how peaceful and prosperous a family may be made by the supervision of an intelligent, warm-hearted and executive lady. She was a communicant in the Unitarian church, and walked worthy of her holy vocation.—Christian Register.

HONORABLE DEALING.—Mr. Alfred Putnam, shoe manufacturer of Danvers, has recently paid to several different journeyman shoemakers in Essex, sums varying from twenty-five dollars to eighty dollars, the aggregate of about five hundred dollars—being the amount due from him to them at the time of his failure in business, some years ago. He has lately come in possession of a legacy.

From the N. H. Gazette.

The Withdrawal of the Troops from Fort Sumter.

Advices from Washington make it probable that Mr. Lincoln and his Cabinet will immediately direct our troops to be withdrawn from Fort Sumter. This is the first sensible resolution to which the Republican party have come in the last four months. Though forced upon him by necessity and advised in the first instance by General Scott, Mr. Lincoln will be entitled to credit for this prompt concession which anglives the destruction of his party.

We cannot continue to hold Fort Sumter, without a war with the Southern Confederacy, probably with all the Southern States. Every attempt to relieve it will continue to be resisted; and if it be relieved, the investing force will be increased, and the struggle for its reduction will be the longer and more bloody. As a military position it is worthless to us, though of much consequence to the people of Charleston. Unless relieved by an army, large enough to take and hold Charleston, any number of troops in Fort Sumter can merely annoy the commerce of the place, and that less efficiently than a single sloop-of-war.

Some counsel that the withdrawal of the garrison of Fort Sumter, with the certainty that it will pass at once into the hands of the Secessionists, involves a loss of honor, and is inconsistent with the dignity of a great people. If the Republican idea be correct, that the South are in a state of rebellion and that it is the duty of the government to put down the rebellion by force of arms, or if we are to treat the Southern Confederacy as a hostile nation, it is true that the retreat is to us a humiliation. But all Democrats and Union men believe that the South are to be treated neither as rebels or enemies. The fact of their secession or revolution we admit, though Mr. Lincoln and his party persist in shutting their eyes to it. Admitting and regretting the fact, we propose to treat peacefully with the new Confederacy. We would negotiate for their return to the Union if possible; for an acknowledgment of their independence, and for treaties of peace and amity, if reunion cannot be accomplished.

Now Mr. Lincoln cannot take the positions we indicate without an entire abandonment of the platform of the Republican party;—such an abandonment as in a few months will utterly disorganize it and reduce it to a pitiful minority. But his alternative is war; and we hope that the patriotism and humanity, as well as the necessities of Mr. Lincoln will compel him to sacrifice his party for the good of his country. It is plain, that he sees no course open to him, but to follow the precise policy which Mr. Buchanan pursued and indicated. It is expressed in a single word: Peace.

BLOOD FOOD

CONSUMPTIVES.

An equal and normal circulation of the blood is health. An abnormal, that is to say, an excessive or deficient circulation or stagnation of the blood, is disease. To illustrate—towards off the Liver is caused by stagnation of the blood in that organ; diseases of the Kidneys, Inflammation of the Lungs, Disease of the Heart, &c., by the same cause, viz., improper Circulation; and from the same cause spring all the minor forms of disease. To discover a certain cure, then, for these diseases, the first great inquiry is, What causes the blood to circulate?

For centuries it has been a matter of much study among scientific and medical men; and while many experiments have been made and much labor expended upon the inquiry, it has been left to this century, among the other wonderful increase in knowledge, to make this grand discovery also

Acknowledging that life is the gift of the Creator and that "in Him we live and move and have our being," we still venture the remark that, as the heavens move in their spheres and all vegetable life is governed by certain absolute laws, so animal life is traceable to a fixed cause, which removes or destroy, and death, the certain effect follows.

Analysis of the red corpuscles of the blood shows them to be compounds of iron, sulphur and phosphorous.

The air we breathe we know to contain a very large proportion of oxygen.

Oxygen, brought in contact with metal, evolves one electricity.

Electricity, brought in contact with a muscular fibre, causes it to contract.

These facts being indisputable, we have now the solution as to the motor or motive power of the heart. The oxygen in the air we breathe, coming in contact with the iron in the red corpuscles of blood, emits electricity, which, coming in contact with the heart, causes it to contract, thus giving the power which expels the blood, and sends it tingling through the remotest arteries. What, then, is the cause of CONSUMPTION, DROPSY, PALSY, PAREALYSIS, ST. VITUS' DANCE, DYSPEPSIA, EPILEPSY, FEVER & AGUE, &c.?—A deficiency of the red corpuscles containing the iron, sulphur and phosphorous, which causes a deficiency of electricity, and consequently a normal circulation. The blood becomes watery, colds and bronchial complaints and prostration ensue—the sufferer becomes nervous, and subject to rheumatic pains and neuralgia—complaints of the liver and kidneys set in; in short, almost every type of disease but virulent fevers may be traced as

DOMESTIC RECEIPTS—INFALLIBLE.

1. To prevent horses and cattle from jumping. Keep good fences around fields of good pasture.

2. How to sleep soundly at night. Do a hard day's work at some honest manual labor, go to bed early, and always with a consciousness of having done right through the day. [Warranted.]

3. To cure dyspepsia. Take a new axe, put a white hickory handle in it, bore a hole in the top of the handle, fill the hole with gum camphor, and seal it up. Then take the axe and cut cord wood at fifty cents a cord, boarding yourself, until the heat of the handle dissolves and absorbs the camphor.

N. B.—It will do just as well at these times to take a maul and split rails, at the same price per hundred.

4. To prevent dogs from killing sheep. If the dogs are good for anything, give them plenty of bread and meat to eat at home—if good for nothing, give them less meat with one grain of strychnine in it.

5. To prevent wives from scolding.—Provide them with plenty of good wood and water—plenty in the pantry and kitchen, and always wear a cheerful countenance, and speak pleasantly yourself. P. S.—Wife says I must add to this, marry a sensible woman. UNCLE BEN.

THE EFFECTS OF REVOLUTION.—Revolutions will come into the moral and political world, just as surely as storms in the natural world, and it is the part of wisdom not to fear any of these things, but when we are unavoidably exposed, prepare for them, and meet them manfully. In this way their force may break around us harmlessly, and we may obtain from them lessons which will be of great value in after life.

We are now in the midst of a revolution, from which for six months past it has been obvious that there was to be no escape.—Like many other revolutions, it is quite probable it will, when its fruits are fully worked out, disappoint both those who encouraged and those who strove to prevent it. It is not unlikely that it may fail of producing the things expected of it, and in the end bring out events which at the outset no person anticipated. We think one event which this revolution will do much to bring about is, to hasten the time when the era of free trade will arrive, and government will be supported by direct taxation. It is proper to look at this as a possible issue, in order that too sanguine anticipations may not be indulged in as regards the effect of a tariff.

In the steps towards an adjustment o our national quarrel, it cannot fail to be seen that the imposts have had quite as much to do with our political troubles as the slavery question. The free States have grown rich and populous beyond the slave States, and these last have believed that our growth has been only in consequence of government protection according to our industry; and hence their attempts to break down this protection, whether it was given to manufactures or commerce. At this moment it is only the revenue question which makes our quarrel serious. But for this matter, we should hardly know or feel any trouble about disunion. Again it may be found that the only check to corruption, as a government grows rich and powerful, will be a resort to direct taxation.

We throw out these hints because it is well to be watchful for questions which may come up, and if we are not prepared for them, in time, may work much evil—Boston Traveller.

TUESDAY, MARCH 19, 1861.

EXTRA SESSION.

It seems probable that an extra session of Congress may be called, at an early day.

It was quite generally supposed, says a writer in the Atlas, that at the time the new Administration was inaugurated, it "came into power." This idea, however, proves to have been an entirely mistaken one, in short, nothing but a wild delusion. It is true Mr. Lincoln is President, but it is equally true that he finds himself destitute of the necessary power to administer the government. Fort Sumter, and we don't know how many other forts are to be abandoned because there is no power to hold them. The arsenals, mints, custom houses and other public property stolen from the government by traitors, are to be allowed to remain in their possession and to be appropriated to the uses of rebellion, because there is no power to retake them.

The duties on foreign goods arriving at southern ports are to be suffered to be paid into the hands of, and to be appropriated by, those who are in open rebellion against the authority of the government, because there is no power to prevent it. The amount of said duties collected at Charleston, Savannah, Mobile, New Orleans, &c., is stated to be more than $20,000 per day, all of which will, of course, be used toward defraying the expenses of the cotton government installed at Montgomery.

One thing, says the writer, is certain: if the present state of things be allowed to continue, any revival of public confidence or of healthy and active business, will be expected in vain. The prevailing opinion seems to be that our only remedy lies in the immediate convening of Congress.

It is supposed this may be the prevailing opinion in New York, where the writer lives:—and no doubt there is something in it.

Indeed everything of the commercial kind is so disturbed by the action of the secessionists, that we seem to need our Congress in perpetual session, to counteract their machinations against anything like regular trade.

And then; whether the policy of the United States is to be Peace or War,—the republican or democratic idea would be, not that the President and cabinet alone should say how it shall be done—but the Representatives of the people, and the Senators from the states.

If the seceders are to be declared independent, and fairly dismissed, Congress, rather the President should assume that power, or rather the people themselves, if their vote could be had.

And if force is to be used,—armies raised, fed, and paid,—then the people, or at least their representatives, legally chosen, should say how much of it, and provide the ways and means.

We do not think it is too much to expect, to see order come out of the present confusion,—but it cannot come in a moment:—and it may not come without a civil war,—but we hope that may be averted by a course at once fair and firm.

☞ The people of Louisiana, it seems, are to have no vote on the Constitution of the Confederacy. A dispatch from New Orleans March 16, says:—

The Convention rejected an ordinance submitting the Constitution of the Confederate States to the people, by a vote of 74 against 20. The Constitution will come before the Convention for ratification on Monday.

When it is remembered that a majority of the people of Louisiana voted not to secede from the Union,—no one need wonder at this new vote of the Convention, who have done exactly what the people voted not to do.

THE P. O. DEPARTMENT.—The correspondent of the N. Y. Sun writes from Washington on Friday:—

"To-day the Hon. Geo. Wm. McLellan Second Assistant Postmaster General, was duly qualified and entered upon his duties as chief of the contract division. He is ably assisted by the veteran principal clerk, E. L. Childs, Esq."

Mr. Childs has recently acted as Second Assistant. He is a native of Lynn, and has been in the Post Office Department ever since he left Portsmouth, where he was a bookseller from 1821 to 1827.

KALLOCH IN DISGRACE. — Mr. Hayes, superintendent of the Tremont Temple, Boston, publishes a card in some of the Monday morning papers, tacitly confirming the accounts of I. S. Kalloch's intrigues, which were given in the Boston Herald last week. He also states that he gave information of the same things, to Dea. Converse, a trustee, soon after they happened, —but they were hushed up for a while, though now they are all out.

RUSSIA.—St. Petersburg, March 1.—In refutation of current reports, the Governor General of St. Petersburg announces that no government measure concerning the peasants will be published on the 2d of March.

LATE WASHINGTON ITEMS.

WASHINGTON, March 16.—[Dispatch to the N. Y. Evening Post.]—Orders have been issued from the Navy Department for the sailing of several ships-of-war, but their destination is not announced.

The Republican Senators will adhere to the line of action indicated by Mr. Fessenden yesterday. There will be no premature discussion of the policy of the administration towards the seceding States, and the attempts of Douglas and his friends to force a declaration, will be frustrated.

WASHINGTON, March 16, 2 1-2 P. M.—[Dispatch to the Traveller.]—The excitement caused by the rencontre between Douglas and Messrs. Fessenden, Wilson and Hale, did not cease with the adjournment of the Senate, but is the general theme to-day.

The favorable impression created among Republicans by Douglas' recent course, was almost com; letely obliterated by his behavior yesterday, and he is generally denounced by them to-day.

Douglas' speech was premeditated, prewritten, concocted after southern consultation, and was intended to aid in getting up a division in the Republican party.

Mr. Wilson exposed this scheme in an admirable manner, completely disconcerting Douglas, and maddening him by the success of the exposure.

The news here of the feeling against the action of the Montgomery convention, and the new constitution, even in South Carolina, grows daily more positive.

The Unionists here draw encouragement from this fact.

WASHINGTON, March 17.—It is said on good authority, that Messrs. Crawford and Forsyth, the southern commissioners, entertain the strongest hopes of preserving peaceful relations between the two governments.

It is not yet ascertained whether any order has been issued by the government with regard to the evacuation of Fort Sumter, an event, however, which is still considered as soon inevitably to occur, from circumstances beyond executive control. From what is actually known, a formal surrender of the fort is not anticipated.

The o best informed relative to southern movements, totally discredit the report that Fort Pickens has been attacked, or that such an act is likely to occur for the present.

The New York Herald's correspondent says authoritatively, that no foreign-born citizens will be appointed as heads of diplomatic posts in Europe.

[Dispatch to the N. Y. Times.]—Recent letters from Major Anderson resent with emphatic indignation, the insinuations against his disposition to hold the fort to the last extremity. The whole question must be decided on purely military principles.

Andrew Johnson continues earnestly to favor an abandonment of the United States forts at the South, wherever it is not essential to retain them. He says the President has nothing to do in this matter, except follow the highest military advice, as this is a purely military question. There will be nothing left of secessionists, he says, if Sumter is abandoned.

NEW YORK, March 18. — The correspondent of the Herald at Charleston, says the new tariff and Constitution are unsatisfactory.

The floating battery will be moved on Monday, but not toward Fort Sumter.

A Washington dispatch to the Herald says that Major Anderson has informed the government that if reinforcements should be intended, the Carolinians would immediately fill the channels, and render communication by water impossible.

The Cabinet are considering measures relative to the seizure of the revenue cutter by Texas.

It is understood that the Administration has sent secret Agents to different European governments, to inform them of the future policy of this government, thus forestalling and defeating the object of the Southern Confederacy in sending their Commissioners thence. The same course is to be pursued relative to Mexico.

Lieut. Putman has arrived from Texas, with dispatches from Col. Waite, who has been instructed to withdraw from Texas, and was concentrating the troops at Indianola. Col. Waite will remain until all the troops have left. The military post on Brazos Bland was surrendered by Lieut. Thompson to Gen. Nichols. He had only fifteen men and two guns.

The Texas Rangers are stationed from Brazos to Brownsville, and it is anticipated that they would attempt to prevent the government troops taking away the stores and artillery.

The World's Washington dispatch says Fort Washington is being repaired to receive Major Anderson's command. The Times' correspondent says it is by no means settled that Fort Sumter will be evacuated.

The friends of Fessenden and Douglas are endeavoring to settle the difficulty between them.

There is great pressure by Northern merchants for an extra session of Congress.

MR. LINCOLN QUOTES SHAKESPEARE. "The power confided to me will be used to hold, occupy and possess the property and places belonging to the government, and collect the duties and imposts; but, beyond what may be necessary for those objects, there will be no invasion, no using of force against or among the people anywhere.—Where hostility to the United States in any interior locality shall be so great and so universal as to prevent the competent resident citizens from holding the federal offices, there will be no attempt to force obnoxious strangers among people that object. While the strict legal right may exist for the government to enforce the exercise of these offices, the attempt to do so would be so irritating, and so nearly impracticable withal, that I deem it better to forego for the time the uses of such offices."—The Inaugural Address.

Dogberry—This is your charge. You shall comprehend all vagrom men; you are to bid any man stand in the prince's name.

Watch—How if he will not stand?

Dogberry—Why, then, take no note of him, but let him go; but presently call the rest of the watch together and thank God you are rid of a knave.—Boston Courier.

EXCITEMENT IN NEW ORLEANS.—Republican Flag in Port.—A decided excitement was created in New Orleans on the 8th inst., by the appearance at the masthead of the ship Adelaide Bell, owned in New Hampshire, of a flag the captain of the ship proclaimed to be a "Black Republican flag," and defied anybody to pull it down. Intelligence of the exhibition and its accompanying threat were soon spread abroad, and the captain was waited upon by several parties, who induced him to lower the obnoxious bunting. The flag which created so much attention is the old "Stars and Stripes," with the difference that the stripes are reversed, there being a red stripe next below the Union. Much indignation is expressed at the conduct of the captain, who denies, however, that the flag had any political significance, and asserts that the flag was presented to the ship when she was launched, seven years ago, by Mr. Isaac Bell of Mobile, after whose wife, Mrs. Adelaide Bell, the ship was named. His statement is disbelieved, the "Vigilant" committee sticking to their assertion that the flag is known at sea among sea captains as the flag of the northern or Black Republican States, and has been so regarded for three or four years.—Southern Exchange.

[No seaman ever before heard of any flag of the northern states: no such flag exists.—Ed. Chron.]

FALL OF AN ANCIENT CHURCH TOWER.—On the 21st of February the ancient tower of the Cathedral, at Chichester, England, fell. It was built in 1200, and the spire, which was added in 1400, was raised to the height of 274 feet. Symptoms of yielding were discovered some time ago, and examination showed them to be quite serious. On the 14th cracks and crevices appeared in the piers, and on Sunday the 17th, after services, sixty workmen were set to work to strengthen the tower, and labored night and day, their efforts being quickened by a gale, which made the tower totter, until a quarter past one on the afternoon of the 21st, when the workmen were all ordered out of the cathedral, and a quarter of an hour later the tower and spire fell to the floor with but little noise, forming a mass of near six thousand tons of ruins in the centre of the church, and carrying with it about twenty feet in length of the nave, and as much of the transept and choir. "The spire at its fall," says an eyewitness, "at first inclined slightly to the southwest and then sank gently into the centre of the building. The appearance of the fall was that of a large ship quietly but rapidly foundering at sea." Fortunately no one was injured by this catastrophe, but the people of Chichester are inconsolable over their architectural loss.

FATAL RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—A fatal and melancholy railroad accident took place at about 5 o'clock on Saturday afternoon at Porter's Station, West Cambridge, on the Fitchburgh Railroad. A young man named Faulkner, (son of Col. Saul Faulkner, of South Acton,) a student at Harvard College, was almost instantly killed by a locomotive. He was a young man of great promise, and much beloved by his classmates at Harvard, having been a student for two years.

MISSING VESSELS SAFE.—One of these is the steamer Australasian, which broke her screw in longitude 30, and returned to Queenstown, where she arrived the 3d of March. Passengers all well.

Another, the steamer Uncle Sam, reported by Pony Express as overdue at San Francisco, was at Acapulco, Feb. 18th. Had a rough passage up and lost one of her wheels.

A Southern paper says, "a novel and intoxicating liquor has been made from the cotton plants. On many plantations the laborers in the cotton fields have been observed on dull and moist days to be unusually inclined to sleep. This, in addition to the fact that many negroes are extremely fond of chewing the cotton-leaves, led to a distillation of the plant by an amateur chemist, who thus discovered its possession of remarkable intoxicating qualities, the strength of which impregnates the very air."

EXECUTIVE CLEMENCY.—Sherman M. Booth, formerly editor of a Milwaukee paper, whose name has been before the country so much in connection with the rescue of a fugitive slave, of escape from prison, and the subject of numerous decisions of the State and U. S. Courts, has been released from prison—one of the last acts of Mr. Buchanan's administration. A short time since it was represented that he was becoming insane, but now it is stated that he is looking remarkably well.

☞ The U. S. war steamer Susquehanna, now on the Syrian coast, is a model craft. The state of religious feeling on board is something remarkable. Prayer meetings and Bible classes are maintained among the officers and men; the tone of morals is elevated, and drunkenness is almost unknown.

☞ Intelligence received in Washington from Charleston, states that there exists a pretty strong party in South Carolina opposed to ratifying the Montgomery Constitution, and it is understood they will resist it at every point.

☞ The Judges of the British House of Lords have decided that a clergyman has no power to solemnize his own marriage, and that the issue of such a marriage is illegitimate. The question came before their lordships in connection with a case which has excited considerable interest in Ireland, "Beamish v. Beamish."

FRANCE.—Paris, March 1.—The discussion of the project of the address commenced yesterday in the Senate. The Marquis of Larochejaquelin and Count Heckern spoke in favor of the temporal power of the Pope. Senator Pietri, formerly prefect of police, and late imperial commissioner in Italy, in his speech said:—The temporal power of the Pope is lost.—We must confine ourselves to the preservation of his spiritual power. We must consider the attitude of the reaction which has again raised its head, and must determine our line of conduct. Italy has an army of three hundred thousand men, which she will place on our side in the conflict with which we are threatened.

The French Senate was warmly debating an address in response to the Emperor's speech. Prince Napoleon justified the policy of Piedmont and uttered some sympathetic words relative to Venice, but would deplore untimely attack. He opposed the union of the temporal and spiritual power of the Pope, but said the independence of the Pope must be insured.

A pastoral letter by the Bishop of Poiciers, comparing the Emperor of France to Pontius Pilate, created great sensation, and the government was debating what measures to take.

"I hate to hear people talk behind one's back," as the robber said when the constable called, "Stop thief."

WISTAR'S BALSAM WILD CHERRY.

In the whole history of medical discoveries, NO REMEDY has performed so many or such remarkable cures of the Throat, Lungs and Chest,—of Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, or of Consumption itself, as this far-famed, long-tried and justly celebrated Balsam. So generally acknowledged is the superior excellence of this remedy, that but few of the many who have tested its virtues by experience fail to keep it at hand, as a speedy and certain cure to the sudden attacks of Cold—fully believing that its remedial powers are comprehensive enough to embrace every form of disease, from the slightest cold to the most dangerous symptom of pulmonary complaint.

George W. Millet, Esq.

Editor of the Norway Advertiser, gives his opinion of this great remedy substantially as follows:

NORWAY VILLAGE, Me., Aug 4, 1860.

Messrs. S. W. Fowle & Co.—Gentlemen:—For a remedy of such undoubted merit as DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, I cheerfully give you my testimony, and trust that others may be induced thereby to give it a trial and be relieved. Several years since I first became acquainted with this Balsam at a time of distressing cough and cold, which took such firm hold of my lungs as to render me unfit for business, and its operation produced a speedy and permanent cure, after trying various other remedies in vain.

In our town this remedy is a great favorite with many, and if all who suffer will but give it a fair trial, I think they will find it to be of more service in pulmonary affections than any other remedy of this class before the public.

Yours respectfully, GEO. W. MILLET.

☞ Mr. Leo Miller is to speak again at the Temple, to-night; and even if he don't "prove Spiritualism to be of divine origin," as he is advertised to do, he will not fail to deliver an interesting address—and it will be a fine opportunity for those who ignorantly denounce Spiritualism, to learn just what is claimed and professed for it, by the believers in "progressive Christianity." Mr. Miller is well worthy a full hearing.

The Condition of the Treasury.—The National Intelligencer corrects the statement which has gained some currency, that when Mr. Chase took charge of the Treasury department on the 7th he had a balance of six millions subject to draft.

It appears that there were then three millions nominally subject to the draft of the Treasurer in the hands of all the depositories, including those at New Orleans, Mobile and San Francisco, and nearly three millions held by the various depositories subject to the drafts of the disbursing officers, to whom it had been advanced for specific purposes. Altogether, therefore, there was about six millions in the hands of the government, but of course not one half of it was really available for current demands. "Secretary Dix," says the Intelligencer, "confessedly managed the affairs of the Treasury with signal ability during the brief period of his administration, but he had not address enough to get possession of the two or three millions of government money held by the sub-treasurers in the seceding States."

Cotton Shipments from Memphis.—The secession papers at Memphis have endeavored to frighten the people of that city into secession, on the ground that they would otherwise lose all their trade. For the week ending 9th inst. the shipments of cotton were to New Orleans, 3684 bales: north via Charleston railroad, 639; St. Louis, 636; Ohio river, 7740—more than two-thirds finding its way to market North.

☞ A letter from Montgomery to a secession leader in Charleston, denounces the new Government as almost as bad as the one against which they rebelled—and says there are thousands in Georgia who believe it is a great deal worse.

☞ The Methodist Church on Harvard street, Cambridgeport, was burnt by an incendiary on Thursday night. It was a new building of wood, and cost $16,000. Insured for $10,000.

☞ The Great Eastern Steamship Company have adopted the report already published, and the ship will probably be ready next month for another voyage.

New York, March 18.—Cadets Moreno and Sommera have resigned from West Point and left for Montgomery. There are now no cadets at West Point from the seceded States.

☞ Jacob Thompson, Secratary of the Interior under Mr. Buchanan, has published a vituperative reply to Mr. Holt's letter.

Give a Dog a Bad Name, &c.—The United Secession States will shortly want a name. Mr. Punch suggests Slaveownia.—Punch.

☞ Reports from Ohio say that there will probably be no choice of a Senator by the present Legislature this session.

☞ A letter from Dresden, Tenn., states that the Union feeling there is very firm.

HOW THEY MAKE LADIES' CLOAKS

In old times the making of a lady's cloak was quite an undertaking, involving a day or two's shopping to obtain the cloth; another, and a vexatious one, to obtain trimmings to match, or as near as possible to match; then the fittings and labor of the mantua-maker; until, finally, at the end of eight or ten days, the lady, if the dress maker was successful, appeared in the new garment,—the result of so much care.

The selection of a similar garment may now be made in half an hour. The march of progress in the manufacture of ladies' cloaks, capes, mantillas and other garments of that description, has been as rapid and important for that branch of trade, as the men's ready-made clothing business.

Like men's clothing, these garments for ladies are of every variety, style, quality and finish, and are manufactured by thousands in Boston, finding a market all over the country, from Maine to Louisiana, and from Massachusetts to Oregon.

We give the result of a brief visit to the manufactory of a house engaged in this trade in Boston, that of Messrs. Allen & Paine, and we are informed the only one in the country devoted exclusively to the manufacture and jobbing of these articles and their trimmings, and everything from which a garment is made,—and no other goods. By the few facts which we have space to give, it will be seen that the manufacture of these goods is an industrial interest of both magnitude and importance. The manufacturing rooms of this firm are in close proximity to their warehouse in New Devonshire street, in the immediate vicinity of the largest dry goods jobbing houses; they afford ample accommodations for four hundred seamstresses, and are heated by steam, which also furnishes the power for running the sewing-machines. By systematic arrangements, the work of three or four hundred seamstresses is as easily managed as that of a dozen or twenty. Let us rapidly glance at the plan of operations.

The partner having charge of the manufacture, having decided to make any particular style of cloak, cape or mantilla, a case of goods is opened, and piece after peice (if the material be cloth) throughly sponged by the aid of steam, after which they are taken to the cutters' room; here men rapidly remove the listings from each piece, after which they carefully spread them out one upon another smoothly and exactly, in piles of from two to ten pieces, according to the thickness of the material, so as to be all cut at once.

The foreman in this department (who has been regularly educated in this business and served a seven-years' apprenticeship in Europe) now places the patterns (which have been prepared with great nicety and skill, as well as with mathematical accuracy) upon the cloth, and chalks out the garments; he is immediately followed by a strong handed, strong armed knight of the shears, who can 'cut out' anything there is going, and whose keen blades follow the chalky lines with unerring skill, like a locomotive on a railroad track, except that the curves and angles are somewhat against the comparison; following him comes the folders, who collect from the pile of cut material one piece from each thickness, and placing the several parts together, find themselves in possession of a garment 'yet to be.'

The several pieces being folded together are passed to the trimming department; the forewoman here must be a person of taste, and likewise have a correct eye for colors. A printed card before her describes each style of garment, how much, and what kind of trimming each style requires; a card, which was attached in the cutting-room to the unmade garment, indicates to her its style, and she proceeds with her assistant, to match in colors and combination the trimming, tassels, buttons, &c., and the package is then complete and ready for the general work room. This appartment is a busy one indeed, the continuous rattle of sewing machines, the passing of work from one to another, the arrival and departure of message boys, makes it seem almost impossible to prevent confusion in the putting together the materials. It is done only by thoro' systematic arrangement.

The forewoman in this department knows the ability of each girl, and distributes the work accordingly. Every garment given to a girl, is charged to her by a book-keeper, who credits it to her account when finished. Every twenty girls require an overseer—an expert, who examines the garments in process of manufacture, corrects errors in joining seams, etc. The plan of operations in this department is as follows:—The forewoman, for instance, receives a package marked "Y. P.," signifying Victoria Paletot; she knows at once the best hands on that description of work, and the book-keeper charges it at once to one of "the four hundred," and forwards by messenger to her. The girl takes the package, rapidly opens and arranges it, and bastes the seams for the machine.

Every sewing machine is numbered, and every ten girls receive a corresponding number,—so, when she has the garment basted, ready for the machine, supposing her number to be 18, she goes to the machine bearing that number, and leaves the garment to be stitched, receiving therefor a check, which she in turn must present to the operator, before she can receive the garment back again. Received from the machine, the garment is then trimmed and finished off by the seamstress, who sends it to the principal inspector, who examines it throughly, and if it is found to be complete and well-finished is passed to the book-keeper, who gives credit on her account for its receipt. The garment next passes under the eye of a member of the firm; if satisfactory to him, it goes to the sales-room, with thousands of others of different hues, styles and patterns, where they are put up in packages, as sold; and when they next see light, after leaving there, it may be in Portland, Buffalo, Cincinnati, or New Orleans.

There are many retailers who manufacture the above articles for their own trade, whom Messrs. Allen & Paine supply with materials, as they are able to do so advantageously, from the fact of their being in this business exclusively; and manufacturing their own trimmings, this fact last enabling them at all times to perfectly match any shade of cloth and form any combination of colors desired in the garments they manufacture.

The colors in the cloths to be used this spring are very beautiful, among others some very fine shades of drab; in American goods, which excel in softness the English fabrics.

Messrs. Allen & Paine's sales rooms are located in the new granite block in Devonshire street, between Franklin and Summer, and opposite the new warehouse of J. M. Beebe & Co. Their facilities for manufacturing the goods above described are all that systematic arragement, enterprise and a liberal outlay of capital can command; and the increase of the business is proof that their industry has been turned to a good account, and their enterprise is thoroughly appreciated.

LIFE INSURANCE.

"In the midst of Life we are in Death."

The strong man often falters, and falls in the midst of the hurry and business of life. The wise man maketh provision for those whom he loveth, against the liability to accident and death.

THE

MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE CO.

Of New York,

with an accumulated capital of over

SEVEN MILLION DOLLARS,

Invested at seven per cent. on bond and mortgage loans in the City and State of New York, upon Real Estate worth double the amount loaned thereon, issues

POLICIES on lives, payable to the wife, or to the legal representative of the person insured.

POLICIES payable to the person insured, on his attaining the age of 50, 60 or 70; or to his representative in case of decease before attaining this age.

PREMIUMS may be paid, quarterly, semi-annually, or annually, at the option of the insured.

The long experience of this excellent institution, like the one hundred years' experience of the great Equitable Life Insurance Co. of London, and other kindred institutions, proves their stability and perpetuity when established upon the right principle. Investments made with them have proved more remunerative than with Savings Banks.

The time is near, when to protect one's family from the loss and want often attendant upon the death of its provider, will be as universal as it is now to protect ourselves from loss by fire.

No reflecting man can sit at his fireside with his young family about him, and feel at ease;—when he knows that if death should take him from them, they would be cast upon a selfish world, without the means for education or support, which he can easily provide for them thro' a life policy.

SOLE AGENT IN PORTSMOUTH

for the sale of the celebrated and unrivalled Noiseless

GROVER & BAKER

FAMILY AND MANUFACTURING

Sewing Machines,

would invite especial attention to the same.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE makes the only seam formed by a Sewing Machine, in which each stitch is independently locked, and without dependence on other stitches for strength, and the only seam that will admit of the thread being cut at every fourth stitch without injury to the seam in wear.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE is adapted to all varieties of fabrics, sewing equally well the finest Swiss Muslin or the heaviest cloth or leather, and requiring no adjustment for any kind of sewing other than the adaptation of needles and thread.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE sews from ordinary spools without rewinding, and fastens its own seams, thereby saving time and thread. It will sew common spool cotton, silk and linen thread with equal facility.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE is so simple that an intelligent child of ten years can readily learn to operate it. It is more easily kept in order than any other machine, and need not be taken apart to be oiled.

THE GROVER & BAKER SEWING MACHINE makes the only stitch that cannot be injured by washing and ironing, and the only stitch that forms an elastic and durable seam. Fabrics put together with this stitch may wear out and drop to pieces from original weakness, or hard usage, but come apart or give way at the seams, they cannot; they will hold together when the cloth or calico around them hangs in rags and tatters.

Every Machine Warranted.

DR. S. O. RICHARDSON'S

SHERRY WINE BITTERS,

The celebrated New England remedy for

Habitual Constipation, Jaundice, Fever and Ague, General Debility, and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Stomach, Liver or Bowels.

They are used and recommended by the leading Physicians of the country, and all who try them, pronounce them invaluable.

Dr. JAMES L. LEFEERE writes from Navarre, Stark Co., O.: "The Bitters are praised by those suffering from indigestion, dyspepsia and liver complaint."

E. S. DAVIS, Postmaster at Williamsport, Ohio, says: "They give great satisfaction. I use them myself. Having taken cold, become prostrate, and lost my appetite, it relieved me, and I can recommend it with great assurance of its merits."

Dr. WM. M. KERR, of Rogersville, Ind., writes us that they are the most valuable medicine offered. He has recommended them with great success, and will effect them made several cures of palpitation of the heart, and general debility.

THOMAS STANFORD, Esq., Blountville, Henry Co., Ind., writes us a long letter under date of May 4, 1860. He was much reduced, having been afflicted for three years with great nervous debility, palpitation of the heart of the most severe and prostrating character; "after using a few bottles, I was completely restored, and am now in robust health."

GEORGE W. HOFFMAN says he was afflicted with rheumatism in all its various forms for 20 years, and at the date of his letter he had been two years well, the Bitters effecting the cure, when several physicians attending him could do him no good. He says "for rheumatism, dyspepsia, liver complaint, kidney affection or dropsy, it is a specific certain remedy."

J. W. HUNT writes from Delphos, Allen Co., Ohio, (a section where fever and ague prevails,) that he cheerfully recommends them as of decided merit in all cases of fever and ague, dyspepsia and general debility.

D. K. GALLEHERS, M. D., writes from Van Wert, O.: "I most respectfully recommend the Sherry Wine Bitters to the notice of dyspeptic persons, and all who require a stimulating medicine."

PROFESSOR WOOD'S

HAIR RESTORATIVE!

SEE WHAT OTHERS SAY OF IT.

A Distinguished St. Louis Physician Writes:

ST. LOUIS, July 10, 1869.

O. J. WOOD, Esq.,—Dear Sir:—Allow me the pleasure and satisfaction of transmitting to you the beneficial effects of your Hair Restorative, after a trial of 5 years. I commenced using your Restorative in January, 1855, since which time I have not been without a bottle on hand. When I commenced the use, my hair was quite thin, and at least one third gray. A few applications stopped its falling, and in three weeks there was not a gray hair to be found, neither has there been up to this time.

After my hair was completely restored, I continued its use by applying two or three times a month. My hair has ever continued healthy, soft and glossy, and no scalp perfectly free from dandruff. I do not imagine the facts above mentioned will be of any particular advantage to you, or even flatter your vanity, at this late day, as I am well aware they are all well known already, and even more wonderful ones throughout the Union. I have occasionally during the time, recommended the use of your preparation to all enquiring the greater part of the time the past three years, and have taken pleasure in recommending your Restorative, and exhibiting its effects in my own case. In several instances I have met with people who pronounced it a humbug; saying they had used it and without effect. In every instance, however, it proved, by probing the matter, that they had not used your article at all, but had used some new article, said to be as good, and selling at about half the price. I have noticed two or three articles myself advertised as above, which I have no doubt are humbugs. It is astonishing that people will pretend to an article of no reputation, when there is one at hand that has been proved beyond a doubt.

Apparently, some of these charlatans have not brains enough to write an advertisement, as I notice they have copied yours, word for word, in several instances, merely inserting some name in place of yours.

I have, within the past five years, seen and talked with more than five thousand persons that have used your preparation with perfect success—some for baldness, gray hair, scald head, dandruff, and every disease the scalp and head are subject to.

I called to see you, personally, at your original place of business here, but learned you were now living in New York.

You are at liberty to publish this, or to refer parties to me. Any communication addressed to me, care box No. 1920, will be promptly answered. Yours truly, JAMES WHITE, M. D.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE has acquired a reputation from actual test and experiment which cannot be enhanced by newspaper puffs. In our own vicinity it has been extensively used, and we believe in every case with every desired result, and receives the universal indorsement of all who have tried it. We therefore recommend it as one of those few genuine nostrums which accomplish all they profess, and all the bald and gray could desire.—Columbia Spy.

PROF. WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—In another column will be found an advertisement of this well known and excellent preparation for restoring gray hair to its original color. The Hair Restorative also cures cutaneous eruptions, and prevents the hair from falling off. We have seen many authentic testimonials in proof of these assertions, some of which are from gentlemen whom we have known for many years as persons of the most reliable character. Don't dye till you have tried the Restorative.—Boston Olive Branch.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—We are not in the habit of puffing every new discovery, for in nine cases out of ten they are much nostrums; but we take great pleasure in recommending Prof. Wood's article to all whose hair is falling off or turning gray. Our well known counsellor, Pinkey Johnson, Esq., has experienced the benefit of its application, and joins with us in speaking of its virtues. Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative will be as rare as snow in summer.—Subscriber Patriot.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.—Unlike most specifics, this is proved, by unimpeachable evidence, to possess great efficacy as a renewer of the hair to its pristine vigor. Where the head had become almost bald because of sickness, the use of this article has produced a beautiful growth of thick, glossy hair. It is therefore a valuable preparation for all classes. Its ingredients are such as to effectually eradicate dandruff and other impurities which operate so injuriously to the hair. It also has curative powers of another description. In many cases pimples and other disfigurements of the skin disappear wherever it is used. There is no hazard attaching to the trial of this remedy, and if it does not prove to be beneficial, as the compound, if it does not cause a manifest improvement, is incapable of doing harm, as its component elements are perfectly innocuous.—Boston Transcript, April 22, 1869.

WARREN SPRINGS, Perry Co., Pa., June, 7, '69.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir:—I was induced more than a year ago to try your invaluable Hair Restorative to clean my head of dandruff. I had suffered from it for years, and had never been able to get anything to do me any good until I read your advertisement in a Harrisburgh paper. I bought a bottle, and am now prepared to recommend it to universal use, for it has completely removed all dandruff from my head, and an application once in two weeks keeps it free from itching and other annoyances. My hair was thin, but that my hair had become quite white in places, and by the use of your preparation, has been restored to its original color. I am now 63 years of age, and although I have used two bottles of the Restorative, no one has any knowledge of it, as I allow a few gray hairs to remain, in order to have my appearance comport with my age. My head is now of less trouble to me in keeping it clean, &c., than at any time since I have been a child. I consider your preparation of great value, and, altho' I do not like to expose myself, I consider it my duty to say so. You can use this, or any part of it, in any shape you think proper, if it is worth anything to you. Yours, &c., H. H. ETTER.

ALL HAIR DYES ABANDONED—WOOD'S GREAT ARTICLE IN THE FIELD.—Prof. Wood stands on an eminence as chemist, whose attention has been turned to inventing a hair tonic, has ever before reached. His name is world-wide, and thousands who have worn wigs or been bald for years, are now, by the agency of this preparation, wearing their own natural and luxurious head covering. So much for chemistry. Prof. Wood studied out the human hair, its properties, its diseases, and how to restore its decayed vitality; he saw, as in his own case, that gray hair is unnatural unless the age of the individual had reached fourscore, and he believed that the hair could be re-vitalized. He tried his own case—almost bald and nearly gray—he succeeded in his own hair—and the article he did it with he gave to the world. Get WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE, and take nothing else.—*N. Y. BLOOD FOOD

CONSUMPTIVES.

An equal and normal circulation of the blood is health. An abnormal, that is to say, an excessive or deficient circulation or stagnation of the blood is disease. To illustrate—torpidity of the Liver is caused by stagnation of the blood in that organ; diseases of the Kidneys, Inflammation of the Lungs, Disease of the Heart, &c., by the same cause, viz., Improper Circulation; and from the same cause spring all the minor forms of disease. To discover a certain cure, then, for these diseases, the first great inquiry is, What causes the blood to circulate?

For centuries it has been a matter of much study among scientific and medical men; and while many experiments have been made and much labor expended upon the inquiry, it has been left to this century, among its other wonderful increase in knowledge, to make this grand discovery also

Acknowledging that life is the gift of the Creator and that "in Him we live and move and have our being," we still venture the remark that, as the plants derive all their life from and all vegetable life is governed by certain absolute laws, so animal life is traceable to a fixed cause, which removes or destroys, and death, the certain effect, follows.

Analysis of the red corpuscles of the blood shows them to be compounds of iron, sulphur and phosphorus.

The air we breathe we know to contain a very large proportion of oxygen.

Oxygen, brought in contact with metal, evolves or emits electricity.

Electricity, brought in contact with a muscular fibre, causes it to contract.

These facts being indisputable, we have now the solution as to the motor or motive power of the heart. Every time we inhale the air we bring oxygen in contact with the iron in the red corpuscles of blood, emits electricity, which, coming in contact with the heart, causes it to contract, and hence the power which expels the blood, and sends it tingling through the remotest arteries. What, then, are the causes of CONSUMPTION, DROPSY, PALSY, PARALYSIS, ST. VITUS' DANCE, DYSPEPSIA, EPILEPSY, FEVER & AGUE, &c?—a deficiency of the red corpuscles containing the iron, sulphur and phosphorous, which causes a deficiency of electricity, and consequently no motive power to circulate the blood, causes watery, colds and bronchial complaints and prostration ensue—the sufferer becomes nervous, and subject to rheumatic pains and neuralgia—complaints of the liver and kidneys set in; in short, almost every type of disease but virulent fevers may be traced to the deficiency in the blood, of the corpuscles or red globules.

Old age causes a deficiency of corpuscles, and while we do not pretend to say that we have discovered the "elixir vita," we do say that life can be materially prolonged by the use of the

which restores the blood globules and the normal circulation. Consumptives! friends of consumptives! Sufferers from any organic disease! Up, fortunates, who have by reason of the debility or mind, reduce, the standard of the blood and diminished the red globules! Ladies suffering any of the diseases peculiar to your sex! complaints, be persuaded the "Blood Food" can cure you. It has cured thousands of desperate cases where all hope had ceased to exist. Do not reject it, do not throw away your only hope. The "Blood Food" is an unfailing remedy; give it a trial.

An elaborate treatise, carefully compiled fully proving the theory advanced here to be correct, will be mailed to any interested party, on the receipt of two 3-cent postage stamps. "Blood Food" is sold by all druggists; or where it cannot be had, I will send 6 bottles, free of expense, for $6. Price, single, $1. It is put up in 1-2 pint bottles, in yellow wrappers—the old kind, in small bottles, in red wrappers, having been done away with; and bears the fac-simile signature of Church & Dupont upon the face of the wrapper. Beware of counterfeits and imitations.

BININGER'S OLD KENTUCKY BOURBON "1849 RESERVE"

The established popularity of this CHOICE OLD BOURBON as a medicinal agent, renders it superfluous to do more than call attention to the characteristics which distinguish it from the ordinary grade of Kentucky Whiskeys.

Being distilled in 1849, and manufactured expressly for us with great care, it can be relied upon as a strictly pure stimulant, and peculiarly effective for the treatment of Lung Complaints, Dyspepsia, Derangement of the Stomach, Nervousness, &c.

As a curative agent it has a tendency to recruit and strengthen; while age has long contributed its genial charm, and enriched it with a delicious flavor and smooth body, it affords a pleasant incentive to the preservation or recovery of health, through the agreeable medium of a well pleased palate.

Put up in a variety of attractive forms, in iron bound cases of one and two dozen bottles each, and sold by all prominent druggists, grocers and town agents. A. M. BININGER & CO.,

Dyspepsia Remedy

DR. DARIUS HAM'S
AROMATIC INVIGORATING SPIRIT.

This medicine has been used by the public for six years, with increasing favor. It is recommended to cure Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Heartburn, Colic Pains, Wind in the Stomach, or Pains in the Bowels, Headache, Drowsiness, Kidney Complaints, Low Spirits, Costiveness, Intemperance. It Stimulates, Exhilarates, Invigorates, but will not Intoxicate or Stupefy.

As a Medicine, it is quick and effectual, curing the most aggravated cases of Dyspepsia, Kidney Complaints, and all other derangements of the Stomach and Bowels, in a speedy manner.

It will instantly revive the most melancholy and weeping spirits, and restore the weak, nervous and sickly to health, strength and vigor.

Persons who, from the injudicious use of liquors, have become dejected, and their nervous systems shattered, conditions which are most dreadfully subject to that horrible curse to humanity, the Delirium Tremens, will, almost immediately, feel the happy and invigorating efficacy of Dr. Ham's Invigorating Spirit.

What it will do!

DOSE.—1 wine glass full as often as necessary.
One dose will remove all Bad Spirits.
One dose will cure Heartburn.
Three doses will cure Indigestion.
One dose will give you a good appetite.
One dose will stop the distressing pains of Dyspepsia.

One dose will remove the distressing and disagreeable effects of Wind or Flatulence, and as soon as the Stomach receives the Invigorating Spirit, the distressing load and all painful feelings will be removed.

One dose will remove the most distressing pains of Colic, either in the stomach or bowels.

A few doses will remove all obstructions in the Kidney, Bladder or Urinary Organs.

Persons who are troubled with any Kidney Complaints, are assured speedy relief by a dose or two, and a radical cure by the use of one or two bottles.

NIGHTLY DISSIPATION.

Persons who, from dissipating too much over night, and feel the evil effects of poisonous liquors, in violent headaches, sickness at stomach, weakness, giddiness &c., will find one dose will remove all bad feelings.

Ladies of weak and sickly constitutions, should take the Invigorating Spirit three times a day; it will make them strong, healthy, and happy, remove all obstructions and irregularities from the menstrual organs, and restore the bloom of health and beauty to the careworn face.

During pregnancy it will be found an invaluable medicine to remove disagreeable sensations at the stomach.

All the proprietor asks, is trial, and to induce this, he has put up the INVIGORATING SPIRIT in pint bottles, at 50 cents, qts $1.

MORE NICE THAN WISE.—A Paris letter says that a physician had "attended" the only child of rich parents, and had, with the aid of Providence, saved the infant's life. A day or two after her darling was pronounced out of danger, the grateful mother visited the man of science at his office. "Doctor," said she, "there are certain services which mere money cannot remunerate. Scarcely knowing how to discharge my debt to you, I have thought you might be willing to accept this pocket-book, which I have myself embroidered, as a trifling token of my gratitude." "Madam," retorted the disciple of Esculapius, somewhat rudely, "the practice of medicine is not a matter of sentiment. Time is money, and we expect our time to be paid for in money. Pretty presents may serve to perpetuate friendship, but they do not contribute to the cost of housekeeping." "Well, then, doctor," replied the lady, much wounded by his tone and manner, "be good enough to name the sum at which you value your professional services." "Certainly, madam. My charge in your case is 2,000 francs." Without further remark, the lady opened the rejected pocket book, which she still held in her hand, took two of the five 1000-franc notes stowed inside, placed them on the great man's table, and quietly bid him good morning.

☞ At Trentham, England, on the 28th of February, the Duke of Sutherland died, in his 75th year. He was born in 1786, and succeeded his father as Duke in 1833. His income was nearly two millions of dollars per year. Yet, strange as it may seem, he could neither eat, drink, nor sleep any more, than some other dukes who have no more than $2000 a year, and not much better than some of his laborers who did not get over $200. And now his head lies as low as theirs, though he will probably have a more costly grave-stone. His death causes a vacancy in the representation of Sutherland, and places another Garter at the disposal of the Crown.

AN EXPELLED SOUTHERNER ON SECESSION.—R. S. Tharen, Esq., of Wetumpka, Ala., once law partner of the Hon. W. L. Yancey, and recently expelled from the State of his residence by a mob, for the expression of opinions unfavorable to the present movements in the South, is now in Cincinnati. He proposes at an early day to deliver a lecture upon the condition of society at the South, in which he will relate his own adventures, and review the statements of his late partner, Mr. Yancey. Mr. Tharen is not an Abolitionist, but was opposed to secession, for which he was expelled, and was not even allowed to visit his wife and children, only a few miles distant. In the course of his begira Mr. Tharen was several times in peril of his life, from mobs who preferred a hanging as the proper method to deal with the Unionists, to the milder process of expulsion—Atlas.

A lady was entering an omnibus in London, last week, when her dress, greatly extended by crinoline, caught in the wheels of a passing cab, and she was dragged a considerable distance and severely mutilated, including a fractured leg.

Morning Chronicle.

Portsmouth, N. H.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 20, 1861.

WHAT IS THE MATTER?

Why do we have all this stir and turmoil this year, and why are Secession Conventions gathered, and armies raised in rebellion against the United States?

Uncle Toby's answer is briefly this: the slave power has lost the control of politics in the Union, and the distribution of offices there, which it has so long enjoyed, but can never recover.

Here is the trouble; now what is the remedy: The doctrine of secession is subversive of all government—secession is nothing but rebellion, and rebellion must be put down by the civil arm, and by returning loyalty in the rebels, if it can be brought about. If not in this way, then by force, if possible—if not possible, the independence of the revolting states must be acknowledged. That is the way all nations have been established—that is the only way any permanency can be given to governments.

If it were true, that all, or a large majority of the people in the states of the cotton confederacy, were truly hostile to the rest of the Union, the course of wisdom might be, at once, to declare them independent, and let them try on the garment of their own making. But we never supposed it to be so, and now we daily see evidence to the contrary.

We have just now before us, an editorial of the Boston Courier, designed to show that the London papers mistake us, when they take it for granted, the northern people are unanimously abolitionists, and all the southern people are secessionists and fire-eaters. The Courier says:—

The people in neither section are at all united with one another. In the North the Republican vote was 1,800,000, in round numbers, against 1,600,000 in the same quarter, that is, in the free States. In the South, the vote, against the Republicans, of course, was not much short of 1,000,000. In the free States, all the 1,600,000 are strictly Union men, and at least 1,000,000 of the Republicans. In the slave States, even in those seven which have actually seceded a large majority of the 1,000,000 are also Union men, anxious to settle the controversy on terms reasonably satisfactory—and intelligent statesmen abroad can readily judge whether it is not very improbable indeed that it should not be settled in due time.

The Courier need not take it for granted that 800,000 of the republicans are disunionists—for probably nine-tenths of them are for the Constitution as it is, and for the Union as it was.

The same Courier says, in another editorial on office-seekers and on Lincoln's administration:

It finds itself compelled to yield Fort Sumter, against which, at once, rose a universal howl from all this class of office-seekers. To buy its peace and satisfy them, there were the offices—and this expedient, it is to be feared, will be resorted to. We shall thus have many of the Federal offices filled by such a class of men as never were in them before. We hear of men likely to be appointed about the U. S. Court, for instance, with whom the Court can have no sympathy or association, and whose accession to such places would be an insult and an outrage. If this view of the case is correct, it will account for the alacrity with which our own free soil editors, most of them, we believe, applicants for office, declared the evacuation of Sumter such a master-stroke of policy. And since the appointment of this wing of the party to office involves the disappointment of Mr. Weed's plans for the distribution of patronage, it may account for the disfavor with which the Albany Journal now regards the abandonment of the fort. But Mr. Weed wants either one thing or another. Either the radicals should be shaken off and the interests of the country looked to—or the party should stand together and brave it out, and yield nothing, and meet the common destruction that then speedily awaits them, in the same boat.

Putting this last quotation into the plainest English which we are able to use, it means that while it may be wise to evacuate a fort which cannot be held conveniently—it is very provoking to see the republicans have sense enough to do it, instead of going on to collision, defeat and destruction. And still more provoking, if possible, to see "the Federal offices filled by such a class of men as were never seen in them before."

But we don't see exactly how it can be helped at present.

The New Hampshire Gazette characterizes the evacuation of Fort Sumter as "the first sensible resolution to which the republican party have come in the last four months," and adds that this prompt concession involves the destruction of the party.

The same Gazette speaks of the result of New Hampshire Election, as indicatory that the North is thoroughly abolitionized. It doubtless does show, as did the nomination of Douglas at Baltimore, that the white men of the North are not willing to be the mere slaves or tools of such men as Floyd and Mason, Wigfall and Thompson.

In this connexion it is remarkable, that not one republican paper of New Hampshire, that we have seen this week, finds any fault with the proposed evacuation of Fort Sumter,—but several of them, while regretting the necessity for it, express their opinion that it is for the best.

In another article in the same Gazette, on the same election, the editor comes to the conclusion, that "the days of abolitionism and of the Republican party are numbered."

As to the republican party, and any others, in this country, their days are all few. No party has grown old among us yet, tho' many have died, generally by their own hands. But abolitionism, in some form, must exist exactly as long slavery does, unless all men should be slaves but one, and he should be the universal master.

This day is probably a great way off; and in the meantime, we have no doubt it is best to be at peace, if we can, with the slaveholders, whether in Cuba or Carolina, in Guinea or Virginia.

But before New Hampshire men generally shall be made to approve of slavery, they must not only conquer their prejudices, but rub out their record.

We object, and the people of the North object, to any compromise by which slavery will be allowed to pollute one foot of territory that is now free.—N. H. Patriot, Dec. 28, 1848.

☞ Mr. Forney writes to the Philadelphia Press from Washington, as follows:

"No one can meet a Southern seceder—for there are a few of them left among us—and watch the expression of his countenance, and weigh the words that fall from his lips, without being convinced that he has no heart in the cause he advocates, and that he is looking forward with anguish and fear to the speedy collapse of the whole secession conspiracy. One of them yesterday fixed the limit of endurance of that most temporary experiment at four years, and another confessed that, unless some coup d'etat could be effected, there would be an outbreak on the part of the Union men in the cotton States that would extinguish the whole rebellion, leaders, subordinates, organs and all. Two officers of the navy, lately arrived from Florida, and one of them sometime located at one of our naval stations on that coast, give the most melancholy picture of the manner in which the disunionists suppress freedom of speech and the freedom of the press. They declare that nothing like it has ever been known in our country; that if all could be told it would be received as the ravings of a maniac; and yet, in the face of this terrorism, there exists in the hearts of the people of Florida a warm and vital affection for our whole country."

ESCAPE OF A SLAVE CAPTAIN.—Captain Latham, alias Ruiz, who has been in prison in New York since the 8th of January, has escaped. He was charged with taking slaves from the coast of Africa on board the slave ship Cora, of which he was master and part owner, and which was captured by a government vessel with slaves on board. It appears that he was taken from prison by an officer, to a clothing store on Broadway to make some purchases, as alleged, on Friday evening, and while thus engaged he succeeded in making his escape. What a farce! Of course the escape was a contrived plan between the prisoner and the officer, whose palm was no doubt well filled with gold in reward of his treachery.

DEATH OF MRS. PATTEN.—Mrs. Mary Ann Patten, widow of the late Capt. Joshua Patten, died in Boston Sunday, of consumption. Mrs. Patten, it will be remembered by many, was the heroic wife, who, some three or four years ago, nursed her sick husband when prostrated by illness and incurable blindness, and took charge of his ship—the Neptune's Car—and in spite of the officers' desire to put into Valparaso, navigated the vessel to San Francisco, and thus saved much detention, as well as expense to the underwriters. Mrs. Patten had nearly completed her twenty-fourth year. The ladies who, with a liberality honorable to them contributed a purse of fourteen hundred dollars as a testimonial of this little heroine, will be sorry to hear of her death.—Courier.

THE SOUTHERN TARIFF NO TARIFF AT ALL.—A dispatch from Montgomery, Ala, March 18, says:—

The tariff bill is not a law yet. It will come up for action at the next Congress.

If this be so, then either the old tariff of the U. S. continues there, or the new one, which comes in play April 1st. We suppose the old tariff applies there.

☞ In the New York Court of Sessions, last Wednesday, a witness in a certain case testified that the wine which had been sold by him while in the employ of the defendant, was made of what was called "turnip juice." This was "made to sparkle by gas made from vitriol and marble dust, and then labelled champagne."

ELECTION OF U. S. SENATOR IN MISSOURI.—St. Louis, March 18.—Waldo H. Johnson was elected U. S. Senator to-day by the Legislature. The vote was as follows: Johnson, 88; Doniphan, 36: English, 29. Mr. Green's name was withdrawn.

RICHMOND, Va., March 18.—The subject of the equality of taxation caused an excited debate in the convention to-day between the eastern and western members. No action was taken.

☞ Harper's Magazine for April is received from A. Williams & Co., Boston, per J. H. Foster, agent in Portsmouth. Of course it is good. The leading article is "Three Months in Labrador."

We were met last evening by a drunken sailor who managed to monopolize the sidewalk. Vexed at the difficulty of passing, we hastily inquired where the d—l he was going. "It is quite uncertain," was the reply.

SPECIAL SESSION U. S. SENATE.

WASHINGTON, March 18.—The credentials of Hon. David Wilmot, Senator elect from Pennsylvania were presented, and he was sworn and took his seat.

Mr. Douglas' resolution was taken up and Mr. Breckinridge spoke.

Mr. Breckinridge said in the present anxious and distracted condition of the country, the Senate should not adjourn without expressing an opinion on the existing state of affairs, and giving some advice tending to allay public apprehension. Opinion seemed to be divided as to the meaning of the inaugural. He was free to confess, and felt gratified to do so, that its general expressions are for harmony and the prevention of bloodshed. But the policy which the President says he deems it his duty to pursue must result in bloodshed unless essentially modified. If a peace policy is not to prevail then let us get ready for the conflict.

He argued that if blood be shed, the last hope of preserving what is left of the Union will be gone. His opinion was that the federal government would not be preserved on the principles which brought the dominant party into power.

Mr. Hale, in reply, said he had no advice to give until it was called for. He had not been in council with the administration. The President had selected those competent to advise him, and relying upon their advice, does not feel the necessity of relying upon that of any one outside. He had contented himself with the sentiment of the Senator from the late State of Texas on a former occasion.

Mr. Wigfall, interrupting, said, Texas was a State before being admitted into the Union, is a State now, and would always be a State unless this government has the power to reduce her to a provincial condition.

M. Hale replied that he would not have a philological controversy, but would say, he agreed with the late Senator from Texas (laughter) who had remarked that he would never give advice except when asked.

Mr. Breckinridge asked whether impartial justice should be done in the matter of the Territories, and said the other eight slave States would not remain in the Union except upon terms of perfect equality.

Mr. Hale said—When the States of Virginia and Kentucky came into the Union what was the law? Slavery was prohibited, not only by statute but by compact which was irrepealable in every inch of territory over which the federal jusidiction was exercised, and in 1789 the federal flag did not wave over an inch of broad earth outside of the limits of any State where slavery was not prohibited by compact which was declared irrepealable.—He then showed the wide expansion of slavery over the Territories, and wished to know what more the South wanted. He was unable to understand the charge of northern aggression and attributed all the clamor to the fact that the outs are now in and the ins out.

The Senate here went into executive session, after which adjourned.

NEW ORLEANS, March 18.—Forts Brown and Ringgold and the barracks at Brazos and Santiago have virtually been surrendered to the Texas authorities.—The entire evacuation will occur on the 20th, when possession will be taken by the Texas troops, who have enlisted for six months.

The premises of Smith, Cooper & Co., Tchoupetoulas street, were burned yesterday. Loss $100,000; mostly insured.—Thirty or forty frame dwellings in the Fourth District, were also burned yesterday.

Col. Ben McCulloch passed through Mobile Saturday en route to Richmond to purchase arms for Texas. He also goes to Montgomery to induce President Davis to order a regiment of mounted riflemen for the protection of the frontier.

☞ A letter-writer from Charleston mentions the murder of a Northern printer, who had been a journeyman at Atlanta, because in a little town between Macon and Augusta, he was seen speaking to a negro man, probably to enquire his way, or perhaps more probably only requesting to be directed to some house. He was seized, a rope placed around his neck, and he was several times drawn from the ground, and dangled between earth and heaven; after tormenting him for half an hour, and threatening him with further punishment unless he confessed that he was an abolitionist, the villains gave him another jerk, and he came down; this time, however, he was beyond the reach of their malice—his neck was broken.

His poor murdered body lay before them, a glaring but powerful witness; his spirit had flown to the region of eternal peace, where he was beyond the wrath of man.—His remains were immediately buried without shroud or coffin.

☞ The Columbia (S. C.) correspondent of the Savannah Republican says the times are exceedingly hard at the capital of the Palmetto State. Work on the new State House has been suspended, because the State bonds cannot be sold. The foundries, machine shops, and printing offices are working a smaller number of hands than usual, and the railroads are cutting down expenses. The Greenville road has reduced the salaries of all its employees, and the Charlotte road has discontinued the night express train, and put its five passenger conductors on reduced pay, running one trip a week each, besides reducing all the salaries, from the president down.

"Eliza, my child," said a prudish old maid to her pretty niece, who would curl her hair in pretty ringlets, "if the Lord had intended your hair to be curled, he would have done it himself." "So he did, Aunty, when I was a baby, but he thinks I am big enough now to curl it myself."

The Statesman's figures elect Rollins by a majority of 996—about the same that Tappan received two years ago. We have only this to say: If this don't show that the country is ripe for damnation, what does it show?—Union Dem.

It shows that the sudden change of programme did not amount to much; that the people of the second district, having made up their minds to be freemen, were not to be hastily seduced into an approval of secession for slavery's sake; and above all, that they are disposed to give the new administration a fair trial, with the support of friendly representatives.

The item above quoted shows the spirit and style of the Union Democrat.

NATIONAL AFFAIRS.—New York, March 19.—Gov. Roman, a Southern Commissioner, has arrived.

It is rumored that Major Anderson and command will be ordered to Newport, Ky.

The War Department has received a dispatch from Major Anderson, and endorsed by all the other officers at Fort Sumter, that that fort cannot be reinforced without 20,000 men.

Many persons advocate the keeping of the Federal troops in Texas, to co-operate with and protect the Unionists.

The Louisiana Convention has refused an ordinance submiting the Constitution of the Confederated States to the people.—The people will be of little consideration; they mean to have a strong government and concentrated in the hands of a few.—Newburyport Herald.

WISTAR'S BALSAM WILD CHERRY.

In the whole history of medical discoveries, NO REMEDY has performed so many or such remarkable cures of the Throat, Lungs and Chest,—of Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Croup, Asthma, or of Consumption itself, as this far-famed, long-tried and justly celebrated Balsam. So generally acknowledged is the superior excellence of this remedy, that but few of the many who have tested its virtues by experience fail to keep it at hand, as a speedy and certain cure for sudden attacks of Cold—fully believing that its remedial powers are comprehensive enough to embrace every form of disease, from the slightest cold to the most dangerous symptom of pulmonary complaint.

George W. Millet, Esq.

Editor of the Norway Advertiser, gives his opinion of this great remedy substantially as follows:

NORWAY VILLAGE, Me., Aug 4, 1860.

Messrs. S. W. Fowle & Co.—Gentlemen:—For a remedy of such undoubted merit as DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, I cheerfully give you my testimony, and trust that others may be fildiuced thereby to give it a trial and be relieved. Several years since I first became acquainted with this Balsam at a time of distressing cough and cold, which took such firm hold of my lungs as to render me unfit for business, and the operation produced a speedy and permanent cure, after trying various other remedies in vain

In our town this remedy is a great favorite with many, and it all who suffer will but give it a fair trial, I think they will find it to be of more service in pulmonary affections than any other remedy of this class before the public.

Yours respectfully, GEO. W MILLET.

SIGNS OF THE TIMES.—We have spoken several times lately, in commendation of the great advertisers in the large cities, and all over the country. The same remarks apply, to a certain degree, to all good business men, everywhere. In Portsmouth, for instance, as everywhere else, the oldest, staunchest, shrewdest, most successful traders,—those most worthy of patronage,—are those who avail themselves of the advantages of the press, especially the Daily paper. Look through the columns of the Chronicle for a year, and see if you must n't agree with us.

CONCERT.—For to-night, an entertainment is advertised at the Temple, consisting of music, dancing, and the usual accompaniments of an Ethiopan entertainment. The Company is large, and is reported to be a good one. At any rate, it would seem that music of any sort would be eagerly sought for, in the present lamentable dearth.
